37 Walker St., Baltimore, Dec. 28th.
For six years I have been a great sufferer from Blood Disease, Dyspepsia and Constipation and became so debilitated that I could not retain anything on my stomach, in fact, life had almost become a burden. Finally, when hope had almost left me, my husband seeing BROWN'S IRON BITTERS advertised in the paper, induced me to give it a trial. I am now taking the third bottle and have not felt so well in six years as I do at the present time.
Mrs. L. F. GRIFFIN.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS will have a better tonic effect upon any one who needs "bracing up," than any medicine made.

How His Libel Suit Resulted.

The trial of Hugh S. Peoples for the murder of Martha Whitlar, whose body, tied up in bagging and with a gag in her mouth, was found in the river at Detroit, Mich., three years ago last January, began in Detroit on the 8th inst. His accomplice, Dr. Holywood, will be tried next. Last winter Peoples sued the Evening News for $50,000, for connecting his name with Miss Whitlar's murder, but was beaten in the suit, and arrested on the same day as being her murderer, the evidence brought forward by the News to justify its statements being terribly damaging.

New Hampshire Items.

The young man George W. Hoitt, of Dover, who was so fearfully injured in a drunken row on a Saturday night some weeks ago, was on the 7th reported as being in a very critical condition, taking but little nourishment, and wandering in his mind most of the time. His knees are in a shocking state, probably from his having been dragged over the ground a long distance by his assailants, after they had beaten him into insensibility. The drunken debauch during which he was injured it is thought did not occur in the band-room, at the foot of the stairs leading to which he was found, but in a wardroom some distance away, where such gatherings are alleged to have frequently been held, a number of the hoodlums about town having keys to the room.

Harry Radford, aged ten years, was drowned on June 8th by falling from a raft into a pond near his father's house at Concord.

T. B. Garland, for many years accountant for the Cocheco Print Works of Dover, has resigned, and James H. Dexter of Boston has taken his place.

Delicate Females.

The exactions of society, added to the cares of maternity and the household, have tested beyond endurance the frail constitutions which have been granted the majority of women. To combat this tendency to premature decline, no remedy in the world possesses the nourishing and strengthening properties of Malt Bitters. They enrich the blood, perfect digestion, stimulate the liver and kidneys, arrest ulcerative weaknesses, and purify and vitilize every function of the female system.

Howard Mattox, an engineer in Blood's bobbin manufactory at Great Falls, while cleaning the machinery fell into the wheel pit and sustained injuries likely to prove fatal.

Parents who allow their children to grow up with scrotulous humors bursting from every pore are guilty of a great wrong. Think of them pointed out as branded with a loathsome disease, and you will readily procure them the Cuticura remedies.

Mr. John Mathes, of Lee, died at the age of seventy-two years, at his residence in that town on the 8th inst., after a brief illness. At one time he was largely engaged in the lumber trade, and operated extensive saw mills.

A pure, wholesome distillation of witch hazel, American pine, Canada fir, marigold, clover blossoms, etc., fragrant with the healing essences of balsam and pine. Such is Sanford's Radical Cure for catarrh. Complete treatment for $1.

The trial of the supposed assailants of the Hoitt boy at Dover was again postponed on the 9th inst. His physicians reported that Hoitt could not possibly survive many hours longer.

Charlotte Russe No. 1.

One pint of milk, in which one dessert spoonful of Sea Moss Farine and one cup of sugar have been boiled and strained. Whip and flavor one pint of cream, and add to the milk. Line a dish with sponge cake or lady fingers, and pour the cream into it. Many prefer this to that made with eggs. Flavor to taste.

J. P. Lowell, one of the largest dealers in groceries and crockery ware in Dover, has failed. His store and stock are now in the hands of a keeper. Liabilities and assets not reported. The house has been ranked among the soundest in the city.

Rose Cold and Hay Fever.

MESSRS. WHITE & BURDICK, Druggists, Ithaca, N. Y.—I can recommend Ely's Cream Balm to relieve all persons suffering from rose cold and hay fever. I have been a great sufferer from these complaints; by using the Balm have had great relief. I have recommended it to many of my friends for catarrh, and in all cases where they have used the Balm freely have been cured. T. KENNEY, Dry Goods Merchant, Ithaca, N. Y.

Messrs. Wm. Rust & Sons, Druggists, New Brunswick, N. J.—Since boyhood I have been troubled with catarrh and hay fever, and have been unable to obtain permanent relief until I used Ely's Cream which has cured me. After a few days' use I could sleep all night. E. L. CLICKENER, New Brunswick, N. J. Price fifty cents.

Apply into nostrils with little finger.

Brown & Bunker of Epping will make 3,000,0000 bricks this season.

If you wish to purify the blood, make free use of "Wheat Bitters." It is an economical physician.

While Joseph H. Cragin was at work in a sawmill at Temple, June 2d, he was struck on the head by a stick thrown by a circular saw, and had his skull fractured; he died next day.

Puny, weak, and sickly children, need Brown's Iron Bitters. It will strengthen and invigorate them.

The board of education of Farmington has abolished corporal punishment in the schools of that town.

Skinny Men.

Catarrh of the Bladder.

John H. Bradt, a business man of Hudson, was fatally shot on the 7th inst. through pulling a rifle from a wagon by the muzzle. He leaves a wife and two children.

"An Odd Street Scene."

He was seen in front of the office rubbing himself against the telegraph post like a flea-bitten dog. "What is wrong?" we ventured to ask. "Gotem, 'gent," he said laconically; have 'em every spring, small lumps form about the rectum; sore to the touch; they itch like blazes; "a telegraph pole's like an oasis in the desert to me." Here then, was poor humanity suffering from a complaint which a few applications of Swayne's Ointment for itching piles, would have thoroughly eradicated.

Cuticura

THE NEW BLOOD PURIFIER

Resolvent

Mr. Albert Kingsbury, Keene, N. H., troubled with bad humor on hands and neck, caused by lead poisoning. (He's a painter.) At times it would break out, crack open, and the skin separate from the flesh in large pieces, suffering great continual itching and stinging. Purchased your remedies, used Cuticura Resolvent internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally, and in less than three months effected a complete cure, and has not been troubled since. Corroborated by Bullard & Foster, Druggists, Keene, N. H.

Mother Died from it.

J. W. Adams, Newark, Ohio, says: "Cuticura Remedies are the greatest medicine on earth. Had the worst case salt rheum in this county. My mother had it twenty years, and in fact died from it. I believe Cuticura would have saved her life. My arms, breast and head were covered for three years, which nothing relived or cured until I used the Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally.

Psoriasis.

H. E. Carpenter, Esq., Henderson, N. Y., cured of Psoriasis or Leprosy, of twenty years' standing, by the Cuticura Resolvent internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally. The most wonderful case on record. Cure certified to before a justice of the peace and prominent citizens. All afflicted with itching and scaly diseases should send to us for this testimonial in full.

Salt Rheum.

Three who have experienced the torments of Salt Rheum can appreciate the agony I endured for years, until cured by the Cuticura Resolvent internally and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally.
MRS. WM. PELLINGTON, Sharon, Wis.

Cuticura

and Cuticura Soap externally and Cuticura Resolvent internally will positively cure every species of humor, from a common pimple to Scrofula. Price of Cuticura, small boxes, 50c.; large boxes, $1. Cuticura Resolvent, $1 per bottle. Cuticura Soap 25c. Cuticura Shaving Soap, 15c. Sold by all druggists.
Depot, WEEKS & POTTER, Boston, Mass.

CATARRH

Sanford's Radical Cure.

A single dose instantly relieves the most violent sneezing or head colds, clears the head as by magic, stops watery discharges from the nose and eyes, prevents ringing noises in the head, cures nervous headache and subdues chills and fever. In chronic catarrh it cleanses the nasal passages of foul mucus, restores the senses of smell, taste and hearing when affected, frees the head, throat and bronchial tubes of offensive matter, sweetens and purifies the breath, stops the cough and arrests the progress of catarrh towards consumption.

One bottle Radical Cure, one box Catarrhal Solvent and one Dr. Sanford's Inhaler, in one package, of all druggists, for $1. Ask for Sanford's Radical Cure. WEEKS & POTTER, Boston.

COLLINS' PLASTERS

STARTLING DISCOVERY!

LOST MANHOOD RESTORED.

A victim of youthful imprudence, causing Premature Decay, Nervous Debility, Lost Manhood, etc., having tried in vain every known remedy, has discovered a simple self-cure, which he will send FREE to his fellow-sufferers, address J. H. REEVES, 43 Chatham St., N. Y.

A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be in introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

A Slanderer Exposed.

One A. C. Buell, editor of a paper called the Critic, published at Washington, D. C., has been very bitter in his opposition to the bill before Congress to extend the time spirits may remain in bond, and very positive in his charges against the advocates of the measure in and out of Congress. His statements were of such a character that a congressional committee was appointed to investigate them, and Buell was before this committee on the 8th inst. As he had charged three congressmen and four prominent newspaper correspondents by name, with being in the whiskey ring, it is supposed he would at least have a few items of evidence to sustain his charge, but he swore that he had none whatever. His mention of certain large fees, both cash and contingent, which he intimated had been paid correspondents, he had only intended as a joke. He had heard some talk of the character of his charges, but he would not like even to attempt to locate it or the persons whom he had heard talk. Considering the directness and gravity of the charges made by the Critic, the admissions of an absolute lack of evidence on which to found them, which admissions were made in several forms and at considerable length, were more humiliating to the witness than any exhibition which the oldest correspondents at Washington were able to recall. On his own showing, this precious conservator of public morals is a reckless liar and slanderer, and utterly beneath the contempt of any reputable person.

Naval Affairs.

Boatswain Francis A. Dran is detached from the Boston navy yard, and ordered to the Hartford.

Senator Rollins, from the committee on naval affairs, on the 7th inst. reported to the senate a substitute for the bill introduced by Mr. McPherson in March last to regulate the promotion of graduates from the naval academy and appointments in the navy, and for other purposes. The principal feature of the bill is a provision directing the secretary of the navy to appoint a commission composed of naval officers, who are to report without delay to Congress what navy yards or stations on the Atlantic and Gulf coasts it would for the interest of the government to abolish. Also, which navy yards should be retained and permanently improved, together with a plan for, and the estimated cost of, such permanent improvements as will meet the present and future needs of the government in the construction and repair of naval vessels.

In the committee of the whole house recently there was a pretty lively discussion over two items: for the bureau of construction and repair and the bureau of steam engineering in the navy department. The items amount to $362,000, and they were vigorously attacked by Messrs. Abram S. Hewitt, Blount and some other democrats, and as vigorously defended by Ex-Secretary Robeson and others. They were finally allowed to stand in the bill, with the agreement that there shall be a yea and nay vote upon striking them out in the house.

News and Notes.

The reservoir at Portland, Me., burst on the 9th inst., 6,000,000 gallons of water escaping in thirty minutes. No lives were lost, and no damage was done except to streets and the reservoir, amounting to about $5000. The water service was not seriously interrupted, direct pressure being at once applied.

The grand jury in the case of Prof. Samuel Jackson, proprietor, and Charles Van Horn, assistant, of the pyrotechnic works at Chester, Pa., which exploded with such disastrous results some months ago, have ignored the bill of involuntary manslaughter, and put the costs on the county.

Five children of John Lockwood, of Cos Cob, Conn., were walking on the track of the Harlem railroad on the 7th inst., and hearing a train coming stepped to the other track, when they were struck by the New Haven express and four of them instantly killed. The engineer of the train was Frederick Lockwood, uncle to the children; no blame attaches to him. [A later report is that this account was a silly lie; no one was run over.]

Walter M. Bourke, a landlord of Galway, Ireland, and a soldier who was escorting him, were shot dead on the 8th inst. at Ardrahan, while riding along the road, by a party of men concealed behind a wall.

Lieut. Frank L. Harris, the only survivor of Dr. Hayes' arctic expedition, is in the employ of the city of Boston as janitor of the Lowell school.

Louise Chandler Moulton tells us in Our Continent that people in "good society" are at liberty to eat fish with a knife, as well as a fork, and that a special silver fish knife is now provided at all recherche dinners.

In a quarrel at San Bernardino, Cal., June 8th, J. Taylor shot his partner, J. A. Peterson, dead; then shot himself, and will die. They had a dispute about the conduct of the Moscow mine, which they owned.

The four train robbers who attempted to plunder a train which they flagged and stopped near Denton, Texas, a few days ago, will not again attempt anything of the kind. One of them was shot dead from the cars, as was stated in the first report of the affair; and the other three were shot down one after the other by a sheriff's posse, and buried like dogs where they fell, the last one being killed near Dallas on the 8th inst.

The democrats in Congress on the 8th inst. gave up on a contest of several years standing, and allowed the deficiency bill for the pay of deputy marshals in the south at general elections to go through.

The house committee on patents has directed a favorable report to be made to the house on Representative Vance's bill, which provides that whenever it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the attorney general that there is probable cause for impeaching the validity of any patent issued, reissued or extended by the United States, either by act of Congress or by the commissioner of patents, on the ground that the same has been procured by fraud or misrepresentation, it shall be his duty to take legal proceedings in equity in the supreme court of the District of Columbia to have such patent vacated and annulled.

AROUND HOME.

The anti-cruelty society offer a reward of twenty dollars for evidence that will convict a person or persons who cruelly beat a horse on Pleasant street, on the afternoon of Wednesday, May 31st.

Ladies—read M. C. Foye's advertisement, and then if you are in want of laces, or think you want them, or merely desire to look at a lot of choice goods without buying, go to his store and inspect his stock.

The potato bugs have arrived in numbers sufficient for all practical purposes. We saw dozens of them on the sidewalks, Thursday and Friday; and Friday one of extra size and fatness managed to tumble through the open skylight over our chair, and land on our desk. We hoped he had broken his confounded neck, but the fall did not seem to disturb him a bit; so we put him in the cuspidore, and will keep him there till he's dead, if it takes all summer. How the miserable beast managed to get on the roof of the building we cannot say.

Workmen were engaged upon the foghorn mechanism at Whalesback, Wednesday afternoon of this week—at least we judged so, from the unearthly hoots given forth by the horn in the cloudless sunshine and fogless atmosphere of that day.

Mr. Wm. P. Israel, of little harbor, is raising over 3000 chickens and about one hundred ducklings, hatched out this spring. He sends large numbers of eggs to the Boston market.

There was not a liquor case tried at the late term of the supreme judicial court for York county, held at Alfred.

E. S. Philbrook recently sold for $1100 to Mr. Marshall, of the Marshall house at York harbor, a house and lot, which Marshall immediately resold to Albert Longell for $1200.

It is announced that a general store will shortly be opened by Mr. Edward Lewis of Kittery, near Butterfield's blacksmith shop on the post road in that town.

PORTSMOUTH BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

The 29th annual session of the Portsmouth Baptist Sunday School Convention was held at the Baptist church in Stratham on Wednesday, June 7th. B. R. Jewell, Esq., of South Hampton, was re-elected president, and Rev. G. W. Clough, of Newton Depot, clerk and treasurer. Letters from fourteen of the fifteen schools composing the convention indicated that the schools had been maintained with interest through the year, and fifty-eight of the scholars had been added to the churches by baptism.

The afternoon session opened with singing, and prayer was offered by Rev. W. H. Alden, D. D., of Portsmouth. Rev. S. P. Everett of South Hampton read an essay on the topic "What means can be used to induce the adults to come to the Sunday school?" Mr. C. S. Page of Newton spoke upon "The Sunday school, the hope of the church." Rev. R. R. Colwell of Dover read an essay upon "The teacher's harvest." Rev. J. N. Chase of Exeter presented an essay on "That boy." Rev. D. H. Stoddard of Great Falls spoke upon "The elements of success in Sunday school teaching." Rev. Geo. Ober of Brentwood spoke upon the question "If the pastor does not teach, what is his duty during the session?" Mr. B. R. Jewell of South Hampton spoke on "Temperance and the Sunday school," and made closing remarks as president of the convention.

The next session will be held on the first Wednesday in June, 1883, with the Baptist church and Sunday school at Newton Junction.

LIFE INSURANCE!

The Semi-Endowment Policy of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is believed to be the most desirable plan of insurance ever offered.

Among its advantages are: A definitely guaranteed cash value at a specified time. A paid-up policy for full value in case of discontinuance. Its period (20 years) covers the productive years of life, when insurance is mostly needed. It provides for old age. Above the age of 40 the rates are less than for life policies in other companies, while below 40 they are but little in excess of ordinary life premiums.

Parties insured in Co-operative Societies are requested to compare the net cost of these policies with that of assessment insurance.

AN "INEFFICIENT FIRE DEPARTMENT."

According to the Portsmouth Times of Monday the fire department of that city is about as inefficient as any in the land. There was a fire down there last Sunday. It was confined to the cellar, it being started by children using matches. Twenty minutes elapsed between the alarm and first stream, and notwithstanding the fire was small and no danger of its spreading from the cellar, the flood of water from three steamers deluged the building when a barrel of water would have done all the business.

We do not feel inclined to quarrel with our Dover contemporary for its reflection upon the efficiency of the Portsmouth fire department, for though grossly unjust, it is fully justified (so far as the Democrat is concerned) by the article in the Times in relation to the Hanover street fire on the 4th inst., any person on reading which would gather the same impressions the Dover editor did.

But it is not true that the fire was confined to the cellar, for it had worked its way in between the inner and outer walls of the building (the worst possible place it could get) near the front door, and the cutting of holes in the side of the house, which the Times so strongly reprobated, was simply a necessary measure.

The men of the Moses H. Goodrich engine company are indignant at the statement that they were twenty minutes in getting water on the fire after the bell struck, asserting that it was not over half that time: and as to the building being needlessly deluged, the first duty of a fire department is to put out a fire as quickly as possible, and when No. 4 gets two streams at work there is apt to be some water thrown. The firemen say that if the editor of the Times is opposed to the chief engineer of the fire department it is no concern of theirs, but they have a right to complain when the editorial comments are so worded as to give people in other cities the impression that the Portsmouth firemen are a set of slow-moving, stupid "muffs."

POLICE COURT.

FRIDAY, June 9th; Batchelder J.

Mary Fitzgerald, of Gloucester, Mass., (late of Brentwood,) for drunkenness, was fined $10, the costs amounting to $8.04; not having $18.04 on hand—she was returned to her late residence at Brentwood.

Moses Canney, a gentleman hailing from Nottingham, but like Miss (or Mrs.) Fitzgerald recently from Brentwood, was sent to jail for not having $9.90, the price of the grand drunk he had on the 8th. If Mr. Canney yells and howls as loudly in the jail as he did on the streets and in the police station, Sheriff Kent will soon be indicted for maintaining a public nuisance on his premises.

Two other drunkards who had been gathered in were allowed to go on promising better fashions.

MILITARY AFFAIRS.

The Portsmouth City Guards (Co. C) and the Jewell Rifles (Co. D) of Suncook, 1st Reg't New Hampshire National Guard, are to be disbanded, and two new companies organized, one at Exeter, and the other it is hinted in this city. Why the Portsmouth company should be disbanded, and another company formed in the same city, is not stated.

Mr. Editor: An official order has been issued from the headquarters of the New Hampshire National Guard, disbanding the Portsmouth City Guards, thus leaving the city without a company of foot soldiers of any kind. But it is the wish of prominent military men of the state and city that a company of infantry be formed and maintained here, and many of them are desirous that Capt. George E. Hodgdon take hold and organize such a company. Capt. Hodgdon is now adjutant of Storer Post, G. A. R., and no doubt in the formation of a new company could secure many of the old war veterans as members; and there can be no question but what a creditable company can be formed in this city.

Col. Hall, of Manchester, commanding the 1st regiment, it is said is to be in this city this morning to consult with our citizens in regard to organizing the new company. H.

CARD OF THANKS.

The proprietor and employes of J. F. Carter's Oil Clothing Manufactory, of Beverly, Mass., take this means of presenting their thanks to those to whom they are indebted for much kindness on the occasion of their visit to Portsmouth on Saturday, June 3d inst. Particularly to Commodore Clark H. Wells, commandant, and to Messrs. Isaac T. Choate, boatswain, and Thomas R. Wilson, gunner, for favors and polite attentions while at the navy yard; to Rev. Charles A. Holbrook, rector of St. John's church, for contributing much to the pleasure of members of the party; and to Mr. Alfred Stavers for especial efforts, at the dancing and roller skates halls, to add to the enjoyment of the company.

STREET LIGHTS.

Mr. Editor: A year or two ago I was one of a number of tax-payers who petitioned the city government for a street light, to be placed near the willows (then standing) on Miller avenue; such a light would have accommodated many people, and would have done much to prevent the annoyance occasioned the immediate neighborhood by the congregating under the willows of gangs of hoodlums, from which safe concealment they made forays against the gardens and fruit trees near by—a nuisance which finally became unbearable, and resulted in the cutting down of the willows; but the petitioners for this needed light in a settled district were courteously "granted leave to withdraw." Now it seems that the city government has been taken with an epidemic of street lights; and among the forty or thereabouts ordered to be set up, ten are ordered for Sagamore road, to light stone walls and possibly summer visitors, for there are not a dozen houses on the whole line of the road from South street to the Rye boundary. How is it that some petitioners can get as many lights as they want, in districts clearly outside "the compact part of the city," merely by asking for them, while more central and thickly settled districts must plod along in the dark except when the moon shines? MORE LIGHT.

CHAPTER 90.

CITY OF PORTSMOUTH.

In the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.

There shall be raised and is hereby ordered to be raised on the polls and estate of the inhabitants of this city and non-residents, to pay the current expenses of the city for the year ending December 31st, 1882, and to pay such debts of the city as are required to be paid the current year, the sum of ninety-five thousand dollars, which with the sums to be received from the railroad and savings bank taxes and other income of the city shall be appropriated as follows:

State tax	$16,400.00
County tax	20,075.74
City debt	5,000.00
Interest	8,000.00
Salaries of city officers	5,000.00
Streets	6,700.00

Rev. J. C. Welcome will preach in the Advent church on Sunday.

At the Pearl street church, Sunday evening, Rev. J. Herbert Yeoman will give an illustrated lecture—the last of the series—on "The Forgiving Brother."

The officers elected for the year 1882-83 by the New England Christian Convention at the late session in Kittery were as follows: President, Rev. C. A. Beck, pastor of the Christian church at Kittery; secretary, Rev. I. S. Jones, of Rye; treasurer, Rev. I. H. Cole. Rev. John A. Goss of this city was president for the late term.

The North Parish Sunday school has in rehearsal a fine programme for next Wednesday evening. Strawberries and ice cream will be served.

The schooner Cocheco, Capt. R. H. Seaward of Kittery commanding, arrived at New York on the 8th inst., six days from Jacksonville, Florida. On June 4th, at eight o'clock in the morning, when the schooner was thirty-five miles north-northeast of Cape Hatteras, the wind blowing freshly from the northwest and all light sails being furled at the time, with an ugly sea, William L. Tobey fell overboard, and was rescued with difficulty, the crew going in the boat while Capt. Seaward managed the schooner.

During the shower of last Thursday night the lightning struck a clothes-line post a few feet in the rear of Sea-side Lodge on Pocahontas point, Gerrish's island, Kittery, shivering it to splinters. Spectators who watched the play of the electric current on the rocks report it to have been awfully grand.

A Cough, Cold or Sore Throat

Should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an incurable Lung Disease or Consumption. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" do not disorder the stomach like cough syrups and balsams, but act directly on the inflamed parts, allaying irritation, give relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Cough, Catarrh, and the Throat Troubles which Singers and Public Speakers are subject to. For thirty years "Brown's Bronchial Troches" have been recommended by physicians, and have always given perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. A PLEASANT LETTER.

It Rings of a Grateful Heart and gives Honor where Honor is Due.

Mr. William W. Chadwick, of Hatchville, Conn., writes under date of June 14, 1880, to Dr. Kennedy, to say that the use of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" has cured him of Gall stone, from which he had experienced everything but comfort for a long time. Mr. Chadwick felt wholly cured when he wrote, and says: "I have had no pain for six months, and have also regained my flesh and can stand a fair day's work. I recommend Kennedy's Favorite Remedy to any one suffering from a deranged liver." Grateful patients are common. Dr. Kennedy is daily in receipt of letters from them, expressing similar sentiments. These letters are spontaneous and put in all varities of phraseology, but invariably setting forth one thing—the value of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for many forms of disease. It may be but the thing you have been looking for. Is your liver disordered? Have you derangement of the kidneys or bladder, associated with constipation of the bowels? If so, you want "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy." Dr. Kennedy practices medicine and surgery in all their branches. Write and state your case frankly. Letters promptly answered. Address Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.

WHEAT BITTERS
THE BEST AND The Richest
BLOOD, BRAIN and NERVE
-F-O-O-D-
CAREFULLY PREPARED, THOROUGHLY TESTED, ACCEPTABLE AND RELIABLE.
The Phosphates of the Wheat are its most valuable food property, and are, when properly prepared, the most acceptable nutriment with which to build up the system.
The Blood, Brain and Nerves are the forces which bear the strain of every day work and life, and it is a matter of wonder that it is wise to BUILD FOR HEALTH.
Wheat Bitters are prepared, not by fermentation, but by solution and are richest in the Phosphates, while the starch and impure matter are eliminated. These cake in themselves a basis, to which is added the best and choicest medicinal qualities, necessary to make it a tonic and bitter. It is at once healthful, pleasant to the taste and must not be confounded with the thousand and one cheap alcoholic bitters which are sold as curatives. Medicine is doubly effective when used with food, so as to nourish instead of it corrects.
Sold by druggists, $1.00 per bottle.

The Beef Market.

The extraordinary prices which are asked just now in eastern markets for meats, says the Springfield Republican, are not caused by any failure in the supply from western sources, but seem to have been produced by an organized checking of shipments in the interest of middlemen. That the high figures have been so long sustained proves that eastern farmers are neglecting one of the most profitable branches of agriculture, the rearing of beef cattle and sheep. The highest point has now undoubtedly been reached, and prices have already broken at the west on the arrival of the first shipment of beeves from the plains, and the constant increase in the receipts of grass-fed cattle from this time on will quickly bring prices in all markets down to their normal level. Households of limited means have been suffering not a little for the past four months, but can now look forward to a speedy relief from the terrors of the butcher's bill.

Luther Purinton, aged thirty years, was hunting crows in the woods near Starksborough, Vt., June 5th, with George Brown, when Brown's gun was discharged by a twig catching the hammer, and the charge and ramrod went through Purinton's heart.

Mrs. John Harriman, of Moretown, Vt., on the 6th inst. presented her husband with four babies—three boys and a girl, weighing four pounds each; all were alive and doing well when twenty-four hours old.

Medical science never produced so valuable a remedy for the treatment of diseases, requiring a general alterative medicine, as Wheat Bitters. See advt.

Mrs. Garfield has sufficient wealth to bring an income of about $16,000 a year, besides which she has a pension of $5000 a year.

Beautiful skin, and fair complexion, robust health, and powers of endurance follow the use of Brown's Iron Bitters.

Lucas Hirst, a lawyer, who died in Philadelphia recently, bequeathed nearly the whole of his fortune, valued at $180,000, toward the foundation of a free law library in Philadelphia for the use of poor members of the profession.

Eminent physicians, clergymen and others indorse Adamson's Balsamic Balsam as the safest and most effectual remedy for coughs and colds ever discovered. Sold by druggists and dealers at 35 and 75 cents.

Ex-Gov. Franklin J. Moses of South Carolina, the "robber governor," has been sent to prison for six months in New York, for petit larceny.

The Perpetuity of Fame.

As the name of the immortal Washington has been most sacredly perpetuated as that of a hero and statesman, so also has the fame of Swayne's Ointment for skin diseases, descended into perpetuity as the only reliable remedy in the market, for every character of skin disorders, and as the reward of well-deserving merit. Worth and merit go hand-in-hand. It is useless to contradict the worth of this article.

The Boston Post tells us that "M. H. Simpson of the Merrimac river jetty fame, who was married to Miss Evangeline Maers, is seventy-two years, and she twenty-seven, but his wealth is estimated at $6,000,000. He is said to have given her $1,000,000 on the day of her marriage."

Various Causes—

Advancing years, care, sickness, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition—all operate to turn the hair gray, and either of them incline it to shed prematurely. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR will restore faded or gray, light or red hair to a rich brown or deep black, as may be desired. It softens and cleanses the scalp, giving it a healthy action. It removes and cures dandruff and humors. By its use falling hair is checked, and a new growth will be produced in all cases where the follicles are not destroyed or the glands decayed. Its effects are beautifully shown on brashy, weak, or sickly hair, on which a few applications will produce the gloss and freshness of youth. Harmless and sure in its results, it is incomparable as a dressing, and is especially valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR is colorless; contains neither oil nor dye; and will not soil or color white cambric; yet it lasts long on the hair, and keeps it fresh and vigorous, imparting an agreeable perfume.

For sale by all druggists.

Martin Cashman, a married man with three children, for a number of years past employed in the paper mill of Vose & Co. at Walpole, Mass., was caught by a shaft on the 7th inst., and drawn to the ceiling with such force as to sever his head and both arms in an instant.

An opinion from one whose experience the expression thereof is always in order. Mr. Hiram B. Ferguson, a member of the supreme court bar of the state of New York, whose office is at No. 287 Broadway, New York city, says: "I consider St. Jacobs Oil a most wonderful remedy. I had been a sufferer from rheumatism for years and probably have endured as much misery from that disease as any man can stand. I tried many of the so-called remedies without any relief. Finally I used St. Jacobs Oil which gave me almost instant relief. I found it a safe, sure and pleasant remedy. I believe it to be an infallible medicine. It is a pleasure to me to recommend St. Jacobs Oil to all who suffer and need its good services."

to vigorously push a business, strength to study a profession, strength to regulate a household, strength to do a day's labor without physical pain. All this represents what is wanted, in the often heard expression, "Oh! I wish I had the strength!" If you are broken down, have not energy, or feel as if life was hardly worth living, you can be relieved and restored to robust health and strength by taking BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, which is a true tonic—a medicine universally recommended for all wasting diseases.

501 N. Fremont St., Baltimore

During the war I was injured in the stomach by a piece of a shell, and have suffered from it ever since. About four years ago it brought on paralysis, which kept me in bed six months, and the best doctors in the city said I could not live. I suffered fearfully from indigestion, and for over two years could not eat solid food and for a large portion of the time was unable to retain even liquid nourishment. I tried Brown's Iron Bitters and now after taking two bottles I am able to get up and go around and am rapidly improving.

G. DECKER.

Daily Chronicle.

Who Was Its Author.

In a paper read a few evenings ago before the New York Historical society, Dr. George H. Moore claimed that it was John Dickinson, not Thomas Jefferson, who wrote the Declaration of Independence. Dr. Moore declares that nobody doubted that Dickinson wrote it until twenty-five years after Dickinson's death. Moore says that the only claimant to that honor was Jefferson, and he pretended to have written but a small part of the declaration. The original draft of that document was shown by Dr. Moore to the society. It was in the handwriting of Dickinson, and the number, extent and character of the additions, corrections and other modifications made it evident that the instrument was not a copy of a draft by Jefferson or anybody else. Many of those who examined the document are said to have concurred in the views of Dr. Moore, who intimated that George Bancroft had accepted ex parte testimony and jumped to a hasty conclusion, when he declared that Jefferson was the author of the Declaration of Independence.

A Substitute for Paris Green.

The following, which we clip from an exchange, may prove to be of value to farmers; the experiment is easily tried, for there are plenty of bugs to try it on, and gas tar is cheap:

The free and careless use of Paris green and other poisons for exterminating insects has frequently been deprecated in these columns. Many lives have been lost through the poison which some gardener or farmer has scattered on his growing crops. Other means of destroying the farmers' pests have been found. We see it stated that S. R. Hart of Brighton, N. Y., has used on his potato vines water impregnated with gas tar, with entire success. The directions given are as follows: Put two quarts of gas tar into a pail, fill the pail with water, stir it up well, and let the tar settle. Then sprinkle the vines with the water from a sprinkling pot. This has proved more effective than Paris green. It is also equally effective on currant bushes, and doubtless, will be alike effective on insects on trees. Gas tar can be had for one dollar a barrel—enough for a township.

Bound her Chicks should Swim.

The toughest story of the season comes from Sullivan, Me. Sometime ago a hen was set upon duck's eggs, and in due time the ducklings were out and on their way to the nearest water. Biddy was much alarmed at the apparent folly of her brood; but after a few days she lost all fear, and each morning led them to the water and patiently waited until they were done bathing. After a few weeks the ducks were able to take care of themselves, and the hen was set upon eggs of her own kind. When the chicks were hatched, she had not forgotten what appeared to be maternal duty. She led her flock to the water, but to her surprise not one entered. After some time spent in talking to them in hen language, trying to convince them that it was their duty to go into the water, she became exasperated at what looked like disobedience on the part of her children, seized them one by one and threw them in, drowning the whole flock.—Bangor Whig.

Eminent physicians, clergymen and others indorse Adamson's Batanic Balsam as the safest and most effectual remedy for coughs and colds ever discovered. Sold by druggists and dealers at 35 and 75 cents.

—"I'm shaving myself most of the time now," said the young man, proudly, as he adjusted his head to the back of the chair. The barber gazed thoughtfully at the gash in the left cheek, noted the irregular Maltese cross in the chin, observed the finely executed outline map of the Hell Gate excavations on the left side, hovered over the piece of ear that was held in place with court plaster, and pityingly scanned the prize collection of blotches which ornamented the neck. "Yes, I notice you are," he said, musingly, as he softly strapped his razor.

A Good Foundation.

In American households the prevailing complaints are weakness of the stomach and its consequences, indigestion, nervousness and rheumatism. Such sufferers can lay a good foundation for health by using Parker's Ginger Tonic, as it tones up the stomach and nerves, and keeps the kidneys active to carry off the foul matter.—N. O. Picayune.

—One of the keepers of Nathan's circus was enlarging to a group at Biddeford about the remarkable docility of a young leopard. "He's just as harmless and playful as a kitten," said the man, "wouldn't think of hurting anybody for—." At this moment the sportively inclined animal made a vicious spring at one of the speaker's hands, and made a deep gash in his thumb.

Don't do It.

Said my physician, who for six months had doctored me for dyspepsia without success, when I told him I was going to try Sulphur Bitters, they will only make you worse. I did try them and now I am a well man and can eat anything. Sulphur Bitters are a great foe to doctors.—George Bastett, New Haven.

—They were discussing religious questions. Said Brown: "I tell you that, if the other animals do not exist after death, neither does man. There is no difference between man and a beast." "If anybody could convince me of that it would be you, Brown," replied Deacon Jones, demurely.

Puny, weak, and sickly children, need Brown's Iron Bitters. It will strengthen and invigorate them.

—Young Swell: "Miss Matilda, may I offer you my arm?" Matilda: "Oh, this offering your arm is getting monotonous. Why not offer me your hand for a change?"

He was seen in front of the office rubbing himself against the telegraph post like a flea-bitten dog. "What is wrong?" we ventured to ask. "Gotem, 'gent," he said laconically; have 'em every spring, small lumps form about the rectum; sore to the touch; they itch like blazes; "a telegraph pole's like an oasis in the desert to me." Here then, was poor humanity suffering from a complaint which a few applications of Swayne's Ointment for itching piles, would have thoroughly eradicated.

Cuticura

THE NEW BLOOD PURIFIER

Resolvent

Mr. Albert Kingsbury, Keene, N. H., troubled with bad humor on hands and neck, caused by lead poisoning. (He's a painter.) STARTLING DISCOVERY!

LOST MANHOOD RESTORED.

A victim of youthful imprudence causing Premature Decay, Nervous Debility, Lost Manhood, etc., having tried in vain every known remedy, has discovered a simple self cure, which he will send FREE to his fellow-sufferers, address J. H. REEVES, 43 Chatham St., N. Y.

A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be in introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

Portsmouth Chronicle.

MONDAY, JUNE 12, 1882.

A Clean Sweep in Oregon.

A despatch from Portland, Oregon, of the 10th inst., says the average republican majority on the state ticket is 1800. George, for congressman, will not have less than 3600 in the state, the largest majority ever given a candidate. Moody, for governor, will have about 100 less. The republicans have the legislature by a certain majority of ten, which may be increased to thirteen, insuring the election of a republican to the United States senate in place of Lafayette Grover, democrat, whose term expires March 3d, 1883.

Republican Conference.

A meeting of the republican state committee, and a general republican conference, will be held in White's opera house at Concord on Friday, June 16th. The committee will hold a business meeting at four o'clock P. M., and in the evening there will be a general conference of the committee and other republicans from all sections of the state.

Prominent among matters of importance which are to be discussed and determined are the following:

Appointing a time and place for the state convention for the nomination of candidates for governor and railroad commissioners, and for the several congressional, councillor, senatorial, and county conventions;

Determining the representation to which classed and pro-rated towns, under the new apportionment, shall be entitled in the several conventions;

Fixing the number, and method of electing, the new state committee for the campaign of 1882;

Considering the re-organization of towns and counties for the necessary political work in the coming campaign.

The state committee cordially invite the attendance of all who are interested in the success of the great principles represented by the republican party.

The hall (Union hall, in the opera house) is too small for a comfortable meeting of such a body of men as are likely to be present on this occasion, and it will be remembered how in former assemblies it has been thought that if a larger and better ventilated place of meeting could not be found in Concord, the committee had better select some other city for the place of meeting.

The Press Excursion.

The New Hampshire Press Association will this year arrange for a week's trip to Mount Desert, Me., and the "Glen" at the White mountains, to occur probably about July 7th. Those who are unable to enjoy a week's trip, can take one-half of the excursion, visiting either of the above-named places.

Potatoes.

The Boston Herald of the 9th inst. thus discourses of a vegetable which was once to be found on every table, but is now known only by tradition to families of moderate means:

The price of potatoes is something beyond precedent. Sales of choice rose and prolifics were made yesterday at $1 70 per bushel by the car-load. The trouble seems to be in the fact there are but very few potatoes to be had in the eastern markets, while the new potatoes from the south are late, and are all sold in Philadelphia, New York and other markets south before they can get to Boston. A dealer remarked yesterday that the market here would probably get no relief for a week or ten days to come, since Boston must wait till Philadelphia and New York are full of new potatoes before her turn will come. In the latter city, yesterday, new potatoes were selling for $8 to $8.50 per bbl. The southern potato crop is said to be a good one, however, and the break in prices here is bound to come sooner or later. The Maryland and Virginia farmers must be making money on vegetables and potatoes for the northern markets.

Fighting Fire at Sea.

The ship Charger, owned by Henry Hastings & Co., of Boston, sailed from New York for San Francisco with a cargo of general merchandise, on May 15th. She returned in distress on Thursday night, June 8th, and anchored off Bedloe's island. The chief mate Sullivan tells the following story:

When about 1,200 miles southeast of Sandy Hook, on May 25th, while the captain and I were at supper, Second Mate Lacy discovered smoke issuing from between decks forward. He ran forward and lifted up the hatch. The flames drove him back, but not until his face, neck and hands were badly scorched. When the captain and I rushed on deck the smoke was so dense we could not get below. The hatch was then put on and sealed, and streams of water were poured upon the fire through holes cut in the deck. When the decks were flooded the holes were plugged so as not to feed the fire with oxygen. The decks kept growing hotter and the fire pumps were started again. The British ship Lorenty, from New York for Calcutta, sighted us and came to our assistance. She stayed near us through the night. In the morning, as the decks were found to be hot, it was determined to return to New York, and the two vessels parted company. The crew were kept working at the pumps to keep the decks wet, but they grew hotter, and the pitch was all melted out of the seams. Holes were cut in the deck again, and the hold partially filled with water. This time there were heard several sharp explosions, and it was feared that the vessel would blow up. This was on May 30th, and the crew went aft and endeavored to prevail upon the captain to abandon the ship while it was good weather. After a long conference, the crew consented to remain on the vessel as long as there was the least hope. We worked continuously, pumping the water into the vessel and pumping it out again, until June 1st, when there was evidence that the fire was extinguished. We were all about exhausted with our six days of fighting fire. There were from eighty to 100 hundred holes cut in the deck to work on the fire.

The Charger is successor to a ship of the same name that was built on Peirce's island in this city in 1856 for Mr. Hastings, by E. G. Peirce.

Potato Bugs.

An exchange says: "Kill the early potato bug. Cut a few potatoes in slices, and leave them about in the fields where the bugs can scent them, and you can have a swarm of beetles that would, let alone, make a progeny sufficient to destroy your whole crop. Having got the creatures together, treat them to a dose of Paris green."

News and Notes.

John Tribetts, who murdered two men at Perham, Minn., a few days ago, was taken from jail by a mob on Friday morning, and hung to a telegraph pole. He was but seventeen years old, but had read "boys' story papers" until he was fired with an ambition to be a "cowboy" and have a great name as a ruffian. He made a full confession on the night before his death.

The gang of ruffians who robbed the bank at Brookfield, Mo., have been captured. They had rented a farm house where they were caught, and had made port-holes in the wall through which they could fire on the attacking parties. On reaching their house sixty revolvers were found, and over 100 pounds of cartridges; masks and explosives were found, and the house had every appearance of a small armory. One of the robbers told where the stolen money was hid in a den, eight miles from Brookfield, and an officer went to get it, accompanied by the wife of one of the thieves. The officers were also informed where the stolen horses could be found. Gov. Crittenden has telegraphed the authorities at Kansas City to ascertain if any of the robbers are men of the old James gang, and Prosecuting Attorney Wallace, Marshal Murphy and Dick Little have left for Brookfield for the purpose of identifying them if they can.

A despatch of the 10th inst. from St. Johns, Newfoundland, says: "It is reported that schooner Ripple is embedded in an ice pack twenty miles off Fogo island, and her crew of twenty-two men are starving. Steamers Vola and Bencare are also in the ice. Steamer Hercules has been sent to their assistance. Barque Petunia, from Cadiz, reports seeing eight ocean steamers working their way through the ice fields between latitude forty-four and Cape Race."

Andrew Eddy of North Adams, Mass., twenty-two years old, was walking home while drunk, last Thursday night, when he tumbled and fell down an embankment to the rock below, fracturing his skull and spine fatally.

The wife of George Rotchford of Springfield, Mass., on the 8th inst. took her three-months-old infant into the woods and left it to die, but the act being observed the child was rescued. No motive is known for the act. She was arrested.

At Bath, Me., June 10th, as the steamer Star of the East was leaving her wharf, she ran foul of the mainboom of a schooner, by which Mrs. Lizzie Parritt, a passenger, was so badly hurt that she died in a short time.

Senator Rollins is at Rollinsford, looking after the fences in that region. Senators Frye and Hale are to be in Portland on Tuesday, on the occasion of the Maine republican state convention. Secretary Chandler is to dine with the New Hampshire club on Wednesday, and visit Concord on Thursday.

Fast Travelling.

Out west they enjoy racing between railroad trains just as they did formerly steamboat racing on the Mississippi. The Kansas Pacific and the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railroads both run between Denver and Kansas City. The Atchison road is 740 miles long, the Kansas Pacific 640. Locomotives of the two roads, bearing the effective names of "Lightning" and "Thunderbolt," recently started out of the station at Kansas City within five minutes of each other in the morning, and arrived within three minutes of each other at Denver the following afternoon. "Thunderbolt" had gained 100 miles on "Lightning" in thirty hours.

LIEBIG MALT EXTRACT.

RECOMMENDED BY PHYSICIANS of the highest influence on both sides of the Atlantic, as an invaluable Tonic and Restorative in cases of General Debility, Nervous Depression, Enfeebled Constitution and Female Weakness.

NURSING MOTHERS, who suffer from poverty of milk, will find it a specific for their trouble. It stimulates the digestion, sharpens the appetite, invigorates and builds up the entire system, and excites a generous flow of milk.

WEAK AND SICKLY CHILDREN, who suffer from insalubrity and weariness, the result of disease, over-study, or nervous strain, will derive substantial benefit from its use. It restores the system to its normal condition and brings back the bloom of youth.

INVALIDS AND CONVALESCENTS will find it admirably adapted for sustaining life, and restoring lost strength. When the stomach is weak and refuses other nourishment the Extract will prove an excellent substitute for food. It neither pals upon the appetite nor offends the taste.

DELICATE FEMALES, who suffer from the weaknesses of their sex, will derive lasting relief from its use. It improves the digestion, purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, and revives the spirits.

WEAK AND DELICATE PERSONS GENERALLY, who require some artificial restorative—and especially those who are inclined to Consumption—will find this preparation exactly suited to their needs. It is a specific for the Coughs and Nervous Affections usually incident to a low state of the system.

AS A FLESH RESTORER it possesses the highest value. The whole tendency of its action is to stimulate the digestion of fat-producing foods, and its effect is invariably to give fullness and roundness to the female form, and robustness to the masculine frame.

THE LIEBIG MALT EXTRACT is a pure concentrated Fluid Extract of Malt, agreeable to the taste, and free from alcohol. It is readily retained on the stomach and contains none but wholesome and nourishing ingredients. The genuine preparation bears on the label a fine engraved likeness of Baron von Liebig, and a facsimile of his signature, as well as that of A. VOGELER & CO., Baltimore, Md., Sole Agents for America.

LIFE INSURANCE!

The Semi-Endowment Policy of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is believed to be the most desirable plan of insurance ever offered.

Among its advantages are: A definitely guaranteed cash value at a specified time. A paid-up policy for full value in case of discontinuance. Its period (20 years) covers the productive years of life, when insurance is mostly needed. It provides for old age. Above the age of 40 the rates are less than for life policies in other companies, while below 40 they are but little in excess of ordinary life premiums.

Parties insured in Co-operative Societies are requested to compare the net cost of these policies with that of assessment insurance.

MILITARY AFFAIRS.

A goodly number of our citizens who are interested in military matters assembled in the mayor's room at the city building on Saturday, to consult with Col. John B. Hall of Manchester, commanding the 1st Reg't N. H. N. G., relative to the formation of a company of infantry to take the place of the late Co. C, 1st Reg't, recently disbanded. Remarks were made by Col. Sise, Lieuts. R. H. Perkins and Adolph Nelson, and Capts. George E. Hodgdon and Frank Williams, all strongly in favor of organizing a new company; after which Capt. Frank Williams, on motion of Capt. Hodgdon, was chosen to command, but in a short speech declined the honor. Capt. George E. Hodgdon was then nominated and unanimously recommended for the command, Capt. Williams being elected first lieutenant; the choice of second lieutenant being left with the captain and first lieutenant, subject to the approval of the colonel commanding. With men of such well known military ability at the head of the organization, there can be no doubt of the forming and maintaining in this city of an infantry company second to none in the state.

THE TELEPHONE POLES.

Mr. Editor: I see by the report in the CHRONICLE of the doings in the board of mayor and aldermen at the meeting on the 8th inst., that the Boston & Northern Telephone Co. have set a line of poles through the middle of the Plains, and that the mayor was not aware until the previous day that the outrage had been committed. I call it an outrage, as I consider it to be such, and that the telephone company's action is illegal. The company—or any telephone or telegraph company—I believe has a right of way on any public road, by an act of the legislature, of general application; but even if this is so, it does give the company the power to entinguish or curtail the public right of way over the same roads. The Plains are a public square, and the telephone company have as much right to set their poles in the middle of Congress street and Market square as they had to place them in the middle of the Plains.

That this work could have been completed, and wires stretched on the poles, before the city authorities became aware of what was going on, seems singular; but it is of less importance to find out why they did not learn of the matter earlier, than to know what they propose to do about it now that the knowledge has been gained.

When the absurd canard was started that a company which had been granted leave to set poles in the streets, in the day-time of course, proposed to commence setting them surreptitiously in the night, the entire "municipal army" was ordered out to prevent it; will the action of the authorities be as energetic in causing the removal to proper positions of the poles on the Plains? M. U. T.

The sale of tickets for the concert at Music hall on Friday evening by the Wentworth house orchestra, assisted by Miss Edith Wendell, Miss Ella M. Chamberlin and Mrs. Martha Dana Shepard, begins at Preston's to-day.

A party of gipsies,—two team-loads of them,—were camped near the gravel pit on Lafayette road on Friday and Saturday of last week.

The schooner E. A. Creed, belonging to Laighton Bros. & Co. of the Isles of Shoals, was carried on the south beacon ledge by the tide on Saturday, as she was leaving port for the islands, but was towed off unharmed by the steamer Mystic.

A. E. Drake of Rye center has leased the stable at the Ocean Wave hotel, Rye beach, and will do the staging between the Ocean Wave and the railroad stations in this city. The coach will be driven this season by Geo. White of Rye.

Horace Smith of South Newmarket, an employe at the Swamscot Machine works, had one of his hands terribly crushed by a steam hammer on the 3d inst., and died on the 8th from the effects of the injury.

In view of the recent appropriation by Congress, government engineers are making a survey preparatory to the removal of obstructions in Newmarket river; Gen. George Thom, of Portland, Me., colonel of engineers, is in charge of the work. The cut-off at the "ox-bow" in Exeter river is finished, and the dredge and scows are at work deepening the river higher up.

The old house near the Market street end of Deer street, on the north side, owned by Mr. Timothy Reagan, has recently been repaired. Its lines are still not exactly what the architect originally draughted, but the repairs have effected a decided improvement in its appearance, which a coat of paint would still further improve.

The Newmarket Advertiser says: "Frank Sanford, the young man who had both legs cut off by the cars here last fall, has fully recovered, and may be seen almost any pleasant morning riding around town on Carpenter's milk team."

Capt. Chas. C. Carpenter, U. S. N., was detached from equipment duty at the Charlestown navy yard on Saturday, and took command of the Hartford. Capt. Carpenter's family returned to their residence on Middle street in this city last week.

The Newburyport Herald of June 10th says: "The oldest engineer on the Eastern railroad, a resident of Amesbury, was presented with a ten-pound boy yesterday, and another engineer, well known on the line, residing in Newburyport, was presented with one the day previous. We should say that Eastern railroad stock is rising."

Train No. 64 over the Eastern railroad, which passes through this city every afternoon on the way from Bangor to Boston, has for some time had a second class car attached, and it has been crowded with emigrants on every trip.

The grounds in front of the cottage near the Ocean Wave hotel at Rye, owned by W. F. Thayer, Esq., cashier of the First National bank of Concord, have been graded recently, and greatly improved in appearance. Adam E. Drake did the teaming.

The oldest grave decorated in South Newmarket on Memorial day was that of Col. Edward Hilton, who was killed by the Indians in 1710, on the mast-way road, as it was then called. The stone that marks the burial spot is now standing, and the inscription is quite plain and legible.

Referring to the announcement in the Boston Herald of June 4th that Barnum, Bailey & Hutchinson's circus is to appear in this city on the 19th of July, the Newburyport Herald says the bill-boards in that city proclaim that Barnum will be in Newburyport with his show on that day, the city having been billed about ten weeks in advance of the date, in order to get ahead of Nathans & Co.'s circus, which was there and also in this city last month.

Everybody will be glad to learn that Deacon Joseph Day Ackerman, who had a severe attack of congestion of the lungs on Friday night, is rapidly recovering under the care of Dr. Hall. Mr. Ackerman is a good citizen and an upright man, and we trust, has many years of usefulness yet in store.

Rev. Mr. Mullen, of Dover, occupied the desk at the Unitarian church on Sunday.

The customary class day exercises at Miss Morgan's school will be omitted this year. The usual reception by the young ladies occurs on Tuesday evening.

The Boston Herald thus speaks of the windfall to Moses A. Safford of Kittery, at present register of probate for York county, at one time a clerk on the navy yard, and who once made a cruise to the Mediterranean as yeoman in a naval vessel: "By the death of a resident of Genoa, Italy, a lawyer at Kittery, Me., has had left him property worth 75,000 f. First, because he promptly gave a German by the name of Leupold, a light from his cigar; second, because he was enabled to give him, at an opportune time, some practical information respecting a lawsuit, on a contract about dredging machines, in which the German was involved, and helped him out; and generally, because he was a pretty good fellow and the German liked him. The acquaintance which resulted so favorably was formed in 1862, in Genoa, when the remembered party was in the United States navy."

Umbrellas and the Pepper Trade.

The umbrella trade grievously threatens the existence of the pimento plantations of Jamacia. An official estimate made in Kingston, last fall, reckoned that more than half a million umbrella-sticks were then waiting export to England and the United States. These sticks were almost without exception pimento; and it is not surprising to be informed that owners and lessees of pimento walks are becoming alarmed at the growth of a trade which threatens to uproot, in a few years, all their young trees. The export returns for the past five years show an average of 2,000 bundles of sticks sent out of the island annually in the ordinary course of trade; and the returns for the first three-quarters of 1881 show an export of over 4,500 bundles, valued at $15,000. When it is remembered that each bundle contains from five hundred to eight hundred sticks, each of which represents a young, bearing pimento-tree the extent of the destruction may be realized.—Scientific American.

Oak Hall Agency in Portsmouth.

Messrs. G. W. Simmons & Son, of Oak Hall, Boston, have established an agency for this city and vicinity for the sale of their custom and ready made men's and boys' clothing, at No. 33 Market street, Portsmouth, where anything contained at Oak Hall, Boston, can be procured, at the same prices as in Boston. Several dollars can be saved by buying your own and your children's clothing at the Oak Hall Agency, as they sell at the lowest prices in New England.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken of you rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. "It will relieve the poor little sufferer im mediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. A PLEASANT LETTER.

It Rings of a Grateful Heart and gives Honor where Honor is Due.

Mr. William W. Chadwick, of Hatchville, Conn., writes under date of June 14, 1880, to Dr. Kennedy, to say that the use of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" has cured him of Gall stone, from which he had experienced everything but comfort for a long time. Mr. Chadwick felt wholly cured when he wrote, and says: "I have had no pain for six months, and have also regained my flesh and can stand a fair day's work. I recommend Kennedy's Favorite Remedy to any one suffering from a deranged liver." Grateful patients are common. Dr. Kennedy is daily in receipt of letters from them, expressing similar sentiments. These letters are spontaneous and put in all varities of phraseology, but invariably setting forth one thing—the value of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for many forms of disease. It may be just the thing you have been looking for. Is your liver disordered? Have you derangement of the kidneys or bladder, associated with constipation of the bowels? If so, you want "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy." Dr. Kennedy practices medicine and surgery in all their branches. Write and state your case frankly. Letters promptly answered. Address Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.

WHEAT BITTERS
THE Great LIQUID FOOD
FOR BLOOD, BRAIN AND NERVES.
A SUPERIOR NUTRITIVE MEDICINE, RICH IN PHOSPHATES AND NOT A CHEAP, ALCOHOLIC DRINK. A Highly recommended by Chemists and Physicians as A POSITIVE TONIC, ALWAYS ACCEPTABLE AND RELIABLE,
as it does not stimulate the brain or irritate the system and leave deleterious effects. On the contrary, it furnishes just that which is necessary to the brain, strengthens and quiets the nerves, purifies the heart's blood, and thereby makes only the best flesh, bone and muscle. It is worth its weight in gold, curing NERVOUS and GENERAL DEBILITY, MALARIA, DYSPEPSIA, INSOMNIA. Produces a healthy action of the Liver and Kidneys, fortifying the system against the miasmatic influences, and will be found invaluable in all pulmonary and bronchial difficulties. DELICATE FEMALES, NURSING MOTHERS and WEAKLY CHILDREN find no remedy equal to this beautiful blood and nerve food tonic. For Sale by all Druggists. $1.00 per bottle. Prepared only by WHEAT BITTERS CO.

Provincetown, Mass., is to be the headquarters of the North Atlantic squadron this summer. The orders to the rear admiral, commanding the North Atlantic squadron, direct him to proceed to sea from Hampton roads with the Tennessee, Vandalia, Alliance and Yantic of the squadron, and exercise in the fleet tactics during four days of good weather, at the end of which time he will send the Vandalia to Portsmouth and the Alliance to Boston, for necessary overhauling and repairs. The admiral will proceed with the Tennessee and the Yantic to such port as he may elect. The Kearsarge will go to the Norfolk yard for repairs, and the Enterprise will remain there for the same purpose. The admiral will appoint a rendezvous for the squadron after the repairs of the vessels are completed, and Provincetown has been suggested by the department. From there the squadron will cruise to the eastward, and return to Hampton roads by the middle of September.

"It certainly is an elegant remedy for all pains and aches," says Dr. J. Turner, of Shirrell's Ford, N. C., speaking of St. Jacobs Oil.

The Washington Republican says: "The difference between a stalwart secretary of the navy and a former secretary is just about $2000. That's what it cost the latter to go to Annapolis last year on a war vessel, with his family, to witness the cadet exercises. Secretary Chandler bought a ticket for $2 yesterday, and went by rail."

A Fool and His Money Soon Part.

How true some of these old sayings are. A friend of mine paid a travelling quack $50 to cure him of scrofula, from which he had suffered two years. He gave him a bottle of stuff which only aggravated the disease. When he went to consult him a second time, the quack had left for parts unknown. Upon learning the circumstances I recommended Sulphur Bitters. Five bottles cured him.—Courier.

Lieut. Comdr. B. P. Lamberton has been detached from duty in the bureau of equipment to Washington, and ordered to the Vandalia as executive officer.

An Impossibility.

Deserving articles are always appreciated. The exceptional cleanliness of Parker's Hair Balsam makes it popular. Gray hairs are impossible with its occasional use.

The president has mitigated the sentence of Master Clinton H. Lyeth, from dismissal from the service to suspension from rank and duty for one year, on furlough pay, without loss of the number which he now holds in his grade.

How it was Done.

"How do you manage," said a lady to her friend, "to appear so happy and good natured all the time?" "I always have Parker's Ginger Tonic handy," was the reply, "and thus easily keep myself and family in good health. When I am well I always feel good natured."

The secretary of the navy has awarded medals of honor to seamen James Troy and J. S. Sullivan, of the training-ship New Hampshire, for gallant and meritorious conduct.

The Perpetuity of Fame.

As the name of the immortal Washington has been most sacredly perpetuated as that of a hero and statesman, so also has the fame of Swayne's Ointment for skin diseases, descended into perpetuity as the only reliable remedy in the market, for every character of skin disorders, and as the reward of well-deserving merit. Worth and merit go hand-in-hand. It is useless to contradict the worth of this article.

Summer Complaints

At this season, various diseases of the bowels are prevalent, and many lives are lost through lack of knowledge of a safe and sure remedy. PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is a sure cure for Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Summer Complaint, etc., and is perfectly safe.

Read the following:

BAINBRIDGE, N. Y., March 22, 1881.
PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER never fails to afford instant relief for cramp and pain in the stomach.
JOSEPH BURRITT.

NICHOLVILLE, N. Y., Feb. 2, 1881.
The very best medicine I know of for dysentery, cholera morbus, and cramps in the stomach. Have used it for years, and it is sure cure every time.
JUDSON W. DEAN.

MONGONA, IOWA, March 12, 1881.
I have used your PAIN KILLER in severe cases of cramp, colic and cholera morbus, and it gave almost instant relief.
L. E. CALDWELL.

CARNESVILLE, GA., Feb. 28, 1881.
For twenty years I have used your PAIN KILLER in my family. Have used it many times for bowel complaints, and it always cures. Would not feel safe without a bottle in the house.
J. R. IVIE.

SACO, ME., Jan. 2, 1881.
Have used PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER for twelve years. It is safe, sure, and reliable. No mother should allow it to be out of the family.
W. I. NAYES.

ONEIDA, N. Y., Feb. 19, 1881.
We began using it over thirty years ago, and it always gives immediate relief. Would hardly dare to go to bed without a bottle in the house.
W. O. SPERRY.

CONWAYTORO, S. C., Feb. 22, 1881.
DR E. MORTON.

U. S. CONSULATE,
CREFELD, RHENISH PRUSSIA, Feb. 8, 1881.
I have known PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER almost from the day it was introduced, and after years of observation and use I regard its presence in my household as an indispensable necessity.
A. S. GREVEL, U. S. Consul.

BURTON-ON-TRENT, ENG.
I had been several days suffering severely from diarrhœa, accompanied with intense pain, when I tried your PAIN KILLER, and found almost instant relief.
H. J. NOBLE.

31 MONTAGUE ST., LONDON, ENG.
During a residence of twenty-three years in India, I have given it in many cases of diarrhœa, dysentery, and cholera, and never knew it to fail to give relief.
R. CLARIDGE.

No family can safely be without this invaluable remedy. Its price brings it within the reach of all.

THE
New Hampshire Gazette!
Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

— THE —
NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS
THE N. H. GAZETTE
Presents an excellent opportunity for a weekly invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

STRENGTH

to vigorously push a business, strength to study a profession, strength to regulate a household, strength to do a day's labor without physical pain. All this represents what is wanted, in the often heard expression, "Oh! I wish I had the strength!" If you are broken down, have not energy, or feel as if life was hardly worth living, you can be relieved and restored to robust health and strength by taking BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, which is a true tonic—a medicine universally recommended for all wasting diseases.

for N. Fremont St., Baltimore

During the war I was injured in the stomach by a piece of a shell, and have suffered from it ever since. About four years ago it brought on paralysis, which kept me in bed six months, and the best doctors in the city said I could not live. I suffered fearfully from indigestion, and for over two years could not eat solid food and for a large portion of the time was unable to retain even liquid nourishment. I tried Brown's Iron Bitters and now after taking two bottles I am able to get up and go around and am rapidly improving.

G. DECKER.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is a complete and sure remedy for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Malaria, Weakness and all diseases requiring a true, reliable, non-alcoholic tonic. It enriches the blood, gives new life to the muscles and tone to the nerves.

Daily Chronicle.

Books, Magazines, Etc.

"Poems by Mary E. Blake." Boston; Houghton, Mifflin & Co. Mrs. Blake dedicates her book of poems to her husband, a very judicious selection for a married lady who may be gifted with this talent. The poems are upon various subjects. Some were written in war time, and are full of patriotic feeling; others portray the beauties of childhood, and the sweets of babydom; still others are poems on affliction, with their song of sympathy, and a few are poems of special significance. The versification is good; the poetry is pure, cheerful and heart-felt. Perhaps in these busy days there is room for a new book of poetry. Possibly the "poet's rival" will not be like the sweet supplanter of which the mother sings, and men and women will stop to read these lines. If so they will find enjoyment. But again the young mother may have an experience like the poetess who says—

"O, golden rhythmic rise and fall,
My little love is worth you all."

"Henry Wadsworth Longfellow: a biographical sketch by Francis Underwood," author of a biographical sketch of James Russell Lowell. Boston; James R. Osgood & Co. This sketch was written by Mr. Underwood at the suggestion of Mr. Longfellow, after he had examined the author's sketch of Mr. Lowell little more than a year since. Mr. Underwood's residence in Cambridge, his intimacy with these poets and his projection of the Atlantic Monthly, afforded him ample means for this work, for the consummation of which he possesses many requisite qualifications. It is such a sketch of the departed New England poet as every admirer of his writings ought to possess. Printed upon fine paper with uncommonly large clear type, it gives an authentic account of the man, with whose writings we have been so familiar. In addition to the excellent portrait on steel, we have many elegant illustrations, such as of places famous from having been at times the poet's residence, fine old houses of the New England style, and like subjects. But what we prize highly is the just and appropriate though perhaps too brief biography of the Cambridge poet by the Cambridge author. Everything written is reliable, authentic and in good taste. In the appendix are several interesting papers, and some of the early poems published in the "United States Literary Gazette" more than a half-century since, with list of published works, etc. It is a book well deserving a place in every well-selected collection of books, great or small.

"Gabriel Conroy." The latest published volume of the edition of Bret Harte's complete works, now being issued by Houghton, Mifflin & Co. of Boston, is the consul's story of Gabriel Conroy, which first appeared in 1875, and was much admired by its readers. This is the fourth volume of this edition. Mr. Harte's works are noted for the wonderful pictures of California life, the peculiar command of the local dialect, and bringing to our notice the best side in each of his characters. His works have been especially appreciated by other writers, who have seen the peculiar fidelity of his creation, and admired his happy blending of the rough and gentle in the characters he sketches on the Pacific slope.

Flies and Bugs.

Decline of Man.

Nervous weakness, dyspepsia, impotence, sexual debility, cured by "Wells Health Renewer." $1. Depot, J. H. Thacher's.

—It is a curious fact that there is now running in Alsace a petroleum refinery which is supplied by wells dug by hand to the oil bearing rock, instead of being bored as is done in this country, and the whole industry of producing and manufacturing has been in the hands of one family and successfully conducted for over one hundred and fifty years.

Charlotte Russe No. 1.

One pint of milk, in which one dessert spoonful of Sea Moss Farine and one cup of sugar have been boiled and strained. Whip and flavor one pint of cream, and add to the milk. Line a dish with sponge cake or lady fingers, and pour the cream into it. Many prefer this to that made with eggs. Flavor to taste.

—A proposal has been made to treat yellow fever patients by artificial cold in order to kill the poisonous germs of the disease.

Rose Cold and Hay Fever.

MESSRS. WHITE & BURDICK, Druggists, Ithaca, N. Y.—I can recommend Ely's Cream Balm to relieve all persons suffering from rose cold and hay fever. I have been a great sufferer from these complaints; by using the Balm have had great relief. I have recommended it to many of my friends for catarrh, and in all cases where they have used the Balm freely have been cured. T. KENNEY, Dry Goods Merchant, Ithaca, N. Y.

Messrs. Wm. Rust & Sons, Druggists, New Brunswick, N. J.—Since boyhood I have been troubled with catarrh and hay fever, and have been unable to obtain permanent relief until I used Ely's Cream which has cured me. After a few days' use I could sleep all night. E. L. CLICKENER, New Brunswick, N. J. Price fifty cents.

Apply into nostrils with little finger.

—It is asserted that the cabalistic initials "O.K." were first used by the chief of the Sacs and Foxes, who bore the name of "Old Keokuk." He signed treaties thus.

The local editor of the Springfield, (Mass.) Republican, Mr. J. H. Mabbitt, says that his father suffered from rheumatic pains in the back, which nothing could relieve until he commended the use of St. Jacobs Oil. The doctors failed to afford any relief, but the Oil did, and now he speaks enthusiastically of the great German remedy.

—An innocent couple at Wabash, Ind., went to the postmaster to be married. The official was innocent, too, thought he had authority in the premises, and performed the ceremony all in good faith. The next day came enlightenment and confusion.

Puny, weak, and sickly children, need Brown's Iron Bitters. It will strengthen and invigorate them.

—The editor who was asked by a "bashful subscriber" if he could tell him "the first step toward matrimony," and replied "mis-step," was either a punster or a horrid old bachelor.

"An Odd Street Scene."

He was seen in front of the office rubbing himself against the telegraph post like a flea-bitten dog. "What is wrong?" we ventured to ask. "Gotem, 'gent," he said laconically; have 'em every spring, small lumps form about the rectum; sore to the touch; they itch like blazes; "a telegraph pole's like an oasis in the desert to me." Here then, was poor humanity suffering from a complaint which a few applications of Swayne's Ointment for itching piles, would have thoroughly eradicated.

Cuticura

THE NEW BLOOD PURIFIER

Resolvent

Mr. Albert Kingsbury, Keene, N. H., troubled with bad humor on hands and neck, caused by lead poisoning. (He's a painter.) At times it would break out, crack open, and the skin separate from the flesh in large pieces, suffering great continual itching and stinging. Purchased your remedies, used Cuticura Resolvent internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally, and in less than three months effected a complete cure, and has not been troubled since. Corroborated by Bullard & Foster, Druggists, Keene, N. H.

Mother Died from it.

J. W. Adams, Newark, Ohio, says: "Cuticura Remedies are the greatest medicine on earth. Had the worst case salt rheum in this county. My mother had it twenty years, and in fact died from it. I believe Cuticura would have saved her life. My arms, breast and head were covered for three years, which nothing relived or cured until I used the Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally.

Psoriasis.

H. E. Carpenter, Esq., Henderson, N. Y., cured of Psoriasis or Leprosy, of twenty years' standing, by the Cuticura Resolvent internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally. The most wonderful case on record. Cure certified to before a justice of the peace and prominent citizens. All afflicted with itching and scaly diseases should send to us for this testimonial in full.

Salt Rheum.

Those who have experienced the torments of Salt Rheum can appreciate the agony I endured for years, until cured by the Cuticura Resolvent internally and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally.

MRS. WM. PELLINGTON, Sharon, Wis.

Cuticura

and Cuticura Soap externally and Cuticura Resolvent internally will positively cure every species of humor, from a common pimple to Scrofula. Price of Cuticura, small boxes, 50c.; large boxes, $1. STARTLING DISCOVERY!

LOST MANHOOD RESTORED.

A victim of youthful imprudence causing Premature Decay, Nervous Debility, Lost Manhood, etc., having tried in vain every known remedy, has discovered a simple self cure, which he will send FREE to his fellow-sufferers, address J. H. REEVES, 43 Chatham St., N. Y.

A [Great [Blessing] to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be in introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

The Alabama Claims Court.

It cannot be ascertained that anything definite has been determined with regard to the new court of Alabama claims, but strong influences are at work in behalf of the appointment of Hezekiah K. Wells of Michigan as the chief justice of the court. Much depends upon the clerk in the matter of the facility of the transaction of business before the court. John Davis, the clerk of the former court, is now engaged in other business, which it is thought he would not be willing to leave. Frank W. Hackett, who was assistant counsel of the American government at Geneva, has in preparation a history of the cases, with notes, which is likely to soon be published.—Special to Boston Advertiser.

The reports of these cases referred to will shortly be published by Soule & Bugbee of Boston.

Revenue Reform.

The republican members of Congress find that while with a lavish prodigality sums can be voted for public buildings all over the country, the retention of the internal revenue taxes on tobacco and fruits as well as the revenue stamps on checks and matches, does not find favor with their constituents. Senators and representatives begin to see that the question of re-election in no small degree pivots upon their course regarding appropriation and taxation. This applies to members of both parties, and the prospect is that this week a caucus of the republican members will be called in Washington to devise some programme which will meet the demand of the people upon Congress for some modification of the revenue laws, which shall prevent the great drain of money into the treasury, where it is not needed, and in the expenditure of which the most liberal stealing will be in order.

Seeks a Vindication.

The Concord correspondent of the Boston Advertiser, who was not made collector of internal revenue, and favors a new deal, writes that "in the senatorial contest in June, '83, Mr. James Willis Patterson will have active and earnest supporters;" that he (Patterson) "seeks a vindication from the charges preferred against him in connection with the Credit Mobilier, and his friends will do all in their power to secure that result." It may be that the people of New Hampshire will be willing to forget and forgive the ex-senator for his mistakes in connection with the Credit Mobilier, because when in Congress he was somewhat fresh, and may have been deceived by more experienced stagers; but they will not compensate the clumsy manner in which the professor attempted to extricate himself from the charge, by choosing him senator. The republicans of New Hampshire are not apt to turn back in that mode.

Egypt's Troubles.

A series of riots are reported to have occurred in Alexandria on the 11th inst., during which sixty-seven Europeans were murdered and the shops of Europeans pillaged. Among the killed was the engineer of the British war ship Superb.

News and Notes.

Mr. A. Buck, for eleven years past postmaster at Ayer, Mass., is missing, and it is said there is a deficency in his accounts.

The bodies of two unknown men, badly decomposed, were found in the Connecticut river at Hartford, Conn., June 11th. No papers or anything to identify them could be discovered. Fishing tackle in the pockets of one leads to the theory that they were drowned while on a fishing trip somewhere up stream.

Miss M. Livingston of New York, a grand-daughter of the late Chancellor Livingston, and reported to be entitled to an estate of $350,000 on coming of age, has sued Henry Fleming for breach of promise of marriage, claiming $175,000 damages. The defendant is worth from $500,000 to $1,000,000, and denies all knowledge of the complainant.

Jeremiah Sullivan of West Newbury, Mass., a comb-maker sixty years old, committed suicide on the 10th inst. He leaves a family.

The Mutual Union Telegraph Co. on the 10th inst. executed a first mortgage on all the property of the company, to the Central Trust Co., to secure $5,000,000 of six per cent coupon bonds dated May 1st, 1881. The instrument sets forth that the bonds were issued for the purpose of extending and completing the lines of the company.

Three of the men who robbed the bank at Brookfield, Mo., are brothers, named Mason, and formerly lived near that town. The fourth ruffian has not yet been identified.

The magazine of the Oriental Powder company at Davenport, Ia., was struck by lightning and exploded, Saturday, causing great damage in the vicinity.

In consequence of the increase of scarlet fever in Vicksburg, Miss., the schools of that city have been closed.

At Council Bluffs, Iowa, June 10th, Charles Van Mason of New York shot S. D. Stiles, an emigrant agent, dead, while the latter was attacking him with an iron rod. Mason was exonorated by a coroner's jury, but will probably die from blows received on the head.

Peter Vinegar, George Lawrence and Ike King, all colored, were taken from jail at Lawrence, Kansas, June 10th, and hanged by a mob. They had murdered a white man named David Bausman.

The dead body of an unknown man was found in the woods at Malden, Mass., June 11th, by some children; the man had apparently been dead a week or more.

A terrible famine is reported as prevailing in Patrick county, one of the most remote districts of Virginia, over 5000 people being in a condition of actual starvation.

At Rock Hill, S. C., June 11th, Alice McDowell, a white girl aged fifteen years, was assaulted by a negro named John Johnson, who was arrested, confessed the crime, and was lynched.

Naval Affairs.

Commodore George M. Ransom will be placed on the retired list on June 18th.

The death of Commander S. N. Terry makes the following promotions in the service: Lieutenant-Commander R. P. Leary to be commander; Lieutenant W. B. Newman to be lieutenant-commander; Master W. M. Irwin to be lieutenant; Ensign H. H. Hasley to be master; Midshipman H. McL. P. Hase to be ensign.

Chief Engr. S. D. Hibbert is ordered to hold himself in readiness for duty as fleet engineer of the European station.

The Ranger arrived at San Francisco, June 9th, from the Mexican coast.

It is again stated on "good authority" that action will be taken before Congress adjourns for the payment of the New Orleans prize money. We hope it will be paid at an early date. It has cost us far more money to answer letters concerning it than we shall receive for prize money. We think, now that the can't-be-found heirs of the privateer brig "General Armstrong" have been awarded their money, the Farragut survivors ought to have theirs. The latter heroes, whose heirs can be found, would much prefer handling their well-earned prize money now, than to have themselves advertised for by the secretary of state a hundred years hence.—Nautical Gazette.

The body of a male child about three days old was found in the river at Dover, Sunday afternoon, between the railroad bridges. The side of the head was crushed in, and one cheek cut, apparently by a blow from a club.

Hon. Dexter Richards, of Newport, announces that his name will be presented to the next republican state convention as a candidate for governor, and that no one has been authorized to state to the contrary.

A big military celebration in Manchester, by the 1st Reg't N. H. N. G., and companies of the 2d and 3d regiments, is talked of for the 4th of July.

The annual meeting of the New Hampshire Medical society will take place in Concord on the 20th inst.

AROUND HOME.

The whooping cough is prevailing extensively on Eliot neck; most of the children under twelve years of age are suffering with it.

As two men from Great Falls were driving in Newington near the Portsmouth & Dover railroad bridge, Sunday, the horse took fright and ran away, and though well handled by the driver could not be stopped until he had knocked both wheels from one side of the buggy, and shattered the vehicle in other ways, broken the harness, and thrown out both men; every spoke in one wheel was broken, the hub being left on the axle. The horse was unhurt, as were also the men, who procured another carriage and harness from a resident near the scene of the mishap, and drove back to Great Falls, leaving the wreck of their buggy on the roadside at the "Four corners," near the Capt. Adams place.

Some people may think newspaper reporters get all the good things there are agoing. But we opine they would not think so if, after reporting all the preparations making for summer boarders at a ten-miles-off beach, cracking up the stages, teams, drivers and proprietors on the line, he had to foot it all the way there and back, and while there had to catch cunners and gather chips for a fire to roast 'em on the rocks as his only grub. No; the itemizer fares hard on some of his eastern trips.—Times.

We are sorry to learn of the shabby treatment experienced by the itemizer of the Times when he makes a trip to that ten-miles-off beach to the eastward, and we can account for it only on the supposition that the York people do not know who and what he is, for whenever our reporter goes over there he is received with open doors and hearty welcomes, his only trouble being to strike a fair average in his acceptance of the many proffers of hospitality.

The schooner William Beasley, which sailed from New York for this port on the 10th inst., put back on the 11th for a new crew, on account of mutiny.

Hon. E. C. Moody of York has this year planted 50,000 hills of potatoes, but not so much corn as usual. The potato bugs are abundant.

LIFE INSURANCE!

The Semi-Endowment Policy of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is believed to be the most desirable plan of insurance ever offered.

Among its advantages are: A definitely guaranteed cash value at a specified time. A paid-up policy for full value in case of discontinuance. Its period (20 years) covers the productive years of life, when insurance is mostly needed. It provides for old age. Above the age of 40 the rates are less than for life policies in other companies, while below 40 they are but little in excess of ordinary life premiums.

Parties insured in Co-operative Societies are requested to compare the net cost of these policies with that of assessment insurance.

THE ISLES OF SHOALS.

On Monday morning the steamer Appledore, having been overhauled, painted and refitted under the direction of Capt. Albert Rand, made her customary annual trial trip to the Isles of Shoals. The Appledore has a new propeller, made with less pitch than the discarded wheel, which permits more rapid action of the engine. Engineer Wm. Gertin, who has been running as engineer the steamer "Major" on the Delaware, between Philadelphia and Camden, the past winter, is again at his accustomed post on the Appledore. The run was made from Jones' wharf to the Star island pier in sixty-two minutes, with a head wind; from Kitt's rock buoy to Star island, the run was made in thirty-seven minutes.

The Appledore took out Mr. Rymes of the Oceanic, and his new steward, Mr. Alden; Miss Gardner, the house keeper; and a large force of help. Mr. Geo. C. Meade, the steward of the Appledore house, and others, were also on board. Arrived at Star island a brief visit was made to the Oceanic, to which from the pier the walk covered with southern pine has been relaid. Everything looked inviting, and the house will be in readiness for its guests at its opening on the 20th.

The steamer then proceeded to Appledore, where a large force was found making ready for the opening on Thursday, 15th. Among the improvements is the new cottage at the southerly end of the grand piazza, in a line with the front of the hotel. It is called the "Anderson cottage," as it is to be occupied the latter part of the week by Mrs. Anderson of Cincinnati, a wealthy lady who leaves that city in a special car for Portsmouth on the 15th, and comes direct to Appledore. The house has fifteen rooms, conveniently arranged, and was planned by Oscar, who certainly deserves great credit for his architectural results. Every room is pleasant, and all space utilized. The house has a high elevation, and certainly is a lovely spot in which to spend the summer months. Mrs. Anderson rents the entire cottage for the season.

The new cottage of Mr. Cedric Laighton is also a thing of beauty. It has a high situation northwest of Mrs. Thaxter's abode, with a commanding prospect,—perhaps the best to be had on the island. It is finished in hard wood, with piazzas all around, garden in front, terraces, etc.; indeed it is an ideal location for the reformed bachelor, who will this week cease to take his "ease in mine inn," and indulge in the pleasures and privileges of house-keeping, minus all its discomforts.

It was a rare day in June. The air was soft and balmy, and busy hands were in active preparation for the entertainment of the large influx of visitors soon to begin their annual sojourn at the Shoals. The "cargo" of the steamer was quickly landed. The chaplain having sought the seclusion which the larder implants, and the editor of the Portsmouth Journal having indulged in a "ramble," Capt. Rand started on his return. The Laighton Brothers were too busy to come to the slip and give their customary gentle pressure of the hand, and shed the annual Pickwickian tears at our departure. They were too anxious to be ready to welcome the coming, to take time to speed the going guest, as thus the visitors of the season quietly steamed away from the island, and reached home after an absence of five hours, having enjoyed the trip to the fullest extent.

POLICE COURT.

MONDAY, June 12; Batchelder, J.

John Crowley, drunk, fine $10, costs $6.90; county farm in default of payment.

William Morrison, drunk, was let off on probation on signing the pledge.

On Friday evening lovers of music will have a chance to hear the Wentworth house orchestra Mrs. Martha Dana Shepard, pianist, Miss Edith Wendell, vocalist, and Miss Ella M. Chamberlin's wonderful whistling, at Music hall. Tickets now selling at Preston's.

The Universalist society will hold their annual strawberry festival and sale of aprons and fancy work in Congress hall, June 14th and 15th. There will be a pleasing stage entertainment, with an entire change of programme each evening. Among the attractions will be an "Æsthetic Concert" on the 14th, and by special request, the "Broom Drill" will be given on the 15th. Vocal music will be furnished by a quartette, and a lady soloist from Stratham. Doors open at 6:00; supper served from 6:30 to 8:30; entertainment at 9:00 o'clock. Admission 15 cts.

One of the drag-boats brought in about 800 mackerel on 12th inst.,—the first direct arrival of mackerel this season worth mentioning. Randall & Caswell were the purchasers.

Class day at Brown university occurs Friday, June 16th, the poet of the day being Samuel W. Foss of this city.

The schooner yacht Una, Capt. Daniel C. Rich—a gentleman and a sailor—sailed for Boston on Monday, to take on board a select party for Quebec. She belongs to Mr. Fred. Eckstein of Cincinnati, and since she was bought by him has been practically rebuilt by Mr. Warren Keen, and is now a better vessel than when first launched.

The usual semi-annual dividend of the Eastern railroad in New Hampshire will be paid on the 15th inst.

Hiram says the market for asparagus in Dever is not encouraging.

The wreck of the schooner Johnnie Meserve, which went ashore on Odiorne's point on the 9th of April, 1880, while on the way from New York to Rockland, Me., was set on fire Monday, in order to secure the old iron remaining in the wreck, estimated to be between two and three tons.

Mr. H. H. Metcalf, late of the Manchester Union, having been in town and interviewed Sheriff Kent and the postmaster, is constrained to believe that the federal officers are doubtful on the governor question, that the demonstration by Pender was a little too previous, and that Col. Young, and what is known by the ex-Dover editors as the "Barrington ring," will have matters as usual—all their own way in the convention.

Mr. John Lewis of Kittery, assistant keeper of Whalesback light, met with a serious accident on Monday. As the case was reported to us, Mr. Lewis was engaged in painting the outside of the lofty tube enclosing the fog-horn air-pipe, and when a long way up fell to the upper deck (or roof) of the fog-horn tower, breaking one of his hips and otherwise injuring him. Aid was sent for, and the tug Naumkeag went down with a medical man on board, and Mr. Lewis was transported to his home in Kittery.

The schooner Emily A. Staples, Coleman, arrived in the lower harbor Friday, having made the run from Boston to the anchorage in six hours, and from Thacher's island in two hours and forty minutes; she was up river loading bricks, Monday, as was also the Hattie Lewis, Capt. Brewster. The Gold Hunter, Weare master, from Eliot, the Satellite, Adderton, from Dover point, and the G. W. Raitt, Coleman, from Back river, Dover, all brick-laden, sailed for Boston on Monday. The D. K. Ham, Garland master, having finished the refitting of her rigging, goes up river this morning to load.

Caswell & Co., fish dealers next the spring market, have this week fitted out several pedlars with fish and lobsters, for trips into the country.

Rev. E. Owen, formerly pastor of the Pearl street church in this city, but now settled in Lyndon Centre, Vt., is making a brief stay among his many friends in Portsmouth, having arrived the latter part of last week. Mr. Owen drove the whole distance from his Vermont home in a buggy, accompanied by Mrs. Owen, and reports that vegetation along the route seemed to be doing finely.

The schooner Wingaersheek, after a stay of several days on the marine railway at Kittery, will come off this morning, and the fishing schooner Good Templar will go on.

On Friday evening of last week, in Kittery, Mrs. Martha K. Trefethen, mother of Capt. "Rashe" Trefethen of the steamer Mystic, and Mrs. Lettie Trefethen, wife of Frank Trefethen, were thrown from a carriage in which they were riding through the tipping of the seat, occasioned by a sudden start of the horse. Both ladies were considerably bruised, though no permanent injuries were sustained.

The schooner Addie & Hattie sailed for the eastward on the 11th inst., on a trip for lobsters for Randall & Caswell. About 700 lobsters were brought in to George Herbert on the 10th, by small boats.

The stone taken from Gangway rock and the Badger's island ledge is carried to the Newcastle breakwater, and used to widen and strengthen that structure. There are now two drilling stages in place over Gangway rock, and the contractors' two sloops are employed in lifting and transporting the stone broken from the obstruction.

The wire rigging for the new schooner now approaching completion at Freeman's point, is being fitted by Capt. Jos. C. Muchmore in his rigging loft at the Point of Graves, formerly the iron foundry. The rope, one coil of which weighed nearly two tons, was hauled from the Eastern railroad station to the loft by Mr. Charles Konney.

A Cough, Cold or Sore Throat

Should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an Incurable Lung Disease or Consumption. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" do not disorder the stomach like cough syrups and balsams, but act directly on the inflamed parts, allaying irritation, give relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Cough, Catarrh, and the Throat Troubles which Singers and Public Speakers are subject to. For thirty years "Brown's Bronchial Troches" have been recommended by physicians, and have always given perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. A PLEASANT LETTER.

It Rings of a Grateful Heart and gives Honor where Honor is Due.

Mr. William W. Chadwick, of Hatchville, Conn., writes under date of June 14, 1880, to Dr. Kennedy, to say that the use of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" has cured him of Gall stone, from which he had experienced everything but comfort for a long time. Mr. Chadwick felt wholly cured when he wrote, and says: "I have had no pain for six months, and have also regained my flesh and can stand a fair day's work. I recommend Kennedy's Favorite Remedy to any one suffering from a deranged liver." Grateful patients are common. Dr. Kennedy is daily in receipt of letters from them, expressing similar sentiments. These letters are spontaneous and put in all varities of phraseology, but invariably testify forth one thing—the value of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for many forms of disease. It may be just the thing you have been looking for. Is your liver disordered? Have you derangement of the kidneys or bladder, associated with constipation of the bowels? If so, you want "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy." Dr. Kennedy practices medicine and surgery in all their branches. Write and state your case frankly. Letters promptly answered. Address Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.

WHEAT BITTERS
THE Great LIQUID FOOD
FOR BLOOD, BRAIN AND NERVES.
IS A SUPERIOR NUTRITIVE MEDICINE, RICH IN PHOSPHATES AND NOT A CHEAP, ALCOHOLIC DRINK.—Highly recommended by Chemists and Physicians as A POSITIVE TONIC, ALWAYS ACCEPTABLE AND RELIABLE,
as it does not stimulate the brain or irritate the system and leave deleterious effects. On the contrary, it furnishes just that which is necessary to the brain, strengthens and quiets the nerves, purifies the heart's blood, and thereby makes only the best fresh, bone and muscle. IS A SPECIFIC for NERVOUS and GENERAL DEBILITY, MALARIA, DYSPEPSIA, INSOMNIA. Produces a healthy action of the liver and Kidneys, fortifying the system against the miasmatic influence, and will be found invaluable in all pulmonary and bronchial difficulties. DELICATE FEMALES, NURSING MOTHERS and WEAKLY CHILDREN can find no remedy equal to this healthful blood and nerve food tonic. 1.75 a sale by all Druggists. $1.00 per bottle. Prepared only by WHEAT BITTERS CO., Office 19 Park Place, New York City.

Greene or "Greeney."

Ex-Judge Dennison, formerly chief justice of Washington territory, was arguing a motion in the district court before his honor Chas. J. Greene, who is credited with being a very scholarly man. Judge Dennison is a lawyer of the old school—tall, clean-shaven, with deep-toned voice and stately manner. Having occasion to refer to "Browne on Medical Jurisprudence," Dennison pronounced the name as if in two syllables, Brow-ne. Judge Greene interrupted him with the remark; "I presume you mean Brown, do you not?" "Your honor," replied Dennison, "this author's name is spelled B-r-o-w-n-e, and if that doesn't spell Brow-ne, I do not know what does." "But," said the judge, "my name is spelled G-r-e-e-n-e, and you wouldn't call me 'Greeney,' would you?" Without a smile on his sphinx-like face, and in his most sepulchral tone, came the answer, which convulsed the court: "Your honor, that will depend on how you decide this motion."

Found Him Sociable.

Not long since a young lady of New York city took it into her head to get married without paternal consent. The young man whom she loved was objected to by her father, on the ground that he was not well enough off, as far as this world's goods were concerned, to take care of his daughter; and although he had never seen his intended son-in-law, he asserted that he was not competent to earn for her a respectable living. In spite of opposition, however, the wedding took place at the time appointed, and it is needless to say that the father was not numbered among the guests. The young couple found a modest home in the neighborhood of the parental mansion, and still the irate father refused to recognize them. But he was not of an unsociable nature, and he was noted for making acquaintances on the horse-cars on his way to and from business. It was not strange, therefore, that he entered into conversation with a sociable young man at his side on his way home the other evening, but it was a little surprising, as he was rather cautious, that he should have been so entirely fascinated by the young man's remarks. "Why," he said, "you are a person exactly after my own heart; you display in your words a remarkable business tact, and are destined to be a rich man. If it is not an impertinent question, who are you and what is your name?" "I am your son-in-law," quietly observed the future Vanderbilt, as he motioned to the conductor to stop the car.

No cheap mixture to impose on credulous humanity is Wheat Bitters; it is a most potent tonic and recuperant. Try it and be convinced.

—Arkansas has a mineral spring whose waters turn as red as blood when bottled, and Kentucky has an oil well from which refined petroleum, all ready for domestic use, profusely gurgles.

—An American anatomist maintains that owing to the diminution in hard knocks and butting, the human skull is becoming thinner.

Beautiful skin, and fair complexion, robust health, and powers of endurance follow the use of Brown's Iron Bitters.

—The largest human skull has a capacity of 114 cubic inches, being about twice the size of the smallest adult human skull.

There is no bitters in the market which will do so many people good without the risk of doing anybody harm as Wheat Bitters.

—Paper made from strong fibers can now be compressed into a substance so hard that nothing but a diamond can scratch it.

The Perpetuity of Fame.

As the name of the immortal Washington has been most sacredly perpetuated as that of a hero and statesman, so also has the fame of Swayne's Ointment for skin diseases, descended into perpetuity as the only reliable remedy in the market, for every character of skin disorders, and as the reward of well-deserving merit. Worth and merit go hand-in-hand. It is useless to contradict the worth of this article.

Summer Complaints

At this season, various diseases of the bowels are prevalent, and many lives are lost through lack of knowledge of a safe and sure remedy. PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is a sure cure for Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Summer Complaint, etc., and is perfectly safe.

Read the following:

BAINBRIDGE, N. Y., March 22, 1881.
PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER never fails to afford instant relief for cramp and pain in the stomach.
JOSEPH BURNETT.

NICHOLVILLE, N. Y., Feb. 2, 1881.
The very best medicine we know of for dysentery, cholera morbus, and cramps in the stomach. Have used it for years, and it is sure every time.
JULIUS W. DER.

MONROONA, IOWA, March 12, 1881.
I have used your PAIN KILLER in severe cases of cramp, colic and cholera morbus, and it gave almost instant relief.
J. E. CALDWELL.

CARNESVILLE, GA., Feb. 28, 1881.
For twenty years I have used your PAIN KILLER in my family. Have used it many times for bowel complaints, and it always cures. Would not feel safe without a bottle in the house.
J. R. IVIE.

BACO, ME., Jan. 25, 1881.
Have used PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER for twelve years. It is safe, sure, and reliable. No mother should allow it to be out of the family.
H. I. NAYES.

ONEIDA, N. Y., Feb. 19, 1881.
We began using it over fifty years ago, and it always gives immediate relief. Would hardly dare to go to bed without a bottle in the house.
DR. I. STERRY.

CONWAYBORO, S. C., Feb. 22, 1881.
Nearly every family in this section keeps a bottle in the house.
DR. E. MORTON.

U. S. CONSULATE,
CREFELD, RHENISH PRUSSIA, Feb. 8, 1881.
I have known PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER almost from the day it was introduced, and after years of observation and use I regard its presence in my household as an indispensable necessity.
I. S. PORTER, U. S. Consul.

BURTON-ON-TRENT, ENG.
I had been several days suffering severely from diarrhœa, accompanied with intense pain, when I tried your PAIN KILLER, and found almost instant relief.
H. J. NOONE.

21 MONTAGUE ST., LONDON, ENG.
During a residence of twenty-three years in India, I have given it in many cases of diarrhœa, dysentery, and cholera, and never knew it to fail to give relief.
R. CLARIDGE.

No family can safely be without this invaluable remedy. Its price brings it within the reach of all.

CatarrH

Hay-FeveR

DIRECTIONS.

For Catarrh, Hay Fever or Cold in the Head, etc., insert with little finger a particle of the Balm into the nostrils; draw strong breaths through the nose. It will be absorbed, cleansing and healing the diseased membrane.

FOR DEAFNESS, Apply a particle into the ear, rubbing in thoroughly.

—A fair trial will convince the most skeptical.—

ELYS' CREAM BALM

Effectually cleanses the nasal passages of Catarrhal virus, causing healthy secretions, allays inflammation and irritation, protects the membranal linings of the head from additional colds, completely heals the sores and restores the sense of taste and smell. Beneficial results are realized by a few applications. A thorough treatment as directed will cure Catarrh. As a household remedy for cold in the head and snuffles it is unequalled. The Balm is easy to use and agreeable. Sold by all druggists at 50 cts. On receipt of 50 cts. will mail a pack age. Send for circular with full information.

THE
New Hampshire Gazette!
Established 1756.
The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or offered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

— THE —
NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE
Contains more original matter
Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS
THE N. H. GAZETTE
Presents an excellent opportunity for a weekly invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in local ities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

STRENGTH

to vigorously push a business, strength to study a profession, strength to regulate a household, strength to do a day's labor without physical pain. All this represents what is wanted, in the often heard expression, "Oh! I wish I had the strength!" If you are broken down, have not energy, or feel as if life was hardly worth living, you can be relieved and restored to robust health and strength by taking BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, which is a true tonic—a medicine universally recommended for all wasting diseases.

for N. Fremont St., Baltimore

During the war I was injured in the stomach by a piece of a shell, and have suffered from it ever since. About four years ago it brought on paralysis, which kept me in bed six months, and the best doctors in the city said I could not live. I suffered fearfully from indigestion, and for over two years could not eat solid food and for a large portion of the time was unable to retain even liquid nourishment. I tried Brown's Iron Bitters and now after taking two bottles I am able to get up and go around and am rapidly improving.

G. DECKER.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is a complete and sure remedy for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Malaria, Weakness and all diseases requiring a true, reliable, non-alcoholic tonic. It enriches the blood, gives new life to the muscles and tone to the nerves.

The Hotel-Keeper's View.

The management of a great hotel requires as much executive ability as the command of a brigade in the field. The same attention to details is necessary, and a strict system, which approaches military discipline, is followed. The profits of a hotel may be largely diminished or frittered away entirely through lack of judgment on the part of the heads of departments, through the various leakages that are apt to, occur in every large establishment. In speaking of the losses of hotels, a hotel-man said recently:

"In a well-managed hotel, however large, the losses are not so great as is often supposed. Take the provisions. With careful buying and adequate ice-houses and cooling-rooms, there should be very little wasted. Things that are not used as orginally intended in some other way, as, for example, fruit which is not available for dessert, can be turned into tarts and pies. But the greatest loss in food is caused by the guests themselves when meals are served table d'hote. Of course a first-class house presents a bill of fare for any meal which contains more than five men can eat. There are some people, who are not accustomed to the best fare, and are unable to make selections, and they simply go in on the principle of getting their money's worth. So they order everything, and if at dinner go straight through from soup to coffee, calling for every dish that the menu contains. Of course, they can't eat one quarter of the amount, and so they leave a great deal to be wasted. There is a chance also for the waiters to cause a loss by bringing more things than they want, in the hope that this undue attention will increase their fees. But the head waiter and the controller who stand at the door always keep a sharp lookout for this, and when a waiter is found bringing a guest a dozen things instead of two he really wanted, he is immediately discharged. First-class waiters as a rule are very smart men. They are usually French, German or Italian, generally speak two, three or four languages, and often have some education. The best waiter I ever knew was something of a musician, and no mean artist. Then he was an admirable waiter, and had the knack of satisfactorily serving a great many people at the same time. He received the usual salary of $30 to $35 a month and board. We offered him the position of head waiter at a salary of $100 a month, and he refused it. He told me afterward that he should have lost money by taking the place; so you see what his fees must have amounted to. At a great seaside hotel in the height of the season a good waiter will make from $5 to $15 a day in fees. It is no uncommon thing for a waiter to receive a dollar as a single fee, and if he is serving a large party he sometimes gets $5.

"But returning to the losses in hotels, I come to the bar, which is really the most important feature of a house. No hotel can be successfully run without a bar. The goods are imperishable, and the receipts are so largely profit that the manager often expects the bar alone to pay the expenses of running the hotel. No system of checks that I know of is effectual in preventing the bar-keepers from 'knocking down;' still I don't think there is much of it done at the best houses. The reason is that the best men attainable are selected for the places, and they are paid good salaries. I know a man who next week goes to a Saratoga hotel to be head bar-keeper. For the season of three months he receives $400 and all his expenses, which is not bad pay. And good bar-tenders employed the year round often receive $1,200 and $1,500. The linen department of a hotel, extensive as it is, is under one head. The housekeeper daily allots to each chambermaid, who has a fixed number of rooms under her charge, a certain number of towels and sheets. These are checked against the chambermaid's name, and, of course, she has to return the same number. A like plan is followed with the table linen. Then the laundry is charged with the number of pieces sent to it, and credit is given when they are returned. Everything about the house is thus divided into departments, the heads of which are responsible to the manager or proprietor.

"In the past there has been considerable money lost through hotel beats' and by cashing checks. But a shrewd, experienced clerk can usually measure his man pretty exactly, and if he has any well-founded doubts, it is a very simple matter to say that the custom of the house is for strangers to pay in advance. I don't think there is so much money lost in this way as there used to be, although hotel-keepers are still occasionally taken in. Most hotels now flatly refuse to cash checks or drafts for anyone. That game has been played too often. Of course, with the large number of employes in a great seaside house, the expenses are enormous, but the profits of a successful house are correspondingly great. At the Long Beach hotel, which is probably the largest seaside house now open, there are between 300 and 400 employes, and expenses of running the house amount to about $1,000 a day."—Tribune.

An Impossibility.

Deserving articles are always appreciated. The exceptional cleanliness of Parker's Hair Balsam makes it popular. Gray hairs are impossible with its occasional use.

New Haven, Conn., has advanced the salaries of its school teachers. The highest paid is $2,700, to the principal of the high school, and the grammar school masters receive from $2,500 down to $2,100.

How it was Done.

"How do you manage," said a lady to her friend, "to appear so happy and good natured all the time?" "I always have Parker's Ginger Tonic handy," was the reply, "and thus easily keep myself and family in good health. When I am well I always feel good natured."

A valuable colt belonging to Edward Flint of Shrewsbury, Mass., was so badly hurt recently through getting entangled in a barbed-wire fence that it had to be killed.

Invalid wives and mothers quickly restored to health by using Brown's Iron Bitters. A true tonic.

In court at Providence, R. I., June 10th, the grand jury returned an indictment against Henry Bush, for murdering Isabella Haile May 31st. Bush was arraigned, pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to state prison for life.

A Fool and His Money Soon Part.

How true some of these old sayings are. A friend of mine paid a travelling quack $50 to cure him of scrofula, from which he had suffered two years. He gave him a bottle of stuff which only aggravated the disease. When he went to consult him a second time, the quack had left for parts unknown. Upon learning the circumstances I recommended Sulphur Bitters. Five bottles cured him.—Courier.

In Chicago, June 9th, Mrs. Caspar Seybolt poisoned her four children, the oldest aged fourteen years and the youngest four months, with strychnine, dressed the corpses in white clothes with bright-colored ribbons, put flowers in their hands, and then poisoned herself.

"An Odd Street Scene."

He was seen in front of the office rubbing himself against the telegraph post like a flea-bitten dog. "What is wrong?" we ventured to ask. "Gotem, 'gent,'" he said laconically; have 'em every spring, small lumps form about the rectum; sore to the touch; they itch like blazes; "a telegraph pole's like an oasis in the desert to me." Here then, was poor humanity suffering from a complaint which a few applications of Swayne's Ointment for itching piles, would have thoroughly eradicated.

Cuticura

THE NEW BLOOD PURIFIER

Resolvent

Mr. Albert Kingsbury, Keene, N. H., troubled with bad humor on hands and neck, caused by lead poisoning. (He's a painter.) At times it would break out, crack open, and the skin separate from the flesh in large pieces, suffering great continual itching and stinging. Purchased your remedies, used Cuticura Resolvent internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally, and in less than three months effected a complete cure, and has not been troubled since. Corroborated by Bullard & Foster, Druggists, Keene, N. H.

Mother Died from it.

J. W. Adams, Newark, Ohio, says: "Cuticura Remedies are the greatest medicine on earth. Had the worst case salt rheum in this county. My mother had it twenty years, and in fact died from it. I believe Cuticura would have saved her life. My arms, breast and head were covered for three years, which nothing relived or cured until I used the Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally.

Psoriasis.

H. E. Carpenter, Esq., Henderson, N. Y., cured of Psoriasis or Leprosy, of twenty years' standing, by the Cuticura Resolvent internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally. The most wonderful case on record. Cure certified to before a justice of the peace and prominent citizens. All afflicted with itching and scaly diseases should send to us for this testimonial in full.

Salt Rheum.

Those who have experienced the torments of Salt Rheum can appreciate the agony I endured for years, until cured by the Cuticura Resolvent internally and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally.

STARTLING DISCOVERY!

LOST MANHOOD RESTORED.

A victim of youthful imprudence causing Premature Decay, Nervous Debility, Lost Manhood, etc., having tried in vain every known remedy, has discovered a simple self cure, which he will send FREE to his fellow-sufferers, address J. H. REEVES, 43 Chatham St., N. Y.

A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be in introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apethecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

L. Merrill late last week discovered in a pond in Turner, Me., the body of an unknown man, that had evidently been in the water a long time. There was no clothing, and the features are so decomposed as to be unrecognizable. A young man named Leavitt disappeared last fall from Turner, and it is conjectured that it may be his body.

Parents who allow their children to grow up with scrofulous humors bursting from every pore are guilty of a great wrong. Think of them pointed out as branded with a loathsome disease, and you will readily procure them the Cuticura remedies.

The Opinion of Rockland, Me., reports that Ex-Mayor George S. Wiggin of Rockland, now about seventy-six years of age, has been blackmailed by a Mrs. Wardwell, with aliases, also of Rockland, for the last two years or more, until nearly all his property is gone. The Opinion says it is not thought that Mr. Wiggin has been guilty of impropriety, much less of crime, but his mind has become weakened by age and illness, and this woman threatened to make vile statements, and by so doing extorted nearly all his property, not far from $4,000.

A pure, wholesome distillation of witch hazel, American pine, Canada fir, marigold, clover blossoms, etc., fragrant with the healing essences of balsam and pine. Such is Sanford's Radical Cure for catarrh. Complete treatment for $1.

The contract for building the new Catholic church in Newport was awarded to Hiram Beckwith of Claremont, and work has been commenced.

"If you know of any one who is suffering from rheumatism, bruise or sprain, tell such to use St. Jacobs Oil," says Mr. Rosenthal, of the well known printing house of Rosenthal and Roesch, 538 California street, San Francisco, Cal. "We all know of St. Jacobs Oil, and are perfectly amazed at the suddenness of the relief it affords."

And Mr. Robie was declared the candidate. On motion of A. A. Stroat, of Portland, the vote was made unanimous.

The Andover Trouble.

A correspondent writing from Andover, Mass., thus refers to the trouble at the Theological Seminary there:

"Things—theologically—are somewhat mixed on Zion's Hill at the present time. It is hard work for the trustees to find any one who can swallow the 'Tremendous Creed' (as the Congregationalist calls it) of this Orthodox seminary to fill the three vacant chairs at present waiting for occupation. It is not altogether sure that what the seminary will have to close its doors for lack of both professors and students, unless a new departure is taken. The old creed of fifty or sixty years ago is not relished by the present generation, and when it is claimed by almost everybody, right here under the shadow of the institution, that the professors, trustees, visitors and students, don't believe in the creed themselves, it appears to the unregenerate mortal that it is about time such hypocrisy was shown up. The anniversaries come off this week, and I suppose the whole thing will be discussed pro and con."

News and Notes.

Edward R. Prescott, the old man who murdered his mother-in-law in Somerville, Mass., some months ago, has been sent to an insane asylum.

Joseph B. Lawrence was assaulted and robbed on the highway in Canton, Mass., on the evening of June 12th, by two men calling themselves John May and Michael Kenney. The villains were arrested and held for trial.

Wm. Milliken of Boston, while hunting in the Adirondacks on the 10th inst., was killed by a bear, and a guide who went to the rescue was fatally injured. Two old bears were killed, and three cubs captured.

The bodies found in the Connecticut river at Hartford, Conn., June 11th, have been identified as those of Moses Perkins and John Flaherty, both of Holyoke, Mass., where they were drowned while fishing on the 31st of May.

Murder is suspected in the case of the unknown man found dead in the woods at Malden, Mass., there being a bullet hole in his head.

Saturday night at Montmorency falls, province of Quebec, a farmer named Laberge was driving home with his daughter, a married woman, when the horse became unmanageable near a bridge on the road which crosses the river about 300 feet above the falls. The vehicle struck the bridge, throwing Laberge upon the bridge and pitching the woman, horse and cart into the torrent, which swept them over the falls of nearly three hundred feet. The body of the woman was subsequently found at the foot of the falls. She leaves seven children.

The training ship Portsmouth, having been recaulked at Portsmouth, Eng., has sailed for Brest, to join the Saratoga.

New Hampshire Items.

New Hampshire had on its farms June 1st, 1880, 46,773 horses, an increase of twenty per cent in ten years; also 87 mules, 29,152 working oxen, 90,564 milch cows, 112,689 other cattle, 211,825 sheep, and 63,437 swine.

The 38th yearly anniversary of the national division, Sons of Temperance, will convene at Concord, July 12th.

Daniel Stevens' grocery store at Newton Junction was robbed Saturday night, money taken from the drawer, and goods stolen. No clue to the thief.

In Alstead, on the 11th inst., the Congregational church and two dwellings were burned. Boy—matches—shavings.

The Dover reform club managers report an empty treasury, and the club will have to disband unless the citizens outside the club tender assistance.

A saw mill on Gen. Hoitt's farm on the Barrington and Nottingham line was burned on the 10th inst. Loss $800; no insurance.

Thomas Wilson of Dunbarton, aged seventy-seven years, one of the most prominent citizens of the town, fell off a load of hay on the 10th inst., and was instantly killed.

AROUND HOME.

It is reported that a number of cats and dogs in various parts of the city have been poisoned recently by persons unknown.

Joseph A. Meloon, of Portsmouth, who entered the employ of Senator Rollins nearly five years ago, as private stenographer, now holds the position of private secretary to Hon. William E. Chandler, secretary of the navy. Mr. Meloon is a very popular and efficient young gentleman, and made many friends in the pension department, where he has recently performed important duties under the personal superintendence of Commissioner Dudley. He served for a time as secretary of one of the leading senate committees, and his rapid promotion will be appreciated in New Hampshire, where his valuable services for our republican state committee are still fresh in mind.—Concord Monitor.

A lobster weighing twenty-two pounds and a half was caught at Kittery point last week. It was good for nothing.

Ephraim C. Spinney, Esq., of Kittery, has sixteen acres in crop this year, mostly planted with potatoes. He has ploughed up the orchard near the Eastern railroad station, south of the road from Portsmouth bridge to the navy yard, for the first time in many years, and will crop it this season and lay it down to grass again next fall.

The upper rooms in the cottage of Dr. Hawkes, at York harbor, it is said are being finished and fitted up for the reception of summer boarders.

Mr. Joseph Bragdon, of York, has arrived home from Vermont with eight fine horses, for service in his livery stable and on his stage line.

The Centennial house on Sea point, Gerrish's island, Kittery, George Patch proprietor, was opened on the 7th inst. to a company of about twenty persons from Kittery.

Charles Preble of York last winter cut 1500 cakes of ice from his pond, of which 300 cakes were put in the ice-house of the hotel Bartlett. Andrew P. Webber cut 250 tons, which he stored in his own houses, for supplying hotels and fishing vessels during the summer. Samuel G. Donnell cut 400 cakes on the old Bayberry marsh at Long beach.

Capt. Daniel W. Frisbee of Kittery Point, for thirty years or more interested in shipping out of this port, has removed to Dexter, a town in Penobscot county, thirty miles northwest of Bangor, where he will never be able to see a vessel at all. We expect he will feel awfully lonesome.

Leonard C. Cook, of Castle hill, Kittery, was thrown from his team on Thursday of last week at the Hanover street crossing of High street in this city, through the horse being frightened by two rabbits running across the street; a boy in the wagon at the time jumped out, and escaped injury, but Mr. Cook was considerably hurt, and has since been confined to his house.

The case of George N. Johnson, charged with excessive cruelty to a pupil while teacher of the school in district one of York, which has been before the supreme judicial court for York county for a year or more, has been a third time postponed, and the trial is now assigned for the January term of the court at Alfred. The defendant is now teaching a school in Manchester, N. H.

The new yacht "Neuno," owned by Mr. Sam. K. Pillsbury of Kittery, is built much after the model of the "Myth," in which Mr. Pillsbury won a number of races several years ago; but the new boat is much the larger of the two.

Miss Helen Sewall, daughter of Rev. D. B. Sewall of York, is teaching the school in district one for the summer term, and giving entire satisfaction to the parents, while having no trouble with the pupils. Under Miss Sewall's supervision the children recently had an "Arbor day," when each child sat out a tree in the schoolhouse grounds.

The Universalist society will hold their annual strawberry festival and sale of aprons and fancy work in Congress hall, June 14th and 15th. There will be a pleasing stage entertainment, with an entire change of programme each evening. Among the attractions will be an "Esthetic Concert" on the 14th, and by special request, the "Broom Drill" will be given on the 15th. Vocal music will be furnished by a quartette, and a lady soloist from Stratham. Doors open at 6:00; supper served from 6:30 to 8:30; entertainment at 9:00 o'clock. Admission 15 cts.

BRIGHTON CATTLE MARKET.

For week ending Wednesday, June 7.

[Reported for the Boston Journal.]

Amount of stock at market—Cattle 1149; Sheep and Lambs 7200; Swine 31,300; Veals 103; number of western cattle 864; eastern and northern cattle, milch cows, etc., 285.

Prices of Beef Cattle per 100 lbs, live weight—Extra quality $8.50 @ 9.00; first quality $7.50 @ 8.00; second quality $6.50 @ 7.37½; third quality $5.75 @ 6.37½; poorest grades of coarse oxen, bulls, etc., $4.50 @ 5.62½.

Brighton hides 9c @ 9½c ℔ lb.

Brighton tallow 7c ℔ lb.

Country hides, light ones, 6¾ @ 7c ℔ lb; heavy ones, 8 @ 8½c ℔ lb.

Country tallow 5c ℔ lb.

Shearlings skins 25 @ 40c each.

Lamb skins 50 @ 75c each.

The quality of beeves in market from the west was of a better grade than those in one week ago. Cattle cost full as high at the west, but the trade here has been very dull at a decline of 50 @ 75c ℔ 100 lbs from that obtained one week ago. The supply from the west, though light, was full as large as the market required, as there was not any call for extra beeves for the English market, trade being confined exclusively to butchers' trade.

Working Oxen—Only a few pairs in market and not much call for them during the hot weather. A few pairs each week is all the markets require. We note sales of 1 pr, girth 6 ft 10 in, live weight 3000 lbs, $155; 1 pr, girth 7 ft, live weight 3200 lbs, at $157.

Milch Cows and Springers—Extra $65 @ 75; ordinary $20 @ $50; springers $20 @ 65; farrow cows $16 @ 31. Good cows are in fair demand; common grades not so much call for. We note sales of 1 springer at $65; 1 do $60; 3 new milch cows at $55 each; 2 cows and 2 calves for $120; 1 new milch cow at $47; 1 do at $45; 1 farrow at $30; 1 do at $32; 1 new milch cow $67.50.

Sheep and Lambs—Those from the west were all owned by G W Hollis & Co., who employ agents at the west to buy and ship direct to them each week for slaughter, western sheep costing, landed here at 6 @ 6½c ℔ lb live weight; lambs 8 @ 9c ℔ lb live weight.

Swine—Store Pigs—Small spring pigs sell at prices ranging from $1 @ 5.50 ℔ head; shoats at 7 @ 8c ℔ lb, live weight. Western fat hogs are costing 7½ @ 8½c ℔ lb live weight, landed at the slaughter houses; the number brought in the past week has been very large.

LIEBIG MALT EXTRACT.

RECOMMENDED BY PHYSICIANS of the highest eminence on both sides of the Atlantic, as an invaluable Tonic and Restorative in cases of General Debility, Nervous Depression, Disturbed Constitution and Female Weakness.

NURSING MOTHERS, who suffer from poverty of milk, will find it a specific for their troubles. It stimulates the digestion, sharpens the appetite, invigorates and builds up the entire system, and excites a generous flow of milk.

WEAK AND SICKLY CHILDREN, who suffer from inanition and wasting, the result of disease, over-study, or nervous strain, will derive substantial benefit from its use. It restores the system to its normal condition and brings back the bloom of youth.

INVALIDS AND CONVALESCENTS will find it admirably adapted for sustaining life, and restoring lost strength. When the stomach is weak and refuses other nourishment the Extract will prove an excellent substitute for food. It neither palls upon the appetite nor offends the taste.

DELICATE FEMALES, who suffer from the weaknesses of their sex, will derive lasting relief from its use. It invigorates the circulation, purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, and revives the spirits.

WEAK AND DELICATE PERSONS GENERALLY, who require some artificial restorative—and especially those who are inclined to Consumption—will find this preparation exactly suited to their needs. It is a specific for the Coughs and Nervous Affections usually incident to a low state of the system.

AS A FLESH RESTORER it possesses the highest value. The whole tendency of its action is to stimulate the digestion of ill-providing foods, and its effect is invariably to give fullness and roundness to the female form, and robustness to the masculine frame.

THE LIEBIG MALT EXTRACT is a pure concentrated fluid Extract of Malt, agreeable to the taste, and free from alcohol. It is readily retained on the stomach and contains none but wholesome and nourishing ingredients. The genuine preparation bears on the label a fine engraved vignette of BARON VON LIEBIG, and a FAC-SIMILE of his Signature, as well as that of A. VOGELER & CO., BALTIMORE, Md., Sole Agents for America.

LIFE INSURANCE !

The Semi-Endowment Policy of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is believed to be the most desirable plan of insurance ever offered.

Among its advantages are: A definitely guaranteed cash value at a specified time. A paid-up policy for full value in case of discontinuance. Its period (20 years) covers the productive years of life, when insurance is mostly needed. It provides for old age. Above the age of 40 the rates are less than for life policies in other companies, while below 40 they are but little in excess of ordinary life premiums.

Parties insured in Co-operative Societies are requested to compare the net cost of these policies with that of assessment insurance.

SAMPSON & CO., PAINTERS.

One of the most extensive and best appointed paint shops in this city is the one in Commercial Alley conducted by Messrs. W. J. Sampson & Co., who employ a force of over twenty men, all of whom are competent workmen, and a number of whom merit the title of artists in their line. Sampson & Co.'s stock of paints includes all the new and favorite colors and shades, and the work done by the firm not only stands the test of present inspection, but the severer one of time and wear. Many of the handsomest signs on the business places of the city were painted at this establishment; and especial attention is paid to the repainting and renovating of furniture. One of the partners makes paper-hanging his personal specialty, and not only furnishes measurements and estimates, but places his large experience at the service of the firm's patrons, in the way of advising as to the most suitable styles of paper and the selection of harmonizing tints for the paint-work, when desired. Gilding, fresco painting, ebonizing—in short, all branches of the business are carried on by Sampson & Co., the labor being done by skilled workmen under the personal supervision of the principals, who guarantee entire satisfaction in all cases.

HARLOW'S CONCERT.

On Friday evening, at Music hall, will be given the concert which Mr. Harlow was unavoidably compelled to postpone from the date first set. That the audience will be a large one can hardly be doubted, when the attractions offered and the popular prices of tickets are considered. The Wentworth house orchestra, (sixteen pieces,) assisted by the favorite soprano, Miss Edith Wendell, the solo pianist and accompanist, Mrs. Martha Dana Shepard, and the only solo whistler (and a young lady at that) who has ever appeared on the concert stage, make up a bill which should have drawing power sufficient to crowd the hall. Of the performance of Miss Chamberlin the Bangor Whig says: "There is something inexpressibly sweet in this lady's whistling, the notes being like those of a bird, although far more powerful;" and the Cambridge Chronicle asserts that "her whistling powers excel anything of the kind we have ever heard from human lips. She is a veritable siren, and her flute-like notes are so bewitching that we are sure they would lure the mother bird from her nest." Tickets for the concert can be procured at Preston's.

THE PATENT VALVE BUSINESS.

Deputy Marshal Kent on Tuesday served upon this city a writ returnable at the term of the United States circuit court in October, in favor of Marcus P. Norton, trustee and assignee in trust, Benj. Richardson, and Christopher C. Campbell, assignee in trust for James Knibbs, plaintiffs against the city of Portsmouth for infringement of the patent for improvements in pumps for steam fire engines under a patent granted May 24th, 1864. The declaration makes a printed pamphlet of seventy-two pages. The amount of damages claimed is sixty thousand dollars. Messrs. Caverly and Kivel are attorneys, and Messrs. Wadleigh, Fish and Wellman of Boston, with Benj. F. Butler as senior, are counsel for the plaintiffs. The writ was filed in the clerk's office.

TEMPLARS' EXCURSION.

Portland Commandry of Knights Templar, E. Commander Fobes, will leave Portland on Friday, the 23d inst., at three o'clock in the afternoon, in a special train for this city, arriving here about five o'clock, and take carriages for the hotel Wentworth, where they will pass the night. On Saturday morning they will return to this city in time to take the regular morning train on the Concord & Portsmouth railroad for Newmarket junction, where they will take the Boston & Maine cars for Haverhill, Mass., spending the day in that city, and returning to Portland in the evening over the Boston & Maine road.

A CARD.

PORTSMOUTH, June 13th.

Mr. Editor: Allow me through the columns of your paper to earnestly thank Mr. Oscar Laighton, of the Appledore and Oceanic houses, Isles of Shoals, for his kind and prompt assistance rendered the schooner "Java" this day,—for it is a rare thing now-a-days to find a man who will follow the Golden Rule, especially to a vessel when in a dangerous position.

D. W. PATRICK, master sch. "Java."

A HUMAN BRUTE.

The prosecuting agent of the New Hampshire Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals makes occasional raids upon offenders even in the most remote and obscure portions of the state; examples of gross abuse and heartless neglect of dependent dumb animals are brought to light and visited with the penalties of a most righteous law.

Warrants were issued for the arrest of Dr. Geo. B. Leet, J. B. Crossley and one McCormick by Justice Wallace of Canaan, last week, on complaint of the S. P. C. A. agent. McCormick and Leet were charged with cruelly beating their horses. The offence for which Crossley was arrested was that he had starved two horses, and part of a herd of cows, to death. Upon investigation, the emaciated remains of five cows, two calves and a horse were discovered, lying upon the ground and polluting the air with a sickening stench within gun shot distance of the proprietor's dwelling. The hides of all but one of the cows had been taken off for sale, and the wasted condition of the bodies gave woful evidence of the long-continued sufferings of the poor beasts. The bodies of two posthumous calves lying beside their mothers added to the ghastly horror of the scene.

The remains of other animals were discovered rotting unburied on the ground where death ended their torture, after weeks of lingering agony. The owner of the famine-smitten herd was arrested and arraigned before Justice Wallace, and upon a plea of nolo contendere and a promise of proper care of his remaining creatures, was let off with a fine of ten dollars and costs, which he paid, and departed a sadder though wiser —— farmer.

The present high price of beef can easily be accounted for if many such cases exist among stock raisers in the country.

The conductors on the Concord railroad are uniformed in blue. Conductor Wyatt's new suit is quite in tone.

Commodore A. R. Yates, equipment officer at the navy yard, has been granted a brief leave of absence.

The young ladies of Miss Morgan's school held a pleasant reception on Tuesday evening. The term has closed, and Miss Morgan with a party of friends leaves for New York on Thursday to take steamer for a trip to Europe.

During Commodore Wells' absence from the navy yard, Capt. A. E. K. Benham has been commanding the station.

The steamer Acushnet arrived on Tuesday evening from Boston with a large cargo. On the way she landed a lot of merchandise at Appledore island, and thirteen girls and some freight at Star island for the "Oceanic." She also brought some freight for the gondola which has been remodelled into an exact resemblance of Noah's ark, as pictured in the old Columbian Bible, and which the tug Ann will tow to Dover to-day.

At the chapel of the North Parish on Middle street, this evening, the Sunday school of the parish will give an entertainment, consisting of music, dialogues, character representations, etc. Strawberries, cake and ice cream will be served to those who desire.

Sheriff Kent is in official custody of the clothing store of Henry Leveen, attachments to an amount between four and five thousand dollars having been made upon the stock, which is to be appraised by Ed. S. Fay, Chas. E. Simpson and another dealer, on Wednesday.

There was some complaint, one or two days last week, that though the dust was flying briskly the sprinkling carts were not kept going the whole time. The cause of this apparent neglect we are told was beyond the control of Mr. A. K. Brown, who owns and runs the sprinklers. The water for the carts is taken from the reservoir near Puddle dock, being pumped by an engine from the reservoir into an elevated tank; this reservoir is fed through a pipe which extends some distance outside of Liberty bridge, and which during ordinary tides furnishes an abundant supply; but during the very low tides of last week the conduit was bare from an hour to an hour and a half each tide, when of course the supply was cut off. To us it appears that this is a serious defect in an otherwise very valuable reservoir for fire extinguishing purposes.

Oak Hall Agency in Portsmouth.

Messrs. G. W. Simmons & Son, of Oak Hall, Boston, have established an agency for this city and vicinity for the sale of their custom and ready made men's and boys' clothing, at No. 33 Market street, Portsmouth, where anything contained at Oak Hall, Boston, can be procured, at the same prices as in Boston. Several dollars can be saved by buying your own and your children's clothing at the Oak Hall Agency, as they sell at the lowest prices in New England.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup." It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere Twenty-five cents a bottle. cod&wtjan82

An Important Change of Scheme.

Success has rewarded the energy, ability, integrity, and charity characterizing every action of the management of the world-famed distributions of The Louisiana State Lottery. So greatly has the demand for tickets exceeded the supply, that hereafter the former scheme of the monthly grand drawings taking place on the second Tuesday of every month will be multiplied by two and a half. Thus the whole tickets will be Five Dollars each, but fifths will be sold for one dollar, and the First Capital will be $75,000, not $30,000, as hitherto, and the total prizes will be $265,500. The next drawing (the 146th) will take place on July 11th, and any one seeking full information can apply to M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La. Generals G. T. Beauregard of La. and Jubal A. Early of Va. have sole management of the drawing.

A PLEASANT LETTER.

It Rings of a Grateful Heart and gives Honor where Honor is Due.

Mr. William W. Chadwick, of Hatchville, Conn., writes under date of June 14, 1880, to Dr. Kennedy, to say that the use of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" has cured him of Gall stone, from which he had experienced everything but comfort for a long time. Mr. Chadwick felt wholly cured when he wrote, and says: "I have had no pain for six months, and have also regained my flesh and can stand a fair day's work. I recommend Kennedy's Favorite Remedy to any one suffering from a deranged liver." Grateful patients are common. Dr. Kennedy is daily in receipt of letters from them, expressing similar sentiments. These letters are spontaneous and unsolicited, in plain phraseology, but invariably setting forth one thing—the value of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for many forms of disease. It may be just the thing you have been looking for. Is your liver disordered? Have you derangement of the kidneys or bladder, associated with constipation of the bowels? If so, you want "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy." Dr. Kennedy practices medicine and surgery in all their branches. Write and state your case frankly. Letters promptly answered. Address Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.

Blighted Jokes.

The showman Barnum is blessed in the possession of a wife who cannot enjoy a joke or pun or absurdity. It may be that, were she not an English woman, she would still be unable to recognize a bright saying; but true it is that Barnum is limited and subdued and checked at home by the strange solemnity of this domestic audience of one. An illustration of her quality Barnum gives in the following:

He had told her with art and enthusiasm how there had once been in the United States an "ugliest man." He had taken prizes, and was covered with medals, confessing that for repulsiveness of features he stood without a parallel. He thus grew vain of his superiority, and became fearful lest some homelier man might appear. Journeying on horseback through the wilds of Texas, this victor met in a lonely wood, and on a deformed beast, a man far uglier than himself. Perceiving at once that, if that man should live to travel, all those medals and that fame would be lost, he said, "Halt, stranger; I am going to shoot you," and then he calmly explained to him the reason for such slaughter. The stranger took a long look at the "ugliest man," and then said calmly, "If I am uglier than you are, then blaze away." To Mr. Barnum, who had spent much rhetoric and gestures upon the narrative, the reply came from his wife, "Did he shoot?"

This example is equalled by the Scotchman's grief, who had declared to his wife that she could not grasp a joke unless it was fired into her head by a cannon, to which rude remark she replied by asking, "how one could fire a joke in a cannon?" He was now speechless.

Kidney Disease.

Pain, irritation, retention, incontinence, deposits, gravel, etc., cured by "Buchupaiba." $1. Depot, J. H. Thacher's.

"Rough on Rats."

A despatch from Granite Falls, Minn., says seven cowboys drove 1,000 head of cattle through that county and allowed the cattle to destroy 160 acres of wheat, and when the officers attempted to arrest them they resisted and brandished revolvers, and drove the posse ingloriously from the field, and proceeded on to the Black Hills with their herd. A company is being organized at Granite Falls, and will follow the boys and effect their arrest at whatever cost, and a bloody encounter may be expected.

To strengthen and build up the system, a trial will convince you that Brown's Iron Bitters is the best medicine made.

Chilton A. Tarrell, chief clerk in the pension office at Indianapolis, Ind., has been arrested, charged with complicity in a pension swindle.

A Good Foundation.

In American households the prevailing complaints are weakness of the stomach and its consequences, indigestion, nervousness and rheumatism. Such sufferers can lay a good foundation for health by using Parker's Ginger Tonic, as it tones up the stomach and nerves, and keeps the kidneys active to carry off the foul matter.—N. O. Picayune.

Mary Brown and Margaret Moore, sisters, convicted at Elizabeth, N. J. of wheedling a simple minded man named Peter Blawson out of $400 by one of them promising to marry him, have been sentenced to three years in state prison.

Don't do It.

Said my physician, who for six months had doctored me for dyspepsia without success, "when I told him I was going to try Sulphur Bitters, they will only make you worse. I did try them and now I am a well man and can eat anything. Sulphur Bitters are a great foe to doctors.—George Bastett, New Haven.

Intelligence from several counties in southern Virginia represents that considerable damage is being done to wheat and oats by small insects known as white midgets. Previous to the appearance of insects wheat and oats gave promise of the largest crop known for many years.

Beware of Imitations.

The delicate odor of Floreston Cologne is entirely novel. Look for signature of Hiscox & Co., N. Y., on each bottle.

The Charleston, S. C., News & Courier is very much delighted with the independent republican movement in Pennsylvania, and observes that the opponents of boss rule everywhere will sympathize with it; but it makes haste to add that such movements are a "luxury that cannot be enjoyed" in the south.

Delicate Females.

The exactions of society, added to the cares of maternity and the household, have tested beyond endurance the frail constitutions which have been granted the majority of women. To combat this tendency to premature decline, no remedy in the world possesses the nourishing and strengthening properties of Malt Bitters. They enrich the blood, perfect digestion, stimulate the liver and kidneys, arrest ulcerative weaknesses, and purify and vitilize every function of the female system.

Six hundred Chinese, en route from Hong Kong to Portland, Oregon, were wrecked on the coast of Yeddo, Japan. The Chinese minister in Japan contracted to have them sent back to Hong Kong, owing to the intelligence that the anti-Chinese bill had received the president's signature.

The Perpetuity of Fame.

As the name of the immortal Washington has been most sacredly perpetuated as that of a hero and statesman, so also has the fame of Swayne's Ointment for skin diseases, descended into perpetuity as the only reliable remedy in the market, for every character of skin disorders, and as the reward of well-deserving merit. Worth and merit go hand-in-hand. It is useless to contradict the worth of this article.

Summer Complaints

At this season, various diseases of the bowels are prevalent, and many lives are lost through lack of knowledge of a safe and sure remedy. PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is a sure cure for Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Summer Complaint, etc., and is perfectly safe.

Read the following:

BAINBRIDGE, N. Y., March 22, 1881.
PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER never fails to afford instant relief for cramp and pain in the stomach.
JOSEPH BURDITT.

NICHOLVILLE, N. Y., Feb. 5, 1881.
The very best medicine I know of for dysentery, cholera morbus, and cramps in the stomach. Have used it for years, and it is sure cure every time.
JULIUS W. DYE.

MOINGONA, IOWA, March 12, 1881.
I have used your PAIN KILLER in severe cases of cramp, colic and cholera morbus, and it gave almost instant relief.
L. E. CALDWELL.

CARNESVILLE, GA., Feb. 28, 1881.
For twenty years I have used your PAIN KILLER in my family. Have used it many times for bowel complaints, and it always cures. Would not feel safe without a bottle in the house.
J. R. IVEY.

SACO, ME., Jan. 23, 1881.
Have used PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER for twelve years. It is safe, sure, and reliable. No mother should allow it to be out of the family.
H. I. NAYES.

ONEIDA, N. Y., Feb. 10, 1881.
We began using it over thirty years ago, and it always gives immediate relief. Would hardly dare to go to bed without a bottle in the house.
W. O. SPERRY.

CONWAYBORO, S. C., Feb. 22, 1881.
Nearly every family in this section keeps a bottle in the house.
DR. E. MORROW.

U. S. CONSULATE,
CREFELD, RHENISH PRUSSIA, Feb. 8, 1881.
I have known PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER almost from the day it was introduced, and after years of observation and use I regard its presence in my household as an indispensable necessity.
T. S. POTTER, U. S. Consul.

NORTON-CORNERS, Eng.
I had been several days suffering severely from diarrhœa, accompanied with intense pain, when I tried your PAIN KILLER, and found almost instant relief.
H. J. NOYES.

31 MONTAGUE ST., LONDON, ENG.
During a residence of twenty-three years in India, I have given it in many cases of diarrhœa, dysentery, and cholera, and never knew it to fail to give relief.
R. CHANDOE.

No family can safely be without this invaluable remedy. Its price brings it within the reach of all.

THE

New Hampshire Gazette!

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire Items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Contains more original matter

Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a weekly invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in local cities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

STRENGTH

to vigorously push a business, strength to study a profession, strength to regulate a household, strength to do a day's labor without physical pain. All this represents what is wanted, in the often heard expression, "Oh! I wish I had the strength!" If you are broken down, have not energy, or feel as if life was hardly worth living, you can be relieved and restored to robust health and strength by taking BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, which is a true tonic—a medicine universally recommended for all wasting diseases.

501 N. Fremont St., Baltimore

During the war I was injured in the stomach by a piece of a shell, and have suffered from it ever since. About four years ago it brought on paralysis, which kept me in bed six months, and the best doctors in the city said I could not live. I suffered fearfully from indigestion, and for over two years could not eat solid food and for a large portion of the time was unable to retain even liquid nourishment. I tried Brown's Iron Bitters and now after taking two bottles I am able to get up and go around and am rapidly improving.

A Disgraceful Showing.

The debate in the house of representatives last week over the bill for the expenses of the Yorktown Centennial Commission, brought out a fact of the most disgraceful character. The original appropriation was $40,000, and the expenses overran the appropriation by $23,000. This was bad enough, but to make matters worse, it appeared that one of the items in the expenditures was a bill of $7,460 for wines and liquors. It appears that the members of the commission "drank like fish," and instead of the occasion being marked by sobriety and dignity, with a due regard to the limits and objects of the appropriation, it was a roistering junket, carried on entirely regardless of expense. As a matter of curiosity we append the items, from which it appears, as had previously been charged, that an open bar was established on the steamer that carried the commission guests, and the whole expense was saddled upon the government. The liquor bill, in full, was as follows:

9 gallons Madeira	$ 54
2 dozen bottles same	24
8 gallons cabinet sherry	48
2 dozen sherry	23
10 gallons American sherry	45
15 gallons 1830 brandy	225
5 gallons pale brandy	50
5 gallons dark brandy	50
3 gallons port wine	30
2 cases whiskey	24
130 cases champagne wine	3900
25 cases Frousac claret	250
15 cases P claret	150
3 cases Burgundy	45
5 cases Rhine wine	65
7 cases Sauterne	70
68 gallons whiskey	340
5 barrels bottled beer	62
5 cases Apollinaris	62
2 barrels Bass' ale	40
3 bottles American bitters	3
2 jugs Curacoa	3
3 cases Congress water	10
2 cases Old Tom gin	25
3200 Reina cigars	4.00
3600 Concha cigars	504
2000 Londres cigars	340
5 cases domestic cigars	125
5 gallons rum	45
3 gallons A brandy	30
4 gallons Scotch whiskey	30
1 bottle rum	2
1 bottle Scotch whiskey	3
3 boxes lemons	36
50 pounds sugar	6
Mint and jars	5
Ice	12
Glassware	15
17 pounds Gravely tobacco	11
1 gross fine cut	9
1000 Lone Fishermen cigarettes	6
1000 Richmond Gem cigarettes	7
2 bar-tenders, five days, $3 each	30
1 bar-tender, five days	25
2 boys, five days	20
3 barrels ginger ale	51
Total	$7460
Goods returned	960
Balance	$6500

To strengthen and build up the system, a trial will convince you that Brown's Iron Bitters is the best medicine made.

The house committee on post offices and post roads will probably agree to report favorably upon the adoption of a neat invention called a "private message card," which is designed to take the place of the postal card. This card is very similar to the one in use, except that a thin flap covers the message part, and, by being sealed on the edges, hides the contents. It is of the same weight and costs the same as a postal, and has the advantage alluded to.

There is no bitters in the market which will do so many people good without the risk of doing anybody harm as Wheat Bitters.

A rain storm accompanied by waterspouts did immense damage in Denver, Col., and vicinity, on the night of the 11th inst. Five persons, two men and three children, are known to have been drowned, and it is feared other lives were lost.

Cocoanut Custard.

Take from one quart of rich milk one cupful, and mix with it one teaspoonful of Sea Moss Farina. Cook it as for other custard, and add to it the beaten yolks of six eggs and three tablespoonfuls of sugar, cooking the eggs only till it thickens. Stir into this two teacups of grated cocoanut and a little of the milk to flavor it. Serve it in a glass dish with the whites of the eggs beaten to a stiff froth, with a little sugar and dropped on the top of the custard.

Marcus P. Norton, the patent valve man, has sued the following named cities: Manchester for $90,000, Nashua for $75,000, Portsmouth for $60,000, Dover for $50,000, and Concord for $40 000.

Rose Cold and Hay Fever.

Being seriously troubled with hay fever and rose cold I tried Ely's Cream Balm, and was surprised in obtaining almost immediate relief. I earnestly recommend it to all similarly afflicted. W. P. ANDRUS, Druggist, Metuchen, N. J.

Having been afflicted with hay fever for years I gave Ely's Cream Balm a trial, was much benefitted. I have had no attacks since using it. E. R. RAUCH, Editor Carbon Co. Democrat, Mauch Chunk, Pa.

For years I have been afflicted with hay fever, from early in August until frost. I was induced to give Ely's Cream Balm a trial. The relief was immediate. I regard myself cured. G. SCHREIBER, Supt. of Cordage Co., Elizabeth, N. J. Price fifty cents.

Jeremiah Lynch, fourteen years old, was arrested at Newburyport on the 12th inst. for breaking and entering the house of James Kelly, and stealing $45. This boy has won some note as a hoodlum in Newburyport, by breaking windows and setting a schoolhouse on fire.

Have you these dangerous symptoms? Cough, pain in the side or breast, fever, short breath, night sweats, tickling, rising or soreness in the throat, diarrhœa, nervous debility, asthmatic or bronchial affections? If so, use at once Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsam. Trial bottles, 10 cts.; larger bottles, 35 and 75 cts.

The dwelling house of Timothy Peasley, in Henniker, was set on fire a few days since by a concentration of the sun's rays upon a bright eight-gallon milk-can which was near the house. The fire had burned through two clapboards when discovered.

The report recently gained journalistic circulation that Rev. Dr. Talmage of Brooklyn, N. Y., had spoken in a derogatory manner of St. Jacobs Oil. A personal interview with the doctor, by a St. Jacobs Oil representative brought out this expression: "I never spoke a word against that substance, nor ever heard anything but good of it."

The chimney in the main part of John Merrill's house in Lake Village was struck by lightning Sunday morning, the 4th inst., and shattered from top to bottom, the lightning doing considerable other damage amounting to $200 or $300. Fortunately no one was injured, although Mr. Merrill and wife were sleeping in an adjoining room to the one through which the lightning passed.

"An Odd Street Scene."

He was seen in front of the office rubbing himself against the telegraph post like a flea-bitten dog. "What is wrong?" we ventured to ask. "Gotem, 'gent," he said laconically; have 'em every spring, small lumps form about the rectum; sore to the touch; they itch like blazes; "a telegraph pole's like an oasis in the desert to me." Here then, was poor humanity suffering from a complaint which a few applications of Swayne's Ointment for itching piles, would have thoroughly eradicated.

Cuticura

THE NEW BLOOD PURIFIER

Resolvent

Mr. Albert Kingsbury, Keene, N. H., troubled with bad humor on hands and neck, caused by lead poisoning. (He's a painter.) At times it would break out, crack open, and the skin separate from the flesh in large pieces, suffering great continual itching and stinging. Purchased your remedies, used Cuticura Resolvent internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally, and in less than three months effected a complete cure, and has not been troubled since. Corroborated by Bullard & Foster, Druggists, Keene, N. H.

Mother Died from it.

J. W. Adams, Newark, Ohio, says: "Cuticura Remedies are the greatest medicine on earth. Had the worst case salt rheum in this county. My mother had it twenty years, and in fact died from it. I believe Cuticura would have saved her life. My arms, breast and head were covered for three years, which nothing relived or cured until I used the Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally.

Psoriasis.

H. E. Carpenter, Esq., Henderson, N. Y., cured of Psoriasis or Leprosy, of twenty years' standing, by the Cuticura Resolvent internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally. The most wonderful case on record. Cure certified to before a justice of the peace and prominent citizens. All afflicted with itching and scaly diseases should send to us for this testimonial in full.

Salt Rheum.

Those who have experienced the torments of Salt Rheum can appreciate the agony I endured for years, until cured by the Cuticura Resolvent internally and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents

Testimonials.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"Inventors cannot employ a person more trustworthy or more capable of securing for them as early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, October 19, 1876.

R. H. EDDY, Esq.,—Dear Sir: You procured for me, in 1840, my first patent. Since then you have acted for and advised me in hundreds of cases, and procured many patents, reissues and extensions. I have, occasionally, employed the best agencies in New York, Philadelphia and Washington, but I still give you almost the whole of my business, in your line, and advise others to employ you. Yours truly, GEORGE DRAPER.

STARTLING DISCOVERY!

LOST MANHOOD RESTORED.

A victim of youthful imprudence causing Premature Decay, Nervous Debility, Lost Manhood, etc., having tried a valuable Italian remedy, has discovered a simple self cure, which he will send free to his fellow-sufferers. Address, JOHN H. REEVES, 43 Chatham St., N. Y.

A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be in introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

The New Hampshire Club.

The dinner of the members of the New Hampshire club at the Revere house in Boston on Wednesday of this week was a grand success. It seemed as if some convention was in session, so many prominent men from the Granite State had met at the Revere. Men of both parties, manufacturers, merchants, capitalists and business men abounded. Persons who had held office, and others willing to hold them, were in force. Among the guests were Secretary Chandler, Senators Frye and Rollins, Representative Ray, Hon. N. P. Banks, Collector Worthington, and many others. Pres't G. B. Chandler, after a season spent at the tables, in a speech of some length introduced the secretary of the navy, who was received with cheers, the company rising. He referred to his love for New Hampshire and for his native city, Concord, and after a few personal remarks proceeded to speak of the condition of the navy and its needs. He was followed by Senator Frye and others. The feature of the occasion was the assembling of so many substantial men at the club meeting. There were several gentlemen from this city, and nearly every section of the state was represented.

The Japanese Indemnity.

In the United States senate, June 13th, the Japanese indemnity bill passed—yeas, thirty-five; nays, thirteen. The bill as passed authorizes and directs the president to pay to the government of Japan the sum of $785,000.87 in legal coin, through the United States minister to Japan, and directs that all bonds now owned or controlled by the state department and designated in the department reports as "The Japanese indemnity fund" shall be cancelled and destroyed. Section two directs the secretary of the treasury to pay from the treasury $140,000 as prize money to the officers and crews of the United States ship Wyoming and steamer Takiang, or their legal representatives, for services in the straits of Shimonoski in 1863 and 1864, payment not to be made to the assignee of any mariner, but to the mariner himself or his legal representatives, or his or their duly authorized attorney.

News and Notes.

James H. Freeman of West Acton, Mass., committed suicide June 11th by shooting himself through the heart with a gun.

Nine prisoners attempted to break jail at Rockingham, N. C., June 12th. One was shot dead, and the others returned to their cells.

William Trappe, who fought a prize fight in Philadelphia on June 3d, died on the 11th. His opponent, William Murphy, has been arrested.

One deputy revenue collector was shot in a raid on illicit distilleries in Randolph county, Ga., June 12th, but the leader of the moonshiners was captured.

George Beckett, a negro charged with assault on a white girl seven years old, was taken from jail in Monroe county, Miss., on the 12th inst., and hanged by a mob.

Howitt Chandler and Miss Mary H. Grant were married in Boston a few days ago. Mr. Chandler was for many years, and until a recent date, a prominent member of the Shaker family at New Gloucester, Me., and the bride has been a member of the same community. They both bear excellent reputations.

Rev. John H. Emerson, pastor of the Methodist church in Maplewood, Malden, Mass., was very badly burned on the evening of June 10th, while trying to carry out of doors a defective oil stove used by a family in the other half of his residence. It is feared he will lose the use of his left hand and left leg.

The city councils of Salem, Mass., at a late meeting unanimously adopted an order forbidding the sale of toy pistols in which blank cartridges are used.

A despatch from Kirksville, Mo., says: [illegible] of Frank Mason, the leader of the bank robbers, has delivered up $1,300 in gold, stolen from the Brookfield bank. A special grand jury has found indictments against all of the robbers, charging them with robbery, and intent to kill."

Mrs. Nellie Ewell, twenty-three years old, was drowned at Lawrence, Mass., June 12th, by the capsizing of a boat in which her brother-in-law was giving her a row on the river.

The California Spirit of the Times asserts that the unfortunate Jeannette was known to be unseaworthy before her departure from Mare island navy yard. A court of enquiry should make an investigation, if it is found that there is any ground for the accusation.

Thomas Ferriter, twenty-one years old, while oiling machinery in the Crocker paper mill at Holyoke, Mass., June 13th, was caught in the machinery and instantly killed. He was unmarried.

Mrs. Charles W. Foster, stepmother of the Foster brothers, the Andover student burglars, committed suicide on the 13th inst. by drowning in a pond at Andover, Mass. She was insane.

Charles V. Willoughby, a fireman on the New Haven & Northampton railroad, and reported to have a wife and two children in Fitchburg, Mass., eloped Monday night, the 12th inst., from North Adams with Ella Russell, who was married to John Russell, a railroad man, three weeks before.

A Virginia City, Nev., despatch says the premature explosion of a blast at the Union Consolidated mine instantly killed John Black and James F. Brown. John Beargo was fatally injured, and R. Hicks seriously. Cause of the explosion not known. Brown was blown all to pieces.

Mrs. Rebecca Taylor, mother of the late Bayard Taylor, has presented to a leading dry goods house in Philadelphia a handsome skein of silk, reeled and spun with her own hands, in the 83d year of her age.

James Pendergast's house at Monson, Mass., was burned June 13th. His mother perished in the flames, and his father was fatally burned.

The yacht Harpalyce of Bangor, Me., Capt. Kingsbury, arrived at Bar Harbor, Mt. Desert, on the 14th inst., reporting the loss of two of her men off Cat island on the previous night. The pilot, Capt. Ezra Turner of Isle au Haut, and Will Lyon, a passenger, took a small boat to find the position of the vessel, and did not return. The boat was found bottom up an hour afterward. Search was made next morning, but no traces of the missing men were found.

Dr. M. M. Hedges is under arrest in New York on a charge of swindling J. P. Weed out of $150,000 by stocking cards while gambling. Suits have been made to recover the amount, Hedges' property having been attached by the sheriff.

New Hampshire Items.

The closing exercises of the State Normal school will be held at Normal hall, Plymouth, Monday afternoon and Tuesday forenoon, June 26th and 27th. The pupils of the school will have charge of all the exercises. Hon. J. N. Patterson will address the school and public, Monday evening, at Normal hall: subject, "The New England School, or Woman's Work."

The body of Mr. Conly, the singer, was found floating in Chesterfield lake on the 14th inst., after being submerged eighteen days. The body was found floating a few rods from the point where Reitzel's body was recovered one week before, but nearer a point of land, which would indicate that Conly, who was found in his shirt sleeves and stocking feet, attempted to save Reitzel, who could not swim, and failing in the attempt swam for the island, but became exhausted before reaching there and met his death. His gold watch and chain and about $100 in money were found on his person. His remains were placed in a metallic casket, and taken to New York.

The house of Calvin Boardman, at Salem, was burglarized on the night of June 13th, and two silver watches, $350 in money, and $400 in notes stolen. Next forenoon George H. Smith, a Salem man, was arrested in Lawrence, Mass., and $277 of the stolen money found in his possession. He refused to disclose where the remainder of the property was concealed, but there appears to be no doubt but that he is the burglar.

"A Reverend Idol: a novel." Boston; James R. Osgood & Co.

This anonymous story starts with a description of the rector of St. Ancients, which in many respects has been thought to portray the characteristics of a leading New England divine, but if the author borrowed a character with which to gain interest in the story, the supposed similarity ends early in the pages. The principal characters, besides the preacher, are a handsome, intelligent, but designing New York widow, and a young orphan girl with an enthusiasm for painting pictures and a singular degree of independence against the prevailing fascination which the shepherd was said to possess for the lambs of the flock. As a lover, the respectable rector seems rather a bungler, and the author permits the schemes of the widow to continue almost throughout the story, that the pleasant finale may be procrastinated, sudden and agreeable. It is a book that will be found constantly upon the piazzas of the "Wentworth" and at Rye beach; will go with the tourists, and be read by the sea shore and at the mountains. Monny, the heroine, possesses many peculiar, but at the same time attractive traits. We sympathize with her in her difficulties, appreciate her many excellent qualities, rejoice in her success, and admire her kindly characteristics, but we get out of patience with the writer who has produced a character so capable of courage that for the sake of the story we must believe her to be full of cowardice,—or perhaps better, courageous tact. But it is easier to condemn, than to contrive a new plot, and we tell our lady readers, in strict confidence, that it is the correct thing to early read the Reverend Idol, while but a few of the younger can reasonably expect that the R. I. will worship them, as did the hero his Ana, any more than that any considerable number of candidates for artistic success can merit the enthusiastic praise for their sketches, which the young lady at Cape Cod seemed to achieve with such abundant success.

A Cough, Cold or Sore Throat

Should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an incurable Lung Disease or Consumption. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" do not disorder the stomach like cough syrups and balsams, but act directly on the inflamed parts, allaying irritation, give relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Cough, Catarrh, and the Throat Troubles which Singers and Public Speakers are subject to. For thirty years "Brown's Bronchial Troches" have been recommended by physicians, and have always given perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. Sold at 25 cts a box everywhere. eod&wtjan29

LIFE INSURANCE!

The Semi-Endowment Policy of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is believed to be the most desirable plan of insurance ever offered.

Among its advantages are: A definitely guaranteed cash value at a specified time. A paid-up policy for full value in case of discontinuance. Its period (20 years) covers the productive years of life, when insurance is mostly needed. It provides for old age. Above the age of 40 the rates are less than for life policies in other companies, while below 40 they are but little in excess of ordinary life premiums.

Parties insured in Co-operative Societies are requested to compare the net cost of these policies with that of assessment insurance.

THE PATENT VALVE BUSINESS.

The mayors of Portsmouth, Dover, Concord, Manchester and Nashua met at the Quincy house in Boston on Wednesday, the 14th inst., and decided to "pool their issues" in the patent valve suits, and to club together to resist the suits. Hon. John E. Fitzgerald, of the Boston board of fire commissioners, was present by invitation, and explained to the meeting in detail the suit pending against the city of Boston. Mr. Fitzgerald took aggressive ground, and advocated contending the suits. On motion of Mayor Putnam, of Manchester, a committee of conference, consisting of the several mayors present, was appointed to consult with the city government of Boston, and the meeting was adjourned to meet on Friday, June 23d, at the room of the fire commissioners in Boston city hall.

WRECK.

The schooner Herald, Frisbee master, from Wiscasset, Me., bound for Boston with a load of sawdust, went ashore on Ram's head in Broad sound at the entrance to Boston harbor, on the night of the 13th inst., bilged and filled, and subsequently broke in two, becoming a total loss. A tug and lighter went to her on the 14th to strip her of sails and rigging. The Herald registered 148.9 tons, and hailed from Kittery, Me. She was thirty-six years old.

AROUND HOME.

One of the most pleasantly situated lots of land in the city will be sold at auction to-day by Morse & Ilsley. See advertisement.

Thomas Perkins, of Sawyer's mills, Dover, has been engaged as clerk of the Gibson house in this city for the summer.

Hon. Frank Jones of this city, Hon. E. A. Hibbard of Laconia, and a number of hosiery manufacturers of this state, started for Washington on the 14th inst., in the interest of "hosiery tariff reform."

Edmund B. Dearborn of this city sailed from Boston in the barque Wheatland on the 12th inst., for St. Pierre, Martinique.

Lyman's wharf is being repaired by Mr. Daniel Littlefield, the foreman of the workmen being Mr. George W. Shackley.

Mr. Nathaniel Wiggin, who lives near the Plains, has lost about one hundred peach trees by the warm spell which prevailed in March.

Major George Butler, commanding the marine barracks at the navy yard, is enjoying a brief leave of absence, with his family.

The sloop boat Cleopatra, Capt. Cremer, arrived at this port on the afternoon of Tuesday, 13th inst., with about 1500 mackerel, caught off, Rockport, Mass.; part of the fish were retailed from the boat on Tuesday evening, at six for a quarter, and the rest were sold to small dealers on Wednesday. The Cleopatra is a new boat, having been launched at Biddeford, Me., about four weeks ago; she is thirty-two feet long over all, and is of eleven feet and three inches beam.

George Lightbody, a freight conductor on the Eastern railroad, and William Minnine and Joseph H. Gray, brakemen on the road, were arrested in Boston on the 13th inst., for the larceny of goods valued at $16 from a freight train on the 9th.

C. Dwight Hanscom & Co., auctioneers, on the 14th inst. sold the house, barn and lot No. 12 Myrtle street, belonging to the estate of the late T. J. Spinney, to Mr. J. S. James, for $1150.

The small boats brought in moderate fares of fresh fish on the 13th inst. Three lots, brought in by two Newcastle boats and one from the Shoals, aggregating 1100 lbs., were bought by Caswell & Co., near the Spring market.

The British brig Mechanic arrived on the 14th inst. from the provinces, with ties for the Eastern railroad; she was towed up by the steamer Naumkeag.

Fifty-five persons in Kittery put $1 each into a pool, and purchased a lot of lottery tickets; result, drew one "prize" of $5, a trifle over nine cents per man, and thought themselves lucky to get that. The $5 was left with the concern, to pay for more tickets.

Mr. C. Carter, first assistant steward of the Parker house at Boston, has resigned his position to become chief steward at the Atlantic house, Wells beach.

Among the natural curiosities of York county is quite a cave in the rocks at Ogunquit, on the promises of Jackson Perkins; the cavity has apparently been hollowed out by the action of the waves, and is large enough for several persons to find seats and shelter in, at the right time of the tide and in a favorable condition of the sea.

George W. Webber and George W. Donnell 3d conduct the lobster fishery at Lobster cove, York, each running two boats; they report that after the heavy weather about the last of May the lobsters were more numerous, and those taken were of a larger size, than had previously been the case. One of the persons named took at one hauling of his traps 160 good lobsters. The entire catch at Lobster cove is taken into the interior of the county by Henry B. Manson, and sold at retail along the roads.

Management of the Indians.

Col. Richard Irving Dodge, U. S. A., has published a pamphlet giving his ideas as to the proper method of dealing with the Indian problem. His plan is, in brief, to turn the Indians over to the war department; to abolish the Indian bureau, and all the laws relating to it; to abrogate all existing treaties; to abolish all trade and intercourse laws now on the statute books, and give the Indians the same rights as traders that are enjoyed by citizens of the United States; to provide laws for the guidance of the Indians, and prepare them to become citizens; to give commanding officers of military posts magisterial authority over the Indians; to give the Indians farms in severalty, and encourage them to form village settlements; to give the Indian the ballot; feed him, and break up the Indian principalities. Col. Dodge's plan looks toward making the Indian a useful citizen at some future date, instead of forever keeping him a pauper and a danger.

Fertilization of Plants.

The important part which insects often play in the fertilization of flowers is shown in the case of the hoya, a class of tropical plants popularly known as wax-flowers. The hoya is highly fragrant. This fragrance is very attractive to insects, which are necessary for fertilization of this plant. The pollinia are concealed, excepting the dark viscid disks, which are exposed. When an insect alights on the flowers, one foot at least slips and gets caught by one of the fine glutinous disks. In its efforts to escape, two or three or even four other feet are almost sure to get similarly caught. The insect then tries with all its power to free its limbs. If successful the pollen-masses are withdrawn out of the pouches by the feet. The basal appendages of each pair of pollinia are elastic, and when in the pouch they are like an extended spring, but the instant the masses are drawn out, the spring closes, and the two pollen masses quickly cross each other and hold tightly on to the insect's little claws. If the insect is weak, it cannot withdraw its legs at all, and so perishes on the flower; but if strong, it flies away with one or five pairs of pollinia clasped round its feet. Sometimes an insect breaks part of its legs off in trying to withdraw it. The five stigmas are not ready to receive the pollen at the time the pollen is mature; so that it is only when the insect re-alights on some neighboring hoya flower in a more advanced stage of growth that cross-fertilization takes place by its treading on the exposed stigmas.

—The late James Vick, of Rochester, N. Y., not long ago received a letter from a woman in another state enclosing some money and an order for seeds, the writer, however, neglecting to sign her name or give an address. In about a fortnight a letter bearing the same postmark was received, this time in a man's bold hand-writing, stating that the writer's wife had two weeks previously sent him a prepaid order, "but, woman-like, had forgotten to sign her name," etc. The letter he then closed, but without signing his own name!

—A Lowell bicycler the other afternoon came very near running down a portly old woman with a basket on either arm, who monopolized most of the space between the fence and the curbstone. He had sounded his bell several times without effect, and just managed to get by her after a cry to "look out!" She staggered up against the fence, and when she had recovered breath managed to articulate: "Arrah, an' it's a bicycle, is it? Be the powers, an' I thought it was a scissors-grinder!"

—It was a French woman who exclaimed, "How nice cold water would be if it were only wicked to drink it."

The Universalist society will hold their annual strawberry festival and sale of aprons and fancy work in Congress hall, June 14th and 15th. There will be a pleasing stage entertainment, with an entire change of programme each evening. Among the attractions will be an "Æsthetic Concert" on the 14th, and by special request, the "Broom Drill" will be given on the 15th. Vocal music will be furnished by a quartette, and a lady soloist from Stratham. Doors open at 6:00; supper served from 6:30 to 8:30; entertainment at 9:00 o'clock. Admission 15 cts.

A PLEASANT LETTER.

It Rings of a Grateful Heart and gives Honor where Honor is Due.

Mr. William W. Chadwick, of Hatchville, Conn., writes under date of June 14, 1880, to Dr. Kennedy, to say that the use of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" has cured him of Gall stone, from which he had experienced everything but comfort for a long time. Mr. Chadwick felt wholly cured when he wrote, and says: "I have had no pain for six months, and have also regained my flesh and can stand a fair day's work. I recommend Kennedy's Favorite Remedy to any one suffering from a deranged liver." Grateful patients are common. Dr. Kennedy is daily in receipt of letters from them, expressing similar sentiments. These letters are spontaneous and put in all varities of phraseology, but invariably setting forth one thing—the value of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for many forms of Disease. It may be just the thing you have been looking for. Is your liver disordered? Have you derangement of the kidneys or bladder, associated with constipation of the bowels? If so, you want "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy." Dr. Kennedy practices medicine and surgery in all their branches. Write and state your case frankly. Letters promptly answered. Address Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.

Requisites for Turkeys.

Old turkey raisers say that it is not profitable to keep hen turkeys longer than five years; after this period they will not lay so well; the most profitable age is from two to four years.

A male turkey may be kept longer than five years, but as a rule they will be more vigorous when under that age than over it. The first laying of a hen turkey should be set under hens, as it will not pay to keep turkeys for one brood.

If the turkey hen is shut up for a few days when she first wants to set she will in a short time lay again, when she may be allowed to hatch her brood.

Persons who try to raise as many turkeys as possible manage to get three clutches of eggs in one season, allowing the hen to hatch the last one.

When young turkeys are hatched they should be removed to a ploughed field, or at least to a plot of ground where there is no grass; here the mother should be confined in a coop with plenty of room, and the young turkeys allowed to roam at will, except on stormy days when they should be shut in the coop.

If there is danger of their running in the grass, they should also be shut up until the dew is gone; it is sure death to young turkeys to get wet and bedraggled—they must be kept dry; this is more essential than food; they require only a little food, as they will catch a great many worms and insects as soon as they begin to run around, which are their natural food.

A Snake Story.

Mr. Peter Reid of Fauquier county says that a few days ago, as he was talking to a friend, he noticed a little snake about a foot long, and before killing it he turned it over with the muzzle of his gun. To his surprise the snake ran up the gun barrel, and he could not get it to come out, so he let it remain. As he was going home he saw a hawk flying overhead, and raised his gun and fired at it. The hawk was not hurt, but seeing the snake in the air started towards it and caught it on the fly. Mr. Peter Reid is a brother of a magistrate, and a church member.—Warrenton Virginian.

No cheap mixture to impose on credulous humanity is Wheat Bitters; it is a most potent tonic and recuperant. Try it and be convinced.

An unsuccessful attempt was made on the 10th inst. to burn the car house of the Nashua, Acton & Boston railroad at Nashua.

Invalid wives and mothers quickly restored to health by using Brown's Iron Bitters. A true tonic.

Despatches from southeastern Iowa, western Missouri and central Illinois, report widespread and very heavy rainstorms in places, assuming the form of water-spouts and doing much damage to property, washing away bridges, railroad tracks, etc.

The Perpetuity of Fame.

As the name of the immortal Washington has been most sacredly perpetuated as that of a hero and statesman, so also has the fame of Swayne's Ointment for skin diseases, descended into perpetuity as the only reliable remedy in the market, for every character of skin disorders, and as the reward of well-deserving merit. Worth and merit go hand-in-hand. It is useless to contradict the worth of this article.

Summer Complaints

At this season, various diseases of the bowels are prevalent, and many lives are lost through lack of knowledge of a safe and sure remedy. PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is a sure cure for Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Summer Complaint, etc., and is perfectly safe.

Read the following:

BAINBRIDGE, N. Y., March 22, 1881.
PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER never fails to afford instant relief for cramp and pain in the stomach. JOSEPH BURDITT.

NICHOLVILLE, N. Y., Feb. 1, 1881.
The very best medicine I know of for dysentery, cholera morbus, and cramps in the stomach. Have used it for years, and it is sure cure every time. JULIUS W. DEE.

MONGONA, IOWA, March 13, 1881.
I have used your PAIN KILLER in severe cases of cramp, colic and cholera morbus, and it gave almost immediate relief. J. E. CROWELL.

CARNESVILLE, GA., Feb. 28, 1881.
For twenty years I have used your PAIN KILLER in my family. Have used it many times for bowel complaints, and it always cures. Would not feel safe without a bottle in the house. J. B. TYE.

SACO, ME., Jan. 22, 1881.
HAVE USED PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER for twelve years. It is safe, sure, and reliable. No mother should allow it to be out of the family. H. I. NAYES.

ONEIDA, N. Y., Feb. 18, 1881.
We began using it over thirty years ago, and it always gives immediate relief. Would hardly dare to go to bed without a bottle in the house. W. O. STRONG.

CONWAYBORO, S. C., Feb. 22, 1881.
Nearly every family in this section keeps a bottle in the house. DR. E. MONROE.

U. S. CONSULATE,
CREFELD, RHENISH PRUSSIA, Feb. 3, 1881.
I have known PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER almost from the day it was introduced, and after years of observation and use I regard its presence in my household as an indispensable necessity. T. S. POTTER, U. S. Consul.

I had been several days suffering severely from diarrhœa, accompanied with intense pain, when I tried your PAIN KILLER, and found almost instant relief. H. J. NOONE.

21 MONTAGUE ST., LONDON, ENG.
During a residence of twenty-three years in India, I have given it in many cases of diarrhœa, dysentery, and cholera, and never knew it to fail to give relief. R. GARDINER.

No family can safely be without this invaluable remedy. Its price brings it within the reach of all.

For sale by all druggists at 25c., 50c. and $1.00 per bottle.

THE

New Hampshire Gazette!

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire Items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a weekly invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

STRENGTH

to vigorously push a business, strength to study a profession, strength to regulate a household, strength to do a day's labor without physical pain. All this represents what is wanted, in the often heard expression, "Oh! I wish I had the strength!" If you are broken down, have not energy, or feel as if life was hardly worth living, you can be relieved and restored to robust health and strength by taking BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, which is a true tonic—a medicine universally recommended for all wasting diseases.

502 N. Fremont St., Baltimore

During the war I was injured in the stomach by a piece of a shell, and have suffered from it ever since. About four years ago it brought on paralysis, which kept me in bed six months, and the best doctors in the city said I could not live. I suffered fearfully from indigestion, and for over two years could not eat solid food and for a large portion of the time was unable to retain even liquid nourishment. I tried Brown's Iron Bitters and now after taking two bottles I am able to get up and go around and am rapidly improving.

G. DECKER.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is a complete and sure remedy for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Malaria, Weakness and all diseases requiring a true, reliable, non-alcoholic tonic. It enriches the blood, gives new life to the muscles and tone to the nerves.

A Puzzled Board of Education.

At an examination of a public school on Staten Island, one of the scholars failed in a problem. The teacher said: "Ladies and gentlemen, I shall invite a gentleman of the audience to work out the sum on the board. John Smith, open the book and read that question."

The scholar obeyed, and read out: "Add fifteen-sixteenths and nine-elevenths."

"Now, Director Butler, will you step to the blackboard and work it out?"

The director hesitated, then said, "Certainly," and advanced a step, but paused and asked the teacher:

"Is it fair to put to the children so difficult a problem?"

"Oh never fear," replied the teacher, "they will be equal to it."

"Very well," said the director, "go on."

The boy began the question: "Add fifteen sixteenths——"

"No, no!" said the director, "I will not be a party to overtaxing the children's brains. I have conscientious scruples against it. This forcing system is ruining the rising generation," and he gave back the chalk, and left the room.

"Well, Judge Castleton, will you favor us?" asked the teacher, tendering the chalk.

"I would do so with pleasure," replied the judge, "but I have a case coming on in my court in a minute or two," and he left.

"Director Middleton, we must fall back on you," said the teacher, smiling.

"Oh," said the director, "I pass—I mean I decline in favor of Director Jefferson."

"Well, that will do," replied the teacher; "Mr. Jefferson, will you favor us?"

"I would certainly—that is—of course," replied Mr. Jefferson, "but—ahem! I think it should be referred to a committee. Why, bless me! I'll never catch it. Good by. Some other time." And he left.

"I know Judge Southfield will not refuse," said the teacher, and the judge stepped promptly up to the blackboard, amidst a round of applause from the audience. The scholar again began to read the sum.

"Add fifteen sixteenths——"

A dozen hands went up as the judge made the first figures.

"Well, what is it? asked the teacher.

"He's got the denominator on top of the line!" cried the boys in chorus.

"Very good, boys, very good; I see you are attentive," said the judge, as he rubbed out the figures, turned red, and began again, but was interrupted by the calling out:

"Now he's got the numerator and denominator under the line!"

"Aha! you young rogues! You're sharp, I see," said the judge, jocosely, and again commenced.

"That ain't a fraction at all! It's one thousand five hundred and sixteen!" was the cry that hailed the judge's new combination of figures.

"Really, Mr. Teacher," ejaculated the judge, "I must compliment you on the wonderful proficiency of your scholars in algebra. I won't tire their patience any more."

"Oh, go on, go on," said the teacher, and again the judge wrote some figures in an off-hand manner.

"That ain't a fraction! It's six thousand one hundred and fifty one!" yelled the boys.

"Mr. Teacher," said the judge, "it would be ungenerous on my part, and imply an unworthy suspicion as to your efficiency, to put these extraordinarily bright children to additional tests; I would not, I could not. Oh, excuse me. There's Brown! I've important business with him. Sheriff, I want to see you," and he left.

Some days afterward a boy was brought before Justice Southfield for throwing stones in the street.

"John," said the judge, sternly, "were you the boy that laughed in school on Monday while I was working out that problem?"

"Yes, sir," was the reply.

John got thirty days.

To strengthen and build up the system, a trial will convince you that Brown's Iron Bitters is the best medicine made.

—"When you were last here," said the magistrate to the prisoner, "you promised me that if I released you you would go to work. Why haven't you kept your word?" "Judge," returned the victim meekly, "I didn't want to be breeding any disturbance, and I was afraid if I went to work that I would get on a strike."

How it was Done.

"How do you manage," said a lady to her friend, "to appear so happy and good natured all the time?" "I always have Parker's Ginger Tonic handy," was the reply, "and thus easily keep myself and family in good health. When I am well I always feel good natured."

—The custom of heading marriage notices with the names of the contracting parties, separated by a dash, sometimes produces curious results. For instance, a contemporary had, a few weeks ago, "Birch—Twiggs," "Bull—Rush," "Price—Gift," and "Cawte—Sold."

A Fool and His Money Soon Part.

How true some of these old sayings are. A friend of mine paid a travelling quack $50 to cure him of scrofula, from which he had suffered two years. He gave him a bottle of stuff which only aggravated the disease. When he went to consult him a second time, the quack had left for parts unknown. Upon learning the circumstances I recommended Sulphur Bitters. Five bottles cured him.—Courier.

—This purports to be a literal translation from the German: "Pretty wifekin, Herr X——to his young neighbor, 'give you me yet a kiss for.' I ask only out of curiosity, because I gladly know would whether it from your mouth sweeter tastes than that of my frau.' 'Neighbor,' replied she, snappishly, 'ask you only my husband; he has your dear frau many a kiss given; he must it know."

"During the early part of last October, I had a severe attack of rheumatism in my right knee," says Mr. J. C. Connor, of the Royal Opera house, Toronto, Canada. "I used many so-called rheumatic remedies without receiving any apparent benefit. Observing that St. Jacobs Oil was being constantly recommended by many of the leading members of our profession, I decided to give it a trial. From the first application I commenced to improve, and before I had used two-thirds of a bottle I was entirely cured."

—The peculiar costume of the dwellers of Arizona is thus graphically described by a "tender-foot:" "In ordinary weather he wears a belt with pistols in it. When it grows chilly he puts on another belt with pistols in it, and when it becomes really cold he throws a Winchester rifle over his shoulders."

An Impossibility.

Deserving articles are always appreciated. The exceptional cleanliness of Parker's Hair Balsam makes it popular. Gray hairs are impossible with its occasional use.

—A lady whose husband was the champion snorer of the community in which they resided confided to a female friend the following painful intelligence: "My life has not been one of unalloyed delight. I have had the measles, the chicken-pox, the cholera, the typhoid fever and inflammatory rheumatism, but I never knew what real misfortune was until I married a burglar-alarm."

"An Odd Street Scene."

He was seen in front of the office rubbing himself against the telegraph post like a flea-bitten dog. "What is wrong?" we ventured to ask. "Gotem, 'gent,'" he said laconically; have 'em every spring, small lumps form about the rectum; sore to the touch; they itch like blazes; "a telegraph pole's like an oasis in the desert to me." Here then, was poor humanity suffering from a complaint which a few applications of Swayne's Ointment for Itching piles, would have thoroughly eradicated.

Cuticura

THE NEW BLOOD PURIFIER

Resolvent

Mr. Albert Kingsbury, Keene, N. H., troubled with bad humor on hands and neck, caused by lead poisoning. (He's a painter.) At times it would break out, crack open, and the skin separate from the flesh in large pieces, suffering great continual itching and stinging. Purchased your remedies, used Cuticura Resolvent internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally, and in less than three months effected a complete cure, and has not been troubled since. Corroborated by Bullard & Foster, Druggists, Keene, N. H.

Mother Died from it.

J. W. Adams, Newark, Ohio, says: "Cuticura Remedies are the greatest medicine on earth. Had the worst case salt rheum in this county. My mother had it twenty years, and in fact died from it. I believe Cuticura would have saved her life. My arms, breast and head were covered for three years, which nothing relived or cured until I used the Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally.

Psoriasis.

H. E. Carpenter, Esq., Henderson, N. Y., cured of Psoriasis or Leprosy, of twenty years' standing, by the Cuticura Resolvent internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally. The most wonderful case on record. Cure certified to before a justice of the peace and prominent citizens. All afflicted with itching and scaly diseases should send to us for this testimonial in full.

Salt Rheum.

Those who have experienced the torments of Salt Rheum can appreciate the agony I endured for years, until cured by the Cuticura Resolvent internally and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally.

MRS. WM. PELLINGTON, Sharon, Wis.

Cuticura

and Cuticura Soap externally and Cuticura Resolvent internally will positively cure every species of humor, from a common pimple to Scrofula. Price of Cuticura, small boxes, 50c.; large boxes, $1. PATENTS!

R. H. EDDY,

No. 76 State St., Opposite Kilby, Boston,

SECURES PATENTS in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington. No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents.

Testimonials.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"Inventors cannot employ a person more trustworthy or more capable of securing for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, October 19, 1876.

R. H. EDDY, Esq.,—Dear Sir: You procured for me, in 1846, my first patent. Since then you have acted for and advised me in hundreds of cases, and procured many patents, reissues and extensions. I have, occasionally, employed the best agencies in New York, Philadelphia and Washington, but I still give you almost the whole of my business, in your line, and advise others to employ you. Yours truly, GEORGE DRAPER.

STARTLING DISCOVERY!

LOST MANHOOD RESTORED.

A victim of youthful imprudence causing Premature Decay, Nervous Debility, and Manhood, having tried in vain every known remedy, has discovered a simple self cure, which he will send free to his fellow-sufferers, address J. H. REEVES, 43 Chatham St., N. Y.

A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be in introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

Portsmouth Chronicle.

FRIDAY, JUNE 16, 1882.

(Entered at the Post-Office at Portsmouth, N. H. as second-class matter.)

"Uncle Tom's Cabin."

A garden party was given by Houghton, Mifflin & Co. of Boston, at the residence in Newtonville, Mass., of Ex-Gov. Claflin, on the afternoon of the 14th inst., in honor of the 70th birthday of Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe, author of "Uncle Tom's Cabin." Mr. H. O. Houghton presided, and during the hour preceding the literary exercises on the lawn, presented the visitors to Mrs. Stowe. Among the distinguished persons present were Prof. Stowe, Henry Ward Beecher, O. W. Holmes, Charles W. Slack, Mrs. Whitney, Miss Phelps, W. D. Howells, Abby Sage Richardson, Norah Perry, Lucy Larcom, James Parton, E. P. Whipple, T. B. Aldrich, and many others. Remarks were made by Mr. Houghton, Mr. Beecher and Dr. Holmes; and poems by John G. Whittier, O. W. Holmes, Mrs. A. D. T. Whitney, Elizabeth Stuart Phelps, J. T. Trowbridge, Mrs. James T. Fields, Miss Charlotte Fisk Bates and Mrs. Allen, were read. Following the poems were short addresses by Judge Tourgee, Rev. Edward Beecher and Edward Atkinson; and as a fitting close to the exercises, Mrs. Stowe was introduced to the assemblage, and responded in a few well chosen remarks, in the course of which she said: "One thing I wish to say, if any of you have a doubt about this world, or a sorrow or a pain, just remember what God has done with this evil of slavery. It has gone." She then related some of her experience in the south with the colored people, and closed by saying: "Never doubt but that anything that ought to happen, will happen."

News and Notes.

The flagship Lancaster, of the European squadron, has arrived at Cadiz from Lisbon.

British steamer Pera, from Montreal for London, struck an iceberg off Cape Race, June 10th, and went down. Thirty men, including the captain, were picked up by another steamer; one boat, with eleven men, is missing.

At Indianapolis, on the 14th inst., a heavy rain caused the overflow of Pogues run, resulting in damage to the amount of $100,000. While a party of about twenty persons were standing on a platform over the run, it broke down, and it is supposed that ten lives were lost; five bodies, one of them a woman's, were soon recovered, and others were seen going along with the flood.

Hon. W. W. Crapo of New Bedford, it is stated, will be a candidate for the nomination for governor in the next Massachusetts state republican convention. Mr. Crapo as a member of the national house of representatives, has for several terms proved one of the ablest men from New England in Congress; and if the Bay State can select such a man for governor, and a man so eminently qualified will serve in that office, the people of Massachusetts could do no better than to elect him unanimously.

The Providence Journal says: "The term for which Mr. Anthony has now been elected to the United States senate is without precedent in the history of the government. We have been accustomed to talk of Mr. Benton's thirty years in the senate. But Mr. Benton's first term began on the 4th of August, 1881, instead of the 4th of March, and five months and six days must be deducted from the thirty years. Mr. Anthony has been elected for a full term of thirty years."

The British steamship Raleigh has been totally lost, with her cargo and mails, on King's reef, off the Queensland coast of Australia. All hands saved.

Advices of May 14th, from New Zealand, report that during a heavy sea the British iron ships Benvenue and City of Perth parted their cables in the harbor of Timaru, province of Canterbury, where they were loading wool, and became total wrecks, the crews escaping. Alexander Mills, the harbor master, and six other persons, lost their lives through the capsizing of several boats which put off from shore to aid the distressed vessels.

Look out for counterfeit $10 United States treasury notes. They may be detected by the battered nose and preposterous mouth on an alleged portrait of Webster in the lower left hand corner, and the engraving generally is poor compared with the genuine. A few have been discovered in Boston banks.

Miss Gracie Kimball, of Dover, sails from New York on the 17th inst., under an engagement of five years as a missionary in Turkey.

The 12th annual commencement of the Robinson female seminary at Exeter occurred June 14th, and was largely attended. The graduating class numbered eleven.

AROUND HOME.

On the morning of the 14th inst., four wherries which on the previous evening had been in the docks at Goodrich's tanyard, were found high and dry on top of the wharf. Some persons thought this phenomenon due to a tide of unusual height just at that spot, while others suggested a pack of mischievous boys as the motive power. It is hinted that it would be proper for the clerk of the north mill-bridge, Prof. A. S. W——, to keep a little sharper lookout after the property left lying around loose near his premises.

Hon. James W. Emery is spoken of as a possible candidate for mayor of Portsmouth at the next election.

Mr. Dennis Shea is repairing and relaying the concrete floor under Uriah Blaisdell's store on Market street, to make the cellar fit for the storage of vegetables.

Capt. Zach Randall, of Newcastle, occasionally brings in fish which puzzle him as well as other people to name. On Thursday last he had in his fare a number of "butter-fish," as he called them—small fish shaped like bream, but of a silvery color, caught with the hook off the harbor; and also a flat-fish something like a plaice or flounder, but very thin, and with two distincts rows of fins, one outside the other. The latter fish Capt. Zach could not locate in its exact place in natural history, but thought it was as much like a flying-fish as anything that is likely to be caught around here!

Mr. Albert T. Pickering, for several years past conductor for the passenger train on the Portsmouth & Dover railroad, in which position he has not only given entire satisfaction to the management but has by his gentlemanly bearing and courtesy secured the respect and good will of the road's patrons as well, will leave the line next week, to take a responsible position with Hon. F. Jones. Mr. G. Abner Silsbee, who has for a considerable time been baggage-master on Conductor Winn's train between this city and Boston, takes the Dover train as its conductor; and Mr. Emund Clark, Jr., leaves the night shifter to take Mr. Silsbee's place on the Boston train.

The gondola H. P. Spinney, Captain Cheney, is engaged in transporting coal from this city to South Newmarket for the machine works. Capt. Cheney expresses much satisfaction with his new craft, as she carries well and works well.

Mr. William Dixon of Kittery, who as is well known has at different times built some of the best and fastest sailing boats on the river, will in a few days put in the water a fine whale-boat built for Mr. Charles Wallace of Portsmouth. She is twenty feet long on the keel, and twenty-five feet over all; is of eight feet and six inches beam, and three feet six inches deep; and is copper fastened. Judging from her looks she should sail well, and be an able boat in a seaway. She will probably be added to the fleet of fishing boats sailing out of this harbor.

The ladies of the Golden Cross commandery of South Eliot gave a strawberry and ice cream festival in Brooks' hall on the 12th inst., with the result that the evening was passed very pleasantly by quite a large number of persons, and a good sum was netted for the treasury of the organization. A fine guess cake was won by Mrs. Charles Brown of South Eliot.

While Mr. Alexander Perry of Kittery Point was recently fishing about four miles northeast of the Shoals, he caught a cod-fish weighing ten pounds, and upon opening the fish was somewhat surprised to find in its maw about half a pint of potato bugs, the insects appearing to be in as good condition as could reasonably have been expected, considering their close confinement. Mr. Perry is considerably puzzled to decide whether the fish went ashore to catch the bugs, or the bugs went fishing for a living on account of the backward condition of the potato crop in this vicinity.

The steamer Mystic goes to Gangway ledge about every other day, to supply the two sloops with fresh water, for steaming and other purposes; the boat ordinarily stops from half to three-quarters of an hour, during which time the divers are usually either coming up or going down, and persons desirous of seeing something of how the work of removing sunken rocks is conducted will find Capt. "Rashe" courteous and obliging. The last sloop-load of stone from the rock to be landed at John Neal's wharf in Kittery, was landed there this week; hereafter all the material lifted will be taken to the Newcastle breakwater.

JOHN LAIGHTON,

NO. 1 MARKET SQUARE,

LIEBIG MALT EXTRACT.

RECOMMENDED BY PHYSICIANS of the highest eminence on both sides of the Atlantic, as an invaluable Tonic and Restorative in cases of General Debility, Nervous Depression, Enfeebled Constitution and Female Weakness.

NURSING MOTHERS, who suffer from scarcity of milk, will find it a specific for their condition. It stimulates the digestive, sharpens the appetite, invigorates and builds up the entire system, and excites a generous flow of milk.

WEAK AND SICKLY CHILDREN, who suffer from lassitude and weakness, the result of disease, over-study, or nervous strain, will derive substantial benefit from its use. It renders the system to its normal condition and brings back the bloom of youth.

INVALIDS AND CONVALESCENTS will find it admirably adapted for sustaining life, and restoring lost strength. When the digestive organs are in a state to receive food, the Extract will prove an excellent substitute for food. It neither pals upon the appetite nor offends the taste.

DELICATE FEMALES, who suffer from the weaknesses of their sex, will derive lasting relief from its use. It improves the digestion, purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, and revives the spirits.

WEAK AND DELICATE PERSONS GENERALLY, who require some artificial restorative—and especially those who are inclined to Consumption—will find this preparation exactly suited to their needs. It is a specific for the Cough and Nervous Affections usually incident to a low state of the system.

AS A FLESH RESTORER it possesses the highest value. The whole tendency of its action is to stimulate the digestion of fat-producing foods, and its effect is invariably to give fullness and roundness to the female form, and robustness to the masculine frame.

THE LIEBIG MALT EXTRACT is a pure concentrated Fluid Extract of Malt, agreeable to the taste, and free from alcohol. It is readily retained on the stomach and contains none but wholesome and nourishing ingredients. The genuine preparation bears on the label a fine engraved likeness of Baron von Liebig, and a facsimile of his Signature, as well as that of A. VOGELER & CO., BALTIMORE, Md., Sole Agents for America.

LIFE INSURANCE!

The Semi-Endowment Policy of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is believed to be the most desirable plan of insurance ever offered.

Among its advantages are: A definitely guaranteed cash value at a specified time. A paid-up policy for full value in case of discontinuance. Its period (20 years) covers the productive years of life, when insurance is mostly needed. It provides for old age. Above the age of 40 the rates are less than for life policies in other companies, while below 40 they are but little in excess of ordinary life premiums.

Parties insured in Co-operative Societies are requested to compare the net cost of these policies with that of assessment insurance.

THE WEATHER.

U. S. SIGNAL OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, D. C.
June 16, 12:00 A. M.

Probabilities for New England:—

Southerly to westerly winds, local rain followed by clearing weather, rising barometer, stationary or a slight rise in temperature.

Sky clear.

MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

In Board of Mayor and Aldermen, regular meeting, Thursday evening, June 15th, Mayor Sise in the chair:

Present, the full board.

The records of last meeting were read and approved.

Samuel Langdon asked for five lights on Lafayette road; referred to the committee on street lights, to report.

An ordinance transferring the money from the dog tax to the appropriation for schools was passed under suspension of the rules, and sent to the common council.

The Mutual Union Telegraph Co. informed the board that the telegraph poles had been used by the Telephone Co., and loaded with heavier and lower-placed cross-arms; and asked if permission had been granted the telephone company by the board. The matter was discussed, and the general opinion seemed to be that the board had nothing to do with the matter, so no action was taken. From this we judge that the telephone men simply appropriated the telegraph poles, and trusted to luck for holding them.

Concerning the placing of telephone poles in the middle of the Plains, it was voted that the company be ordered to remove them to either the north or south side of the Plains. It was stated that the managers of the company had expressed their readiness to place the poles wherever directed.

The mayor made a report concerning the meeting of mayors in Boston in regard to the valve suits. The mayor and city solicitor were authorized to represent the city at any future conference on the subject.

Mayor Sise said his attention had been called to the sale of toy pistols, one of which last year caused the death of a boy in this city, and suggested that the sale of the dangerous playthings should be suppressed. No action was taken.

A petition was presented from members of the police force, asking that they be allowed vacation. Referred to the committee on police, to report.

The committee on streets reported favorably on the petition of James F. Jenness and others, that Dennett street be allowed to remain open. The report was accepted and adopted.

A favorable report was made on the claim of Burleigh T. Chamberlain, for $8 as damages to his flock of geese from dogs, and the bill was ordered to be paid.

The committee to whom was referred the matter of investigating Mr. Wiley's claim to a right of way at the gravel pit, reported adversely to the claim.

Adjourned for one week.

INSTALLATION.

At a meeting of Davenport Council, No. 5, Royal and Select Masters, held in Masonic hall on Thursday evening, June 15th, the following officers were installed for the ensuing year:

Howe Call, T. I. M.;
William H. Lovell, D. M.;
Edwin H. Underhill, P. C. of W.;
Benjamin F. Webster, T.;
Joseph R. Curtis, R.;
Thomas R. Martin, C. of G.;
Charles W. Norton, C. of C.;
Harry G. Tanton, M.;
John P. Tebbetts, S.;
William B. Randall, Tyler.

CIRCUIT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES.

WEDNESDAY, June 14th; Gray J.

King vs. Adams. This was a suit in equity, the hearing on which was postponed to this day. C. H. Burns, attorney for H. Cooper, now appears and asks leave to file an answer, after the pleadings and proof have been printed. The motion is allowed, testimony to be taken in forty-five days; terms to be settled at the final hearing. H. S. Clark and R. M. Wallace for compt.; C. R. Morrison for Mrs. Adams; Burns for Cooper.

Bruce and others vs. Manchester & Keene Railroad and als. In this suit a motion was made by Hon. W. L. Foster in behalf of the Boston & Lowell railroad, one of the defendants, to dismiss for want of prosecution. F. A. Brooks, Esq., counsel for complainants, objected that there was no want of prosecution, as he had filed a motion to refer exceptions to the answer of Sam'l W. Hale and Henry Colony to a master, by reason of scandal and impertinence. The motion is now made by the M. & K. R. R. to dismiss for want of prosecution, and hearing on same postponed. F. A. Brooks for complainants; S. N. Bell for Ramsdell, Weston & Kimball; Briggs & Huse and W. E. Chandler, for Hale & Colony; John H. George for Boston & Lowell railroad; Foster for Manchester & Keene railroad.

HARLOW'S CONCERT.

The concert at Music hall this evening by the Wentworth house orchestra, Miss Edith Wendell, Mrs. Martha Dana Shepard and Miss E. M. Chamberlin, the solo whistler, will probably be the last evening entertainment of the season. The concert was given in Newburyport city hall last night, and owing to the extra opportunity for rehearsal it will no doubt be even better than if given on the date first set. Popular prices; see adv't.

The auction sale of land and cottage house on Austin street, announced for Thursday, June 15th, was postponed to Tuesday next, the 20th.

The Boston Traveller thus refers to a gentleman who started from Newington when he set out to make his way in the wicked world which lies outside of New Hampshire: "The new uniform prescribed for the officers of the Providence & Stonington Steamship company is unique. The veteran advertising agent of the company, Mr. John Garland of Boston, is the only representative of the company hereabouts, but it hardly needed the uniform to locate him. His extensive acquaintance is only equalled by his universal popularity."

A special train, with visitors to Boston from Wolfeboro' Junction and above, to see Jumbo, was run over the Eastern railroad on Wednesday, the 14th.

At the annual meeting of the New Hampshire Historical society in Concord on the 14th inst., Hon. Charles H. Bell, president of the society, presided. A memoir of Hon. Harvey Jewell, by Wm. H. Hackett, Esq., was read by S. C. Eastman, Esq., and a vote of thanks was extended to Mr. Hackett, and a copy requested for preservation by the society. Among the new members elected was Wallace Hackett of Portsmouth.

The Manchester Mirror says "Mr. Luther H. French will hold the position of assistant head waiter at the Wentworth hotel, Newcastle, this season."

Eastern railroad stock on Wednesday, the 14th inst., sold at $37 to $37.75 per share at the brokers' board in Boston; on the 15th it took a grand jump, 130 shares bringing $40 per share, and 565 shares from $41 to $43.25 per share. Maine Central sold at $65 and $66; and Portsmouth, Great Falls & Conway at $25.

The registered owners of the schooner "Herald," wrecked while trying to run into Boston harbor on the night of the 13th inst., are as follows: Zachariah Williams, G. F. Frisbee, Sarah A. Spear, Charles Frisbee, J. C. Hoyt, Solon Frisbee, Martin L. Frisbee, of Kittery; Josiah P. Frisbie of Boston; John R. Holbrook, George T. Vaughan, Frank P. Bartlett, Thomas S. Gay, William Downs, W. Wallace Downs, Francis I. Wilson, Timothy A. Tucker, Haven L. Scott.

The summer arrangement of trains on the Eastern railroad goes into effect on the 18th inst., giving additional trains in the afternoon, running to Boston.

The steam launch Gypsy, tender for the Wentworth house during "the season," was put in the water on Thursday.

On Wednesday of this week George Herbert bought 2000 lbs. of cod and haddock from the small boats, and about 4000 mackerel brought in by drag-boats. A halibut caught off the harbor on Wednesday by Capt. Rand, of one of the Newcastle boats, and sold to a local dealer, weighed ninety-eight pounds. Wednesday night the drag-boats brought in about 2500 mackerel, caught off the Shoals, and peddlers were retailing them about the streets on Thursday at five for a quarter, of fair size and quality.

The stock of ready made clothing, etc., in H. Leveen's store, has been appraised by Edw. S. Fay, Charles E. Simpson and Josiah T. Brown, at $1343.25.

A scarcity of bricks at some of the upriver yards is already reported, owing to the unusally active demand since the opening of navigation in the spring.

[For other local matter see second page.]

Oak Hall Agency in Portsmouth.

Messrs. G. W. Simmons & Son, of Oak Hall, Boston, have established an agency for this city and vicinity for the sale of their custom and ready made men's and boys' clothing, at No. 33 Market street, Portsmouth, where anything contained at Oak Hall, Boston, can be procured, at the same prices as in Boston. Several dollars can be saved by buying your own and your children's clothing at the Oak Hall Agency, as they sell at the lowest prices in New England.

Waste'er besides you chance to want,
Ne'er fall short of SOZODONT,
But keep it always in your sight,
A source of beauty and delight,
To cleanse your teeth till with your smile
The most fastidious you beguile.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. "It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother off earth who has ever used it, will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere Twenty-five cents a bottle. cod&wtjan22

A PLEASANT LETTER.

It Rings of a Grateful Heart and gives Honor where Honor is Due.

Mr. William W. Chadwick, of Hatchville, Conn., writes under date of June 14, 1880, Dr. Kennedy, Favorite Remedy: "I have used Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy for Gall stone, from which he had experienced everything but comfort for a long time. Mr. Chadwick felt wholly cured when he wrote, and says: "I have had no pain for six months, and have also regained my flesh and can stand a fair day's work. I recommend Kennedy's Favorite Remedy to any one suffering from a deranged liver." Grateful patients are common. Dr. Kennedy is daily in receipt of letters from them, expressing similar sentiments. These letters are spontaneous and put in all varities of phrasology, but invariably setting forth one thing—the value of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for many forms of disease. It may be just the thing you have been looking for. Is your liver disordered? Have you derangement of the kidneys or bladder, associated with constipation of the bowels? If so, you want "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy." Dr. Kennedy practices medicine and surgery in all their branches. Write and state your case frankly. Letters promptly answered. Address Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.

WHEAT BITTERS
THE Great LIQUID FOOD
FOR BLOOD, BRAIN AND NERVES.

IS A SUPERIOR NUTRITIVE MEDICINE, RICH IN PHOSPHATES AND NOT A CHEAP, ALCOHOLIC DRINK. Highly recommended by Chemists and Physicians as A POSITIVE TONIC, ALWAYS ACCEPTABLE AND RELIABLE,
as it does not stimulate the brain or irritate the system and leave deleterious effects. On the contrary, it furnishes just that which is necessary to the brain, strengthens and quiets the nerves, purifies the heart's blood, and thereby makes only the best flesh, bone and muscle. IF IT WORKS WONDERS, curing NERVOUS and GENERAL DEBILITY, MALARIA, DYSPEPSIA, INSOMNIA. Produces a healthy action of the liver and Kidneys, fortifying the system against the miasmatic influences, and will be found invaluable in all pulmonary and bronchial difficulties. DELICATE FEMALES, NURSING MOTHERS and WEAKLY CHILDREN can find no remedy equal to this healthful blood and nerve food tonic. IF For sale by all Druggists. $1.00 per bottle. THE CONFESSION OF AN IDIOT.

I bought some stock one luckless day
Which I'd been told was "sure to pay;"
The "capital was all paid in;"
The company would soon begin,—
Not in the way that others do,
With lack of funds and credit too.
It would "make money very fast,"
And "dividends be sure to last."
The managers were all great men,
Before their names wrote Col. or Gen.,
Or Maj., or, at the least wrote Hon.;
A basis good to build upon
Such names to me did surely seem,
When I went into that grand scheme.

I was "let in" at "bottom price,"
And thought I'd "picked up something nice;"
The stock most surely would advance
Without the fear of a mischance,
I held the stock, I held it still,
Knowing it is not worth a mill.
The managers had "placed the shares,"—
This was the greatest of their cares.
The "cash paid in" then disappeared,
And all too close the lambs were sheared.
The "bottom price," on which I'd built,
Dropped out, and all my milk was spilt.
The profits large were all a dream,
Except to those who worked the scheme;
But my investment, in a sense,
Has one great merit—permanence!

A Good Foundation.

In American households the prevailing complaints are weakness of the stomach and its consequences, indigestion, nervousness and rheumatism. Such sufferers can lay a good foundation for health by using Parker's Ginger Tonic, as it tones up the stomach and nerves, and keeps the kidneys active to carry off the foul matter.—N. O. Picayune.

—Mary Clemmer says only one girl in 500 can be happy as a clergyman's wife; but as only one man in 500 stands in need of a clergyman's wife, we don't see what Mary is growling about.

Don't do It.

Said my physician, who for six months had doctored me for dyspepsia without success, when I told him I was going to try Sulphur Bitters, they will only make you worse. I did try them and now I am a well man and can eat anything. Sulphur Bitters are a great foe to doctors.—George Bastett, New Haven.

—A strip of land bordering the Mediterranean, 100 miles in length and five or six in breadth, is the raisin-producing territory of Spain.

Beware of Imitations.

—The common synonyms for the devil, Old Nick, Old Scratch and Old Harry, are all derived from Finnish or Scandinavian terms—Nickel, Schrat, and Hari or Herra.

Catarrh of the Bladder.

Don't Die in the House.

—A new style of door mat has just been devised for editorial sanctums. It bears the woven inscription, "Come again," and is intended to lie outside the door.

Invalid wives and mothers quickly restored to health by using Brown's Iron Bitters. A true tonic.

—The world does not accept a statement without verifying it. We are told that the way of the transgressor is hard, and pretty nearly every man in the community is trying to find out just how hard it is.

The Perpetuity of Fame.

As the name of the immortal Washington has been most sacredly perpetuated as that of a hero and statesman, so also has the fame of Swayne's Ointment for skin diseases, descended into perpetuity as the only reliable remedy in the market, for every character of skin disorders, and as the reward of well-deserving merit. Worth and merit go hand-in-hand. It is useless to contradict the worth of this article.

Summer Complaints

At this season, various diseases of the bowels are prevalent, and many lives are lost through lack of knowledge of a safe and sure remedy. PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is a sure cure for Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Summer Complaint, etc., and is perfectly safe.

Read the following:

BAINBRIDGE, N. Y., March 22, 1881.
PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER never fails to afford instant relief for cramp and pain in the stomach.
JOSEPH BURDITT.

NICHOLVILLE, N. Y., Feb. 2, 1881.
The very best medicine I know of for dysentery, cholera morbus, and cramps in the stomach. Have used it for years, and it is sure every time.
JULIUS W. DEE.

MONONA, IOWA, March 15, 1881.
I have used your PAIN KILLER in severe cases of cramp, colic and cholera morbus, and it gave almost instant relief.
I. E. CALDWELL.

GREENVILLE, S.C., Feb. 28, 1881.
For twenty years I have used your PAIN KILLER in my family. Have used it many times for bowel complaints, and it always cures. Would not feel safe without a bottle in the house.
J. B. IVIE.

SACO, ME., Jan. 22, 1881.
Have used PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER for twelve years. It is safe, sure, and reliable. No mother should allow it to be out of the family.
H. I. NAYES.

ONEIDA, N. Y., Feb. 19, 1881.
We began using it over thirty years ago, and it always gives immediate relief. Would hardly dare to go to bed without a bottle in the house.
W. O. SPERRY.

CONWAYBORO, S. C., Feb. 22, 1881.
Nearly every family in this section keeps a bottle in the house.
DR. E. MORTON.

U. S. CONSULATE,
CREFELD, RHENISH PRUSSIA, Feb. 8, 1881.
I have known PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER almost from the day it was introduced, and after years of observation and use I regard its presence in my household as an indispensable necessity.
I. S. FORTIE, U. S. Consul.

BURTON-ON-TRENT, ENG.
I had been several days suffering severely from diarrhœa, accompanied with intense pain, when I tried your PAIN KILLER, and found almost instant relief.
H. J. NOONE.

31 MONTPELIER ST., LONDON, ENG.
During a residence of twenty-three years in India, I have given it in many cases of diarrhœa, dysentery, and cholera, and never knew it to fail to give relief.
R. CLARIDGE.

No family can safely be without this invaluable remedy. Its price brings it within the reach of all.

THE

New Hampshire Gazette!

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; ditorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a week's invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence it derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

STRENGTH

to vigorously push a business, strength to study a profession, strength to regulate a household, strength to do a day's labor without physical pain. All this represents what is wanted, in the often heard expression, "Oh! I wish I had the strength!" If you are broken down, have not energy, or feel as if life was hardly worth living, you can be relieved and restored to robust health and strength by taking BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, which is a true tonic—a medicine universally recommended for all wasting diseases.

for N. Fremont St., Baltimore

During the war I was injured in the stomach by a piece of a shell, and have suffered from it ever since. About four years ago it brought on paralysis, which kept me in bed six months, and the best doctors in the city said I could not live. I suffered fearfully from indigestion, and for over two years could not eat solid food and for a large portion of the time was unable to retain even liquid nourishment. I tried Brown's Iron Bitters and now after taking two bottles I am able to get up and go around and am rapidly improving.

G. DECKER.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is a complete and sure remedy for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Malaria, Weakness and all diseases requiring a true, reliable, non-alcoholic tonic. It enriches the blood, gives new life to the muscles and tone to the nerves.

The Toy Pistol.

The city of Salem, Mass., proposes to put a quietus upon the toy-pistol business, and took imitatory steps at a common council meeting held recently, when one member introduced an order prohibiting the sale of toy pistols that discharge cartridges. He argued that these weapons are deadly, as was shown last year in Baltimore, where eighty or ninety deaths were caused by them; in Philadelphia, where sixty or seventy deaths occurred; and in Boston, where twenty or thirty children were killed. He also said that the mayor of Philadelphia had deemed the prohibition of their use so important as to go around personally and order their sale discontinued; and in further enforcing the argument, the speaker referred to a severe accident that occurred to his own son by the deadly plaything. Another member thought the order should be more stringent and prohibit their use, but after debate the original order was adopted.

Imitation Bank Notes.

Secret Service Officer Drummond of New York, and his assistants, have been instructed by the United States attorney to seize all engravings, in whatever shape, having stamped impressions or imitations of United States coin or bank notes. Mr. Drummond has already seized several hundred thousand of these engravings, principally in the form of plaques. They will be destroyed. They were intended for gratuitous distribution, being in the character of advertisements. Persons engaged in the manufacture, sale or distribution of these engravings are liable, if prosecuted, to a penalty of fifteen years' imprisonment. Nothing will be done with those who have heretofore subjected themselves to this penalty, unless they continue to manufacture, sell or distribute the engravings after receiving notice to cease doing so.

"The true professional leads a regular gypsy life," says Mr. Fred J. Cocoanut Custard.

Take from one quart of rich milk one cupful, and mix with it one teaspoonful of Sea Moss Farine. Cook it as for other custard, and add to it the beaten yolks of six eggs and three tablespoonfuls of sugar, cooking the eggs only till it thickens. Stir into this two teacups of grated cocoanut and a little of the milk to flavor it. Serve it in a glass dish with the whites of the eggs beaten to a stiff froth, with a little sugar and dropped on the top of the custard.

A man named Stevens, a recent arrival from Maine, was killed and his body horribly mutilated at Deadwood, Dak., June 11th, by a train on the Homestake railroad. He attempted to jump on the cars while in motion, and fell between the tracks.

"An Odd Street Scene."

He was seen in front of the office rubbing himself against the telegraph post like a flea-bitten dog. "What is wrong?" we ventured to ask. "Gotem, 'gent," he said laconically; have 'em every spring, small lumps form about the rectum; sore to the touch; they itch like blazes; "a telegraph pole's like an oasis in the desert to me." Here then, was poor humanity suffering from a complaint which a few applications of Swayne's Ointment for itching piles, would have thoroughly eradicated.

Cuticura

THE NEW BLOOD PURIFIER

Resolvent

Mr. Albert Kingsbury, Keene, N. H., troubled with bad humor on hands and neck, caused by lead poisoning. (He's a painter.) At times it would break out, crack open, and the skin separate from the flesh in large pieces, suffering great continual itching and stinging. Purchased your remedies, used Cuticura Resolvent internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally, and in less than three months effected a complete cure, and has not been troubled since. Corroborated by Bullard & Foster, Druggists, Keene, N. H.

Mother Died from it.

J. W. Adams, Newark, Ohio, says: "Cuticura Remedies are the greatest medicine on earth. Had the worst case salt rheum in this county. My mother had it twenty years, and in fact died from it. I believe Cuticura would have saved her life. My arms, breast and head were covered for three years, which nothing relived or cured until I used the Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally.

Psoriasis.

H. E. Carpenter, Esq., Henderson, N. Y., cured of Psoriasis or Leprosy of twenty years' standing, by the Cuticura Resolvent internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally. The most wonderful case on record. Cure certified to before a justice of the peace and prominent citizens. All afflicted with itching and scaly diseases should send to us for this testimonial in full.

Salt Rheum.

Those who have experienced the torments of Salt Rheum can appreciate the agony I endured for years, until cured by the Cuticura Resolvent internally and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally.

MRS. WM. PELLINGTON, Sharon, Wis.

Cuticura

and Cuticura Soap externally and Cuticura Resolvent internally will positively cure every species of humor, from a common pimple to Scrofula. Price of Cuticura, small boxes, 50c.; large boxes, $1. Cuticura Resolvent, $1 per bottle. Cuticura Soap 25c. Cuticura Shaving Soap, 15c. Sold by all druggists.

Testimonials.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"Inventors cannot employ a person more trustworthy or more capable of securing for them, as early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, October 19, 1878.

R. H. EDDY, Esq.,—Dear Sir: You procured me, in 1840, my first patent. Since then you have acted for and advised me in hundreds of cases and procured many patents, reissues and extensions. I have, occasionally, employed the best agencies in New York, Philadelphia and Washington, but I still give you almost the whole of my business, in your line, and advise others to employ you. Yours truly, GEORGE DRAPER.

STARTLING DISCOVERY!

LOST MANHOOD RESTORED.

A victim of youthful imprudence causing Premature Decay, Nervous Debility, Lost Manhood, etc., having tried in vain every known remedy, has discovered a simple remedy, which he will send FREE to his fellow-sufferers, address J. H. REEVES, 43 Chatham St., N. Y.

A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be in introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

Portsmouth Chronicle.

SATURDAY, JUNE 17, 1882.

The Free Baptist Yearly Meeting.

The yearly meeting of the Free Baptists of New Hampshire commenced its three days session at Rochester on Tuesday, the 13th inst.; the churches were nearly all represented by delegates, and more than fifty ministers were present, with several from out of the state. Tuesday was devoted to organization, and the annual sermon by Rev. F. K. Chace of Dover. Wednesday there was a prayer meeting in the morning, then the business meeting of the Women's Mission society, annual meeting of the Temperance society, and an address, subject "Education." Thursday, prayer meeting in the morning, followed by resolutions on state Sunday school work, resolutions on New Hampshire Charitable society, resolutions on foreign missionary work, and closing sermon by Rev. G. H. Pinkham of Meredith.

Ancient Order of Hibernians.

The state convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians was held in Keene on the 14th inst., ten divisions being represented by forty delegates. The organization was reported in a prosperous condition financially, and as having gained over two hundred members during the last year. The next annual session will be held at Manchester. The following officers were elected for the ensuing two years: Delegate, James H. Houghey; secretary, Festus Devine; treasurer, Joseph Murray,—all of Manchester.

A Sell at the Charlestown Navy Yard.

On the day of the recent New Hampshire club dinner, a gentleman of not very stalwart proportions was seen looking about the Charlestown navy yard. It was quickly rumored around the yard, where work is so slack that there is time for a rumor to find the way into all departments, that the secretary of the navy was on the yard, going it alone and looking about unaccompanied. Officers were on the qui vive to be up and dressed; messenger boys were despatched to quarters for dress coats, and the quiet spot seemed alive with expectancy. "Where has he gone?" asked the genial "Constructor" of one of the men. "He's just gone aboad the Hartford, sir," was the reply. "Just where I want to meet him," exclaimed the head of construction and repair, and away he posted—to discover that the little gentleman who was looking about the ship was not the distinguished official who is "so deeply sensitive about the good opinion of New Hampshire," but some other person. The N. C. hauled his wind, and told the officers whom he met wending their way to the ship that they had been sold. The commodore breathed easier, and wiping away the perspiration which the warm June day and the excitement of the occasion had caused to gather on his brow, wended his way back to his official haunts; the marine officer countermanded his orders to his subordinates; the foremen returned to their reading of the morning papers, and the customary repose on the valuable water-front of Boston harbor was resumed.

The Yard Must Not Be Sold.

One of the strongest reasons adduced against the sale of the Charlestown navy yard is that it is wanted for the storage of Ben Butler's yacht "America," which for some time has had snug quarters at the yard. As the America was once the property of the navy, it naturally looks to a navy yard as a rightful place of repose when in ordinary. It is cared for, and no matter how much in the way, it must have its place every winter. Should any commandant object to this kind of occupancy, he would in times past soon be in receipt of a bureau order to permit the America to be stored at the yard. Under what appropriation the cost of her care, if any, is paid, we know not; but the general believes that he has as much right to use a navy yard for the purpose of keeping a private yacht, as have the officers of any station to fit up a yacht for their private use with the public property, and expend large sums for labor and fittings from the appropriations for navy yard purposes. There is some curiosity to see if the model secretary will, as have his predecessors, permit this kind of dead-headism to be indulged in.

The Egyptian Trouble.

Affairs in Egypt become daily more menacing, the presence of the Sultan's envoy, Dervish Pacha, seeming to amount to nothing of importance in the line of repressing the military faction led by Arabi Pacha. A despatch to London on the 15th, from Cairo, says:

The panic here is becoming worse hourly. The shops are all closed. Some Frenchmen, who are unable to leave, are fortifying themselves in their houses.

A despatch of the same date from Alexandria says:

The number of Europeans killed on Sunday, the 11th, is now estimated at 250. Many were thrown into the sea, and are being daily washed ashore. Twelve bodies yesterday and five to-day were thus recovered. All the bodies bear marks of bludgeon or bayonet wounds. Several witnesses of Sunday's riot assert that the rabble were preceded by a detachment of gen d' armes, who drew up in the middle of the square and looked on when the massacre began, and afterward took part in it.

The London Times in a leading article says it considers that the fact is established that the riot at Alexandria on Sunday was premeditated.

The British troop-ship Tamar has sailed from Plymouth, Eng., for Malta, with marines to reinforce the Mediterranean squadron; she will take troops from Malta to Alexandria, if necessary, as it seems likely to be.

Rear Admiral Nicholson, commanding the United States squadron on the European station, telegraphs to the navy department at Washington that all the vessels of that squadron now in the Mediterranean, are under orders to proceed to Alexandria, to look after American interests at that port.

Naval Affairs.

Capt. J. H. Higbee, U. S. M. C., who has been on court martial duty at the Brooklyn navy yard, has reported back to the Boston yard for duty.

Lieut. Comdr. George E. Wingate is detached from the Boston navy yard, and ordered to the Brooklyn as executive officer.

News and Notes.

The British steamship Canadian, of the Allan line, went ashore on the Thrum Cap shoal, near Halifax, during a fog on the afternoon of the 15th inst.

Ex-Gov. William Dennison, of Ohio, died in Columbus on the 15th inst., at the age of sixty-six years. He was postmaster general during Lincoln's and Johnson's administrations.

It was stated in the British house of commons, a day or two since, that evictions in Ireland are now taking place at the appalling rate of 1000 per week.

The autopsy on the body of the unknown man found dead in the woods at Malden, Mass., shows that he was murdered by shooting, a bullet having entered at the left temple, and passed out of the mouth. No weapon was found near the body. Many persons who viewed the body thought it resembled one John Montgomery, a watch thief sent to Cambridge jail from Malden some months ago, but who shortly escaped.

A fire in the plumber's shop at the Charlestown navy yard, on the 15th inst., did damage to the amount of $1000 or $1,500, mostly to the roof of the building.

By a gas explosion in the air shaft of the Stanton Mine at Wilkesbarre, Pa., June 15th, one man was killed, and four so badly burned that it is thought they cannot recover.

Two young men, rivals for the affections of a young lady of Hoosick Falls, N. Y., fought a bloodless duel with pistols on the railroad track near that town, June 15th. The young lady has banished both suiters, and the victor of the "honors" of the battle ground has apologized to his opponent.

In the superior court at New Bedford, Mass., John F. Nichols of Fall River, and Almon Ingalls of Canton, have been found guilty of conspiracy against the former's wife.

The characteristics of an agreeable perfume are delicacy, permanency, and a vague suggestiveness of something remote, fond, and touching; so that as we inhale it, in an indescribable way old remembrances come back, pleasing fancies awake, and a whole train of cherished associations is revived. Of all perfumes contrived by the art of man, none have shown themselves comparable to the genuine Murray & Lanman Florida Water in these essential respects, as is attested by its use among the refined, cultivated, and luxurious classes wherever an indestructable fragrance is looked for to enkindle pleasure in the senses or the mind, by "striking the electric chain wherewith we are quickly bound."

Near Winchester, Ky., on the night of June 14th, ten negro men and one white woman employed on a railroad, and occupying a cabin in the bed of Two-Mile creek, were drowned by the cabin being swept off by a swiftly rising flood.

LIFE INSURANCE!

The Semi-Endowment Policy of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is believed to be the most desirable plan of insurance ever offered.

Among its advantages are: A definitely guaranteed cash value at a specified time. A paid-up policy for full value in case of discontinuance. Its period (20 years) covers the productive years of life, when insurance is mostly needed. It provides for old age. Above the age of 40 the rates are less than for life policies in other companies, while below 40 they are but little in excess of ordinary life premiums.

Parties insured in Co-operative Societies are requested to compare the net cost of these policies with that of assessment insurance.

HARLOW'S CONCERT.

The Newburyport Herald of Friday made mention as follows of a musical entertainment given in that city on the previous evening:

The concert at City Hall last evening, by the Wentworth House Orchestra, assisted by soloists, under the direction of Mr. Harlow, was one of the best entertainments given in this city this season, and was commended on every hand. The Wentworth is to be congratulated on having a first-class orchestra for the summer, and one that cannot fail to give satisfaction to its guests, judging from the good work performed by them last evening. The programme was rather more "popular" than "classical," and as such was duly appreciated. The best of the orchestral selections were the first and last—overture from "William Tell" and Mendelssohn's magnificent "Priest's War March," but the thoroughly artistic manner in which the familiar "Turkish Patrol" was given, carried the house by storm. The vocalist of the evening was Miss Edith Wendell, a young lady who at once won the good graces of the audience by her naturalness, utter absence of affectation and the ease with which she sang her selections. The possessor of a very pleasing soprano voice, of excellent quality and good range, its cultivation was well shown in her difficult selection from "Lucia di Lammermoor," and its sympathetic qualities in the "Old Folks at Home," which she gave in response to an encore. Quite a novelty was the whistling solos of Miss Ella M. Chamberlin, who received enthusiastic applause. Miss C. can whistle; there's no mistake about that; and she can whistle musically and artistically. In addition to her selections in the programme she gave in response to encores "The Last Rose of Summer" and "The Mocking Bird." Mrs. Martha Dana Shepard, the pianist, was also enthusiastically encored, and gracefully responded. Taken as a whole, nevertheless, we can in truth say, that there was not a dull or faultily executed selection in the entire programme, and the audience dispersed in a pleasant frame of mind.

We are deeply touched by the courtesy of our Newburyport contemporary, in writing up for us this report of Mr. Harlow's concert, and putting it in print for the convenience of our compositors. Substitute "Music hall" for "City hall," and the report will answer first rate for the concert given in this city on Friday evening, though the reference to ill-bred persons in the balcony disturoing the audience during Mr. Cook's violin concerto may be omitted.

The audience on Friday evening was not so large as the performance deserved—but the evening was very hot, which no doubt had something to do with it. The soloists were repeatedly encored, and responded generously; and the orchestral numbers were all well received.

The piano used was a parlor (or "baby") grand made by Knabe of Baltimore, and furnished by D. H. Montgomery, the agent for this vicinity; and though it is nine inches shorter than an ordinary square piano, the tone was not only rich but surprisingly powerful.

Rev. Wm. H. Alden, D. D., pastor of the Middle street Baptist church, has received a call from the Baptist church in North Attleborough, Mass.

Mr. H. Gates Wentworth of this city will have charge of the stable at the Wentworth house, Newcastle, during the summer; Mr. Henry Murch will drive Mr. Wentworth's hack during his absence. William P. Cutler, of Newark, New Jersey, is to be telegraph operator at the Wentworth this season.

A recent copy of the Florida Crescent, published at Brooksville, Florida, gives an account of a successful picnic held at Bayport, a watering place in Florida, upon the invitation of Maj. John Parsons who has for years resided in Florida. Major Parsons is a native of Rye, and uncle of Dr. J. W. Parsons of this city. He went to Florida during the Seminole war of 1838, and was in the battle when Lieut. McNeil, nephew of the late President Pierce, was shot. He was with Capt. Miles (afterwards Gen. Miles, of Harper's Ferry notoriety,) when possession was taken of Cedar keys, and the first wooden building ever erected there, built—the keys having previously been occupied by the Indians. He served in the Seminole war as brigade major and inspector, has been government land agent and public surveyor of lands, also a merchant, and ever since the Seminole war identified with the interests of Florida. He now has elegible lands ready for sale to those who wish to secure a desirable and healthy winter residence in the south; the Gulf side of the peninsula is for preferable for invalids to the Atlantic side, as the cold northeast storms are shorn of half their ferocity by passing over the pine lands of the interior. The major always delights to return to his native town in the summer season, and revisit the scenes of his childhood.

Mr. Mooney, of Alton Bay, brought a car-load of horses to this city for sale on Thursday last, and they can be seen at the stone stable on Fleet street. One of them weighs 1600 lbs.

It is stated that the Perkins Railroad Chair company, of Nashua, are to take possession of the old Jarvis Hoisery factory at the Creek in August, where they will enter into the manufacture of their patented chair.

Mr. John N. Pickering, formerly clerk with L. V. Newell, has secured a position as clerk in the wholesale and retail house of Bailey & Co., Boston, and entered upon his duties on Friday.—Times.

Jacob Wendell, Esq., of New York, occupies the cottage in Newcastle near Mr. Albee's, this season.

The schooner Laura Bridgman, Hart master, in getting under weigh on Friday ran into George Herbert's fish wharf, but did no damage beyond the breaking of the telephone wire.

A couple of youthful lovers about seventy-five years old were married in this city on the 15th inst.

The schooner Grace Choate, of this port, Robinson master, went into Gloucester, Mass., on the 14th inst., with 60,000 lbs. of cod, the result of a nine days' trip to Cashe's ledge.

Mrs. Nancy Davis, an aged colored woman, was found dead in her house on Madison street, Friday evening. She probably died from natural causes.

G. J. Croswell, a lumberman, was drowned at Manchester on the 14th inst., through falling off a log.

Fifteen loaded freight cars on the Portland & Rochester railroad were thrown down a high bank at Springvale, Me., on the 14th inst., and smashed to pieces; a broken wheel was the cause.

A train from Whitefield to Jefferson ran into a hand-car containing three men, on the night of June 14th. Three men in the car jumped out, and one, Peter Tenier, was fatally injured.

Rochester will have a big Fourth of July celebration. Twelve hundred dollars are appropriated for that purpose.

Richard Whitely, employed on the Sawyer River railroad in Livermore, was run over by the cars and killed June 15th.

On Monday, June 12th, James Murray hired a team at Martin's stable in Keene to go to Marlboro, but not returning a reward was offered for the recovery of the team; the thief and property were secured at Springfield, Vermont.

Oak Hall Agency in Portsmouth.

Messrs. G. W. Simmons & Son, of Oak Hall, Boston, have established an agency for this city and vicinity for the sale of their custom and ready made men's and boys' clothing, at No. 33 Market street, Portsmouth, where anything contained at Oak Hall, Boston, can be procured, at the same prices as in Boston. Several dollars can be saved by buying your own and your children's clothing at the Oak Hall Agency, as they sell at the lowest prices in New England.

A Cough, Cold or Sore Throat

Should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an incurable Lung Disease or Consumption. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" do not disorder the stomach like cough syrups and balsams, but act directly on the inflamed parts, allaying irritation, give relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Cough, Catarrh, and the Throat Troubles which Singers and Public Speakers are subject to. For thirty years "Brown's Bronchial Troches" have been recommended by physicians, and have always given perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. Sold at 25 cts a box everywhere. eod&wtjan82

A PLEASANT LETTER.

It Rings of a Grateful Heart and gives Honor where Honor is Due.

Mr. William W. Chadwick, of Hatchville, Conn., writes under date of June 14, 1880, to Dr. Kennedy, to say that the use of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" has cured him of Gall stone, from which he had experienced everything but comfort for a long time. Mr. Chadwick felt wholly cured when he wrote, and says: "I have had no pain for six months, and have also regained my flesh and can stand a fair day's work. I recommend Kennedy's Favorite Remedy to any one suffering from a deranged liver." Grateful patients are common. Dr. Kennedy is daily in receipt of letters from them, expressing similar sentiments. These letters are spontaneous and put in all varities of phraseology, but invariably setting forth one thing—the value of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for many forms of disease. It may be just the thing you have been looking for. Is your liver disordered? Have you derangement of the kidneys or bladder, associated with constipation of the bowels? If so, you want "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy." Dr. Kennedy practices medicine and surgery in all their branches. Write and state your case frankly. Letters promptly answered. Address Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.

WHEAT BITTERS

THE Great LIQUID FOOD FOR BLOOD, BRAIN AND NERVES.

IT'S A SUPERIOR NUTRITIVE MEDICINE, RICH IN PHOSPHATES AND NOT A CHEAP, ALCOHOLIC DRINK. Highly recommended by Chemists and Physicians as A POSITIVE TONIC, ALWAYS ACCEPTABLE AND RELIABLE, as it does not stimulate the brain or irritate the system and leave a disagreeable effect. On the contrary, it furnishes just that which is necessary to build up the system, quiets the nerves, purifies the heart's blood, and thereby makes one the best flesh, bone and muscle. IT IS WORK WONDERS, curing NERVOUS and GENERAL DEBILITY, MALARIA, DYSPEPSIA, INSOMNIA. Produces a healthy action of the Liver and Kidneys, fortifying the system against the miasmatic influences, and will be found invaluable in all pulmonary and bronchial diseases. DELICATE FEMALES, NURSING MOTHERS and WEAKLY CHILDREN can find no remedy equal to this herbal blood and nerve food tonic. For Dyspepsia by all Druggists. $1.00 per bottle. Prepared only by WHEAT BITTERS CO.

Emerson and Margaret Fuller.

Ralph Waldo Emerson had returned from Europe, had recovered his health, had married a second time, had settled at Concord, and he and I had gotten over being shy with each other; but he had not gotten on as well with Margaret Fuller. Margaret wrote poetry, and people laughed about it and said she wrote it in fits of exaltation, which she called "intense times." This gave Mr. Emerson, who was very simple and natural, a prejudice against her.

One day, when visiting at his house, I expressed the wish that he could know Margaret better.

Mrs. Emerson, who is the soul of disinterested kindness, proposed at once that Margaret be invited to come to their house.

"Oh, no," cried Mr. Emerson; "I don't want to know a lady who has 'intense times,' and writes poetry in them."

Then I went on and told how I had had the same prejudice; how it all melted away when I conversed with her; in talking with me, she had made the whole universe look larger. At this assurance Mr. Emerson's face suddenly lighted, and, turning to his wife, he exclaimed:

"Yes, Queenie, you are right. Invite her, by all means. Let us welcome any young woman whose converse can make the whole universe look larger to us."—Elizabeth Peabody, at the Woman's Club.

—A young man in Iowa recently received a brushing for interfering in a quarrel between John Goodenough and his wife. The youth will adopt the time honored custom and "let good enough alone."

Delicate Females.

The exactions of society, added to the cares of maternity and the household, have tested beyond endurance the frail constitutions which have been granted the majority of women. To combat this tendency to premature decline, no remedy in the world possesses the nourishing and strengthening properties of Malt Bitters. They enrich the blood, perfect digestion, stimulate the liver and kidneys, arrest ulcerative weaknesses, and purify and vitilize every function of the female system.

Mrs. Scoville has applied for a divorce from her husband. Should think he'd be glad to sever his connection with the Guiteau family.

No cheap mixture to impose on credulous humanity is Wheat Bitters; it is a most potent tonic and recuperant. Try it and be convinced.

The net profit to the government of the Lebanon postoffice for the year ending April 1st, 1882, was $3,094.26, being an increase of $786.72 over the previous year, or thirty-four per cent.

The Perpetuity of Fame.

As the name of the immortal Washington has been most sacredly perpetuated as that of a hero and statesman, so also has the fame of Swayne's Ointment for skin diseases, descended into perpetuity as the only reliable remedy in the market, for every character of skin disorders, and as the reward of well-deserving merit. Worth and merit go hand-in-hand. It is useless to contradict the worth of this article.

THE

New Hampshire Gazette!

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire Items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

— THE —
NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Contains more original matter

Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a weekly invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

NOTED MEN!

DR. JOHN F. HANCOCK, late President of the National Pharmaceutical Association of the United States, says:

"Brown's Iron Bitters has a heavy sale, is conceded to be a fine tonic; the character of the manufacturers is a voucher for its purity and medicinal excellence."

DR. JOSEPH ROBERTS, President Baltimore Pharmaceutical College, says:

"I indorse it as a fine medicine, reliable as a strengthening tonic, free from alcoholic poisons."

DR. J. FARIS MOORE, PH. D., Professor of Pharmacy, Baltimore Pharmaceutical College, says:

"Brown's Iron Bitters is a safe and reliable medicine, positively free from alcoholic poisons, and can be recommended as a tonic for use among those who oppose alcohol."

DR. EDWARD EARICKSON, Secretary Baltimore College of Pharmacy, says:

"I indorse it as an excellent medicine, a good digestive agent, and a non-intoxicant in the fullest sense."

DR. RICHARD SAPINGTON, one of Baltimore's oldest and most reliable physicians, says:

"All who have used it praise its standard virtues, and the well-known character of the house which makes it is a sufficient guarantee of its being all that is claimed, for they are men who could not be induced to offer anything else but a reliable medicine for public use."

A Druggist Cured.

Boonsboro, Md., Oct. 12, 1880.
Gentlemen: Brown's Iron Bitters cured me of a bad attack of Indigestion and fullness in the stomach. Having tested it, I take pleasure in recommending it to my customers, and am glad to say it gives entire satisfaction to all."
GEO. W. HOFFMAN, Druggist.

A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be in introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

[Entered at the Post-Office at Portsmouth, N. H. as second-class matter.]

Republican Conventions.

The republican state committee met in Concord on the 16th inst., and fixed the times and places for holding the state, congressional, county, councillor and senatorial conventions. Among the conventions arranged for are the following:

State, at Concord, Sept. 12th;

County, Rockingham, at Exeter Sept. 20th.

Councillor, 1st district, at Dover Sept. 26th;

The Egyptian Trouble.

Matters at Cairo are so serious at present, owing to the European panic, that the entire American mission has gone on board the U. S. S. Galena, now there. The party includes Dr. Lansing and Messrs. Hogg, Watson, Ewing, Nichol, Harvey, Alexander and Griffin and their families, with Misses Thompson, Frazier, Strong, Neevlin and Comer. Col. Long took charge of the American consulate on Friday, replacing Mr. Menache. Mr. Cattowi, a rich Egyptian banker who was received on board the Galena, expresses heartfelt thanks to the American government in the name of all the unprotected persons who have found American protection. The Galena has been able to do work which ships of other nationalities were prevented from doing.

The bodies of 340 Europeans who were murdered in the riots at Alexandria, on the 4th inst., have been found, and it is likely the number killed was much greater.

Naval Affairs.

As the initial movement toward the reconstruction of the navy, the senate committee on naval affairs has reported a bill authorizing the president, with the consent of the senate, to appoint naval constructors and assistant naval constructors, who shall have rank and pay as officers of the navy. The number of naval constructors shall hereafter be limited to ten, and the number of assistant naval constructors to ten. No person other than a practical and theoretical naval architect shall be appointed an assistant naval constructor, and before appointment he must furnish evidence of the fact, and pass an examination before a board composed of the naval constructors and a professor of mathematics in the navy.

Serious Accident at a Fire.

A building on Hampshire street, Boston Highlands, used for the storage of cotton waste and the manufacture of carpeting, was burned on the 17th inst. When the fire was nearly out the front wall of the building fell into the street, burying nineteen firemen; but singular to relate, though all were injured, nine or ten of them seriously, none were killed.

News and Notes.

The schooner La Syrène was sunk on St. Peter's bank, near Newfoundland, June 10th, by ice, and her crew of seventeen persons perished.

A jury has awarded that Ella P. Emerson recover $750 from the Boston Journal Publishing Co., for damages caused by an incorrect statement in a court report as to a divorce having been granted against the plaintiff in favor of her husband, and that evidence had been introduced tending to show that she had become the mother of an illegitimate child after leaving her husband. The defendants claimed that they had published a correction.

Lynn, Mass., has adopted an order prohibiting the sale of toy pistols. Good thing.

At Newport, R. I., Friday afternoon, Deputy Sheriff Lake, for and in behalf of James R. Keene of New York, served a notice on Henry W. Cozzens, agent of the Weston Electric Light company of Boston, ordering him to remove the poles now on Bellevue avenue and forbidding him to further prosecute work, under penalty of a suit for damages.

Terrible floods are reported from British Columbia, many lives having been lost, and vast quantities of property destroyed.

At Red Wing, Minn., while John Nelson, his wife, son, and Miss Bradley of Springfield, Ohio, were boating Friday evening, they came in contact with the cable of a ferry, the boat was capsized, and both ladies were drowned.

In Linn county, Kansas, on the night of June 14th, Mrs. John Seals and her two children, and three other children, were drowned while attempting to cross Sugar creek in a wagon.

Mrs. Moses Mason was killed by lightning at Randolph, Mass., June 16th.

Mrs. Joseph W. Worster, of Columbia Falls, Me., gave birth to three children, two boys and a girl, on the 5th inst. The mother is thirty-five years old, and at last accounts all were doing well.

Rabbit skins are a more important factor in the fur trade of this country than perhaps most people are aware. It appears that our imports of rabbit skins from New Zealand alone annually amount to 8,500,000, valued at $500,000, while only nine years ago but 36,716 were imported. Twenty years ago there was not a rabbit on the islands, but a few pairs then let loose multiplied so fast that they threatened to drive everybody and everything from the islands. They ate up all vegetation and destroyed millions of dollars worth of property. A crusade was organized against them, and the evil somewhat diminished. Now it is said that 85,000,000 are annually killed.

The "Granite Monthly" for June has a sketch of Harry Bingham, prepared by H. H. Metcalf, with a fine steel portrait—one of the best that has been seen in the monthly for many a day. The article is as fair as can be when such an admirer of the "Judge" as the author attempts a sketch, but the estimate of "John S. Wells as the most brilliant orator save Franklin Pierce whom New Hampshire has known for the last half a century," is stating it from an up-country standpoint. Mr. Wells abounded in smoothness of utterance, but was not noted for brilliancy. Mr. Bingham is one of the ablest lawyers of the state; and as a legislator of the largest experience of any man in New Hampshire, while a strict party man, is acknowledged in all his public even as in his professional career to be without reproach. The sketch of Littleton is a collection of statistics rather than a sketch of a prominent town. John Wentworth's reminiscences of Mr. Webster are of course full of interest, because Mr. Wentworth never writes anything of this kind that does not possess an interest. "New Hampshire men in Lowell" has mention of several prominent residents of that city, among whom are Nathan Crosby and John A. Knowles, beside the portly Marden of the Courier, who has for so long been a winter fixture beneath the gilded dome of the state house in Boston.

The Concord Monitor says that Mr. Hale was greatly ahead at the recent assemblage of republicans which met at Concord on the occasion of the gathering of the state central committee. That doubtless was the case, as it is said Mr. Hale massed his forces to make an impression on that occasion. It looks as if, Manchester being opposed to Concord's candidate for senator, Concord must be against Manchester's candidate for governor.

The Salmon Falls Manufacturing Co. has declared a dividend of four per cent.

Albert Story, a veteran employe of the Concord railroad, formerly a resident of Manchester, but recently station agent at Raymond, died June 16th at his residence in Raymond, aged forty-four years. He was widely known and universally respected, and a member of several secret orders. He leaves a wife and three children.

Judge Stanley of the supreme court has settled a question which had for some time agitated the people of Rochester, by deciding that the police court of that town was not legally abolished by the vote of the last town meeting.

The Spiritualist Association of New Hampshire commenced a three days' meeting at Keene on the 16th inst.

John Carroll of Laconia, aged forty years, has been arrested on his own charge of immoral conduct with his seventeen-years-old daughter.

On Thursday evening last a young man hired a team at one of the livery stables, and drove out on Islington road. Just above Spinney's lane he tumbled out of the vehicle, owing to "sleepiness," and was considerably cut and bruised, his injuries being so severe as to prevent him (in conjunction with other causes) from arising from the ground after he struck. Some boys drove the team back to the stable, and a farmer living near by put the man into a wagon and brought him into the city.

The sheers at the navy yard are found to be in bad condition, the spars being considerably decayed at the head, and the work of making them secure, if possible, was commenced last week. The legs were badly matched when first set up, (in 1864, we think it was,) one of them going up as stiff as a ramrod, while the other buckled and bent like a whip-stick.

The giddy and inexperienced young couple who last week rushed into matrimony at the immature age of seventy-five years, were serenaded on Friday evening by a callithumpian band.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. "It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere Twenty-five cents a bottle. eod&wtjan89

LIEBIG MALT EXTRACT.

RECOMMENDED BY PHYSICIANS of the highest emissence on both sides of the Atlantic, as an invaluable Tonic and Restorative in cases of General Debility, Nervous Depression, Enfeebled Constitution and Female Weakness.

NURSING MOTHERS, who suffer from poverty of milk, will find it a specific for their trouble. It stimulates the digestive, sharpens the appetite, invigorates and builds up the entire system, and secures a generous flow of milk.

WEAK AND SICKLY CHILDREN, who suffer from lassitude and weariness, the result of disease, over-study, or nervous strain, will derive substantial benefit from its use. It restores the system to its normal condition and brings back the bloom of youth.

INVALIDS AND CONVALESCENTS will find it admirably adapted for sustaining life, and restoring lost strength. When the stomach rejects all other nourishment the Extract will prove an excellent substitute for food. It neither pals upon the appetite nor offends the taste.

DELICATE FEMALES, who suffer from the weaknesses of their sex, will derive lasting relief from its use. It improves the digestion, purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, and revives the spirits.

WEAK AND DELICATE PERSONS GENERALLY, who require some artificial restorative—and especially those who are inclined to Consumption—will find this preparation exactly suited to their needs. It is a specific for the Coughs and Nervous Affections usually incident to a low state of the system.

AS A FLESH RESTORER it possesses the highest value. The whole tendency of its action is to stimulate the digestive, fat-producing foods, and its effect is invariably to give fulness and roundness to the female form, and robustness to the masculine frame.

THE LIEBIG MALT EXTRACT is a pure concentrated Fluid Extract of Malt, agreeable to the taste, and free from alcohol. It is readily retained on the stomach and contains none but wholesome and nourishing ingredients. The genuine preparation bears on the label a fac-simile signature of Baron von Liebig, and a Facsimile of his Signature, as well as that of A. VOGELER & CO., Baltimore, Md., Sole Agents for America.

LIFE INSURANCE!

The Semi-Endowment Policy of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is believed to be the most desirable plan of insurance ever offered.

Among its advantages are: A definitely guaranteed cash value at a specified time. A paid-up policy for full value in case of discontinuance. Its period (20 years) covers the productive years of life, when insurance is mostly needed. It provides for old age. Above the age of 40 the rates are less than for life policies in other companies, while below 40 they are but little in excess of ordinary life premiums.

Parties insured in Co-operative Societies are requested to compare the net cost of these policies with that of assessment insurance.

EASTERN RAILROAD.

The summer arrangement of the Eastern railroad went into effect on Sunday, the 18th inst., and all of the large amount of new rolling stock built or purchased by the road since last autumn is now in service. The time table, (which can be found in another column,) while it gives no material change in the early westward-bound trains, shows that the afternoon trains are increased in number, and the express starts at an earlier hour. The morning train for the eastward starts later. On the Conway division, instead of one train as heretofore, leaving this city for North Conway at 10:30 A. M., there are now three, leaving at 9:55 and 11:15 A. M., and 3:20 P. M., the latter train arriving at North Conway at 6:05. The train leaving Boston at 1:30 o'clock P. M., is a fast express, going through to the Fabyan house in six hours.

AN APPOINTMENT FIT TO BE MADE.

John Lord Hayes, who is named as chairman of the tariff commission, is a native of South Berwick, Me., and a son of the late Hon. Wm. A. Hayes, formerly president of the York county bar, and for twenty years judge of probate for that county. Mr. Hayes graduated at Dartmouth college in 1851, studied law, and began practice in Portsmouth. He was admitted to the bar of the United States circuit court in 1837, and was appointed clerk of the court in 1841, continuing in office until his removal from the state. He married in May, 1839, Caroline S. Ladd, daughter of the late Alexander Ladd, a prominent merchant of this city. Mr. Hayes left Portsmouth in 1847, and went to Mount Katahdin, Me., to develope iron mines in the mountain. He was an enthusiast on the subject of geology, and on the visit of Sir Charles Lyell to this country that distinguished scientist was the guest of Mr. Hayes in Portsmouth, as he tells us in his book entitled "A Second Visit to the United States of America," in which he refers to the event, which occurred on his journey from Boston to the White mountains in September, 1845, and wherein he also refers to the superficial polish of the rocks and the long, straight groves or furrows as having been imprinted by icebergs on the ancient floor of the ocean. For several years Mr. Hayes has been the moving spirit in the American Wool Growing Association, and has devoted his entire time to the purposes of this body, becoming thoroughly familiar with every phase of the questions of production, consumption, manufacture, importing and exporting of wool, and its cost—indeed, he knows the whole subject, and his selection to this important position is a recognition by the President of the claims of a great industrial element of our country in being represented by a competent and able member of the board.

THE GRADUATING CLASS.

The graduation exercises of the high school will take place on Thursday, the 29th inst. The graduating class numbers twenty, of whom thirteen are young women and seven young men, as follows:

Grace Robinson Brown, Angeline Eunice Fletcher, Harriet Elizabeth Fortune, Ella Florence Goss, Mary Ann Kelley, Louise Margaret Norton, Alice Josephine Sheldon, Antoinette Clarke Sides, Mary Prentiss Thompson, Grace Malcomson Townsend, Nellie Ada Tripp, Susan Belle Upham, Mary Eliza Vaughan, Charles Albert Ladd Stevens, Samuel Lincoln Kingsbury, Robert Forbes Bradford, Benjamin Green, John Patrick Canty, Frederick Fuller Church, John David McCarthy.

Of the twenty, it will be seen that nineteen, including all the young ladies, have triple names; one of the young gentlemen has no middle name, but another one has two, so the average of three names apiece all 'round is kept up. This is the largest graduating class for many years; last year the number of graduates was six,—five young women and one young man.

SAMUEL W. MOSES.

Mr. Samuel W. Moses, who died suddenly on the 16th inst., in the 72d year of his age, began active life as a printer; a certificate now lying before us, dated Aug. 8th, 1832, says:

This certifies that Samuel W. Moses served his apprenticeship in the NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE office at the printing business, and has since been employed in said office as a journeyman—that he is a young man of good moral character and of respectable connections, and that I consider him capable of giving satisfaction to those who may employ him in the capacity of a printer.

GIDEON BECK.

Subsequently Mr. Moses became foreman of the GAZETTE office, then part proprietor and associate editor of the paper, and later sole proprietor and editor, conducting it with a degree of fairness and courtesy toward its political opponents not common with political journals forty years ago.

Abandoning journalism he entered the grocery business in partnership with the late Rufus K. Oxford; a few years later he opened the store on Pleasant street, next the North church, which he kept for twenty-six years, closing out his stock at auction on the 31st of December last, and retiring from business. When he opened the Pleasant street store he said he would never sell liquor in it, and he never did, though a temperance grocery was something not often found a quarter century ago.

Mr. Moses was a democrat in politics, but enjoyed the respect of all parties; he was an agreeable trader, accommodating and obliging to his patrons, a conscientious man and good citizen, and if he left enemies we do not know of them.

A REMINISCENCE.

Eighteen years ago to-day (on Sunday, June 19th, 1864,) the rebel cruiser Alabama was sent to the bottom of the ocean off Cherbourg, France, by the guns of the United States sloop-of-war Kearsarge, after a duel in which the Alabama was quickly made a shattered wreck and a large number of her men killed, while the victor ship was almost unharmed. This famous naval battle, although only two small ships and a few hundred men were engaged in it, was of more importance and exerted a wider influence than some contests in which large fleets have struggled for the victory, for not only was it a source of joy and encouragement to the supporters of the union cause in the United States, but the moral effect in other countries was most salutary. The long-continued success of the British-built, British-armed and British-manned rebel cruisers in their depredations on the unarmed merchantmen of the United States, had caused a large proportion of the lower classes of England and western Europe to regard them as almost invincible—a belief that was rudely dispelled when the most famous of all these cruisers was so speedily brushed from the surface of the ocean.

The Kearsarge sailed from this port, where she was built, Feb. 5th, 1862, and arrived in Boston on the 7th of November, 1864, after a cruise of two years and nine months, during which, according to a record kept by Mr. J. Wesley Young of this city, one of her crew, she entered port, or anchored off ports, 147 times. Her cruising ground was principally in the vicinity of the straits of Gibraltar, and the coasts of England, France and Holland. Of the Portsmouth men who made the cruise in the Kearsarge and still reside here, there are four we know of besides Mr. Young, viz., Martin Hoyt, William Y. Evans, True W. Priest and Lyman Hartford. Mr. John Lambert of Kittery also made the cruise and participated in the fight.

The Kearsarge was fitted out at this yard with great care under the personal supervision of Capt. Charles W. Pickering (now commodore,) her first commander, who was relieved by Capt. Winslow before the Alabama was fallen in with.

I. O. O. F.,--NOTICE.

The officers and members of Piscataqua Lodge, No. 6, are hereby notified to meet at the hall this day (Monday, June 19th,) at two o'clock P. M., to attend the funeral of our deceased brother, S. W. Moses. W. W. COTTON, Sec.

Among the passengers by the steamer City of Berlin, which left New York on Saturday, for Liverpool, were Miss A. C. Morgan, Miss Annie Peirce, Miss Emily Peirce, Miss Hamilton and Mlle. Gangloff.

The Pullman train from Boston, Friday evening, arrived here nearly on time with twelve cars, four of which were sleepers (equal to eight ordinary passenger cars,) having started out of Boston about twenty minutes late with fourteen cars, and left two at Salem. Engine 100 was drawing the train.

The stable of Mr. Oliver W. Ham, on the Vaughan street extension, was last week raised several feet so as to correspond with the new grade of the street, had new sills put in, and was otherwise put in thorough repair. The old Cleaves soap factory on Elm street was also raised eighteen inches, and received new sills and other needed repairs; both these jobs were done by Mr. George A. Jackson. The cellar of the soap factory is to receive a concrete floor, and the whole establishment will be put in the best possible order by the new proprietors, A. T. Walker & Sons.

The proposed strawberry festival to be participated in by members only of the temperance organizatons of this city, is to be held Tuesday evening, the 27th inst., at U. O. G. C. hall, instead of Friday evening, the 23d, as previously stated.

On Friday evening of last week a stranger, said to be a runner for a Great Falls cigar manufacturer, having partaken of more Portsmouth enthusiasm than he could conveniently manage made himself objectionable to some people living in the vicinity of the Creek, by his boisterous manner and strong language; the result was that when he started for Biddeford next day his face looked as though he had pulled a mule's tail.

A special train of one car and one engine started from Boston on Wednesday evening of last week, over the Eastern railroad, to transport to Portland one young man, whose errand in the latter city was to marry one young woman. On the route the prospective bridegroom picked up enough personal friends to make a good showing on the arrival of the train at Portland, and the matrimonial part of the programme was successfully carried out.

The steamer Mystic is getting to be a regular freight boat; in three days last week she took across the river to Kittery, from John H. Broughton's lumber yard in this city, 10,000 feet of long lumber and 40,000 shingles.

A boy named Leander Mace, living on the corner of Sagamore and Wentworth house roads, was sunstruck on Friday last, and was unable to attend school on Saturday.

By the retirement of Commodore Geo. M. Ransom, Capt. Jona. Young, late executive officer at this station is promoted to be commodore and Commander Robert Boyd, Jr., to be captain.

Lovers of huckleberries and other wild fruits will be pleased to learn that the prespect is now for a large crop, the bloom being very heavy.

The ladies of Agamenticus Lodge, United Order of the Golden Cross, of York, gave a supper in the town hall on the evening of the 15th inst.; the attendance was large, and the receipts amounted to seventy dollars. Music was furnished by the York band.

A PLEASANT LETTER.

It Rings of a Grateful Heart and gives Honor where Honor is Due.

Mr. William W. Chadwick, of Hatchville, Conn., writes under date of June 14, 1880, to Dr. Kennedy, to say that the use of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" has cured him of Gall stone, from which he had experienced everything but comfort for a long time. Mr. Chadwick felt wholly cured when he wrote, and says: "I have had no pain for six months, and have also regained my flesh and can stand a fair day's work. I recommend Kennedy's Favorite Remedy to any one suffering from a deranged liver." Grateful patients are common. Dr. Kennedy is daily in receipt of letters from them, expressing similar sentiments. These letters are spontaneous and put in all varities of phraseology, but invariably setting forth one thing—the value of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for many forms of disease. It may be just the thing you have been looking for. Is your liver disordered? Have you derangement of the kidneys or bladder, associated with constipation of the bowels? If so, you want "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy." Dr. Kennedy practices medicine and surgery in all their branches. Write and state your case fearlessly. Letters promptly answered. Address Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.

WHEAT BITTERS.

THE BEST AND The Richest BLOOD, BRAIN and NERVE -F-O-O-D-

CAREFULLY PREPARED,
THOROUGHLY TESTED,
ACCEPTABLE AND RELIABLE.

The Phosphates of the Wheat are its most valuable food property, and are, when properly prepared, the most acceptable nutriment with which to build up the system.

The Blood, Brain and Nerve are the forces which bear the strain of every day work and life, and in order to save waste and wear it is wise to BUILD FOR HEALTH.

Wheat Bitters are prepared, not by fermentation but by solution and are richest in the Phosphates, while the starch and impure matter are eliminated. These make in themselves a basis, to which is added the best and choicest medicinal qualities, necessary to make it a tonic and bitter. It is at once healthful, pleasant to the taste and must not be confounded with the thousand and one cheap alcoholic bitters which are sold as cure-alls. Medicine is doubly effective when used with food, so as to nourish while it corrects.

Sold by druggists, $1.00 per bottle.

Hon. George Yeaton Sawyer died in Nashua on the 15th inst., in the 77th year of his age. He was born in Wakefield, and for twenty-five years or more, from about 1840, was prominent in politics in Nashua and vicinity. He was for several years a judge of the old court of common pleas, and later a justice of the supreme judicial court, resigning both offices. He was an "old line whig," and declined the governorship of one of the then territories, offered him by President Pierce, on the ground that he was not in sympathy with the administration. In 1865 he was one of the three commissioners appointed to revise and codify the statute laws of the state; and in 1875 he was chairman of a commission to recommend a system of taxation, or modification of the tax laws of the state. He leaves a widow, a son—his law partner in recent years—and three daughters.

George H. Smith, foreman of the quarrymen employed on the granite ledge at Salem, was arraigned in that town on the 15th inst., charged with burglary at the house of Calvin Boardman. He pleaded guilty, and was held in $2,000 for the superior court. Smith thus far refuses to disclose the whereabouts of the stolen money or any other property.

The bell at the First Congregational church in Exeter gave out recently. It has been rung morning, noon and night for eighty-two years, by seven successive sextons. It was made by Paul Revere, at Boston, and weighed 800 pounds.

Gilford boasts of a young lady who yokes the oxen, and another who runs the mowing machine.

The commencement exercises of the first class ever graduated from the high school at Hinsdale, took place at the town hall in that town on the evening of June 9th.

Ex-City Marshal John W. Rines of Dover has received an appointment as route agent between Dover and Alton Bay, in place of Horace P. Watson, resigned.

An Impossibility.

Deserving articles are always appreciated. The exceptional cleanliness of Parker's Hair Balsam makes it popular. Gray hairs are restored under its occasional use.

—It is curious that a tunnel between Calais and Dover was an engineering dream of the last century. In Sir John Sinclair's correspondence is given an account of a journey he made from London to Paris in 1789, in company with the Elder Montgolfier, when upon arriving at Dover they discussed the pros and cons of a submarine tunnel. They proposed to ventilate it by barrels of compressed air let out in its center.

How it was Done.

"How do you manage," said a lady to her friend, "to appear so happy and good natured all the time?" "I always have Parker's Ginger Tonic handy," was the reply, "and thus easily keep myself and family in good health. When I am well I always feel good natured."

—"I need not ask if you are familiar with the works of Emerson," said a young man to a nice young lady. She said: "I am met so very familiar, but my little brother has his song book. Now, do you know I thought Emerson was in California with a minstrel company of his own until I heard he died in Boston the other day."

Invalid wives and mothers quickly restored to health by using Brown's Iron Bitters. A true tonic.

—The dear children are at dinner when a plate of cherries is brought in. The elder promptly helps himself to three-quarters of the fruit. "You might leave some for somebody else!" remarks the junior. "Oh, don't be so greedy!" replies the senior.

Don't do It.

Said my physician, who for six months had doctored me for dyspepsia without success, when I told him I was going to try Sulphur Bitters, they will only make you worse. I did try them and now I am a well man and can eat anything. Sulphur Bitters are a great foe to doctors.—George Bastett, New Haven.

—A deacon who in old times kept a retail shop, was heard one day to say to his shopman: "John, have you watered the rum?" "Yes." "Have you sanded the sugar?" "Yes." "Have you wet the tobacco?" "Yes." "Then come to prayers."

The Perpetuity of Fame.

As the name of the immortal Washington has been most sacredly perpetuated as that of a hero and statesman, so also has the fame of Swayne's Ointment for skin diseases descended into perpetuity as the only reliable remedy in the market, for every character of skin disorders, and as the reward of well-deserving merit. Worth and merit go hand-in-hand. It is useless to contradict the worth of this article.

Summer Complaints

At this season, various diseases of the bowels are prevalent, and many lives are lost through lack of knowledge of a safe and sure remedy. PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is a sure cure for Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Summer Complaint, etc., and is perfectly safe.

Read the following:

BAINBRIDGE, N. Y., March 22, 1881.
PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER never fails to afford instant relief for cramp and pain in the stomach.
JOSEPH BURDITT.

NICHOLVILLE, N. Y., Feb. 3, 1881.
The very best medicine I know of for dysentery, cholera morbus, and cramps in the stomach. Have used it for years, and it is sure cure every time.
JULIUS W. DEE.

MOHNHONA, IOWA, March 12, 1881.
I have used your PAIN KILLER in severe cases of cramp, colic and cholera morbus, and it gave almost instant relief.
L. E. CALDWELL.

CARNESVILLE, GA., Feb. 28, 1881.
For twenty years I have used your PAIN KILLER in my family. Have used it many times for bowel complaints, and it always cures. Would not feel safe without a bottle in the house.
J. B. IVIE.

SACO, ME., Jan. 3, 1881.
HAVE USED PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER for twelve years. It is safe, sure, and reliable. No mother should allow it to be out of the family.
H. L. NYE.

ONEIDA, N. Y., Feb. 19, 1881.
We began using it over twenty years ago, and it always gives immediate relief. Would hardly dare to go to bed without a bottle in the house.
W. O. SPERRY.

CONWAYBORO, S. C., Feb. 22, 1881.
Nearly every family in this section keeps a bottle in the house.
DR. E. MORTON.

U. S. CONSULATE,
CREFELD, RHENISH PRUSSIA, Feb. 8, 1881.
I have known PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER almost from the day it was introduced, and after years of observation and use I regard its presence in my household as an indispensable necessity.
I. S. POTTER, U. S. Consul.

BURTON-ON-TRENT, ENG.
I had been several days suffering severely from diarrhœa, accompanied with intense pain, when I tried your PAIN KILLER, and found almost instant relief.
H. J. SCOTT.

21 MONTAGUE ST., LONDON, ENG.
During a residence of twenty-three years in India, I have given it in many cases of diarrhœa, dysentery, and cholera, and never knew it to fail to give relief.
R. CLARIDGE.

No family can safely be without this invaluable remedy. Its price brings it within the reach of all.

THE

New Hampshire Gazette!

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a weekly invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

NOTED MEN!

DR. JOHN F. HANCOCK, late President of the National Pharmaceutical Association of the United States, says:

"Brown's Iron Bitters has a heavy sale, is conceded to be a fine tonic; the character of the manufacturers is a voucher for its purity and medicinal excellence."

DR. JOSEPH ROBERTS, President Baltimore Pharmaceutical College, says:

"I indorse it as a fine medicine, reliable as a strengthening tonic, free from alcoholic poisons."

DR. J. FARIS MOORE, PH. D., Professor of Pharmacy, Baltimore Pharmaceutical College, says:

"Brown's Iron Bitters is a safe and reliable medicine, positively free from alcoholic poisons, and can be recommended as a tonic for use among those who oppose alcohol."

DR. EDWARD EARICKSON, Secretary Baltimore College of Pharmacy, says:

"I indorse it as an excellent medicine, a good digestive agent, and a non-intoxicant in the fullest sense."

DR. RICHARD SAPINGTON, one of Baltimore's oldest and most reliable physicians, says:

"All who have used it praise its standard virtues, and the well-known character of the house which makes it is a sufficient guarantee of its being all that is claimed, for they are men who could not be induced to offer anything else but a reliable medicine for public use."

A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be in introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

Proposed Navy Reorganization.

The sub-committee charged with the preparation of the navy appropriation bill is considering a draft of that measure prepared by Mr. Robeson, it is understood, after consultation with Secretary Chandler. The bill proposes some very radical changes. The distinction between the cadet midshipmen and the cadet engineers is abolished. The bill provides for 201 cadet midshipmen (on probation), 130 cadet midshipmen (not graduates) and 102 cadet engineers, all of whom are hereafter to be known as naval cadets. Hereafter no cadet engineer or midshipmen shall be appointed at the naval academy, and naval cadets shall be appointed from congressional districts and at large as now provided by law for the appointment of cadet midshipmen. Surplus graduates shall be discharged, with one year's sea pay, and any naval cadet whose position in his class shall entitle him to be retained in the service may on his own demand be honorably discharged with one year's sea pay.

The bill abolishes the grade of commodore. It also provides for the manner of promotion to the grade of rear-admiral. The bill provides also that officers in the navy shall be entitled to grade for service as enlisted men, or in the volunteer navy, the same as officers in the army are so entitled.

The bill reduces the number of officers in the navy as follows: ten assistant surgeons, twenty paymasters, ten passed assistant paymasters, five assistant paymasters, ten chief engineers, fifty passed assistant engineers, fifty assistant engineers.

It reduces the appropriation for the bureau of provisions and clothing $200,-000. It appropriates $1,725,000 for the bureau of construction and repair, an increase of $76,000 over the current year. A certain sum from this appropriation may be expended in repairing wooden vessels, but whenever it shall be found that the cost of repairing such a vessel will exceed thirty per cent of her appraised valuation she shall be sold at a price not less than her appraisement, and the proceeds of the sale covered into the treasury. It is also provided that $275,-000 of the sum appropriated under this head shall be expended for turrets and pilot-house for the iron-clad monitor Miantonomah, now laying at the League Island navy yard. The secretary of the navy is also authorized to expend from this appropriation such sums as may be necessary and available to begin the construction of fast cruising vessels, to be built of iron or steel, substantially in accordance with the recommendations of the naval advisory board.

The appropriation for the bureau of steam engineering is increased by the sum of $913,000, and the secretary is authorized to expend $1,000,000 for machinery for the Monadnock, Puritan, Amphitrite and Terror, the four unfinished ironclads. He is also authorized to expend any balance remaining of the appropriation under this head for engines and machinery for the fast cruisers which are authorized by the bill.

The bill also reduces the appropriation for the civil establishment of the navy in the several bureaus at navy yards, etc., fifty per cent. It also authorizes the secretary of the navy to close navy yards in his discretion. It is understood in this connection that the sundry civil bill will contain an appropriation for the continuance of active operations only at the navy yards at Mare Island and Brooklyn. Altogether the bill makes about $1,300,000 of new appropriations on account of the monitors and proposed steel cruisers, but $800,000 net is to be saved by the various reductions hereinbefore specified, so that the bill will appropriate only $15,500,000 as against $16,000,000 for the current fiscal year.—N. Y. Tribune.

The bill if passed will result necessarily in the reduction of the clerical force at the navy yard near this city, which it is said in Washington is very largely in excess of the proportion of mechanics and laborers. It is stated that the hours for clerical service are to be increased to the same length per day as is performed by mechanics and laborers, and that a board will be ordered to ascertain what proper reduction of the force of clerks and writers can be made consistent with the interests of the navy.

The navy appropriation bill was reported to the house on the 17th inst. After it was submitted to the full committee in the morning of that day, several important amendments were made to it at the suggestion of Chairman Hiscock. The general authority to the secretary of the navy to begin the building of new steel cruisers was modified so as to restrict the number of such vessels to two. The provisions relating to the four ironclad monitors were also modified so as to authorize only so much work on the hulls as to allow them to be launched. They are then to be launched, and the secretary is authorized to have the engines and machinery built for two of them. The idea is to have one first-class iron-clad—the Monadnock—finished and made ready for service on the Pacific coast, and another on the Atlantic coast. The Miantonomah is also to be completed and made ready for service on the Atlantic coast. The item for the bureau of steam engineering was increased to $2,200,000, of which $400,000 is to be used for repairs, and $1,000,000 for the monitors. This will leave about $800,000 available for engines and machinery for the two new cruisers.

Tornadoes in the West.

The town of Grinnell, Iowa, about twenty miles north of Des Moines, was struck by a tornado on Saturday night, and half the town laid in ruins. The track of the tornado is half a mile wide and about twenty-five miles long. The town of Malcolm was the severest sufferer, next to Grinnell; hundreds of buildings were blown down in the two places, including the college buildings at Grinnell, and many lives were lost. Forty persons were killed and 150 wounded at Grinnell, four or more were killed at Brooklyn, and from seven to ten at Malcolm. It is believed that the loss of life will reach fully 100, and the loss of property $600,000.

St. Louis, Mo., was damaged to the amount of $50,000 to $75,000 by a wind storm on Saturday, and many persons injured though none are reported killed.

Kansas City, Mo., and Leavenworth, Kansas, suffered terribly from a wind and rain storm on Saturday morning. Mount St. Mary's academy, four miles from Leavenworth, was partially destroyed, and four girls killed, twenty others being injured. A number of other lives were lost, and the money damage in the city and county is placed at not less than $500,000. In Kansas City the loss is stated at $200,000 at least.

At Cairo, Ill., Saturday afternoon, several persons were killed, crops prostrated, steamboats sunk and buildings damaged, by a furious wind.

Naval Affairs.

Capt. Jonathan Young, Commander Robert Boyd, Master Gustavus C. Hanas and Ensign Frank E. Beatty were on the 13th inst. ordered to examination for promotion.

Lieut. Wm. H. Everett and Passed Asst. Engr. Wm. H. Moore are ordered to the Tallapoosa.

Lieut. James M. Miller is detached from the Minnesota June 30th, and ordered to the Hartford on the 1st of July.

AROUND HOME.

The grass in Newington, Greenland and Rye was in many fields badly lodged by the heavy rain of Sunday.

The increase in the number of trains has caused a number of changes among the employes of the Eastern railroad, some of which are as follows: Mr. Webb Sanborn, who has been baggage-master on Conductor Garland's train, is now conductor on the Boston express which leaves this city about three o'clock P. M., and arrives back about nine; Robert A. Stott, who was baggage-master with Conductor Pickering on the Portsmouth & Dover, is baggage-master with Conductor Sanborn, and Daniel Wendell is brakeman. Sidney H. Winn takes Mr. Stott's place on the Dover train. George Hooper has taken Edmund Clark, Jr.'s place on the night shifter in the yard, and Frank Kenney and Wm. Seymour are firemen on the shifter.

The mammoth excursion steamer Empire State will commence her excursion trips from Boston on Saturday, July 1st. Mr. Charles H. Tompson, formerly of this city, who has for several years past directed the band which has furnished music for concerts and dances on board the steamer, will officiate in the same capacity this year.

On Saturday last a young fur seal, weighing about twenty pounds, was captured by Mr. Daniel Mahoney of Greenland, the receding tide having left the creature helpless on the flats in Great bay near the shore of Rufus W. Weeks' farm. This is said to be the first fur seal ever seen in Great bay; it was reported on Monday to be lively and contented, taking milk and gruel in liberal quantities with evident relish, and seeming to be not all troubled at the change in its circumstances.

Capt. Frank Emerson of York is about to erect an ice house one hundred and fifty feet long, thirty-six feet wide, and twenty feet posts, in which to store the ice he will cut from his mill-pond next winter.

Messrs. C. W. Cottle & Son, of Kittery, lost a valuable horse on the night of the 18th instant; the animal was apparently well over night, and was found dead in the morning. He was valued at three hundred dollars.

* The quarterly meeting of the Methodist Episcopal societies of Kittery and York was held at the 1st Methodist church, Spruce Creek, on the 18th inst. Rev. Mr. Andrews of the navy yard village preached in the morning, and Presiding Elder Clark in the afternoon. Many visitors were present from Eliot and York. The ladies of the society furnished a dinner for the visiting brethren in the vestry.

The next session of the York County Congregational Conference will be held in Eliot, in October.

LIFE INSURANCE !

The Semi-Endowment Policy of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is believed to be the most desirable plan of insurance ever offered.

Among its advantages are: A definitely guaranteed cash value at a specified time. A paid-up policy for full value in case of discontinuance. Its period (20 years) covers the productive years of life, when insurance is mostly needed. It provides for old age. Above the age of 40 the rates are less than for life policies in other companies, while below 40 they are but little in excess of ordinary life premiums.

Parties insured in Co-operative Societies are requested to compare the net cost of these policies with that of assessment insurance.

SUNDAY WEATHER IN JUNE.

When our present minister to the court of St. James in the "Vision of Sir Launfal" asked, "And what is so rare as a day in June?" perhaps he was not in the range of a Boston east wind, or he might have used the adjective "raw" instead of "rare," as applicable to much of the condition of June climate. Indeed such would apply to our present season. Especially true is this of the Sabbaths of this month. An authority in weather statistics once informed us that when it stormed on the first Sunday of a month it usually stormed upon each succeeding sacred day of rest of that month. This is exceedingly unfortunate for those worshippers who, having provided themselves with the best results of the combined tastes of Tebbetts' dual establishments or of other fashionable resorts for head adornment, find themselves deprived of the pleasures and privileges of Sunday worship, by bad weather. To be devout in a hat at all behind the prevailing mode, to cause unhappiness in others by appearing in church in a hat out of the season, when a proper recognition of the change in design has already been made, is simply absurd. No lady who regards either the good opinion of her sex or her own sense of propriety can commit this sin of omission. The result is, that week after week comes a day of disappointment, sorrow, and solitary indoor meditation. Sunday of this week was no better than its preceding days in this respect; it was damp, disagreeable and diluent. If there were new hats to be seen of men, or women, they were discreetly kept at home. Nature was opposed to an opening on Sunday, and the purple and fine linen prepared to be worn on the occasion had to be postponed to a more convenient season. We are to have one more Sunday in June. Let us hope for a more propitious atmosphere for the day.

TEMPERANCE ASSOCIATIONS' REUNION AND ENTERTAINMENT.

At a recent meeting of the Woman's Temperance League it was voted to invite the different temperance organizations to join with the league in an entertainment and strawberry festival, and the following orders have received and accepted the invitation: Portsmouth Commandery, No. 47, United Order of the Golden Cross; Star of Hope Degree Temple, No. 6, Rockingham Lodge, No. 37, Strawberry Bank Lodge, No. 54, all of the order of Good Templars; Old Oaken Bucket Division, Sons of Temperance; the Reform Club; and the Temperance Mutual Relief Association. The entertainment and festival will be held at the Golden Cross hall (the "old Odd Fellows' hall," on Daniel street,) on Tuesday evening, June 27th; each organization is to furnish a programme for the evening, under its respective heading. The gentlemen of the different orders are to furnish the strawberries, and the ladies the cake, etc., for the occasion.

SERVED 'EM RIGHT.

Four gentlemen of this city on Sunday morning last started in a sail boat for Exeter, to view the cut-off at the "Oxbow," a mile or two this side of that town. They arrived at the point of destination all right, and after inspection decided to approve the action of the government in making the new channel, as thereby two ugly turns are avoided, though the distance saved is only about half a mile. They worked their way back against a light head wind, and part of the way against a head tide, and from two o'clock to eight they were favored with a brisk rain, the water falling very heavily about half the time, and much more heavily the other half. They arrived back at the wharf from which they started, at nine o'clock in the evening—just twelve hours after they set out; and by a vote taken on the wharf after landing it was unanimously resolved that Exeter river is nothing but a ditch, fit only to be navigated by mud-turtles; that the weather supplied to excursionists on that river is execrable; and that the government is deserving of the severest censure for wasting money in attempting to improve such a wretched gutter.

The steamer Fearless was chartered by several gentlemen connected with the Portsmouth Shoe Factory, to make a trip to the Shoals on Sunday; the steamer started, and the party was a merry one until a dense fogbank was struck outside the harbor, near Wood island; after waiting several hours for the fog to lift, and until their stomachs had acquired the regular force-pump action, they were compelled to come to an anchor behind Fishing islands, where they tried to imagine that they were passing the afternoon in enjoyment.

LIGHTNING.

During a smart shower on Monday afternoon, about halfpast five o'clock, lightning struck the house of Mr. B. Whitcomb, No. 5 Fleet street; six panes of glass around the front door were broken, the plastering under the front stairs shattered, the paper in one of the front rooms scorched in a zigzag line, the cord which held up a large picture cut and the glass broken, and considerable of the glass in the windows cracked, the total damage amounting to $20 or $25. Miss Nellie Whitcomb, who was sitting near the bell wire, had a very narrow escape, her dress being burned in many places; the young lady was partially stunned, and her hearing was slightly affected two hours after the shock.

At about the same time the office of the steamer Acushnet was made lively by lightning which entered on the telephone were, and the telephone and telegraph gear throughout the city was badly affected; a flash of fire ran through the Eastern railroad station on the rails, and started two teams on a runaway; and many persons in different parts of the city, in the streets or in buildings, were for a short time very unpleasantly affected.

POLICE COURT.

MONDAY, June 19: Batchelder, J.

Daniel Crowley and his wife were before the court for drunkenness, and the offence was admitted; but the city marshal informed the court that the pair had not been arrested before for twenty years, so they were dismissed on probation on signing the pledge.

See notice of auction sale of cottage house to-day.

Asst. Marshal Gray on Monday afternoon found a dilapidated stranger, unquestionably belonging to the genus tramp, endeavoring to sell revolvers at a price evidently much less than their market value, and took him into custody. On searching him at the police station he was found to have in his pockets five revolvers, a flask of powder, about a dozen jack-knives and a small sum of money, probably the proceeds of some robbery. He gave Lancaster, Pa., as his hailing place, but seemed pretty well acquainted with localities around Kennebunk, Me., and Wolfeborough, N. H. He had also in his pocket a railway guide.

The schooner Lila Bell, with a party of gentlemen from Salem and vicinity on board, started on a fishing excursion on Saturday, and during the dense fog of Saturday night went thump on Cedar island, Isles of Shoals, at about half-past ten o'clock. The passengers were landed on the islands without difficulty, and passed the night at the Appledore house; and on Sunday the steamer Pinafore brought them in to this city, whence they took the afternoon train for home, having had all the fishing they desired just at present. The schooner came off the rocks without serious harm other than the loss of part of her shoe, and ran in to this port on Monday.

Frank Hanlan, the marine who deserted his post at the navy yard some weeks ago and went to Dover and got on a tearing drunk, and was arrested, brought back to the yard, and tried by a court-martial which convened at the yard May 22d, with Comdr. A. R. Yates as president, was sentenced to be confined in the marine barracks at Brooklyn, N. Y., for two years, and to be dishonorably discharged from the service. He was tried for leaving his post before being relieved, and for desertion.

The summer residence of Mr. Mestayer, the actor, at Newcastle, was broken into some time during the winter or spring, and guns, pictures and other articles stolen. The depredation was not discovered until recently.

Rear Admiral J. C. Beaumont and family will spend the summer season at Durham.

The supreme court of the state has allowed a writ of error to the supreme court of the United States in the case of Isaac Wilbur vs. Edward A. Abbot, administrator of the estate of Joseph S. Abbot, deceased, decided in favor of the defendant in the supreme court for Hillsborough county. The writ of error was signed by the clerk of the circuit court of the United States in this city on Monday. The case has been carried to the law term, and the decision of the lower court affirmed. The plaintiff having deceased, Wm. R. Renard of New Orleans, syndic for the creditors of Wilbur & Borge, comes in to prosecute the case.

The Army and Navy Register of the 17th inst. says: "Mrs. C. W. Harrold, wife of Lieutenant Harrold, Third Artillery, is stopping at the National hotel, Washington. She has just returned from St. Augustine, Fla., and will remain here several days."

Capt. Henry Marcy, master of the barque Quickstep, has arrived home after an absence of sixteen months.

Three ladies were baptised by immersion at Noble's island on Sunday afternoon by Rev. John A. Goss, pastor of the Christian church, all three being teachers in the Sabbath school connected with the church.

A German boy named Otto Burkhardt, about seventeen years old, was thrown to the ground by the parting of a swing rope on Saturday afternoon, and broke one of his arms near the wrist.

Mr. Editor: In the mention in the CHRONICLE of June 19th, of the Kearsarge crew of eighteen years ago, some names of men from this city and vicinity who took part in the Alabama fight are given, but the list is not full. Mr. John Lambert of Kittery, mentioned as being in the fight, was not there, having been invalided home previously. There were there from this city, besides Wm. Y. Evans, Martin Hoyt, J. Wesley Young, True W. Priest and Lyman Hartford, named in your item, Thomas Salmon, John Odiorne, Patrick O'Connor, George Smart and Mark Ham, the last-named two being now dead. Lyman P. Spinney of Eliot, Me., and Ezra Bartlett and Harper Yeaton of Stratham, were also of the Kearsarge's crew on the day of the fight. Others, either from this city or its immediate vicinity, were Wm. Wainwright, Sylvanus P. Brackett, Timothy Lynch, Austin Quimby, John Batchelder, Stephen Smith, William Smith, and Charles Hill.

Sawyer's cornet band, of Sawyer's Mills, Dover, has been engaged by the city to give open-air concerts on the afternoon and evening of the 4th of July.

Oak Hall Agency in Portsmouth.

Messrs. G. W. Simmons & Son, of Oak Hall, Boston, have established an agency for this city and vicinity for the sale of their custom and ready made men's and boys' clothing, at No. 33 Market street, Portsmouth, where anything contained at Oak Hall, Boston, can be procured, at the same prices as in Boston. Several dollars can be saved by buying your own and your children's clothing at the Oak Hall Agency, as they sell at the lowest prices in New England.

A PLEASANT LETTER.

It Rings of a Grateful Heart and gives Honor where Honor is Due.

Mr. William W. Chadwick, of Hatchville, Conn., writes under date of June 14, 1880, to Dr. Kennedy, to say that the use of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" has cured him of Gall stone, from which he had experienced everything but comfort for a long time. Mr. Chadwick felt wholly cured when he wrote, and says: "I have had no pain for six months, and have also regained my flesh and can stand a fair day's work. I recommend Kennedy's Favorite Remedy to any one suffering from a deranged liver." Grateful patients are common. Dr. Kennedy is daily in receipt of letters from them, expressing similar sentiments. These letters are spontaneous and put in all varities of phraseology, but invariably sculing forth one thing—the value of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for many forms of disease. It may be just the thing you have been looking for. Is your liver disordered? Have you derangement of the kidneys or bladder, associated with constipation of the bowels? If so, you want "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy." Dr. Kennedy practices medicine and surgery in all their branches. Write and state your case frankly. Letters promptly answered. Address Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.

WHEAT BITTERS.

THE BEST AND The Richest BLOOD, BRAIN and NERVE

-F-O-O-D-

CAREFULLY PREPARED, THOROUGHLY TESTED, ACCEPTABLE AND RELIABLE.

The Phosphates of the Wheat are its most valuable food property, and are, when properly prepared, the most acceptable nutriment with which to build up the system.

The Blood, Brain and Nerves are the tissues which bear the strain of every day work and life, and in order to save sickness it is wise to BUILD FOR HEALTH.

Wheat Bitters are prepared, not by fermentation but by solution and are richest in the Phosphates, while the starch and impure matter are eliminated. These take in themselves a basis, to which is added the best and most medicinal qualities, necessary to make it a tonic and bitter. It is at once healthful, pleasant to the taste and must not be confounded with the thousand and one cheap alcoholic bitters which are sold as curatives. Medicine is doubly effective when used with food, so as to nourish while it corrects.

Sold by druggists, $1.00 per bottle.

The body of George Crowell, drowned on Wednesday of last week at Manchester, was recovered Saturday.

Nine girls in Wilder & Co.'s paper mills in Ashland, struck Saturday, on hearing that new girls were coming to learn the business and then labor at lower wages, the former to be discharged. The strikers refused to give instruction, and left, but mostly returned, as the increasing of help was on account of a rush of orders.

The Appalachian Mountain club of Boston, numbering 116 ladies and gentlemen, arrived at Claremont, Saturday, by a special train furnished by the Northern railroad. The party immediately took conveyances for Mount Ascutney. They explored the mountain and returned in the evening, when they departed for Boston.

Capt. S. S. Man, living near Boston, a foreman on the Pemigewasset Valley railroad, was assaulted Saturday morning in Campton with a club and spade in the hands of two Italian laborers, who were dissatisfied because they were not paid to date, as they, with others, wanted to leave. Men came to his aid, he being unarmed, and he escaped. The assailants were arrested, and fined $15 and costs.

The flour and grain store of C. H. Hill & Co., Manchester, was partially burned on Saturday night. An explosion was heard a few minutes before the fire was discovered, and the safe was found to have been broken open and robbed of its contents, which did not amount to much.

Josiah Nest jumped from a train at Manchester, Saturday. He fell beneath the cars, and both legs were so badly fractured as to necessitate amputation. Nest lives at Fremont, and has a wife and five children.

Special Deputy Sheriff, Mr. Michael Shelly, residing at No. 28 Oliver street, New York city says: "My wife would not be able to walk to-day, but for the benefit she received from St. Jacobs Oil. It is a most wonderful medicine; an unequalled remedy. My wife was an invalid when she began its use; now she is well."

—A tobacco hater—"Two cigars a day will supply a family with flour." Fogg says he buys half a dozen cigars some days, but he doesn't find it any easier to supply the family with flour, for all that. He thinks there must be a mistake somewhere.

"Wheat Bitters" never disturb the stomach, but promote digestion and nourishment.

—Barty Cornwall, a performer in a southwestern circus, turned his professional agility to account by climbing up posts and balconies at night as a burglar. The route of the show was marked by a succession of his robberies, until he was caught in Texas.

Invalid wives and mothers quickly restored to health by using Brown's Iron Bitters. A true tonic.

—"Ah, my friend," said a clergyman to a parishioner, who was the husband of a termagant, and who had made application for divorce, "we should be yielding and forgiving. There are no divorces in heaven." "That's the reason," said the sufferer, "why am I so anxious to get a divorce here."

The Perpetuity of Fame.

As the name of the immortal Washington has been most sacredly perpetuated as that of a hero and statesman, so also has the fame of Swayne's Ointment for skin diseases, descended into perpetuity as the only reliable remedy in the market, for every character of skin disorders, and as the reward of well-deserving merit. Worth and merit go hand-in-hand. It is useless to contradict the worth of this article.

Summer Complaints

At this season, various diseases of the bowels are prevalent, and many lives are lost through lack of knowledge of a safe and sure remedy. PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is a sure cure for Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Summer Complaint, etc., and is perfectly safe.

Read the following:

BAINBRIDGE, N. Y., March 29, 1881.
PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER never fails to afford instant relief for cramp and pain in the stomach. JOSEPH BURDITT.

NICHOLVILLE, N. Y., Feb. 3, 1881.
The very best medicine I know of for dysentery, cholera morbus, and cramps in the stomach. Have used it for years, and it is sure cure every time. ELIJUS W. DEE.

MOINGONA, IOWA, March 12, 1881.
I have used your PAIN KILLER in severe cases of cramp, colic and cholera morbus, and it gave almost instant relief. L. E. CALDWELL.

CARNESVILLE, GA., Feb. 26, 1881.
For twenty years I have used your PAIN KILLER in my family. Have used it many times for bowel complaints, and it always cures. Would not feel safe without a bottle in the house. H. H. IVY.

SACO, ME., Jan. 23, 1881.
Have used PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER for twelve years. It is safe, sure, and reliable. No mother should allow it to be out of the family. W. I. SAYES.

OWEGO, N. Y., Feb. 19, 1881.
We began using it over thirty years ago, and it always gives immediate relief. Would hardly dare to go to bed without a bottle in the house. Dr. E. MORTON & W. O. STERRY.

CONWAYBORO, S. C., Feb. 22, 1881.
Nearly every family in this section keeps a bottle in the house. Dr. E. MORTON.

U. S. CONSULATE,
CREFELD, RHENISH PRUSSIA, Feb. 8, 1881.
I have known PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER almost from the day it was introduced, and after years of observation and use I regard its presence in my household as an indispensable necessity.
I. S. POTTER, U. S. Consul.

SURGEON-GUNTERSBURG, ENG.
I had been several days suffering severely from diarrhœa, accompanied with intense pain, when I tried your PAIN KILLER, and found almost instant relief. H. J. NOONE.

21 MONTAGUE ST., LONDON, ENG.
During a residence of twenty-three years in India, I have given it in many cases of diarrhœa, dysentery, and cholera, and never knew it to fail to give relief. R. CLARIDGE.

No family can safely be without this invaluable remedy. Its price brings it within the reach of all.

THE

New Hampshire Gazette!

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire Items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a week's invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities where so derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

NOTED MEN!

DR. JOHN F. HANCOCK, late President of the National Pharmaceutical Association of the United States, says:

"Brown's Iron Bitters has a heavy sale, is conceded to be a fine tonic; the character of the manufacturers is a voucher for its purity and medicinal excellence."

DR. JOSEPH ROBERTS, President Baltimore Pharmaceutical College, says:

"I indorse it as a fine medicine, reliable as a strengthening tonic, free from alcoholic poisons."

DR. J. FARIS MOORE, PH. D., Professor of Pharmacy, Baltimore Pharmaceutical College, says:

"Brown's Iron Bitters is a safe and reliable medicine, positively free from alcoholic poisons, and can be recommended as a tonic for use among those who oppose alcohol."

DR. EDWARD EARICKSON, Secretary Baltimore College of Pharmacy, says:

"I indorse it as an excellent medicine, a good digestive agent, and a non-intoxicant in the fullest sense."

DR. RICHARD SAPINGTON, one of Baltimore's oldest and most reliable physicians, says:

"All who have used it praise its standard virtues, and the well-known character of the house which makes it is a sufficient guarantee of its being all that is claimed, for they are men who could not be induced to offer anything else but a reliable medicine for public use."

A Druggist Cured.

BOONSBORO, Md., OCT. 12, 1880. Gentlemen: Brown's Iron Bitters cured me of a bad attack of Indigestion and fullness in the stomach. Having tested it, I take pleasure in recommending it to my customers, and am glad to say it gives entire satisfaction to all."
GEO. W. HOFFMAN, Druggist.

Ask your Druggist for BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, and take no other. One trial will convince you that it is just what you need.

Daily Chronicle.

What is Money?

The value of a commodity limits its quantity. Anything which can be obtained in a limited quantity, with a certain ascertainable amount of labor which is divisible, will serve the purpose of money. Furs have been employed in some countries as money, cattle in others—as in the "Iliad," in the estimation of the respective values of the shields of Diomedes and Glaucus, the one worth nine oxen, and the other a hundred oxen; bricks of tea in Tartary, cowries in Africa, rock salt in Abyssinia. Other African tribes calculate in nacules, a money of the mind which has no substance corresponding to it, but the value contained in which has been sufficiently ingrained in their minds to answer the purposes of value. Bullion is chosen because it complies with these two conditions, difficulty of acquisition and divisibility, better than any known substance. Is it not strange that we should turn this servant into a master, and elevate a mere medium for avoiding the inconveniences of barter into an indispensable necessity of life, hardly secondary to food and clothing? If by some convulsion of nature the precious metals, gold and silver, were utterly destroyed, the world would be impoverished by the loss of a commodity on the discovery and manufacture of which much labor and time had been expended, but the only result would be that we should have recourse to some other contrivance. The main business of life would go on as before, and the only difference would probably be that we should be obliged to have recourse to a paper currency, based on whatever might be found, after careful consideration, to be the most convenient standard of value. The question would be, as it is now, a question of remedying the inconveniences of barter; providing some means of fixing the prices. That would be all.—Viscount Sherbrooke.

—Among the musical curiosities at London the past season, were a Hungarian pianist who plays only with the left hand, and a female pianist who plays only with the right. If they were looking ahead to a united future, how handily they might court and play duets at the same time.

—Slang, if used at all, must be used with great caution. Here, for instance, is a story and a warning: She decorated her room with bric-a-brac and pictures, and perched her husband's photo on the topmost nail. Then she sat down to admire her work, and blissfully remarked: "Now everything is lovely and the goose hangs high."

The river and harbor bill passed the house of representatives on the 17th inst., by a vote of 119 to forty-one; it appropriates over $17,000,000, of which perhaps one-half will be expended for the public benefit.

Not an alcoholic beverage, but a true and reliable family medicine is Brown's Iron Bitters.

Two boys shot themselves in the hand on Saturday, in Boston, with toy pistols, Both had their wounds dressed at the Massachusetts General hospital.

A pure, wholesome distillation of witch hazel, American pine, Canada fir, marigold, clover blossoms, etc., fragrant with the healing essences of balsam and pine. Such is Santord's Radical Cure for catarrh. Complete treatment for $1.

Edward T. Smith of Olivet, Mich., has brought suit for $10,000 against the Presbyterian college of Olivet for dismissal on a false charge. Smith claims that the faculty tried to extort money from him in settlement of a groundless charge.

Handsome versus Homely.

Who is that fine looking lady that we just passed, Clara? Why, that is Mrs. Snow. Well, there, what a change; when I saw her last, her skin was so sallow and muddy looking, its no wonder I didn't know her. What has produced that lovely complexion? I heard she took Sulphur Bitters, the great blood purifier, and now would not be without them.

William J. Sipple, telegraph operator of Jersey City, was last Saturday night convicted of attempting to rob the pay office of the Erie railway on the night of Oct. 24th of $47,000.

An Impossibility.

Deserving articles are always appreciated. The exceptional cleanliness of Parker's Hair Balsam makes it popular. Gray hairs are impossible with its occasional use.

Vigilants of Rice, Col., took Thomas Wall and Trinidad Charley from jail and hung them in a small cabin near by, Saturday.

How it was Done.

"How do you manage," said a lady to her friend, "to appear so happy and good natured all the time?" "I always have Parker's Ginger Tonic handy," was the reply, "and thus easily keep myself and family in good health. When I am well I always feel good natured."

The committee in charge of the fund for the relief of the Patrick county, Va., sufferers who were in a starving condition, owing to a failure of their crops, gives notice that further aid is unnecessary, as the subscriptions already received are sufficient to meet all cases of emergency.

Parents who allow their children to grow up with scrofulous humors bursting from every pore are guilty of a great wrong. Think of them pointed out as branded with a loathsome disease, and you will readily procure them the Cuticura remedies.

At New Orleans, June 18th, John King took ten boys out on the river for a sail; while returning the boat capsized, and six boys were drowned.

"A true professional leads a regular gypsy life," says Mr. Fred J. Engelhardt, the great sporting manager, of New Orleans, La., who writes that he cured himself of a severe attack of rheumatism, and subsequently of a stiff neck, by the use of St. Jacobs Oil. He invariably uses it on those whom he trains for the various kinds of athletic exercise.

Henry Connor, fourteen years old, was drowned on Saturday at Shelburne Falls, Mass., and two boys named Butler and Leonard, about the same age, at Leicester, Mass.

"An Odd Street Scene."

He was seen in front of the office rubbing himself against the telegraph post like a flea-bitten dog. "What is wrong?" we ventured to ask. "Gotem, 'gent," he said laconically; have 'em every spring, small lumps form about the rectum; sore to the touch; they itch like blazes; "a telegraph pole's like an oasis in the desert to me." Here then, was poor humanity suffering from a complaint which a few applications of Swayne's Ointment for itching piles, would have thoroughly eradicated.

STARTLING DISCOVERY!

LOST MANHOOD RESTORED.

A victim of youthful imprudence causing Premature Decay, Nervous Debility, Lost Manhood, etc., having tried in vain every known remedy, has discovered a simple self cure, which he will send FREE to his fellow-sufferers, address J. H. REEVES, 43 Chatham St., N. Y.

Perhaps no medicine is so universally required as a good cathartic. Swayne's Pills are prepared expressly to meet this necessity, being composed of purely vegetable ingredients, of which Podophyllin or Mandrake, Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock and other concentrated juices enter largely into their composition; the whole strength of which is extracted on an entirely new principle. They are mild in their operation, and are truly a valuable aperient and anti-bilious medicine. They stimulate the liver to healthy action, cleanse the stomach and bowels of all impurities. Curing sick and nervous headache, dyspepsia or indigestion, biliousness, fevers, drowsiness, colds, aching pains, slight chills, with flashes of heat, and female irregularities. For a bilious and costive habit, no medicine is so prompt and effectual. Mailed on receipt of price [in postage stamps,] 25 cents, or five boxes for $1. Address Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, Pa. Ask your Druggist for them.

The Oregon Election.

The republican victory in Oregon was complete, the majorities being larger than ever before in the history of the state. George, for congressman, has 3000 majority; Moody, for governor, 2000; and the rest of the republican ticket from 1500 to 2500. The legislature has a republican majority of seventeen on joint ballot—two in the senate and fifteen in the house—with a tie in one representative district.

News and Notes.

The United States ships Tennessee, Alliance, Yantic and Vandalia of the North Atlantic squadron left Hampton roads on the 17th inst., on a practice cruise for four or five days, after which they will proceed to northern ports.

The fishing schooner Massasoit, of Gloucester, Mass., seventy-three tons register, bound from Gloucester for St. Johns, Newfoundland, struck an iceberg on Friday night, June 16th, in a fog, and sank. The crew took to the dories, except three brothers, named Graves, and two men named Barry and Naus, who went down with the schooner. Capt. Bond and the remainder of the crew arrived at St. Johns on Sunday, the 18th.

A despatch of June 19th from San Francisco, Cal., says: "The British steamer Escambia, loaded with wheat, put to sea this afternoon, bound for St. Vincent, Portugal. Information from the signal station at Point Lobos is now received, that when about five miles off the heads the steamer capsized and sank, and so far as known all hands are lost. It is impossible to account for the catastrophe, as the weather was fair, and wind and sea moderate."

Three sons of Duncan Taylor, aged eight, six and four years, while playing in a stable at Brussels, Ont., on Saturday afternoon, June 17th, went into an oat bin, the lid of which closed on them. At night all were found dead from suffocation.

Justice Bradley, of the United States supreme court, to whom Guiteau's counsel applied for a writ of habeas corpus, has denied the application. Guiteau must go.

Mrs. Dunmire, the divorced wife of Guiteau, who it was reported had written to Col. Reed authorizing the use of her name in a petition for Guiteau's pardon, says she never wrote any such letter, and never entertained any idea of seeking a pardon for the murderer.

Col. Jarvis Gay of Norwood, Mass., seventy-nine years of age, a highly respected citizen and one of the best veterinary doctors in the state, was shot dead shortly after midnight on the night of the 16th inst. by George W. S. Edmunds. Col. Gay, who was very deaf, had lost his way in the fog, and called at the house to enquire his whereabouts. His knocks were answered from within, but he did not hear, and continued to go around the house, knocking at the different doors, his movements being partially shown by a dim lantern which he carried. The inmates of the house being greatly alarmed, Mr. Edmunds finally fired a charge of shot from an old musket out through a window, without aiming, and killed Col. Gay. No blame is attached to Mr. Edmunds by the relatives of the deceased, the tragedy having been caused by a singular combination of circumstances. The deceased was born in the house from which the fatal shot was fired.

The sum of $8899.71 was paid into the treasury of Baltimore last week by some person unknown, as "conscience money" for unpaid taxes.

Nathan King, a pilot at Newport, R. I., dropped dead last Friday afternoon, and Capt. S. A. Gardner, the harbor master, died the same night.

In London, on the 17th inst., the police made a raid in the neighborhood of St. John street, Clerkenwell, where they found 70,000 rounds of ammunition packed in boxes and cases ready for removal; about 400 stand of Snider rifles and needle guns, with bayonets, and twenty-five boxes of six-chambered revolvers, besides other arms. Information in the hands of the police shows that the arms and ammunition were intended for shipment to Ireland. Thomas Walsh, an Irishman, the tenant of the house where the ammunition and fire arms were seized, has been arrested. From the fact that he assisted emigrants to America, it is inferred that he has connection with parties in the United States. A die, on which is a design of a shamrock, for stamping rifles and revolvers, was also seized.

Adolphus Hall, a young colored man, was arrested in Hartford, Conn., June 17th, on a charge of bigamy. The story is that Hall married a colored girl two years ago, but soon deserted her and went to Holyoke, Mass., where he was employed as coachman by Mr. Grover, agent of the Hadley mills. Mr. Grover's daughter Emma, a handsome girl and a member of the senior class of the Holyoke high school, fell in love with the coachman, and about three weeks ago they eloped; and detectives who were put on their track found that they were married early in May by a colored clergyman in Springfield. After some days Mr. Grover received a letter from Hall, in which he said that for a pecuniary consideration he would allow his white wife to be divorced without opposition; but the detectives had learned of the first marriage, and arrested the scamp for bigamy.

New Hampshire Items.

The June term of the United States district court was held at Concord on Tuesday, by District Judge Clark. A bankrupt case involving the conveyance of a stock of boots and shoes at Dover by Mr. Spurling, subsequently a bankrupt, was heard.

Senator Bayard of Delaware is to deliver the address at the Daniel Webster centennial celebration at Hanover, on the 28th of this month. During his stay in Hanover he will be the guest of Hiram Hitchcock, of New York, who has a handsome residence there.

Cottle's carding and spinning mill at Dover was totally destroyed by fire on the 17th inst. The fire was caused by a chimney spark. Loss, $4,000; uninsured.

David Hardy of Hopkinton, a soldier of the war of 1812, died in that town on the 18th inst., at the age of eighty-eight years.

Ivory Kellogg's residence in Madbury was struck by lightning on Monday afternoon, the 19th inst., ripping off the roof, passing down through the house, shattering the interior and utterly demolishing the furniture. There was no fire. The occupants were unharmed. The loss will exceed $700.

A horse and buggy stolen from C. H. Norton & Son at Concord on the 14th inst., have been recovered at Brentwood by Sheriff Kent, and the owners notified.

"An English 'Daisy Miller,'" by Virginia W. Johnson, author of "The Neptune Vase," etc. Boston; Estes & Lauriat; for sale by Willis G. Myers, Congress block. This is a little summer story, dedicated to American women. It begins at Genoa and travels through part of Italy, and ends in Switzerland. It is not so long a tale as Henry James, Jr.'s "Daisy Miller," but it is a clever tit-for-tat—a sketch of an irrepressible English girl who shocks our notions of propriety as much as she horrifies the English courier who accompanies her, while the younger brother is less of an enfant terrible than the wide awake Randolph C. Miller whose rich father resided in Schenectady, N. Y., and could afford to send his wife and children to Europe while he remained at home to manipulate the legislature of the Empire state. The book is finely printed at the University press, Cambridge.

—The meanest man yet found lives in Cincinnati. The swindling knave crept into the coal yard the other night, and tampered with the scales so that they now weigh 2240 pounds to the ton.

AROUND HOME.

Mr. Joshua Ferguson, who resides near Frost's hill in Eliot, is having built a two-story house thirty-two by twenty-eight feet, with ell, which will contain twelve rooms. Mr. Ferguson will keep boarders, as many strangers have sojourned for the summer in that vicinity during the past few years. Mr. Albert Lord is the contractor.

Mrs. Stephen Paul, whose husband is head salesman in a large woollen goods store in New York city, and who has for some time past been an inmate of the asylum at Somerville, Mass., has recently arrived at the residence of Mr. Paul's father in Newington; she is at present as sane as ever, and it is hoped that the change of air and continued pleasant weather will so improve her general health that her mind will not again become unsettled.

Mr. Moses Yeaton of this city has contracted to build a house and barn for President Goodwin of the Elliott national bank of Boston, on his farm at Gerrish's island, Kittery, formerly the Gerrish farm. The house is to be thirty-eight by forty-two feet on the ground, built in the prevailing Queen Anne style, with many gables, dormer windows, spires, etc., and will have an ell sixteen by twenty feet; the barn is to be forty-two feet wide and seventy-eight feet long, and have accommodations for forty head of cattle. The buildings will be among the finest in York county. Work will commence immediately. Mr. Joseph R. Holmes of this city has the contract to put in the cellars.

The schooner Daniel C. Baker came off the ways at Kittery on the 20th inst., and another schooner, whose name we did not learn, went on.

Parties have been looking at Frost's hill, Eliot, with a view of purchasing the same. It is their intention, if they make the purchase, to build on the hill a house that will accommodate fifty boarders. The view from the top of the hill is unexcelled this side of the mountains, the whole of the coast from Cape Porpoise to Cape Ann being visible with the naked eye on a clear day, while Portsmouth and its beautiful harbor, the majestic Piscataqua, Great bay, Dover, Great Falls and scores of villages, lakes and ponds, and even the White mountains, are readily brought very near by the aid of a glass.

LIEBIG MALT EXTRACT.

RECOMMENDED BY PHYSICIANS of the highest eminence on both sides of the Atlantic, as an Invaluable Tonic and Restorative in cases of General Debility, Nervous Depression, Enfeebled Constitution and Female Weakness.

NURSING MOTHERS, who suffer from poverty of milk, will find it a specific for their troubles. It stimulates the digestion, sharpens the appetite, invigorates and builds up the entire system, and excites a generous flow of milk.

WEAK AND SICKLY CHILDREN, who suffer from lassitude and weakness, the result of disease, over-study, or nervous strain, will derive substantial benefit from its use. It restores the system to its normal condition and brings back the bloom of youth.

INVALIDS AND CONVALESCENTS will find it admirably adapted for sustaining life, and restoring lost strength. When the stomach is weak and rejects other nourishment, the Extract will prove an excellent substitute for food. It neither palls upon the appetite nor clouds the brain.

DELICATE FEMALES, who suffer from the weaknesses of their sex, will derive lasting relief from its use. It improves the digestion, purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, and revives the spirits.

WEAK AND DELICATE PERSONS GENERALLY, who require some artificial restorative—and especially those who are inclined to Consumption—will find this preparation exactly suited to their needs. It is a specific for the Coughs and Nervous Affections usually incident to a low state of the system.

AS A FLESH RESTORER it possesses the highest value. The whole tendency of its action is to stimulate the digestion, of fat-producing foods, and its effect is invariably to give fullness and roundness to the female form, and robustness to the masculine frame.

THE LIEBIG MALT EXTRACT is a pure concentrated Fluid Extract of Malt, agreeable to the taste, and free from alcohol. It is readily retained on the stomach and contains none but wholesome and nourishing ingredients. The genuine preparation bears on the label a fac-simile engraved likeness of Baron von Liebig, and a facsimile of his Signature, as well as that of A. VOGELER & CO., BALTIMORE, MD., Sole Agents for America.

LIFE INSURANCE !

The Semi-Endowment Policy of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is believed to be the most desirable plan of insurance ever offered.

Among its advantages are: A definitely guaranteed cash value at a specified time. A paid-up policy for full value in case of discontinuance. Its period (20 years) covers the productive years of life, when insurance is mostly needed. It provides for old age. Above the age of 40 the rates are less than for life policies in other companies, while below 40 they are but little in excess of ordinary life premiums.

Parties insured in Co-operative Societies are requested to compare the net cost of these policies with that of assessment insurance.

THE WEATHER.

U. S. SIGNAL OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, D. C.
June 21, 12:00 A. M.

Probabilities for New England:—

Fair weather, higher barometer, westerly winds, becoming variable, slight rise in temperance.

The Thermometer at the CHRONICLE Office, at 4:00 o'clock this morning, indicated 50 degrees above zero.

Sky clear.

THE CROPS.

The crop prospects of Rockingham county, and York county, Me., are generally very encouraging. Grass, the staple crop, is fully twenty-five per cent better than last year. Potatoes are looking finely, and the early varieties are commencing to bloom. Corn, although somewhat backward on account of the cold weather, has gained rapidly within the past few days, and on the whole we think the prospect is decidedly more favorable than it was last year at this time. Of apples, the yield of early varieties and native fruits promises to be heavy; while of baldwins, which were supposed at one time to be an entire failure, it is now said there will be an average crop. Small fruits of all kinds promise to be plentiful; and pears, which in some localities are not to be seen, in others are looking well, and the general average will be fair. Peaches and cherries will amount to nothing in this vicinity, and the crop of both may be set down as a complete failure this year; and the yield of grapes will be very small.

POLICE COURT.

TUESDAY, June 20; Balchelder J.

Peter Stuart, for peddling without a license, was held in $100 to answer at the October term of the supreme court, and went to jail in default of sureties. Stuart is the person referred to in the CHRONICLE on the 20th as having been arrested on the previous day, having in his possession a number of new revolvers and pocket knives; the police supposed the goods to have been stolen, but had no proof of it, and he could not have been held on a charge of theft; but he had attempted to sell some of the articles on the streets and around the wharves, so the police very judiciously brought him before the court for violating the statute concerning peddlers and their licenses, and had him safely housed until October, before which time it is probable that an owner will be found for the goods.

[Tuesday afternoon Mr. E. R. McIntire of South Berwick, Me., arrived in this city, and reported that his store was broken into on Wednesday night, the 14th inst., and a number of revolvers and knives, similar in make to those found in Stuart's possession, stolen therefrom. J. W. Foster's store in South Berwick was broken into on the same night.]

The beach season promises to be much better for the hotels and boarding houses in this vicinity this year than it was last, the number of rooms engaged being much in excess of what it was last year at this time, and many of the guests proposing to arrive at an earlier date. Last season the weather was cold and cheerless up to the end of June; and when the hot weather did set in, the anxiety and uneasiness consequent on the shooting of President Garfield by the assassin Guiteau instantly checked the current of summer travel, so that the beach hotels did not get filled up until a month or six weeks later than usual, and some of them did not get filled up at all. Ten guests arrive at the boarding house of Emmons B. Philbrick at Rye to-day.

A party of ladies went out to the Gangway rock "band-stand" on Tuesday, in the steamer Mystic; during the steamer's stay there the diver made five descents, one blast was fired, and several tubs of broken stone were brought up. The Mystic will make the same trip again today, at ten o'clock A. M.

Tenney at his studio on Congress street is engaged in painting a portrait of Ex-Governor Samuel Wells of Maine, who died several years ago, and was a brother of the late John S. Wells of Exeter. The portrait represents the governor at his best physical condition, before the lingering sickness of his last years had emaciated his body and given him the appearance of an invalid. A copy is to be painted for the Maine state house.

The stock of ready made clothing and fancy goods in the store on Market square recently occupied by Henry Leveen, will be held on the premises this forenoon at eleven o'clock, at sheriff's sale, to the highest bidder, for cash. See advertisement.

Pilgrim Commandry, Knights Templar, of Lowell, Mass., accompanied by Carter's band of Boston, have arranged for a trip on Saturday, June 24th, to Hampton beach, where the day will be spent, the Sir Knights returning home in the evening.

This (Wednesday) evening there is to be a strawberry festival in the vestry of the Pearl street church, with the usual concomitants of such occasions.

If you have boots or shoes that need repairing, send them to J. Wesley Young at No. 14 Hanover street. The material and workmanship put into foot-wear by Mr. Young will stand close inspection and the test of actual service, and his charges are very reasonable; he doesn't leave pegs in the toes or heels of boots that he repairs, and the straps he puts on do not fetch away, causing much bad language, whenever the boot happens to be a little damp.

Several complaints have been made of late of boys bathing in a nude state in Puddle dock, by day,—boys of from fifteen to eighteen years old. Why do not our city fathers take some action in regard to a public bathing house? JUMBO.

Frank Jones is to heat his office in Market street by steam. He has built a boiler house and chimney in the rear, and a new boiler from the Swampscot Machine Co. at South Newmarket is being set up by A. Brackett Trefethen, who does the mason work in the building. The new arrangements of rooms to be occupied by different members of the clerical force will afford much more ample conveniences for the large business here transacted.

The report of the county commissioners of Rockingham county for the year ending May 1st, 1882, is issued, and copies can be procured at the city clerk's office in the city building.

On the 12th inst. there were three cottages open on the camp ground in Epping, one of the families appearing to have taken up their residence there for the season. There is to be a temperance convention there on July 6th, which will draw a good many people. The avenues which now appear like the streets of a sleeping city will soon be thronged with moving multitudes.

Drs. Parsons, Whittier and Jones left this city for Concord on Tuesday, to attend the annual meeting of the New Hampshire Medical society in that city on the 20th and 21st insts. The society convened in Union hall at eleven o'clock A. M. on the 20th, and the annual dinner was served at the Phenix hotel at 1:30 o'clock P. M.

St. Paul's Commandry of Knights Templar, of Dover, Eminent Commander Sawyer, have invited De Witt Clinton Commandry of this city to visit Dover on St. John's day, June 24th, and attend services in St. Thomas' church, to be conducted by Rev. Mr. Richmond, prelate of St. Paul's Commandry.

Major David Urch, inventor and patentee of the new method of water travel, the marine bicycle—which invention, by the way, has greatly stirred up the aquatic sporting men of Chicago—has just finished an improved and beautiful bicycle named the "Zephyr," which he proposes to take to Canada. The major's objective point is Montreal, though he will probably determine to visit other places after reaching that city. We predict for the dwellers along the St. Lawrence some surprise when they see this new and interesting feature in marine construction, as well as a safe and speedy means of getting along over the water. The craft just finished is the handsomest marine bicycle yet made, has many valuable improvements over those previously constructed, and in the hands of the gentlemanly and skillful major, will astonish our neighbors at the northward. Major Urch leaves for Montreal to-day.

On the 10th inst. a class of young gentlemen from the Sabbath school of Rev. Mr. Stearns of Epping, with their teacher and invited guests, made an excursion to Pawtuckaway pond for the purpose of fishing and having a basket picnic in the woods. The pond is a beautiful sheet of water several miles in length, near Nottingham centre, and is owned by the Newmarket Manufacturing Co., supplying the water power for the mills on Lamprey river. After catching about fifty fish, some of which were cooked in the grove, they returned home, feeling that pleasant memories of the day would long be retained by the participants.

Mr. Joseph Hodgdon of Sturgeon creek, Elliot, has a somewhat unusual pet. He recently trapped and preserved alive a female skunk, which shortly after her capture gave birth to five little ones. The mother and her young soon became attached to Mr. Hodgdon, and they allow him to handle them as one would kittens; if strangers come near, the mother shows by her actions that she knows they are not her owner.

Mr. Trescott, late United States envoy extraordinary to Peru, has rented for the summer a cottage in York belonging to Mrs. E. C. Moody.

[For other local matter see second page.]

Oak Hall Agency in Portsmouth.

Messrs. G. W. Simmons & Son, of Oak Hall, Boston, have established an agency for this city and vicinity for the sale of their custom and ready made men's and boys' clothing, at No. 33 Market street, Portsmouth, where anything contained at Oak Hall, Boston, can be procured, at the same prices as in Boston. Several dollars can be saved by buying your own and your children's clothing at the Oak Hall Agency, as they sell at the lowest prices in New England.

Whate'er besides you chance to want,
Ne'er fail short of SOZODONT,
But keep it always in your sight,
A source of beauty and delight,
To cleanse your teeth till with your smile
The most fastidious you beguile.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. "It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere Twenty-five cents a bottle. eod&wtjan22

Cuticura
THE NEW BLOOD PURIFIER
Resolvent

Mr. Albert Kingsbury, Keene, N. H., troubled with bad humor on hands and neck, caused by lead poisoning. (He's a painter.) At times it would break out, crack open, and the skin separate from the flesh in large pieces, suffering great continual itching and stinging. Purchased your remedies, used Cuticura Resolvent internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally, and in less than three months effected a complete cure, and has not been troubled since. Corroborated by Bullard & Foster, Druggists, Keene, N. H.

Mother Died from it.

J. W. Adams, Newark, Ohio, says: "Cuticura Remedies are the greatest medicine on earth. Had the worst case salt rheum in this county. My mother had it twenty years, and in fact died from it. I believe Cuticura would have saved her life. My arms, breast and head were covered for three years, which nothing relived or cured until I used the Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally.

A PLEASANT LETTER.

It Rings of a Grateful Heart and gives Honor where Honor is Due.

Mr. William W. Chadwick, of Hatchville, Conn., writes under date of June 14, 1880, to Dr. Kennedy, to say that the use of "my Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" has cured him of Gall stone, from which he had experienced everything but comfort for a long time. Mr. Chadwick felt wholly cured when he wrote, and says: "I have had no pain for six months, and have also regained my flesh and can stand a fair day's work. I recommend Kennedy's Favorite to many friends of mine. It may be just the thing you have been looking for. Is your liver disordered? Have you derangement of the kidneys or bladder, associated with constipation of the bowels? If so, you want "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy." Dr. Kennedy practices medicine and surgery in all their branches. Write and state your case frankly. Letters promptly answered. Address Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. WHEAT BITTERS

THE BEST AND The Richest
BLOOD, BRAIN and NERVE
-F-O-O-D-

CAREFULLY PREPARED,
THOROUGHLY TESTED,
ACCEPTABLE AND RELIABLE.

The Phosphates of the Wheat are its most valuable food property, and are, when properly prepared, the most acceptable nutriment with which to build up the system.

The Blood, Brain and Nerves are the forces which bear the strain of every day work and life, and in order to serve them it is wise to

BUILD FOR HEALTH.

Wheat Bitters are prepared, not by fermentation, but by solution and are richest in the Phosphates, while the starch and impure matter are eliminated. These make in themselves a basis, to which is added the best and choicest medicinal qualities, necessary to make it a tonic and bitter. It is at once healthful, pleasant to the taste and must not be confounded with the thousand and one cheap alcoholic bitters which are sold as cure-alls. Medicine is doubly effective when used with food, so as to nourish while it corrects.

Sold by druggists, $1.00 per bottle.

Young Women Inventors.

The other day a patent was recorded to a young woman of Louisville and another young woman of Cincinnati, for what was styled an "ironing pan." From the time of Adam and Eve, woman-folk (and Chinamen) have used, when ironing clothes, a saucer turned bottom side up, an old horse-shoe, an oyster can, or a hundred and one other contrivances to place the hot iron upon while turning a garment, or when wishing to lay down the iron for a moment. When ironing boards came into use handsome little stands for the iron soon followed. But as many a housewife knows to her sorrow, these ironing boards cannot be disturbed without upsetting the iron and stand, thereby endangering, among other things, her toes; and many accidents have thus befallen children. These young ladies hit upon the idea of making an iron pan to be sunk into the board, and thus kept stationary, being of such depth as to hold the iron in safety while the ironer twists the board in whatever direction desired. Models were made, and application filed at Washington, resulting in a patent being immediately issued to them. The idea of the thing was suggested by having witnessed several accidents among the servants. The young ladies are cousins. Both are known for their beauty and accomplishments. They received an offer of $5,000 for their invention the day after the patent was obtained. This they refused, and concluded an arrangement for the making the utensil which will give them a liberal profit. It is a simple iron mold, one inch deep, eight inches long and five inches wide. There are flanges running across two sides, so that one simply has to cut a hole in the ironing board, insert the pan and screw it fast through the flanges. The bottom is perforated, so that it may not become overwarm.

Delicate Females.

The exactions of society, added to the cares of maternity and the household, have tested beyond endurance the frail constitutions which have been granted the majority of women. To combat this tendency to premature decline, no remedy in the world possesses the nourishing and strengthening properties of Malt Bitters. They enrich the blood, perfect digestion, stimulate the liver and kidneys, arrest ulcerative weaknesses, and purify and vitilize every function of the female system.

Rev. William H. Yeocum, assigned by Bishop Brown last week to the Bethel African Methodist Episcopal church in Providence, R. I., was excluded from the church edifice by vote of the society, and preached twice last Sunday from the church steps, amid considerable excitement and disorder.

Beware of Imitations.

The delicate odor of Floreston Cologne is entirely novel. Look for signature of Hiscox & Co., N. Y., on each bottle.

The stable of Moses Swaim in Cambridge, Mass., was burned last Saturday afternoon, with thirteen horses and a lot of carriages. Samuel Nixon, a colored hostler, and James Roach, white, were burned to death. It is supposed the two men were having a drunken carouse, and accidentally fired the stable.

A Good Foundation.

In American households the prevailing complaints are weakness of the stomach and its consequences, indigestion, nervousness and rheumatism. Such sufferers can lay a good foundation for health by using Parker's Ginger Tonic, as it tones up the stomach and nerves, and keeps the kidneys active to carry off the foul matter.—N. O. Picayune.

—An Iowa deacon has been obliged to prove albios in five or six counties, because a fellow who was on a protracted spree went about signing the deacon's name on hotel registers, and leaving without paying his bill.

Enrich and revitalize the blood by using Brown's Iron Bitters.

—A woman may not be able to sharpen a pencil, or throw a stone at a hen, but she can pack more articles into a trunk than a man can in a one-horse wagon.

I was Disgusted

with the learned doctors after swallowing their costly medicine in vain for over a year for the relief of catarrh in my head, when I cured myself by using six bottles of Sulphur Bitters. My wife is now taking them for nervous debility.—Mule Spinner, Lowell.

—"Boys, boys," said Uncle Bill to his wayward progeny, "you'll be the death o' me; I don't know what to do; I've talked to ye, I've scolded at ye, I've whipped ye, I've sworn at ye and I've prayed for ye a thousand times, and all on it don't do one bit o' good, condemn ye."

The Perpetuity of Fame.

As the name of the immortal Washington has been most sacredly perpetuated as that of a hero and statesman, so also has the fame of Swayne's Ointment for skin diseases, descended into perpetuity as the only reliable remedy in the market, for every character of skin disorders, and as the reward of well-deserving merit. Worth and merit go hand-in-hand. It is useless to contradict the worth of this article.

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER never fails to afford instant relief for cramp and pain in the stomach.
JOSHUA BURDIT.

NICHOLVILLE, N. Y., Feb. 2, 1881.
The very best medicine I know of for dysentery, cholera morbus, and cramps in the stomach. Have used it for years, and it is sure cure every time.
JULIUS W. DEE.

MONROE, IOWA, March 12, 1881.
I have used your PAIN KILLER in severe cases of cramp, colic and cholera morbus, and it gave almost instant relief.
I. E. CALDWELL.

CARNESVILLE, GA., Feb. 23, 1881.
For twenty years I have used Your PAIN KILLER in my family. Have used it many times for bowel complaints, and it never fails to give relief. Would not feel safe without a bottle in the house.
J. B. TYE.

BACO, ME., Jan. 29, 1881.
Have used PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER for twelve years. It is safe, sure, and reliable. No mother should allow it to be out of the family.
H. I. HAYES.

ONEIDA, N. Y., Feb. 16, 1881.
We began using it over thirty years ago, and it always gives immediate relief. Would hardly dare to go to bed without a bottle in the house.
W. O. SPERRY.

CONWAYBORO, S. C., Feb. 22, 1881.
Nearly every family in this section keeps a bottle in the house.
DR. E. MORTON.

U. S. CONSULATE,
CREFELD, RHENISH PRUSSIA, Feb. 8, 1881.
I have known PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER almost from the day it was introduced, and after years of observation and use I regard its presence in my household as an indispensable necessity.
I. S. POTTER, U. S. Consul.

HUNGTON, TENN., Feb. 6, 1881.
I had been several days suffering severely from diarrhœa, accompanied with intense pain, when I tried your PAIN KILLER, and found almost instant relief.
H. J. NOYES.

21 MONTAGUE ST., LONDON, ENG.
During a residence of twenty-three years in India, I have given it in many cases of diarrhœa, dysentery, and cholera, and never knew it to fail to give relief.

THE

New Hampshire Gazette!

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

NOTED MEN!

DR. JOHN F. HANCOCK, late President of the National Pharmaceutical Association of the United States, says:

"Brown's Iron Bitters has a heavy sale, is conceded to be a fine tonic; the character of the manufacturers is a voucher for its purity and medicinal excellence."

DR. JOSEPH ROBERTS, President Baltimore Pharmaceutical College, says:

"I indorse it as a fine medicine, reliable as a strengthening tonic, free from alcoholic poisons."

DR. J. FARIS MOORE, PH. D., Professor of Pharmacy, Baltimore Pharmaceutical College, says:

"Brown's Iron Bitters is a safe and reliable medicine, positively free from alcoholic poisons, and can be recommended as a tonic for use among those who oppose alcohol."

DR. EDWARD EARICKSON, Secretary Baltimore College of Pharmacy, says:

"I indorse it as an excellent medicine, a good digestive agent, and a non-intoxicant in the fullest sense."

DR. RICHARD SAPINGTON, one of Baltimore's oldest and most reliable physicians, says:

"All who have used it praise its standard virtues, and the well-known character of the house which makes it is a sufficient guarantee of its being all that is claimed, for they are men who could not be induced to offer anything else but a reliable medicine for public use."

A Druggist Cured.

Boonsboro, Md., Oct. 12, 1880.
Gentlemen: Brown's Iron Bitters cured me of a bad attack of Indigestion and fullness in the stomach. Having tested it, I take pleasure in recommending it to my customers, and am glad to say it gives entire satisfaction to all."
GEO. W. HOFFMAN, Druggist.

Ask your Druggist for BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, and take no other. One trial will convince you that it is just what you need.

SULPHUR BITTERS

THE BEST AND GREATEST MEDICINE

It will drive the Humor from your system, and make your skin clean and smooth. Those Pimples and Blotches which mar your beauty are caused by impure blood, and can be removed in a short time, if you are wise and use the great blood purifier,

SULPHUR BITTERS

Why suffer with Boils? Why suffer with Rheumatism? What makes you tremble with the Ague? Why are you so weak? Your nerves are all unstrung and you are nervous and Jaundiced. Your kidneys are deranged and your stomach refuses to digest food. Why suffer with Dyspepsia? Try Sulphur Bitters. It is not a cheap rum, but a poor sickly drink to be taken by the glass, like other preparations which stimulate only to DESTROY. Sulphur Bitters is not a cheap Bitters, but is composed of the choicest Roots, Barks and Herbs combined with the PURE EXTRACT OF SULPHUR in such proportions as to make it NATURE'S GREAT NERVINE.

SULPHUR Bitters

The Dose is small—only a Teaspoonful. It is the best and cheapest medicine. Try it and you will be satisfied. Get it of your druggist. DON'T WAIT. GET IT AT ONCE.

Daily Chronicle.

What will the Harvest be?

The Rural New Yorker, by means of correspondents in nearly every county of the United States, has secured a full report of the prospects of the harvest yield. Its information, having been gathered solely in the interests of agriculturists, may be considered reliable. The report is a very thorough and exhaustive one, and is summarized as follows:

Wheat—Acreage as large as in 1880. Crop fully as heavy. A probable increase of 75,000,000 to 100,000,000 bushels over last year. Season very favorable to winter wheat and destructive to chinch bugs. Unusually small injury from insect pests. Latest reports from spring wheat region highly promising.

Corn—Owing to cold, wet weather, planting very late. Considerable replanting on account of rotting of seed. Acreage as yet undetermined; probably greater than last year. Latest reports more favorable as to condition and area.

Barley—A somewhat larger acreage and crop. Increase chiefly in California, Iowa, Wisconsin and Dakota. Total crop probably 45,000,000 bushels, against 41,600,000 in 1881 and 44,000,000 in 1880.

Potatoes—The largest acreage and probably the heaviest yield ever known. The prediction that potatoes will be a drug in the market is likely to be fulfilled.

Grass—A fair crop everywhere, but rather late. An abundant hay crop. Clover short, owing to poor catch last fall.

Cotton—A considerable decrease in acreage, owing to floods; and a poorer condition than usual, owing to cold rains. Aggregate yield probably 500,000 bales less than last year.

Oats—An immense yield, probably 420,000,000 bushels.

Rye—The largest acreage and heaviest crop ever raised. Probably 25,000,000 bushels, against 20,000,000 last year and 15,000,000 the year before.

"Wheat Bitters" never disturb the stomach, but promote digestion and nourishment.

—An Austin man started in the livery stable business last week, and the first thing he did was to have a big sign painted, representing himself holding a mule by the bridle. "He's a painter.) At times it would break out, crack open, and the skin separate from the flesh in large pieces, suffering great continual itching and stinging. Purchased your remedies, used Cuticura Resolvent internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally, and in less than three months effected a complete cure, and has not been troubled since. Corroborated by Bullard & Foster, Druggists, Keene, N. H.

Mother Died from it.

J. W. Adams, Newark, Ohio, says: "Cuticura Remedies are the greatest medicine on earth. Had the worst case salt rheum in this county. My mother had it twenty years, and in fact died from it. I believe Cuticura would have saved her life. My arms, breast and head were covered for three years, which nothing relieved or cured until I used the Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally.

Psoriasis.

H. E. Carpenter, Esq., Henderson, N. Y., cured of Psoriasis or Leprosy, of twenty years' standing, by the Cuticura Resolvent internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally. The most wonderful case on record. Cure certified to before a justice of the peace and prominent citizens. All afflicted with itching and scaly diseases should send to us for this testimonial in full.

Salt Rheum.

Those who have experienced the torments of Salt Rheum can appreciate the agony I endured for years, until cured by the Cuticura Resolvent internally and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally.

CATARRH

Sanford's Radical Cure.

A single dose instantly relieves the most violent sneezing or hard colds, clears the head as by magic, stops watery discharges from the nose and eyes, prevents ringing noises in the head, cures nervous headache and subdues chills and fever. In chronic catarrh it cleanses the nasal passages of foul mucus, restores the senses of smell, taste and hearing when affected, frees the head, throat and bronchial tubes of offensive matter, sweetens and purifies the breath, stops the cough and arrests the progress of catarrh towards consumption.

One bottle Radical Cure, one box Catarrhal Solvent and one Dr. Sanford's Inhaler, in one pack age, of all druggists, for $1. Ask for Sanford's Radical Cure. WEEKS & POTTER, Boston.

COLLINS' PLASTERS

100 Times more effectual than any other plaster or electric battery for pain and weakness of the lungs, liver, kidneys and urinary organs, partial paralysis, rheumatism, neuralgia, hysteria, female weakness, nervous pains and weaknesses, malaria and fever and ague. Price 25c. Sold everywhere.

"Music," said Mr. Johnson, "is the least disagreeable of all noises." The learned doctor did not know everything. He never lived next door to a cornet amateur or a piano-banging young lady.

Rose Cold and Hay Fever.

Being seriously troubled with hay fever and rose cold I tried Ely's Cream Balm, and was surprised in obtaining almost immediate relief. I earnestly recommend it to all similarly afflicted. W. P. ANDRUS, Druggist, Metuchen, N. J.

Having been afflicted with hay fever for years I gave Ely's Cream Balm a trial; was much benefitted. I have had no attacks since using it. E. R. RAUCH, Editor Carbon Co. Democrat, Mauch Chunk, Pa.

For years I have been afflicted with hay fever, from early in August until frost. I was induced to give Ely's Cream Balm a trial. The relief was immediate. I regard myself cured. G. SCHREIBER, Supt. of Cordage Co., Elizabeth, N. J. Price fifty cents.

Apply into nostrils with little finger.

—The difference between the pawner and the pawnee is this: The former watches for his prey until he gets it; and the latter prays for his watch, but he doesn't get it.

The Hon. Daniel Beatty, mayor of Washington, N. J., whose organs and pianos are known and used wherever there are newspapers and people, says in reference to St. Jacobs Oil: "My brother, Capt. H. Beatty, purchased St. Jacobs Oil for the use of his wife. She was well pleased with the results it effected as it proved an excellent remedy for rheumatism, the disease from which she suffered. From my knowledge of its efficacious working I must say that St. Jacobs Oil is unequalled as a remedial substance."

—Only about one out of fifteen American girls who go abroad to become great singers or painters are ever heard of after returning home. The other fourteen marry Italian counts, and when night comes are too busy taking care of the monkeys and mending tambourines to hunt up their old acquaintances.

"An Odd Street Scene."

He was seen in front of the office rubbing himself against the telegraph post like a flea-bitten dog. "What is wrong?" we ventured to ask. "Gotem, 'gent," he said laconically; have 'em every spring, small lumps form about the rectum; sore to the touch; they itch like blazes; "a telegraph pole's like an oasis in the desert to me." Here then, was poor humanity suffering from a complaint which a few applications of Swayne's Ointment for itching piles, would have thoroughly eradicated.

STARTLING DISCOVERY!

LOST MANHOOD RESTORED.

A victim of youthful imprudence causing Premature Decay, Nervous Debility, Lost Manhood, etc., having tried in vain every known remedy, has discovered a simple self cure, which he will send FREE to his fellow-sufferers, address J. H. REEVES, 43 Chatham St., N. Y.

Perhaps no medicine is so universally required as a good cathartic. Swayne's Pills are prepared expressly to meet this necessity, being composed of purely vegetable ingredients, of which Podophyllin or Mandrake, Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock and other concentrated juices enter largely into their composition; the whole strength of which is extracted on an entirely new principle. They are mild in their operation, and are truly a valuable aperient and anti-bilious medicine. They stimulate the liver to healthy action, cleanse the stomach and bowels of all impurities. Curing sick and nervous headache, dyspepsia or indigestion, biliousness, fevers, drowsiness, colds, aching pains, slight chills, with flashes of heat, and female irregularities. For a bilious and costive habit, no medicine is so prompt and effectual. Mailed on receipt of price [in postage stamps,] 25 cents, or five boxes for $1. Address Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, Pa. Ask your Druggist for them.

The Toy Pistol.

While John Splane, a boy eleven years old, residing at No. 49 Silver street, South Boston, was playing with a toy pistol several days ago, a blank cartridge was discharged, the powder entering his hand. He was taken to the City hospital on Sunday the 18th inst., and on the following Tuesday lockjaw set in.

Charles Manly was shot through the arm by a toy pistol carelessly discharged on Main street, in Worcester, Mass., June 20th.

The Land League vs. Bishop Gilmour.

At St. Louis, Mo., on the evening of the 18th inst., the Parnell-Dillon branch of the land league unanimously adopted the following preamble and resolutions:

Whereas, The women of Ireland and the Irish women of America have served their country well in the struggle of our people for their rights, and whereas, the Bishop of Cleveland has addressed the Land Leaguers of his diocese in language unbecoming one in his station; and furthermore, owing to a personal change has abused his trust so far as to hastily excommunicate any lady of his diocese attending a Land League meeting; therefore,

Be it Resolved, That the Parnell-Dillon Land League of St. Louis sends to our sister Leaguers of Cleveland every encouragement in their struggle against a prejudiced clergy as well as plundering landlords, and earnestly beseech them to stand firmly by their country and their God, regardless of any vulgar tirades, even when clothed in the robes of an abused religion.

The ladies of the land league in Bishop Gilmour's diocese had previously resolved to ignore his manifesto, maintaining that the league is in no way opposed to the church, and that consequently it is none of the bishop's business whether they belong to it or not.

Bishop Gilmour vs. Editor Cowles.

Mr. Edwin Cowles, editor of the Cleveland (Ohio) Leader, on the 15th inst. ejected Rev. Father Houck from his editorial room, and was afterward arrested on a charge of assault and battery, being released on his own recognizance. He says Bishop Gilmour sent him a letter for publication, indirectly connected with the trouble over the Ladies Land League, demanding its insertion in a very offensive manner. It did not appear, and then the priest was sent to see about it, and was hastily turned out of doors. Mr. Cowles says:

I used no violence to the man. The letter was a direct insult to me. It charged me with cruelty to my youngest daughter, whose mind has been influenced by priestly teachings, and whom the priests had endeavored to persuade to enter a convent about three years ago, besides teaching her that my influence was nothing as compared with the duty she owes to the Roman Catholic church. These teachings have caused infinite trouble. My daughter is lying sick, in my house, and has lain so for some twenty months. She has been treated with all possible tenderness and affection, and the infamous insinuations that I had been guilty of cruelty toward her, coupled with the request that I publish the bishop's unjust criticism of my course toward her in my paper, was so supremely insolent that it naturally maddened me.

News and Notes.

A despatch from Port Townsend, Oregon, says Lieut. Berry and all of the party of the steamer Rodgers are safe on steamer Idaho, now en route from Sitka to Port Townsend.

Capt. W. J. Ross, with a command of fifty rangers, who left Tucson, Arizona, two months ago, has returned. The rangers trailed a remnant of renegade Apaches 200 miles from the Arizona line down into Chihuahua, Mexico. They counted nearly 300 dead Indians, many of whom were found near the mountain trail. They had evidently been wounded in a fight with the Mexican troops under Gen. Garcia, and fled for safety. The body of Chief Luco was identified by one of the party. On the west they fell in with the Mexican troops commanded by Gen. Keyes, and were arrested, disarmed and after four days ordered to get out of Mexican territory. Gen. Keyes informed Ross that inasmuch as he had authority as a deputy sheriff from Arizona the lives of himself and men would be spared, but he must go back unarmed. Ross demanded a voucher for the arms of his rangers, which was at first refused but afterwards granted.

Chief Officer Watts of the American ship Imperial, from San Francisco for Queenstown, Ireland, was arrested on the arrival of that vessel at Queenstown, June 20th, on an extradition warrant charging him with having wounded, with intent to kill, several of the crew of the American ship Gatherer, while the latter vessel was on the high seas on a recent voyage. The second mate of the Gatherer is now serving a six years' sentence in the California state prison, for his share in the brutality; but the worst criminal of the lot, the ruffianly captain, escaped all punishment, because he did not actually participate in the crimes he permitted his mates to commit. One man was murdered on the voyage, several jumped overboard to escape abuse, one was made a maniac, and another was blinded by having his eyes kicked out.

The pilot who took out from San Francisco on the 20th inst. the British steamer Escambia, before reported capsized five miles off the heads in calm weather, with the loss of all hands, says the water ballast tanks had all been pumped out to render the ship lighter for the carriage of cargo, and coal was stowed on deck as high as the bridge. While going down the harbor the machinery was stopped for a few moments, and the ship falling off into the trough of the sea rolled scuppers under. The pilot expressed the opinion that she was unsafe, and believes the catastrophe might have been expected in open water. The disaster was seen from the signal station. The ship's complement consisted of about twenty-five men all told. She was loaded by Dresbah & Co., and it is believed the cargo is fully insured. The Escambia was about 2,000 tons, and came to San Francisco from Hong Kong via Victoria with Chinese passengers.

Lovers of the weed will be interested in the fact that the cancer of which Senator Ben Hill is dying was developed by the poisonous nicotine of a cigar being absorbed by a tiny blister on his tongue.

Of the graduating class of Cornell university this year, thirty-one are republicans, eleven independents, four democrats.

The whole river front at New Orleans is now lighted by electricity, and the spectacle at night is described as picturesque and brilliant.

Buffalo Bill was robbed recently in Denver of a gold watch and chain, diamond pin and other jewelry, besides several promissory notes, valued in all at $8000.

Freedom Foss of Saco was thrown from a loaded team on the 17th inst., one wheel passing over his head, breaking his lower jaw in two places, fracturing the upper jaw, and badly lacerating his face. His condition is critical.

The school-ship St. Marys, commanded by Capt. Henry Erben, U. S. N., arrived at Lisbon, Portugal, June 19th, from New York, all well.

New Hampshire Items.

Students at Exeter climbed eighty feet to the dome of the town hall, and dressed the Goddess of Justice in an old red skirt after the style of a Modoc squaw, on the night of Saturday, the 17th inst. The authorities had a hard time in getting the goddess right again.

Mason S. Severance, a shoemaker of Kingston, aged eighty-six years, was never on the water in his life in a boat or vessel of any kind until the 17th inst., when he went on an excursion by steamer City of Haverhill on the Merrimac river.

Robert Murphy, who broke into the Suncook police station and released some prisoners on the night of the 1st inst., was arraigned before the Pembroke police court on the 15th, and held in $400; in default he was taken to jail.

A pulp mill is to be erected at Bow if the town will vote exemption from taxes for a term of years.

Lewis Gordon, formerly of New Hampton, and at one time a resident of Concord, is visiting his brother, Wm. P. Gordon, at New Hampton, after a residence of twelve years in the west, where he and his son are in the coal and lumber business.

The house of Horace Robinson, in Epsom, took fire Monday morning, the 12th inst., from the sun shining on new tin pans that were placed near the end of the house to dry. Mrs. Robinson was alone in the house at the time, and after making an unsuccessful attempt to extinguish the flames, called for help, the timely arrival of which saved the house, but not until the end of it was nearly burned out.

Merrill Brothers, of East Kingston, have sold the fast trotting horse "Robert the Devil" to Ed. H. Drew of Haverhill, Mass.

Frank Tatro, a French Canadian who formerly lived in Dover, and who there married Josephine Bloun, a mill operative, in 1880, has been arrested in Cohoes, N. Y., for bigamy, as he in 1878 married a girl in Fall River, Mass., and deserted her after the birth of a child. The deserted wife recently moved to Great Falls and went to work in a mill, and a few days ago Tatro (who had in the meantime deserted his second wife) went to Great Falls and stole the child; the mother in searching for her offspring found out about her scoundrelly husband's second marriage, the two wives met in Dover, and there is now a probability that Mr. Tatro's enterprise in the matrimonial line will be circumscribed by stone walls hereafter. Some of the papers say that Tatro has four wives.

The Dover Democrat is out in a new dress, and looks better than ever, tho' it always looked well. We are pleased to see this indication of prosperity on the part of our Dover contemporary.

A horse belonging to James Roberts, of Farmington, got loose in the stable one night recently, and getting to the corn bin ate so much that he died the next day.

A Cough, Cold or Sore Throat

Should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an Incurable Lung Disease or Consumption. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" do not disorder the stomach like cough syrups and balsams, but act directly on the inflamed parts, allaying irritation, give relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Cough, Catarrh, and the Throat Troubles which Singers and Public Speakers are subject to. For thirty years "Brown's Bronchial Troches" have been recommended by physicians, and have always given perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. LIFE INSURANCE!

The Semi-Endowment Policy of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is believed to be the most desirable plan of insurance ever offered.

Among its advantages are: A definitely guaranteed cash value at a specified time. A paid-up policy for full value in case of discontinuance. Its period (20 years) covers the productive years of life, when insurance is mostly needed. It provides for old age. Above the age of 40 the rates are less than for life policies in other companies, while below 40 they are but little in excess of ordinary life premiums.

Parties insured in Co-operative Societies are requested to compare the net cost of these policies with that of assessment insurance.

POLICE COURT.

WEDNESDAY, June 21; Batchelder J.

James Sullivan, charged with stealing a watch from Theodore G. Perkins, was discharged. The evidence showed that the watch was stolen by somebody, and that Sullivan might have stolen it, but also that others had had the same chance to steal it, and that there was no positve proof that Sullivan was the thief.

Daniel Hurley, charged with drunkenness, confessed the soft impeachment, but pleaded to be "let off on prohibition," promising to leave town at once if his petition was granted; so he was allowed to go. He paid $9.90, fine and costs, on the 9th inst., for the same offence.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

The stock of clothing and furnishing goods in the store on Market square recently occupied by Henry Leveen, previously attached on a writ in favor of Edward Leveen of Manchester and others, was sold by consent of parties on Wednesday, the 21st inst., at auction. Sheriff Kent stated the amount at which the examiners had returned the stock, and announced that it would be sold not at a percentage but at an outright price.

The first bid was by Thos. H. Rider at $200, and a competition then followed by small bids up to $670, Mr. Edw. Leveen bidding above Mr. Rider. Finally Mr. Henry R. Stoddard stepped in and bought the stock at $684. The counters were sold at seven dollars, and the shelves, which were claimed by the agent of the owners of the building to be fixtures, were conditionally sold for $5,—if decided not to be the property of the debtor there was to be no sale of the shelves. It is stated that the subsequent attaching creditors intend to contest the claim of the first attaching creditor, Mr. Leveen's brother.

WANTS A WAR.

The Times of June 21st says: "At a meeting of the board of aldermen, held on Thursday evening, June 8th, the street commissioner was authorized to remove the obstruction on Vaughan street—made by the Wilson house—within ten days. The time has expired, and the house still remains. Can it be that this republican administration is to be beaten by a woman? Are these representatives of that republican party, which claims to have put down the rebellion, freed so many slaves, and done all other things good and noble, to be held at bay—like a crowd of dogs by a mother hen, protecting her home and brood of chickens?"

From the report of the county commissioners and sheriff for the year ending May 1st, 1882, it appears that the total expenses of the Portsmouth jail for the year were $3865.66, and of the Exeter jail $1808.50. The number of prisoners in the Portsmouth jail at the beginning of the year was fourteen; received during the year, eighty-four; discharged during the year, eighty-seven; in the jail at date of report, eight. Of the persons admitted during the year four were females, and eighty males; the highest number in the jail at any one time was thirty, and the lowest eight. The total number of prisoners committed to the Exeter jail was seventy-nine.

The tug Ann towed to Dover on the 21st inst. two schooners, and a barge laden with freight from the steamer Acushnet.

Ten salmon, weighing on an average thirteen pounds each, were brought up from the Harding weir on Wednesday of this week, and sold to C. Sullivan & Co., who on the same day bought a halibut weighing 160 lbs., caught off the harbor by Mr. Thomas Deverson of Newcastle. Mr. Deverson is is said has stocked $324.44 on lobsters taken within the past two months, and sold to Sullivan & Co.; he has now gone to work for the Wentworth house, to furnish fish for the season.

As the coal schooner A. A. Shaw was being berthed on the north side of Concord railroad wharf, on the 21st inst., by two steamers, her jibboom was run into "the pulpit" (a stage used in discharging coal) and smashed it, tumbling overboard two wheelbarrows, which went to the bottom of the dock; the vessel sustained no damage.

A gentleman who has been driving around outside the city for some days, informs us that he neither saw nor heard of any canker worms in Rockingham county this side of Exeter, where a few trees were slightly infested with them.

The schooner Lillie, Littlefield master, from Wells, Me., was at Portsmouth bridge on the 21st inst., bound up the river with cord-wood for some of the brick-yards. The schooner J. M. Eaton, Parsons master, and the Hattie Lewis, Brewster master, both from Boston, and the John Mettler, Capt. Benj. Bowden, were also at the bridge, bound up to load bricks. The D. K. Ham, Garland master, arrived from Boston in the afternoon.

The Bangor express train for Boston, on Wednesday afternoon of this week, was delayed by two freight cars being derailed east of Conway junctioq. The passengers were transferred to the White mountains express, on the arrival of that train at the junction.

The schooner Gulnare, Rogers master, went on the marine railway at Kittery on the 20th inst., to be calked and painted. After coming off she will load at the Concord railroad wharf with a lot of furniture brought down from Fisherville over the Concord & Portsmouth railroad, including 50 chamber sets for W. M. Walker of York, to go to some of the hotels and boarding houses in that town; and sixty pews, and organ front and pulpit for the church at the village.

The Washington (D. C.) Posl says "Secretary and Mrs. Chandler are visiting the latter's mother in New Hampshire. They will return to the city in a few days. They spend the summer at Rye beach. During their absence their residence will be enlarged and refitted."

The new Christ church is very nearly completed, about all that remains to be done being the placing in position of the bells, not yet received, and the erection of the iron fence around the grounds. The bishop of the diocese proposes in a few weeks to send a curate to conduct services at this church, and it is expected that it will be opened for this purpose early in July.

The spring term of Brackett academy at Greenland, Miss Samantha C. Merrill of Derry principal, will close on Tuesday evening, the 27th inst. The examination will commence on Friday, the 23d, continuing on Monday afternoon. The graduating class is as follows: Chauncey B. Hoyt, Newington; Chas. Brackett, Arthur L. Bryant, William P. Howard, Ella Shea, Greenland; Martha Barrell, Mary Barrell, York, Me.; Eliza A. Parsons, Rye; Hortense Wiggin, Emma Veazie, Mary Leach, Stratham; Gertrude Norton, North Hampton. Miss Merrill's connection with the academy which she has taught for six years with such satisfactions to the parents and pupils, closes on the 27th, notwithstanding the earnest endeavors of the townspeople to retain her services; she returns to her home in Derry. On Tuesday evening the graduating class will give an entertainment, Edney's band, of Haverhill, furnishing music. The exercises will be free to all, and a general attendance is invited.

Capt. John Young of York was in this city on Wednesday of this week. He has just returned from the Pacific coast, where he is engaged in the Mexican trade, and with his recently captured bride is making a visit to his father, Capt. Samuel Young of York harbor.

Among the many fine teams that are driven into this city there are not many that surpass, either in looks or speed, the very evenly-matched span of chestnut horses belonging to Mr. Joseph W. Bragdon of York, proprietor of the stage line and livery connected with the Marshall house at York harbor. Mr. Bragdon's stock, all through, is as fine as any we have examined for many a day.

"Paddle and Portage, from Moosehead lake to the Aroostook river, Maine," by Thos. Sedwick Steele, author of "Canoe and Camera," "Maps of Maine," etc. Boston; Estes & Lauriat, 299 Washington street.

Mr. Steele is not only an adept in the kind and degree of sportsmanship which combines genuine hard work with enjoyment of scenes in almost undiscovered regions, but he is also an interesting writer, capable to no small extent of infusing his enthusiastic love of nature and out-of-door sports into his readers' minds. The book has over sixty illustrations, and tells us in a very pleasing manner of a fall journey into the wilderness of Maine, filled with incidents narrated with keen zest and graphic recital. To those who enjoy the noble exercise of hunting, and the out-of-door life of the angler, the book comes at a season when it is most acceptable. Mr. Steele is a frequent contributor of sporting articles to the Forest and Stream, and is at once true and entertaining in all that relates to these open-air pleasures of which he tells us in his books, and shows the way the localities are reached by his carefully drawn maps.

We have received from A. Williams & Co., of Boston, "The Relation of Political Economy to the Labor Question," by Carroll D. Wright, chief of the Massachusetts bureau of statistics of labor, etc. The essay was first prepared for a course of lectures before the Lowell Institute in December, 1879, and now appears in book form dedicated to "Sober, industrious and thrifty workingmen, and humane, large-hearted employers." It is a book of fifty pages, which in the present state of the labor question will be a profitable one to read, as Mr. Wright, though some contend he is not right in all his deductions, yet has given the subject of which he treats no small degree of attention.

A PLEASANT LETTER.

It Rings of a Grateful Heart and gives Honor where Honor is Due.

Mr. William W. Chadwick, of Hatchville, Conn., writes under date of June 14, 1880, to Dr. Kennedy, to say that the use of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" has cured him of Gall stone, from which he had experienced everything but comfort for a long time. Mr. Chadwick fell wholly cured when he wrote, and says: "I have had no pain for six months, and have also regained my flesh and can stand a fair day's work. I recommend Kennedy's Favorite Remedy to any one suffering from a deranged liver." Grateful patients are common. Dr. Kennedy is daily in receipt of letters from them, expressing similar sentiments. These letters are spontaneous and put in all varities of phraseology, but invariably setting forth one thing—the value of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for many forms of disease. It may be just the thing you have been looking for. Is your liver disordered? Have you derangement of the kidneys or bladder, associated with constipation of the bowels? If so, you want "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy." Dr. Kennedy practices medicine and surgery in all their branches. Write and state your case frankly. Letters promptly answered. Address Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.

WHEAT BITTERS

THE BEST And The Richest
BLOOD, BRAIN and NERVE
-F-O-O-D-

CAREFULLY PREPARED,
THOROUGHLY TESTED,
ACCEPTABLE AND RELIABLE.

The Phosphates of the Wheat are its most valuable food property, and are, when properly prepared, the most acceptable nutriment with which to build up the system.

The Blood, Brain and Nerves are the tissues which bear the strain of every day work and life, and in order to do this duty it is wise to

BUILD FOR HEALTH.

Wheat Bitters are prepared, not by fermentation but by solution and are richest in the Phosphates, while the starch and impure matter are eliminated. These take in themselves a basis, to which is added the best and choicest medicinal qualities, necessary to make it a tonic and bitter. It is at once healthful, pleasant to the taste and must not be confounded with the thousand and one cheap alcoholic bitters which are sold as cure-alls. Medicine is doubly effective when used with food, so as to nourish while it corrects.

Sold by druggists. $1.00 per bottle.

She Gave Him a "Stunner."

He left the spelling bee at ten o'clock, and stopped in a saloon on his way home. Here he met several, friends who "set em up" divers times, and he reached home about midnight, with a confused brain and a very demoralized pair of legs. Then he swore that somebody had stolen the key-hole, but his wife, with a fearful scowl on her brow and a lamp in her hand, admitted him.

"Drunk!" she exclaimed.

"Brute!"

"B-r-o-o-t (hic) brute. Givus harder one."

"Idiot!"

"Thaz harder (hic,) but I kin spellum. I-d-g—I-d-i-g-t, Idiot. Now givus us er stunner, (hic)."

She picked up a poker and gave him a "stunner," and the spelling bee adjourned sine die.—Norristown Herald.

The rich phosphates, combined with the best vegetable bitters, make in Wheat Bitters the greatest blood, brain and nerve food in existence.

A sailing vessel arrived at London, after a voyage of ninety-eight days, from New Zealand, carrying a cargo of five thousand frozen sheep, and landing them in as good condition as if only freshly slaughtered. This was made feasible by the use of an apparatus supplied by the Bell-Coleman Mechanical Refrigeration company, which kept the holds containing the carcasses constantly down to a temperature of twenty degrees below the freezing point.

Enrich and revitalize the blood by using Brown's Iron Bitters.

—Oscar Wilde says the Swiss boys do some fine carving on the front porch of their houses, and wonders why American boys are not as ingenious. If Oscar had ever witnessed the larruping of an American boy for covering his desk at school he wouldn't wonder why they didn't go right home and carve the porch.

The Perpetuity of Fame.

As the name of the immortal Washington has been most sacredly perpetuated as that of a hero and statesman, so also has the fame of Swayne's Ointment for skin diseases, descended into perpetuity as the only reliable remedy in the hearts of every character of skin disorders, and as the reward of well-deserving merit. Worth and merit go hand-in-hand. It is useless to contradict the worth of this article.

BRIGHTON CATTLE MARKET.

For week ending Wednesday, June 14.

[Reported for the Boston Journal.]

Amount of stock at market—Cattle 1019; Sheep and Lambs 5249; Swine 14,089; Veals 115; number of western cattle 796; eastern and northern cattle, milch cows, etc., 229.

Prices of Beef Cattle per 100 lbs, live weight—Extra quality $8 50 @ 9 50; first quality $7 25 @ 8 37½; second quality $6 25 @ 7 12½; third quality $5 25 @ 6 12½; poorest grades of coarse oxen, bulls, etc., $4 25 @ 5 12½.

Brighton hides 9c @ 9½c ℔ lb.
Brighton tallow 7c ℔ lb.
Country hides, light ones, 6 @ 6½c ℔ lb; heavy ones, 8 @ 8½c ℔ lb.
Country tallow 5c ℔ lb.
Calf skins 12 @ 12½c ℔ lb.
Sheared sheep skins 25 @ 40c each.
Lamb skins 50 @ 75c each.

The quality of the western cattle offered in the market for sale this week was not a better grade than those in one week ago. Cattle cost less at the west, but the prices here have also fallen off a good among 1c ℔ lb from those realized one week ago. Trade still continues to be very dull, and although the supply from the west for the past week has been light there were full as many in market as the demand required. There were but a few low priced beef cattle among those from the west, most being of a good grade.

Working Oxen—Only a few pairs in market not an active demand for them. We note sales of 1 pr, girth 6 ft 11 in, live weight 2880 lbs, for $160; 1 pr, girth 6 ft 11 in, live weight 2880 lbs, at $140; 1 pr stags, girth 5 ft 9 in, live weight 2600 lbs, at $105.

Milch Cows and Springers—Extra $55 @ 75; ordinary $20 @ $50; springers $18 @ 65; farrow cows $18 @ 30. We note sales of one cow and calf at $46; 1 do at $50; 2 do at $55 each; 1 do at $30; 2 new milch cows $525; each; 1 do at $40; 2 do at $45 each; 1 springer at $50; 4 farrow cows at $30 each.

Sheep and Lambs—Western sheep and lambs were all owned by butchers and taken direct from the cars to be slaughtered, sheep costing from 6 @ 6½c; lambs 8 @ 9c ℔ lb, landed at Brighton.

Summer Complaints

At this season, various diseases of the bowels are prevalent, and many lives are lost through lack of knowledge of a safe and sure remedy. PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is a sure cure for Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Summer Complaint, etc., and is perfectly safe.

Read the following:

BATHERSTON, N. Y., March 22, 1881.
PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER never fails to afford instant relief for cramp and pain in the stomach.
JOSEPH BURNETT.

NICHOLVILLE, N. Y., Feb. 2, 1881.
The very best medicine I know of for dysentery, cholera morbus, and cramps in the stomach. Have used it for years, and it is sure every time.
JULIUS W. DEE.

MOHOGONA, IOWA, March 12, 1881.
I have used your PAIN KILLER in severe cases of cramp, colic and CHOLERA MORBUS, and it gave almost instant relief. L. E. CALDWELL.

CARNESVILLE, GA., Feb. 28, 1881.
For twenty years I have used your PAIN KILLER in my family. Have used it many times for bowel complaints, and it always cures. Would not be without a bottle in the house. J. B. IVIE.

SACO, ME., Jan. 25, 1881.
Have used PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER for twelve years. It is safe, sure, and reliable. No mother should allow it to be out of the family.
H. I. NAYES.

ONEIDA, N. Y., Feb. 16, 1881.
We began using it over thirty years ago, and it always gives immediate relief. Would hardly dare to go to bed without a bottle in the house.
W. O. SPERRY.

CONWAYBORO, S. C., Feb. 22, 1881.
Nearly every family in this section keeps a bottle in the house. DR. E. MORTON.

THE
New Hampshire Gazette!

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or offered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

NOTED MEN!

DR. JOHN F. HANCOCK, late President of the National Pharmaceutical Association of the United States, says:

"Brown's Iron Bitters has a heavy sale, is conceded to be a fine tonic, the character of the manufacturers is a voucher for its purity and medicinal excellence."

DR. JOSEPH ROBERTS, President Baltimore Pharmaceutical College, says:

"I indorse it as a fine medicine, reliable as a strengthening tonic, free from alcoholic poisons."

DR. J. FARIS MOORE, PH. D., Professor of Pharmacy, Baltimore Pharmaceutical College, says:

"Brown's Iron Bitters is a safe and reliable medicine, positively free from alcoholic poisons, and can be recommended as a tonic for use among those who oppose alcohol."

DR. EDWARD EARICKSON, Secretary Baltimore College of Pharmacy, says:

"I indorse it as an excellent medicine, a good digestive agent, and a non-intoxicant in the fullest sense."

DR. RICHARD SAPINGTON, one of Baltimore's oldest and most reliable physicians, says:

"All who have used it praise its standard virtues, and the well-known character of the house which makes it is a sufficient guarantee of its being all that is claimed, for they are men who could not be induced to offer anything else but a reliable medicine for public use."

Perhaps no medicine is so universally required as a good cathartic. Swayne's Pills are prepared expressly to meet this necessity, being composed of purely vegetable ingredients, of which Podophyllin or Mandrake, Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock and other concentrated juices enter largely into their composition; the whole strength of which is extracted on an entirely new principle. They are mild in their operation, and are truly a valuable aperient and anti-bilious medicine. They stimulate the liver to healthy action, cleanse the stomach and bowels of all impurities. Curing sick and nervous headache, dyspepsia or indigestion, biliousness, fevers, drowsiness, colds, aching pains, slight chills, with flashes of heat, and female irregularities. For a bilious and costive habit, no medicine is so prompt and effectual. Mailed on receipt of price [in postage stamps,] 25 cents, or five boxes for $1. Address Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, Pa. Two Famous Ships.

In a recent number of The United Service (the excellent army and navy magazine published in Philadelphia by L. R. Hamersly & Co., at $5 per year,) Commodore Thomas S. Phelps of the navy has a very interesting article, from which we extract the following:

If my memory serves me correctly, some time during the year 1842, after an act of Congress had abolished the Board of Navy Commissioners, the Department directed the six naval constructors stationed at the several navy yards to build, each after his own model, a sloop-of-war of about one thousand tons burden, which order resulted in furnishing the service with five of the finest ships of their class in the world; the sixth, named the "Alabama," constructed at the Brooklyn, New York, yard, was also a superbly-built vessel, but her model was of a character which would necessarily send her to the bottom, unless carefully watched and properly handled,—a fate which actually befell her in 1854, during a passage from Aspinwall, New Granada, towards New York.

Among the six ships produced at this time were two more noted than the others,—one, the "Jamestown," owing to the revolution she created in ship-building, and the other, the "Portsmouth," from the antiquity of her model, I have selected for the subjects of this article.

Foster Rhodes, Eckford's foreman, and after the death of that celebrated naval architect, the chief constructor for a time of the Turkish Empire, on his return to the United States received a naval constructor's appointment in our navy, with an assignment to duty at the Portsmouth, Virginia, navy-yard. The gentleman being somewhat "ahead of the times," decided upon a new departure, and arguing upon the principle that a ship did not require breadth of beam for stability, but length of keel only, laid down the "Jamestown's" lines, giving her a total length over all of one hundred and eighty-eight feet, with thirty-six feet as the greatest breadth, being one foot longer than the frigate "Raritan," and only four feet shorter than our largest frigate afloat at that time. When launched and rigged, with her short lower masts, taunt topmasts, remarkably square yards, and with the tremendous rake given to her masts, she certainly was the longest-appearing and most rakish-looking craft ever seen upon the water.

Both the "Jamestown" and "Portsmouth" were considered about the fastest sailers of their day; and in the trial off the Capes of Virginia, made in 1844, they appeared about equal, the officers on both vessels claiming the victory, a slight preponderance apparently being in favor of the latter vessel; but, while the "Portsmouth" could carry her topgallant sails, and, if necessary, fight both batteries advantageously, the "Jamestown," under similar canvas, careened to such a degree that her guns were of no service whatever. Constructor Rhodes, who was on the latter vessel throughout the race, manfully acknowledged his error, and deeply regretted not giving his ship more beam. For war purposes, the trial proved the "Portsmouth" to be the superior vessel of the two.

The "Jamestown's" first cruise on the coast of Africa, as flag-ship of Commodore Skinner, was a decided success; but on her return to Boston, owing to the commodore's recommendation, her masts were righted, yards shortened, topmasts reduced, and by these changes she lost her early prestige as a sailer, which she never afterwards regained. * *

We now turn to the sister ship, the sloop-of-war "Portsmouth," framed at the Kittery, Maine, navy-yard, after a model furnished by Mr. Josiah Barker, the naval architect at that station, and constructed by that gentleman. The origin of this model is sufficiently remarkable and curious to merit special mention, otherwise probably this article would never have been written. Mr. Barker, on receiving the order to construct a sloop-of-war after his own design, invited a friend, the civil engineer of the yard, into his office, and informed him as follows: "I have received directions to build a ship of one thousand tons. I am seventy-two years of age,—too old a man to keep pace with the new-fangled notions of the present day, but I will build a ship upon the expanded lines of the old ship 'Union,' and give the people a vessel that will astonish them. The history of the model I have under consideration," he continued, "I will give you. In 1798 I was a ship-builder, and the owner of a ship-yard in Boston, and one day a French bark, eighty years old, of about one hundred and fifty tons, and leaking badly, came to my yard for repairs. On handling her out on the ways I was struck with the remarkably beauty of her lines under water, and during the repairs carefully measured and produced an excellent model of her. Several years afterwards, about 1805, a Salem firm contracted with me to build them a ship of five hundred tons for the East India trade. Enlarging the Frenchman's lines, I produced a vessel of the required size called the 'Union,' which, for speed and admirable sea qualities, was unsurpassed in that day. She made the most extraordinary passages to and from the Indies, outsailing everything she fell in with on the ocean, was immensely profitable to her owners until the war of 1812 put a stop to her trade, when she was converted into a privateer, and proved one of the most fortunate of that class of vessels sweeping the ocean during the continuance of hostilities. The 'Union' roamed the seas with impunity, easily overhauling any vessel she thought proper to chase, and as readily showing her heels to any one she was desirous of avoiding. Altogether she was the most remarkable ship of her time, and having survived the war and made her proprietors rich, she at last became worn out, and was sold and broken up. Such is the history of the model," continued Mr. Barker, "upon whose expanded lines I intend to build the new ship," which, when launched, was christened "Portsmouth," and afterwards fully equalled the expectations of her builders.

The "Portsmouth" was one hundred and sixty-seven feet six inches long by thirty-eight feet three inches beam, and for speed, ease, and dryness in heavy weather, carrying her batteries, weatherly and sea-going qualities generally, had not her superior in the world. She made some of the quickest passages on record, and in the Pacific sailed for six days over the "Flying Cloud's" track, and beat that ship's time. On several occasions, owing to her remarkable weatherly qualities, she worked out of tight places where almost any other vessel would have been lost.

This ship was closely identified with the early history of California, taking a fair share in the stirring events which gave the Pacific slope to our common country, giving her name to the principal square in the new city situated by the Golden Gate, and her commander's to its principal street. After the declaration of peace she was actively employed on various stations until the navy of steam thrust her into the background, and at present she forms a part of the training squadron off Newport, Rhode Island. From the foregoing bits of resurrected history it appears, that owing to the departure of one naval constructor from the prejudices of the time, and the renewal of a model one hundred and twenty-five years old, the United States navy acquired two of the finest specimens of naval architecture that ever displayed her flag upon the ocean.

AROUND HOME.

All members of Storer Women's Social Relief Corps, No. 6, auxiliary to the G. A. R., are requested to meet at the hall on Saturday, June 24th, at eight o'clock P. M. Business of importance.

The lower end of Daniel street is being treated to a liberal dose of crushed stone.

Capt. J. C. Hoyt, formerly master of the schooner Margie, is now in command of the schooner Mary J. Adams, of this port, which arrived here on the 21st inst. from Philadelphia with a cargo of Lykens Valley coal for C. E. Walker & Co.

Steamer Williamsport, with 1659 tons of coal; schooner Lenig Cobb, with 380, the Osprey with 269 tons, and the Elouise with 209 tons, all for J. Albert Walker, arrived at this port on the 22d inst.

The house, barn and other buildings of William S. Bennett, on the Winnicut road, Greenland, were burned on the night of the 21st inst., with all the clothing, furniture, hay, farming tools, etc.; the live stock was saved. The fire commenced in the house, from some cause unknown, and the family had a narrow escape.

A Cape Ann fishing schooner came into this port on the 22d inst. with about 2000 mackerel seined off the harbor that morning—the first arrival of any magnitude this season, of mackerel caught in this immediate vicinity. C. Sullivan & Co. bought the lot. The schooner Julia A., of Kittery, came in later in the day with 3000.

The attention of any person riding through the adjacent country would be attracted perforce to the very dense foliage of the trees, and particularly of the apple trees. One of the most extensive and experienced raisers of fruit in Rockingham county tells us that whenever the foliage on the apple trees is heavy one year, as it is the present season, it is a sure indication that the crop the year following is to be abundant; he has noted it often, and never knew the sign to fail, dry times or no dry times.

The Newburyport Herald of Thursday, June 22d, said: "It was currently reported in Boston last evening that the Boston & Maine and Eastern railroads had been consolidated, but the details of the arrangement were not obtainable. Negotiations of some some sort have been pending between these two railroads for some time, and it was predicted on Tuesday evening that arrangements would be consummated at an early date, and that their character would create not a little surprise. Boston & Maine sold yesterday at $147, and Eastern at $42.50."

An old fisherman who has fished for this market in a small boat for many years, informs us that since the establishing of the weirs at the mouth of the river the lump-fish, once very plentiful in this harbor in the spring of the year, and regarded by many persons as a great delicacy, have become almost unknown; this he says is due to the fact that they follow the shallow water in coming in from sea, and get trapped in the weirs, from which they are thrown out dead. Pollock also, he alleges, are much less plentiful in the river than formerly, from the same cause—the weirs, which though they do not interfere with the off-shore fishermen, but on the contrary are often a great aid to them in the furnishing of bait, have done much toward making dory fishing unprofitable to individuals.

LIEBIG MALT EXTRACT.

RECOMMENDED BY PHYSICIANS of the highest eminence on both sides of the Atlantic, as an Invaluable Tonic and Restorative in cases of General Debility, Nervous Depression, Enfeebled Constitution and Female Weakness.

NURSING MOTHERS, who suffer from poverty of milk, will find it a benefit for their troubles. It stimulates the digestion, sharpens the appetite, invigorates and builds up the entire system, and assists a generous flow of milk.

WEAK AND SICKLY CHILDREN, who suffer from lassitude and weakness, the result of disease, over study, or nervous strain, will derive substantial benefit from its use. It restores the system to its normal condition and brings back the bloom of youth.

INVALIDS AND CONVALESCENTS will find it admirably adapted for sustaining life, and restoring lost strength. When the invalid is weak and cannot digest other nourishment, the Extract will prove an excellent substitute for food. It neither pals upon the appetite nor offends the taste.

DELICATE FEMALES, who suffer from the weaknesses of their sex, will derive lasting relief from its use. It improves the digestion, purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, and revives the spirits.

WEAK AND DELICATE PERSONS GENERALLY, who require some artificial restorative—and especially those who are inclined to Consumption—will find this preparation exactly suited to their needs. It is a specific for the Coughs and Nervous Affections usually incident to a low state of the system.

AS A FLESH RESTORER it possesses the highest value. The whole territory of its action is to stimulate the digestion of fat-producing foods, and its effect is invariably to give fullness and roundness to the female form, and robustness to the masculine frame.

THE LIEBIG MALT EXTRACT is a pure concentrated Fluid Extract of Malt, agreeable to the taste, and free from alcohol. It is readily retained on the stomach and contains none but wholesome and nourishing ingredients. The genuine preparation bears on the label a fine engraved likeness of Baron von Liebig, and a facsimile of his Signature, as well as that of A. VOGELER & CO., BALTIMORE, Md., Sole Agents for America.

LIFE INSURANCE!

The Semi-Endowment Policy of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is believed to be the most desirable plan of insurance ever offered.

Among its advantages are: A definitely guaranteed cash value at a specified time. A paid-up policy for full value in case of discontinuance. Its period (20 years) covers the productive years of life, when insurance is mostly needed. It provides for old age. Above the age of 40 the rates are less than for life policies in other companies, while below 40 they are but little in excess of ordinary life premiums.

Parties insured in Co-operative Societies are requested to compare the net cost of these policies with that of assessment insurance.

MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

In Board of Mayor and Aldermen, regular meeting, Thursday evening, June 22d, Mayor Sise in the chair:

Present, the full board, except Ald. Call.

The records of last meeting were read and approved.

General Manager Downs, of the Boston & Northern Telephone Co., was granted permission to set poles in certain streets. Mr. Downs said the poles at the Plains would be placed wherever the authorities designated.

The Telephone Co. asked leave to put wires on the poles of the Eastern Telegraph Co. The mayor said the telegraph company had not painted the poles, as was promised would be done. Mr. Bartlett, of the Eastern Telegraph Co., objected to other companies using the poles of the company without permission. Laid over for one week.

George A. Jackson was granted permission to obstruct Hanover street for building purposes.

John C. Stevens was granted leave to repair drain on Washington street,

Oliver S. Loomis asked for a crosswalk on Austin street. Referred.

An order for $500 in favor of Wm. H. Rollins, from A. K. Brown, for sprinkling streets, due in November, was laid on the table. Ordered that $125 be paid Mr. Brown for work already done.

Councilman Robinson asked if the board, in concurrence with the unanimous vote of the common council, intended to appoint a joint committee on the north millpond nuisance. Voted not to appoint such committee.

Ald. Stavers reported from committee the bill to suppress lounging on the sidewalks, with a recommendation that it pass; report accepted, and laid on the table. Ald. Green, Vaughan and Caswell opposed the bill, on the ground that the police already have all needed power in the premises.

Voted to grant vacations to the members of the police force.

Ald. Hartshorn called up the question of the Wilson house obstruction on new Vaughan street. Ald. Martin suggested that the new street had better be called Raynes avenue, and that articles of impeachment should be drawn up against the street commissioner, for not doing his duty as directed. No action was taken.

Ald. Caswell asked by what authority the street commissioner had commenced taking up the pavement at the foot of Daniel street, and putting down dirt, when it had been ordered that no action should be taken on the streets without the approval of the committee on streets; he said a boy had visited his place of business in the daytime with a verbal call to attend a meeting of the committee, but he had been unable to meet it at that time on account of his business. Ald. Martin asked who called the meeting of the committee, to which the mayor replied "I called it to suit myself."

The matter of ascertaining the probable cost of heating school-houses was referred to committee, to report.

Ald. Green called attention to the condition of Haven court and Linden street; referred.

The committee on street lights were granted one week in which to ascertain the difference in cost between iron and wooden posts for the proposed new street lights.

Adjourned.

POLICE COURT.

THURSDAY, June 22; Batchelder, J.

Walter G. Severance, a commercial traveller from Boston, was before the court on a charge of rude and disorderly conduct, in that he fired a torpedo on a public street. The accused said that he certainly did fire the torpedo, but had no idea that in so doing he was committing any offence; some person to him unknown threw a torpedo at his feet, and as it failed to explode he (the defendant) picked it up and whacked it down again on the pavement. The case was dismissed.

DEATH OF MASTER CARLETON.

Mr. Oliver Carleton, an esteemed veteran school-teacher, died in Salem, Mass., on the 21st inst., aged eighty-one years. He was born in Mont Vernon, N. H., and was graduated at Dartmouth college in 1824. He began teaching in Francistown, N. H., in 1825, and taught in Windsor, Vt., in 1827; in Haverhill, Mass., from 1827 to 1830; in Marblehead, Mass., from 1830 to 1832; in Salem, as principal of the old Latin grammar school, from 1832 to 1856; in Portsmouth from 1856 to 1860, returning to Salem in the latter year, and opening a private school. He was married to Martha Claggett of Amherst in 1828; to Louise A. Bartlett of Haverhill in 1831, and to Mary Smith of Newburyport in 1841.

Master Carleton when in Portsmouth occupied the house now owned by D. B. Macomb, U. S. N., and had several pupils from Salem, Keene, etc., some of whom were inmates of his family. Among the pupils from Salem was Wm. R. Langdon Ward, now a prominent lawyer in New York city, and a son-in-law of Alexander H. Ladd. Mr. Ward has a summer residence at Kittery Point, Maine.

COUNTY EXPENSES.

Mr. Editor: In looking over the report of the county commissioners I find that there is a chance for economy in the matter of court expenses. The law, I am told, fixes the salary of the county solicitor at four hundred dollars. This sum was paid the solicitor for the year ending May 1st, besides a sum paid for clerk hire of $200; and an additional sum was paid for an "acting solicitor," by which I infer that for half the year the chosen solicitor was not "acting," though drawing a salary.

Again, the police officers of Portsmouth, or the marshal and his assistants, aggregate, (in these times of reduced valuation and increased taxes,) salaries of $1900; yet the sum of $519.08 appears to have been paid the Portsmouth police officers for committing prisoners to the jail in Portsmouth and to the house of correction in Brentwood. In other words, the county has to pay the salaried officers of the city just about a dollar a week, or $52.52, for committing persons sentenced by the police court to jail in this city—some of whom of course may have been residents of, and the offences of which they were convicted have been committed in, other towns — besides a large sum for sending Portsmouth prisoners to Brentwood. The question occurs, should not the entire fees of these officers, as well as their fees as witnesses, be turned into the treasury, or the salaries of the officers be proportionally reduced? AGRICOLA.

EXCURSION.

The Eastern railroad advertises a grand excursion to Maranacook lake on Tuesday, June 27th, which is the occasion of a band tournament at that place. There will be present, it is said, 1200 musicians. There will also be an opportunity for dancing all day in a pavilion, and a monster clam-bake. The train will leave this city at 7:00 A. M., and returning, will leave the lake at 5:30 P. M. The price of the tickets for the round trip is placed at $2.50. Maranacook lake is located on the Maine Central railroad, between Portland and Lewiston, and such a trip, with the beautiful scenery of the lake and the delightful ride, cannot fail to attract large numbers. The advertisement, in which are full particulars, may be found in another column.

Mr. N. L. Meloon, who for several years was clerk with Mr. B. F. Mugridge, has purchased a team and started a fish route throughout the city and surrounding towns. Mr. Meloon is an industrius and reputable young man, and we believe him worthy the patronage of persons wanting anything in his line. His cart contains fish of all kinds procurable in the market, and the stock is replenished daily, nothing stale being offered for sale.

Assistant Marshal Gray on the 22d inst. commenced to circulate a subscription paper to raise funds for a celebration of the 4th of July, and before night had received enough to assure the celebration. One feature of the day's amusements will be the sending up from Market square of a large hot-air balloon, and probably several smaller ones; and there will be races of various kinds, and other athletic sports, in the afternoon. Mr. Gray will be around again to-day with the paper, and it is to be hoped that the contributions will be liberal enough to enable the managers of the sports to make them creditable and interesting, and such as will attract the people from the neighboring towns.

It is stated that Rev. Charles A. Holbrook, rector of St. John's church, has applied for a chaplaincy in the navy. We should be sorry to have Mr. Holbrook leave Portsmouth, but he would make as good a naval chaplain as ever went afloat.

[For other local matter see second page.]

Oak Hall Agency in Portsmouth.

Messrs. G. W. Simmons & Son, of Oak Hall, Boston, have established an agency for this city and vicinity for the sale of their custom and ready made men's and boys' clothing, at No. 33 Market street, Portsmouth, where anything contained at Oak Hall, Boston, can be procured, at the same prices as in Boston. Several dollars can be saved by buying your own and your children's clothing at the Oak Hall Agency, as they sell at the lowest prices in New England.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. "It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere Twenty-five cents a bottle. eod&wljan22

A PLEASANT LETTER.

It Rings of a Grateful Heart and gives Honor where Honor is Due.

Mr. William W. Chadwick, of Hatchville, Conn., writes under date of June 14, 1880, to Dr. Kennedy, to say that the use of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" has cured him of Gall stone, from which he had experienced everything but comfort for a long time. Mr. Chadwick felt wholly cured when he wrote, and says: "I have had no pain for six months, and have also regained my flesh and can stand a fair day's work. I recommend Kennedy's Favorite Remedy to any one suffering from a deranged liver." Grateful patients are common. Dr. Kennedy is daily in receipt of letters from them, expressing similar sentiments. These letters are spontaneous and put in all varities of phraseology, but invariably setting forth one thing—the value of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for many forms of disease. It may be just the thing you have been looking for. Is your liver disordered? Have you derangement of the kidneys or bladder, associated with constipation of the bowels? If so, you want "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy." Dr. Kennedy practices medicine and surgery in all their branches. Write and state your case frankly. Letters promptly answered. Address Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.

WHEAT BITTERS

THE BEST AND The Richest BLOOD, BRAIN and NERVE

-F-O-O-D-

CAREFULLY PREPARED, THOROUGHLY TESTED, ACCEPTABLE AND RELIABLE.

The Phosphates of the Wheat are its most valuable food property, and are, when properly prepared, the most acceptable nutriment with which to build up the system.

The Blood, Brain and Nerves are the tissues which bear the strain of every day work and life, and in order to sustain them it is wise to BUILD FOR HEALTH.

Wheat Bitters are prepared, not by fermentation but by science and are richest in the Phosphates, while the starch and impure matter are eliminated. These make in themselves a basis, to which is added the best and choicest medicinal qualities, necessary to make it a tonic and bitter. It is at once healthful, pleasant to the taste and must not be confounded with the thousand and one cheap alcoholic bitters which are sold as cure-alls. Medicine is doubly effective when used with food, so as to nourish while it corrects.

Sold by druggists, $1.00 per bottle.

"The North American Review" for July is at hand. It contains six papers, namely: "Emerson as a Poet," by E. P. Whipple; "The Business of Office-Seeking," by Richard Grant White; (it is a great pity that a literary fellow who writes as much as does Mr. White would not permit us to use at least one initial in his name, but we presume the "Grant" was kept up to retain the little berth in the New York custom house which Mr. White has filled by reason of his merits;) "Hydraulic Pressure in Wall Street," a seasonable article; "The Ruins of Central America," Gail Hamilton undertakes to write "The Things Which Remain," in which she repeats much that has been written in the newspapers and forgotten; Abigail having been an inmate in the family of the ex-premier, leads her to suppose she knows all about politics, and that sort of thing, but her attractions lie in a different direction. Frances Marion Crawford writes of "False Taste in Art," and utters some truths which perhaps were known before by the class of readers who are familiar with the North American. This is No. 1 of Vol. 135.

The body of Capt. Samuel W. Jenkins was found floating in the Merrimac at Haverhill, Mass., June 21st. He had been missing since early in December last. The body was fastened to a rock with a chain and rope. It was a case of suicide no doubt. He was aged sixty-five years, and leaves several children. He was identified by papers in his pocket.

I was Disgusted

with the learned doctors after swallowing their costly medicine in vain for over a year for the relief of catarrh in my head, when I cured myself by using six bottles of Sulphur Bitters. My wife is now taking them for nervous debility.—Mule Spinner, Lowell.

—The first thing most of the emigrants do on arriving at Castle Garden is to buy a pie. The next thing they do is to make their ante-mortem statement to the physician.

Beware of Imitations.

The delicate odor of Floreston Cologne is entirely novel. Look for signature of Hiscox & Co., N. Y., on each bottle.

—An editor, in speaking of a clergyman, called him a "pretty aged minister." The compositor got it "putty-eyed monster," and there was a row.

A Good Foundation.

In American households the prevailing complaints are weakness of the stomach and its consequences, indigestion, nervousness and rheumatism. Such sufferers can lay a good foundation for health by using Parker's Ginger Tonic, as it tones up the stomach and nerves, and keeps the kidneys active to carry off the foul matter.—N. O. Picayune.

—The present style of hats for young men has evidently been modelled after the strawberry box. Their shallowness is so emphatic.

Enrich and revitalize the blood by using Brown's Iron Bitters.

—There is a man in Green Bay, Wis., who has taken his wife back three different times after she had eloped with other men. He likes her style of biscuit, probably.

The Perpetuity of Fame.

As the name of the immortal Washington has been most sacredly perpetuated as that of a hero and statesman, so also has the fame of Swayne's Ointment for skin diseases, descended into perpetuity as the only reliable remedy in the market, for every character of skin disorders, and as the reward of well-deserving merit. Worth and merit go hand-in-hand. It is useless to contradict the worth of this article.

Summer Complaints

At this season, various diseases of the bowels are prevalent, and many lives are lost through lack of knowledge of a safe and sure remedy. PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is a sure cure for Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Summer Complaint, etc., and is perfectly safe.

Read the following:

BRIDGEPORT, N. Y., March 22, 1881.
PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER never fails to afford instant relief for cramp and pain in the stomach.
JOSEPH BURNETT.

NICHOLSVILLE, N. Y., Feb. 5, 1881.
The very best medicine I know of for dysentery, cholera morbus, and cramps in the stomach. Have used it for years, and it is sure every time.
JULIUS W. DEE.

MONMOUTH, IOWA, March 15, 1881.
I have used your PAIN KILLER in severe cases of cramp, colic, and cholera morbus, and it gave almost instant relief.
L. E. CALDWELL.

CARNESVILLE, GA., Feb. 28, 1881.
For twenty years I have used your PAIN KILLER in my family. Have used it many times for bowel complaints, and it always cures. Would not feel safe without a bottle in the house.
J. H. IVEY.

Have used PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER for twelve years. It is safe, sure, and reliable. No mother should allow it to be out of the family.
E. I. HAYES.

ONEIDA, N. Y., Feb. 19, 1881.
We began using it over thirty years ago, and it always gives immediate relief. Would hardly dare to go to bed without a bottle in the house.
W. O. SPERRY.

CONWAYBORO, S. C., Feb. 21, 1881.
Nearly every family in this section keeps a bottle in the house.
DR. E. MONZON.

U. S. CONSULATE,
CREFELD, RHENISH PRUSSIA, Feb. 8, 1881.
I have known PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER almost from the day it was introduced, and after years of observation and use I regard its presence in my household as an indispensable necessity.
L. S. POTTER, U. S. Consul.

BURTON-ON-TRENT, ENG.
I had been several days suffering severely from diarrhœa, accompanied with intense pain, when I tried your PAIN KILLER, and found almost instant relief.
H. J. NOONE.

21 MONTAGUE ST., LONDON, 1876.
During a residence of twenty-three years in India, I have given it in many cases of diarrhœa, dysentery, and cholera, and never knew it to fail to give relief.
R. CLARIDGE.

No family can safely be without this invaluable remedy. Its price brings it within the reach of all.

CatarrH

Hay-FeveR

DIRECTIONS.

For Catarrh, Hay Fever or Cold in the Head, etc., insert with little finger a particle of the Balm into the nostril; draw strong breaths through the nose. It will be absorbed, cleansing and healing the diseased membrane.

FOR DEAFNESS. Apply a particle into the ear, rubbing in thoroughly.

—A fair trial will convince the most skeptical.—

ELYS' CREAM BALM

Effectually cleanses the nasal passages of Catarrhal virus, causing healthy secretions, allays inflammation and irritation, protects the membranal linings of the head from additional colds, completely heals the sores and restores the sense of taste and smell. Beneficial results are realized by a few applications. A thorough treatment as directed will cure Catarrh. As a household remedy for cold in the head and snuffles it is unequalled. The Balm is easy to use and agreeable. Sold by all druggists at 50 cts. On receipt of 50 cts. will mail a pack age. Send for circular with full information.

THE

New Hampshire Gazette !

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

NOTED MEN!

DR. JOHN F. HANCOCK, late President of the National Pharmaceutical Association of the United States, says:

"Brown's Iron Bitters has a heavy sale, is conceded to be a fine tonic; the character of the manufacturers is a voucher for its purity and medicinal excellence."

DR. JOSEPH ROBERTS, President Baltimore Pharmaceutical College, says:

"I indorse it as a fine medicine, reliable as a strengthening tonic, free from alcoholic poisons."

DR. J. FARIS MOORE, PH. D., Professor of Pharmacy, Baltimore Pharmaceutical College, says:

"Brown's Iron Bitters is a safe and reliable medicine, positively free from alcoholic poisons, and can be recommended as a tonic for use among those who oppose alcohol."

DR. EDWARD EARICKSON, Secretary Baltimore College of Pharmacy, says:

"I indorse it as an excellent medicine, a good digestive agent, and a non-intoxicant in the fullest sense."

Dr. RICHARD SAPINGTON, one of Baltimore's oldest and most reliable physicians, says:

"All who have used it praise its standard virtues, and the well-known character of the house which makes it is a sufficient guarantee of its being all that is claimed, for they are men who could not be induced to offer anything else but a reliable medicine for public use."

A Druggist Cured.

Boonsboro, Md., Oct. 19, 1880.
Gentlemen: Brown's Iron Bitters cured me of a bad attack of Indigestion and fullness in the stomach. Having tested it, I take pleasure in recommending it to my customers, and am glad to say it gives entire satisfaction to all."
GEO. W. HOFFMAN, Druggist.

Ask your Druggist for BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, and take no other. One trial will convince you that it is just what you need.

SULPHUR BITTERS

Dana Kimball, lately moved to Grafton from Chicago, shot himself on the 22d inst. with a revolver, having previously sent his wife after a neighbor, saying he was not feeling very well. He was found dead in the barnyard on their return. No cause is assigned for the act. He was fifty-six years of age.

Parents who allow their children to grow up with scrofulous humors bursting from every pore are guilty of a great wrong. Think of them pointed out as branded with a loathsome disease, and you will readily procure them the Cuticura remedies.

In Franklin, on the night of June 20th, the houses of Judge Nesmith, Judge Blodgett, Hon. A. F. Pike, Frank P. Parsons and L. D. Davenport were entered by thieves, and all the persons named lost money, watches and jewelry; Davenport a gold watch, and $62 in money. At Keene, on the night of the 21st inst., six houses were burglarized, evidently by professionals, who entered by turning the keys in the doors with nippers. Cyrus W. Woodward lost a small amount of money; John Proctor, one hundred and fifty dollars; R. H. Proctor, a small amount of money and a little jewelry; Daniel Holbrook, a little money and jewelry; George Tilden, a gold watch and some money. There is no clue to the thieves.

Rose Cold and Hay Fever.

Being seriously troubled with hay fever and rose cold I tried Ely's Cream Balm, and was surprised in obtaining almost immediate relief. I earnestly recommend it to all similarly afflicted. W. P. ANDRUS, Druggist, Metuchen, N. J.

Having been afflicted with hay fever for years I gave Ely's Cream Balm a trial; was much benefitted. I have had no attacks since using it. E. R. RAUCH, Editor Carbon Co. Democrat, Mauch Chunk, Pa.

For years I have been afflicted with hay fever, from early in August until frost. I was induced to give Ely's Cream Balm a trial. The relief was immediate. I regard myself cured. G. SCHREIBER, Supt. of Cordage Co., Elizabeth, N. J. Price fifty cents.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER is a scientific combination of some of the most powerful restorative agents in the vegetable kingdom. It restores gray hair to its original color. It makes the scalp white and clean. It cures dandruff and humors, and falling-out of the hair. It furnishes the nutritive principle by which the hair is nourished and supported. It makes the hair moist, soft and glossy, and is unsurpassed as a hair dressing. It is the most economical preparation ever offered to the public, as its effects remain a long time, making only an occasional application necessary. It is recommended and used by eminent medical men, and officially endorsed by the State Assayer of Massachusetts. The popularity of Hall's Hair Renewer has increased with the test of many years, both in this country and in foreign lands, and it is now known and used in all the civilized countries of the world.

For sale by all dealers.

"An Odd Street Scene."

He was seen in front of the office rubbing himself against the telegraph post like a flea-bitten dog. "What is wrong?" we ventured to ask. "Gotem, 'gent,'" he said laconically; have 'em every spring, small lumps form about the rectum; sore to the touch; they itch like blazes; "a telegraph pole's like an oasis in the desert to me." Here then, was poor humanity suffering from a complaint which a few applications of Swayne's Ointment for itching piles, would have thoroughly eradicated.

Cuticura

THE NEW BLOOD PURIFIER

STARTLING DISCOVERY!

LOST MANHOOD RESTORED.

A victim of youthful imprudence causing Premature Decay, Nervous Debility, Lost Manhood, etc., having tried in vain every known remedy, has discovered a simple self cure, which he will send FREE to his fellow-sufferers, address J. H. REEVES, 43 Chatham St., N. Y.

Perhaps no medicine is so universally required as a good cathartic. Swayne's Pills are prepared expressly to meet this necessity, being composed of purely vegetable ingredients, of which Podophyllin or Mandrake, Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock and other concentrated juices enter largely into their composition; the whole strength of which is extracted on an entirely new principle. They are mild in their operation, and are truly a valuable aperient and anti-bilious medicine. They stimulate the liver to healthy action, cleanse the stomach and bowels of all impurities. Curing sick and nervous headache, dyspepsia or indigestion, biliousness, fevers, drowsiness, colds, aching pains, slight chills, with flashes of heat, and female irregularities. For a bilious and costive habit, no medicine is so prompt and effectual. Mailed on receipt of price [in postage stamps,] 25 cents, or five boxes for $1. Address Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, Pa. Ask your Druggist for them.

Portsmouth Chronicle.

SATURDAY, JUNE 24, 1882.

President Arthur on the 22d inst. sent the following nominations to the senate: Capt. Jonathan Young, to be a commodore; Commander Robert Boyd, Jr., to be a captain; Lieut. Commanders Charles H. Pendleton and Richard P. Leary, to be commanders.

A story comes from Danville, Ill., under date of June 22d, that Allie Mills, a girl fourteen years old, Mary Oglie, aged seventeen, and Mary Jones, aged twelve, committed suicide that day by taking arsenic. The Mills girl gave as her reason for the act, that her father lived with a shameless woman; Miss Oglie's reason was that she was an orphan; and Mary Jones took the drug because the others did. This is a pretty though story.

Mr. Benjamin, coxswain of the Columbia boat crew, was drowned at New London, Conn., June 23d, while bathing. The Columbia-Harvard race was to have been pulled on the 24th.

The body of the man found in a decomposed state in the woods at Malden, Mass., some weeks since, has been identified as Elmer Valentine, of Mechanics' Falls, Me. He attempted suicide by taking poison a few years ago.

The British steamship Astrubal, 1194 tons, from St. John, N. B., for London, struck an iceberg June 22d, and sank; crew of twenty-five men saved. The British barque Lizzie Cameron, from Charlottetown, P. E. I., with oats, hit an iceberg June 16th, and filled in half an hour; crew saved.

It is announced that Mr. Henry E. Abbey has engaged Mrs. Langtry, the famous "Jersey lily," and Mme. Nilsson, the prima donna, for an American tour.

William Matthewson, of Pittsfield, Mass., eighteen years old, while examining a revolver Wednesday evening, the 21st inst., accidentally discharged it and the bullet entered his bowels. He will probably die.

Miss Lelia J. Robinson was on the 22d inst. admitted to the bar of the supreme court of Massachusetts—the first female attorney in that state.

At Columbia, S. C., June 22d, the confederate monument on the state house grounds was struck by lightning and destroyed. It was one of the finest pieces of monumental sculpture in the country.

Joseph H. Sanborn of New York, aged forty-two years, shot himself dead on the 21st inst. He retired from business in 1872 with $200,000, and lost it all in Wall street.

The body of an unknown man was found in the river at Haverhill, Mass., June 22d. He had evidently been dead some days.

Mrs. Martha P. Whitehead, a widow lady of Saco, died on the 21st inst. from the effects of poison, supposed to have been taken in bologna sausage eaten on the 15th, as she was taken sick soon after eating it.

AROUND HOME.

All members of Storer Women's Social Relief Corps, No. 6, auxiliary to the G. A. R., are requested to meet at the Hall on Saturday, June 24th, at eight o'clock P. M. Business of importance.

The dog-fish are reported as having arrived in Ipswich bay, seriously interfering with the market fishermen.

George Herbert received on Friday 500 lobsters, caught along the shore of Gerrish's island, making his receipts for the week about 1700; they averaged fair for size.

Senator Rollins has reported a bill from the naval committee directing the secretary of the treasury to pay $2940 to Isaac A. Sylvester, for the losses and damages sustained by him on account of the collision of the United States sloop-of-war Lancaster with the drill platform and sloop Derry at Gangway rock in this harbor. Senator Blair intends to propose an amendment to the river and harbor bill, providing for the extension of the Newcastle breakwater, and its conversion into a highway.

Arthur Johnson of Newburyport, for the past two years a brakeman on the Pullman train between Boston and Bangor, has been promoted to be baggage master on the Rockport branch of the Eastern railroad. A fast freight train has been put on the Eastern road, making the distance from Portland to Boston in seven hours.

Mr. Elvin Newton's gang, fishing from Lunging island, Isles of Shoals, on Monday night of this week took twenty-eight barrels of mackerel, and made fair catches on Tuesday and Wednesday nights also. Mr. Lemuel B. Caswell's "pinque," the Lucy, has this season taken three fares of dun-fish (245 quintals, 115, and ninety,) cured on Smuttynose island since the commencement of operations last spring, to Gloucester and Boston; the Lucy will go for mackerel as soon as her seine, which has been sent away to be repaired and lengthened, is received back.

Mr. John A. Peterson's gondola has within a few days taken to Exeter, for the jail in that town, thirty tons of coal from C. E. Walker & Co., who have the contract for furnishing coal to both the jails in this county.

James W. Baker, in the boat Flying Cloud, brought in 400 lbs. of cod-fish on Friday; several other small lots came in, Loring Hubley of Newcastle having 280 lbs. George W. Randall bought Baker's fare, and also received a consignment of salmon the same day. The small boats are much bothered by the scarcity of bait. About 1000 lbs. of fish in all arrived by the small boats on Friday.

Mr. Charles H. Raitt, employed at Boynton's ginger beer manufactory and bottling establishment, boasts the possession of a dog-shearing machine, made by the American Sheep-Shearing Machine Co. Many of the dogs in this city would be improved by having their tails sheared off just back of the ears.

A guide board upon a tree at the Plains has for several months given a wrong report of distances. It reads "Greenland five miles," when the distance is but three, and "Exeter fourteen miles" when it is in reality but twelve. The board has apparently been moved nearer the points indicated than was the place where it was intended it should be put up.

Rev. Wm. A. Loyne, formerly volunteer missionary in this city, is prospering as pastor of the People's Mission church in Manchester. The church started a year ago with twenty-three members, and now numbers fifty-one. The foundations for a chapel have been put in and paid for, and over $1000 has been subscribed toward erecting the building, which is to be forty-seven feet by forty-two on the ground, of Queen Anne style, with a Swiss front; it is expected to be ready for occupacy about the 1st of December.

At the first reunion of the alumni association of Berwick academy in South Berwick, held in Newichawanick hall in that town on the evening of June 20th, Harlow's orchestra of this city furnished the music for the order of twelve dances.

J. D. P. Wingate, of the Exeter Gazette, who is also superintendent of the Boston & Northern Telephone Co., has established a telephone exchange in Salmon Falls and one in South Berwick, Maine, and telephone communication is now open to those places. York beach has also been connected by telephone with the Portsmouth exchange.

The shore end of the building at Broughton's wharf, pointing toward Daniel street, is being painted in fine style by Mr. Levi Bird, with notices of Mr. Broughton's lumber, lime and cement business. Nobody can help reading the signs when going down the street.

LIFE INSURANCE!

The Semi-Endowment Policy of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is believed to be the most desirable plan of insurance ever offered.

Among its advantages are: A definitely guaranteed cash value at a specified time. A paid-up policy for full value in case of discontinuance. Its period (20 years) covers the productive years of life, when insurance is mostly needed. It provides for old age. Above the age of 40 the rates are less than for life policies in other companies, while below 40 they are but little in excess of ordinary life premiums.

Parties insured in Co-operative Societies are requested to compare the net cost of these policies with that of assessment insurance.

THE VANDALIA ARRIVED.

The U. S. S. Vandalia, 2d rate, eight guns, Capt. R. R. Wallace commanding, arrived at this naval station on Friday morning from Hampton roads. Her officers are as follows:

Captain, R. R. Wallace;
Lieut. Commander, Benj. P. Lamberton;
Lieut. and navigating officer, Charles Belknap;
Lieutenants, (watch officers,) J. K. Cogswell, Fred. H. Paine, W. H. Turner, Wm. A. Marshal;
Master, W. H. Nostrand;
Midshipman, W. L. Burdick;
Cadet Midshipmen, H. A. Hirst, Louis Duncan, W. N. King, Jr., Spencer I. Wood;
Surgeon, Geo. R. Brush;
Paymaster, Wm. N. Watmough;
Chief Engineer, C. A. Wilson;
Passed Asst. Engineer, E. A. Magee;
Cadet Engineers, Henry K. Ivers, Fred. C. Bowers, Leo D. Minor;
1st Lieut. Marines, George C. Reid;
Boatswain, Woodward Carter;
Gunner, A. A. Phelps;
Carpenter, D. W. A. Nash;
Sailmaker, John A. Long.

There are about two hundred officers and men attached to the ship.

It is said that extensive surveys will be ordered on the construction, equipment and engineering departments of the Vandalia, and that she will probably undergo such repairs at the yard as are required to put her in effective sea-going condition. As she has not been out of commission for more than seven years, and has been a great deal at sea, on the European and North Atlantic stations, during that time, it is supposed that it will require at least two months, if not longer, to complete the work required. She will among other things receive a new suit of sails.

While on her voyage from Hampton roads to this port, the Vandalia, in company with the flagship Tennessee, Captain Miller, bearing Rear Admiral Geo. H. Cooper's broad pennant, the Alliance, Commander Geo. H. Wadleigh, and the Yantic, Commander E. T. Woodward, spent four days in tactical maneuvers under steam and sail.

The Alliance has gone to Boston for repairs, and the Tennessee and Yantic to New York,—all to meet here in August next.

THE GLORIOUS FOURTH.

It is proposed by those having the matter in charge, to have on the 4th of July foot races, sack races, wheelbarrow races, jumping, hot-air balloon ascensions, and other attractions, with prizes for the winners o the several contests; the city provides band concerts, afternoon and evening, Sawyer's band of Dover, Priestly Taylor leader, having been engaged for that purpose. This is the band which furnished such excellent music in this city on Memorial day, so there is no doubt the concerts will be satisfactory to our citizens and the visitors from neighboring towns. Over one hundred dollars had been collected for the celebration up to noon on Friday, and it is hoped that enough more will be contributed to make the affair creditable to the city.

GROWLS.

Mr. Editor: The odors from the north millpond, Thursday and Friday mornings, recalled to memory the fact that a body of men known as "The Board of Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Portsmouth" have for a year or more past been strenuously endeavoring to make up their minds as to whether the pond in its present condition is a suitable nuisance for the board to maintain. I would suggest that the matter be referred to the Eastern railroad and the breweries, with full powers. ***

PORTSMOUTH, June 23d.

Mr. Editor: The Wilson house on the disputed territory still continues as an obstruction on the Eastern railroad's extension of Vaughan street. What the trouble is, the public would like to know. The board of aldermen doubled up their fists, and passed a vote ordering the street commissioner to saw the house down and board it up, on the line of the street; but having raised their hands to strike, have not the courage to give the blow. PEDRO.

YOUTHFUL ENTERPRISE.

A number of young lads made a raid on the premises of Mr. George B. French on Market street, last Thursday evening, and confiscated a large and select assortment of five-cent goods from a lot just received, and which had been placed in the yard at the rear of the building, awaiting storage within it. On Friday the whole squad of plunderers were captured by Assistant Marshal Gray, and made haste to turn in the stolen goods; after which, as Mr. French did not wish to push the matter, the enormity of their conduct was placed before them in its true light, and they were told to go and sin no more. They went fast enough, but whether or not they will obey the latter part of the admonition remains to be seen.

It was reported on Friday evening that Rev. C. A. Holbrook had tendered his resignation as rector of St. John's church.

Portland Commandry of Knights Templar, accompanied by Glover's band of Auburn, Me., arrived in this city on Friday evening, on their way to Haverhill, Mass., to spend St. John's day. This band, which won the 1st prize at the band tournament in Maine, has been under the instruction of Mr. Newell M. Perkins, formerly of this city, and a member of the then noted United States marine band.

The semi-annual dividend on the Concord & Portsmouth railroad stock held in this vicinity will be paid at the office of William H. Hackett, in the United States court house, on Thursday the 29th inst. The dividend on the Portsmouth & Dover railroad shares will be paid July 1st, at the office of the Portsmouth Trust & Guarantee Co.

It is reported that Miss M. A. Wythe, 1st assistant teacher of the high school, will resign that position at the end of the present term to take a similar one in a seminary at Washington, D. C.

The new schooner in course of construction by Wm. F. Fernald at Freeman's point, and now nearly completed, is to be named "Annie F. Conlon," in honor of the daughter of Mr. John Conlon, who will present the schooner with a full set of colors.

The Boston Traveller of the 22d inst. "is authorized to say that the statements recently published in regard to the Boston & Maine and the Eastern railroads are entirely without foundation. No such arrangement, as reported, has been contemplated, and the whole thing is the outgrowth of stock speculators. There are negotiations pending between the two corporations, and such perverted statements are working evil to the interests of both."

At a late meeting of the trustees of Langdon park the following-named gentlemen were elected officers for the ensuing year: Henry M. Clark, chairman; Jos. Hiller Foster, treasurer; T. Salter Tredick, secretary.

On the 21st inst. a young man named James Sullivan was before the police court on a charge of stealing a watch from Mr. Theodore G. Perkins, but was discharged, there being no conclusive evidence against him. The watch has since been found, a boy having stolen it and sold it for a dollar; this of course clears Mr. Sullivan from suspicion.

While Mr. Daniel Lovell was engaged in sawing a slab with a circular saw at Mason's steam sawmill on Friday afternoon, his right hand accidentally came in contact with the saw, which took off the middle finger at the joint nearest the hand, and badly injured the first and third fingers.

Alderman John W. Caswell raised an eighty-foot flagstaff (lower-mast and topmast together) at his residence on Lafayette road, last Thursday afternoon.

The schooner Adeliza of this port, Frisbee master, was on Friday loading at Philadelphia with bituminous coal for C. E. Walker & Co.

Mr. J. Albert Walker, who runs the extensive coal business at the Concord railroad wharf, went to New York this week, leaving Mr. Arthur Walker in charge. He had hardly got away when in came a big steam collier, and eight or ten coal-laden schooners, making things uncomfortably lively for Arthur.

Hon. J. W. Wakefield, collector of customs for the port of Bath, Me., was in this city on Friday.

The steamer Mystic, Capt. Rashe Trefethen, after being painted and otherwise fixed up all nice will commence her regular Sunday trips to the Shoals on the 2d of July.

A reader informs us that the name of one good man who made the first cruise in the U. S. S. Kearsarge, and participated in the fight with the Alabama, was omitted from both the lists we recently published of men from this city and vicinity who were comprised in the Kearsarge's crew. Carsten B. DeWitt, for many years clerk with the late Leonard Cotton, shipped in the famous cruiser at this port, and made the voyage in her, serving as yeoman; he was honorably discharged with the rest of the crew on her return to the United States, and died in this city a year or two later.

Dr. Fred. E. Potter of this city, and Emery J. Randall of Somersworth, were appointed trustees of the New Hampshire asylum for the insane by the governor and council on the 22d inst.

The number of turnouts in our streets gives unmistakable signs that the season at the sea-shore has begun.

WHAT WE EAT.

The composition and process of manufacture of the baking powder of a well known manufacturer, as taken from the records of the patent office at Washington, is not such as to tempt the appetite of the fastidious; this is the formula:

Five hundred pounds burned and ground bones are placed in 400 pounds sulphuric acid (oil of vitriol,) freshly diluted with 1,000 pounds water, and stirred from time to time for three days. The paste is mixed with farinaceous material, or with freshly burned gypsum, or with stearine, and dried and pulverized. * * This pulverized acid is to be used with bicarbonate of soda in baking powders.

Bones of dead animals, gathered in and around the great cities, on battle fields, or wherever else they can be found in quantities, and reduced to a powder with sulphuric acid, are the cheap substitute used in some self-raising flours and so-called "yeast powders," in lieu of the wholesome and less costly Vienna Pressed Yeast, which is made from selected grain, warranted perfectly pure, and pronounced so by Prof. Liebig and the health commissioners of Massachusetts. The Vienna pressed yeast is sold by all grocers at two cents a cake, and delivered at any railroad station, stage coach or steamer, for bakers or hotels, at thirty-five cents a pound.

How many a sweet face is marred
By yellow teeth and failing gums,
And mouth and lips all hot and hard,
And breath deep-tainted as it comes;
And yet, with SOZODONT, we may
Keep all these dire defects at bay.

A Cough, Cold or Sore Throat

Should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an Incurable Lung Disease or Consumption. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" do not disorder the stomach like cough syrups and balsams, but act directly on the inflamed parts, allaying irritation, give relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Cough, Catarrh, and the Throat Troubles which Singers and Public Speakers are subject to. For thirty years "Brown's Bronchial Troches" have been recommended by physicians, and have always given perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. Sold at 25 cts a box everywhere. eod&wtjan82

A PLEASANT LETTER.

It Rings of a Grateful Heart and gives Honor where Honor is Due.

Mr. William W. Chadwick, of Hatchville, Conn., writes under date of June 14, 1880, to Dr. Kennedy, to say that the use of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" has cured him of Gall stone, from which he had experienced everything but comfort for a long time. Mr. Chadwick felt wholly cured when he wrote, and says: "I have had no pain for six months, and have also regained my flesh and can stand a fair day's work. I recommend Kennedy's Favorite Remedy to any one suffering from a deranged liver." Grateful patients are common. Dr. Kennedy is daily in receipt of letters from a clean, expressing similar sentiments. These letters are spontaneous and put in all varities of phraseology, but invariably setting forth one thing—the value of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for many forms of disease. It may be just the thing you have been looking for. Is your liver disordered? Have you derangement of the kidneys or bladder, associated with constipation of the bowels? If so, you want "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy." Dr. Kennedy practices medicine and surgery in all their branches. Write and state your case frankly. Letters promptly answered. Address Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.

WHEAT BITTERS.

THE BEST AND The Richest BLOOD, BRAIN and NERVE

-F-O-O-D-

CAREFULLY PREPARED, THOROUGHLY TESTED, ACCEPTABLE AND RELIABLE.

The Phosphates of the Wheat are its most valuable food property, and are, when properly prepared, the most acceptable nutriment with which to build up the system.

The Blood, Brain and Nerves are the forces which bear the strain of every day work and life, and in order to save sickness it is wise to BUILD FOR HEALTH.

Wheat Bitters are prepared, not by fermentation but by solution and are richest in the Phosphates, while the starch and impurities are eliminated. These make in themselves a basis, to which is added the best and choicest medicinal qualities, necessary to make it a tonic and bitter. It is at once healthful, pleasant to the taste and must not be confounded with the thousand and one cheap alcoholic bitters which are sold as cure-alls. Medicine is doubly effective when used with food, so as to nourish while it corrects.

Sold by druggists, $1.00 per bottle.

The Iowa Tornado.

The track of the recent tornado in Iowa began at Jefferson, ninety miles west of Grinnell, went eastward a few miles, then south, and kept the latter course to Marshall county, where it turned southeast, and then went straight to Grinnell, and thence to Iron Ridge, fourteen miles southeast of Brooklyn. Then it took a southerly turn to Henry county, and thence to Mount Pleasant, where it stopped, having travelled a distance of two hundred miles. The velocity of the storm was about sixty miles an hour.

A Des Moines despatch gives the following estimate of the damage by the cyclone: Boone county, $20,000; Story county, $30,000; Jasper county, $50,000; Poweshiek county, $30,000; Keokuk county, $100,000; Henry county, $500,000; Mount Pleasant county, $700,000; Grinnell county, $600,000; Malcolm county, $180,000; Pocahontas county, $10,000; Chicago & Rock Island railroad, merchandise and property, $41,000; Iowa Central, $10,000; scattering damages, $305,000. Total, $2,576,000. Some estimate the loss at over $3,000,000.

Delicate Females.

The exactions of society, added to the cares of maternity and the household, have tested beyond endurance the frail constitutions which have been granted the majority of women. To combat this tendency to premature decline, no remedy in the world possesses the nourishing and strengthening properties of Malt Bitters. They enrich the blood, perfect digestion, stimulate the liver and kidneys, arrest ulcerative weaknesses, and purify and vitilize every function of the female system.

Michael J. Noonan, formerly of Dover, where his course as a member of the reform club made him odious and nearly destroyed the club, has been convicted in Lowell, Mass., of forging the name of his wife to a mortgage or deed. He his a scoundrel of the first water.

"Wheat Bitters" never disturb the stomach, but promote digestion and nourishment.

Enrich and revitalize the blood by using Brown's Iron Bitters.

S. Everett Crooker, aged twenty-one years, living at Hillsboro' lower village, went to Franklin on the night of June 21st, and was burned to death. He got drunk and was locked up, and during the night the lockup was destroyed by fire, he being the only inmate.

Catarrh of the Bladder.

Flies and Bugs.

Robert Rowe, wheelwright, and a prominent democrat and citizen of Brentwood, died in that town on the 23d inst.

The Perpetuity of Fame.

As the name of the immortal Washington has been most sacredly perpetuated as that of a hero and statesman, so also has the fame of Swayne's Ointment for skin diseases, descended into perpetuity as the only reliable remedy in the market, for every character of skin disorders, and as the reward of well-deserving merit. Worth and merit go hand-in-hand. It is useless to contradict the worth of this article.

J. Wilson Glover was killed by lightning, and his little son and daughter fatally injured, at Charleston, S. C., June 22d.

Summer Complaints

At this season, various diseases of the bowels are prevalent, and many lives are lost through lack of knowledge of a safe and sure remedy. PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is a sure cure for Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Summer Complaint, etc., and is perfectly safe.

Read the following:

BATHBRIDGE, N. Y., March 22, 1881.
PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER never fails to afford instant relief for cramp and pain in the stomach.
JOSEPH BURDITT.

NICHOLVILLE, N. Y., Feb. 5, 1881.
The very best medicine I know of for dysentery, cholera morbus, and cramps in the stomach. Have used it for years, and it is sure cure every time.
JULIUS W. DEE.

MOINGONA, IOWA, March 12, 1881.
I have used your PAIN KILLER in severe cases of cramp, colic and cholera morbus, and it gave almost instant relief. C. F. CALDWELL.

CARNESVILLE, GA., Feb. 26, 1881.
For twenty years I have used your PAIN KILLER in my family. Have used it many times for bowel complaints, and it always cures. Would not feel safe without a bottle in the house. J. R. IVY.

SACO, ME., Jan. 22, 1881.
Have used PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER for twelve years. It is safe, sure, and reliable. No mother should allow it to be out of the family.
H. I. NAYES.

ONEIDA, N. Y., Feb. 19, 1881.
We began using it over thirty years ago, and it always gives immediate relief. Would hardly dare to go to bed without a bottle in the house.
W. O. SPERRY.

CONWAYBORO, S. C., Feb. 28, 1881.
Nearly every family in this section keeps a bottle in the house. DR. E. MONROE.

U. S. CONSULATE,
CREFELD, RHENISH PRUSSIA, Feb. 8, 1881.
I have known PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER almost from the day it was introduced, and after years of observation and use I regard its presence in my household as an indispensable necessity.
I. S. POTTER, U. S. Consul.

I had been several days suffering severely from diarrhœa, accompanied with intense pain, when I tried your PAIN KILLER, and found almost instant relief. H. J. NOONE.

21 MONTAGUE ST., LONDON, ENG.
During a residence of twenty-three years in India, I have given it in many cases of diarrhœa, dysentery, and cholera, and never knew it to fail to give relief. R. CHANDON.

No family can safely be without this invaluable remedy. Its price brings it within the reach of all.

For sale by all druggists at 25c., 50c. and $1.00 per bottle.

CatarrH

DIRECTIONS.

For Catarrh, Hay Fever Cold in the Head, etc., Insert with little finger a particle of the Balm into the nostrils; draw strong breaths through the nose. It will be absorbed, cleansing and healing the diseased membrane.

FOR DEAFNESS, Apply a particle into the ear, rubbing it thoroughly.

Hay-FeveR

—A fair trial will convince the most skeptical.—

ELYS' CREAM BALM

Effectually cleanses the nasal passages of Catarrhal virus, causing healthy secretions, allays inflammation and irritation, protects the membranal linings of the head from additional colds, completely heals the sores and restores the sense of taste and smell. Beneficial results are realized by a few applications. A thorough treatment as directed will cure Catarrh. As a household remedy for cold in the head and snuffles it is unequalled. The Balm is easy to use and agreeable. Sold by all druggists at 50 cts. On receipt of 50 cts. will mail a pack age. Send for circular with full information.

THE

New Hampshire Gazette !

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a weekly invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

Oh, My Back!

That's a common expression and has a world of meaning. How much suffering is summed up in it.

The singular thing about it is, that pain in the back is occasioned by so many things. May be caused by kidney disease, liver complaint, consumption, cold, rheumatism, dyspepsia, overwork, nervous debility, &c.

Whatever the cause, don't neglect it. Something is wrong and needs prompt attention. No medicine has yet been discovered that will so quickly and surely cure such diseases as BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, and it does this by commencing at the foundation, and making the blood pure and rich.

Logansport, Ind. Dec. 1, 1880.

For a long time I have been a sufferer from stomach and kidney disease. My appetite was very poor and the very small amount I did eat disagreed with me. I was annoyed very much from non-retention of urine. I tried many remedies with no success, until I used Brown's Iron Bitters. Since I used that my stomach does not bother me any. My appetite is simply immense. My kidney trouble is no more, and my general health is such, that I feel like a new man. After the use of Brown's Iron Bitters for one month, I have gained twenty pounds in weight. O. B. SARGENT.

Leading physicians and clergymen use and recommend BROWN'S IRON BITTERS. It has cured others suffering as you are, and it will cure you.

SULPHUR BITTERS

THE GREAT

German Remedy.

TRUTHS FOR THE SICK.

For those deathly Bilious Spells, depend on SULPHUR BITTERS, it will cure you.

Ladies in delicate health, who are all run down, should use SULPHUR BITTERS.

The Giant Dyspepsia is cured by using SULPHUR BITTERS.

$1,000 will be paid for a case where SULPHUR BITTERS will not assist or cure. It never fails.

Operatives who are closely confined in the mills and workshops; Clerks, who do not procure sufficient exercise, and all who are confined in doors, should use SULPHUR BITTERS. They will not then be weak and sickly.

Cleanse the vitiated blood when you see its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Blotches, and Sores. Rely on SULPHUR BITTERS, and health will follow.

General Debility needs a gentle tonic. Use SULPHUR BITTERS, and you will not be troubled.

Don't be without a bottle. Try it; you will not regret it.

SULPHUR BITTERS will build you up and make you strong and healthy.

Important Order Affecting Passenger Steamboats.

In view of the many fires which have occurred on passenger steamers, James H. Dumont, supervising inspector general of steamboats, has issued an order instructing local inspectors and other officials to prosecute passenger steamers on which naphtha, benzino, benzole, coal oil, crude or refined petroleum, or other like explosive burning fluids or dangerous articles are used for illuminating or other purposes. Steamboat owners are indignant at this order, saying that no instance of a boat catching fire from illuminating oil can be found in recent history. Of course, it will now be necessary to change the entire system of lighting steamboats, and a heavy expense will be entailed on every passenger boat, as new styles of lamps and fixtures, and new oil, will have to be purchased.

Some years ago there lived in a town of York county less than twenty miles from Portsmouth, a quaint old fellow who was known far and wide. The liquor law was in force, and one of his neighbors was brought before a justice to answer to a charge of violating it. "Jerry" was called to the stand as a witness for the state, and the following colloquy ensued: "Are you acquainted with the locality of Mr. Blank's store?" asked the prosecuting counsel. "Oh yes—yes, of course I am," was the reply. "Have you ever been in his store?" "Oh yes—yes, of course I have." "Have you ever seen any bottles in his store?" "Oh yes—yes, of course I have." "Do you know what was in those bottles?" "Oh yes—yes, of course I do." "Well, please tell the court what was in them." "Cork stoppers," was the answer—and no more questions were asked that witness.

The Dover Point house is open for the season, under the same management as last year, Mr. Daniel C. Wiggin being the landlord.

A remarkable wave, eleven feet high and two miles wide, swept over Lake Erie on the 23d inst., without any apparent cause. Vessels at the docks in Cleveland, and buildings close to the shore, suffered considerably, but no damage was done to boats on the lake.

Handsome versus Homely.

Who is that fine looking lady that we just passed, Clara? Why, that is Mrs. Snow. Well, there, what a change; when I saw her last, her skin was so sallow and muddy looking, its no wonder I didn't know her. What has produced that lovely complexion? I heard she took Sulphur Bitters, the great blood purifier, and now would not be without them.

Iowa had another tornado June 22d, when seventy buildings were unroofed in Independence, and two persons killed.

Not an alcoholic beverage, but a true and reliable family medicine is Brown's Iron Bitters.

The store of the Pacific mills at Lawrence, Mass., took fire on Friday evening in the basement, and before the flames were extinguished damage to the amount of $500,000 was done, (the underwriters' agent says $100,000,) and one fireman was seriously injured.

A Good Foundation.

In American households the prevailing complaints are weakness of the stomach and its consequences, indigestion, nervousness and rheumatism. Such sufferers can lay a good foundation for health by using Parker's Ginger Tonic, as it tones up the stomach and nerves, and keeps the kidneys active to carry off the foul matter.—N. O. Picayune.

Obey Owen, for fifteen years receiving teller of the Third National bank of St. Louis, Mo., is a defaulter to the amount of over $100,000. He is under arrest, and confesses that he has been stealing for ten years.

Beware of Imitations.

James R. Osgood, the well known publisher, of Boston, has given two hundred and fifty dollars for the Longfellow Memorial association. From many parts of the country generous donations are coming in. Dollar subscriptions should be sent to John Bartlett, treasurer; P. O. box 1590, Boston.

Capt. Malloy of the Kansas City (Mo.) police force says: "We use St. Jacobs Oil for bruises, cuts, injuries, etc. incident to police business. I have used it myself with the most beneficial results, and the men are enthusiastic in their praises of it. I consider the great German remedy a truly marvelous substance completely fulfilling its every claim."

We have received the July number of "The Season," one of the best and most elaborately illustrated ladies' magazines published; it is an authority on all matters of ladies' attire, fancy work, etc. The July number is profusely illustrated with colored plates and engravings. Price thirty cents per number. Published by the International News Co., 31 Beekman street, New York.

"An Odd Street Scene."

He was seen in front of the office rubbing himself against the telegraph post like a flea-bitten dog. "What is wrong?" we ventured to ask. "Gotem, 'gent," he said laconically; have 'em every spring, small lumps form about the rectum; sore to the touch; they itch like blazes; "a telegraph pole's like an oasis in the desert to me." Here then, was poor humanity suffering from a complaint which a few applications of Swayne's Ointment for itching piles, would have thoroughly eradicated.

Cuticura

THE NEW BLOOD PURIFIER

Resolvent

Mr. Albert Kingsbury, Keene, N. H., troubled with bad humor on hands and neck, caused by lead poisoning. (He's a painter.) At times it would break out, crack open, and the skin separate from the flesh in large pieces, suffering great continual itching and stinging. Purchased your remedies, used Cuticura Resolvent internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally, and in less than three months effected a complete cure, and has not been troubled since. Corroborated by Bullard & Foster, Druggists, Keene, N. H.

Mother Died from it.

J. W. Adams, Newark, Ohio, says: "Cuticura Remedies are the greatest medicine on earth. Had the worst case salt rheum in this county. My mother had it twenty years, and in fact died from it. I believe Cuticura would have saved her life. My arms, breast and head were covered for three years, which nothing relived or cured until I used the Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally.

Psoriasis.

H. E. Carpenter, Esq., Henderson, N. Y., cured of Psoriasis or Leprosy, of twenty years' standing, by the Cuticura Resolvent internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally. The most wonderful case on record. Cure certified to before a justice of the peace and prominent citizens. All afflicted with itching and scaly diseases should send to us for this testimonial in full.

Salt Rheum.

Those who have experienced the torments of Salt Rheum can appreciate the agony I endured for years, until cured by the Cuticura Resolvent internally and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally.

MRS. WM. PELLINGTON, Sharon, Wis.

A PLEASANT LETTER.

It Rings of a Grateful Heart and gives Honor where Honor is Due.

Mr. William W. Chadwick, of Hatchville, Conn., writes under date of June 14, 1880, to Dr. Kennedy, to say that the use of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" has cured him of Gall stone, from which he had experienced everything but comfort for a long time. Mr. Chadwick felt wholly cured when he wrote, and says: "I have had no pain for six months, and have also regained my flesh and can stand a fair day's work. I recommend Kennedy's Favorite Remedy to any one suffering from a deranged liver." Grateful patients are common. Dr. Kennedy is daily in receipt of letters from them, expressing similar sentiments. These letters are spontaneous and put in all varieties of phraseology, but invariably setting forth one thing—the value of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for many forms of disease. It may be just the thing you have been looking for. Is your liver disordered? Have you derangement of the kidneys or bladder, associated with constipation of the bowels? If so, you want "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy." Dr. Kennedy practices medicine and surgery in all their branches. Write and state your case frankly. Letters promptly answered. Address Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.

WHEAT BITTERS.

THE BEST AND The Richest BLOOD, BRAIN and NERVE
-F-O-O-D-

CAREFULLY PREPARED, THOROUGHLY TESTED, ACCEPTABLE AND RELIABLE.

The Phosphates of the Wheat are its most valuable food property, and are, when properly prepared, the most acceptable nutriment with which to build up the system.

The Blood, Brain and Nerves are the forces which bear the strain of every day work and life, and in order to save sickness it is wise to BUILD FOR HEALTH.

Wheat Bitters are prepared, not by fermentation, but by cold and are richest in the Phosphates, while the starch and impure matter are eliminated. These make in themselves a basis, to which is added the best and choicest medicinal qualities, necessary to make it a tonic and bitter. It is at once healthful, pleasant to the taste and must not be confounded with the thousand and one cheap alcoholic bitters which are sold as curealls. Medicine is doubly effective when used with food, we use to nourish while it corrects.

Sold by druggists, $1.00 per bottle.

The Iowa Tornado.

The track of the recent tornado in Iowa began at Jefferson, ninety miles west of Grinnell, went eastward a few miles, then south, and kept the latter course to Marshall county, where it turned southeast, and then went straight to Grinnell, and thence to Iron Ridge, fourteen miles southeast of Brooklyn. Then it took a southerly turn to Henry county, and thence to Mount Pleasant, where it stopped, having travelled a distance of two hundred miles. The velocity of the storm was about sixty miles an hour.

A Des Moines despatch gives the following estimate of the damage by the cyclone: Boone county, $20,000; Story county, $30,000; Jasper county, $50,000; Poweshick county, $30,000; Keokuk county, $100,000; Henry county, $500,000; Mount Pleasant county, $700,000; Grinnell county, $600,000; Malcolm county, $180,000; Pocahontas county, $10,000; Chicago & Rock Island railroad, merchandise and property, $41,000; Iowa Central, $10,000; scattering damages, $305,000. Total, $2,576,000. Some estimate the loss at over $3,000,000.

Delicate Females.

The exactions of society, added to the cares of maternity and the household, have tested beyond endurance the frail constitutions which have been granted the majority of women. To combat this tendency to premature decline, no remedy in the world possesses the nourishing and strengthening properties of Malt Bitters. They enrich the blood, perfect digestion, stimulate the liver and kidneys, arrest ulcerative weaknesses, and purify and vitilize every function of the female system.

Michael J. Noonan, formerly of Dover, where his course as a member of the reform club made him odious and nearly destroyed the club, has been convicted in Lowell, Mass., of forging the name of his wife to a mortgage or deed. He his a scoundrel of the first water.

"Wheat Bitters" never disturb the stomach, but promote digestion and nourishment.

Enrich and revitalize the blood by using Brown's Iron Bitters.

S. Everett Crooker, aged twenty-one years, living at Hillsboro' lower village, went to Franklin on the night of June 21st, and was burned to death. He got drunk and was locked up, and during the night the lockup was destroyed by fire, he being the only inmate.

Catarrh of the Bladder.

Flies and Bugs.

Robert Rowe, wheelwright, and a prominent democrat and citizen of Brentwood, died in that town on the 23d inst.

The Perpetuity of Fame.

As the name of the immortal Washington has been most sacredly perpetuated as that of a hero and statesman, so also has the fame of Swayne's Ointment for skin diseases, descended into perpetuity as the only reliable remedy in the market, for every character of skin disorders, and as the reward of well-deserving merit. Worth and merit go hand-in-hand. It is useless to contradict the worth of this article.

J. Wilson Glover was killed by lightning, and his little son and daughter fatally injured, at Charleston, S. C., June 22d.

Summer Complaints

At this season, various diseases of the bowels are prevalent, and many lives are lost through lack of knowledge of a safe and sure remedy. PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is a sure cure for Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Summer Complaint, etc., and is perfectly safe.

Read the following:

BAINBRIDGE, N. Y., March 22, 1881.
PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER never fails to afford instant relief for cramp and pain in the stomach.
JONATHAN BEARDSLY.

NICHOLVILLE, N. Y., Feb. 2, 1881.
The very best medicine I know of for dysentery, cholera morbus, and cramps in the stomach. Have used it for years, and it is sure cure every time.
JULIUS W. DEE.

MONROEVILLE, IOWA, March 12, 1881.
I have used your PAIN KILLER in severe cases of cramp, colic and cholera morbus, and it gave almost instant relief. L. E. CALDWELL.

CARNESVILLE, GA., Feb. 28, 1881.
For twenty years I have used your PAIN KILLER in my family. Have used it many times for bowel complaints, and it always cures. Would not feel safe without a bottle in the house. J. R. IVIE.

BACO, ME., Jan. 23, 1881.
HAVE USED PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER for twelve years. It is safe, sure, and reliable. No mother should allow it to be out of the family.
E. I. NAYES.

ONEIDA, N. Y., Feb. 19, 1881.
We began using it over thirty years ago, and it always gives immediate relief. Would hardly dare to go to bed without a bottle in the house.
W. O. SPERRY.

COWYATHONG, S. C., Feb. 22, 1881.
Nearly every family in this section keeps a bottle in the house. DR. E. MORTON.

U. S. CONSULATE,
CREFELD, RHENISH PRUSSIA, Feb. 8, 1881.
I have known PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER almost from the day it was introduced, and after years of observation and use I regard its presence in my household as an indispensable necessity.
T. S. POTTER, U. S. Consul.

BURTON-CRESTY, ENG.
I had been several days suffering severely from diarrhœa, accompanied with cramps pain, when I tried your PAIN KILLER, and found almost instant relief. H. J. ROOPE.

21 MONTAGUE ST., LONDON, ENG.
During a residence of twenty-five years in India, I have given it in many cases of diarrhœa, dysentery, and cholera, and never knew it to fail to give relief. R. CLARIDGE.

No family can safely be without this invaluable remedy. Its price brings it within the reach of all.

THE
New Hampshire Gazette!

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

Oh, My Back!

That's a common expression and has a world of meaning. How much suffering is summed up in it.

The singular thing about it is, that pain in the back is occasioned by so many things. May be caused by kidney disease, liver complaint, consumption, cold, rheumatism, dyspepsia, overwork, nervous debility, &c.

Whatever the cause, don't neglect it. Something is wrong and needs prompt attention. No medicine has yet been discovered that will so quickly and surely cure such diseases as BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, and it does this by commencing at the foundation, and making the blood pure and rich.

Logansport, Ind. Dec. 7, 1880.

For a long time I have been a sufferer from stomach and kidney disease. My appetite was very poor and the very small amount I did eat disagreed with me. I was annoyed very much from non-retention of urine. I tried many remedies with no success, until I used Brown's Iron Bitters. Since I used that my stomach does not bother me any. My appetite is simply immense. My kidney trouble is no more, and my general health is such, that I feel like a new man. After the use of Brown's Iron Bitters for one month, I have gained twenty pounds in weight. O. B. SARGENT.

Leading physicians and clergymen use and recommend BROWN'S IRON BITTERS. It has cured others suffering as you are, and it will cure you.

SULPHUR BITTERS

THE GREAT

German Remedy.

TRUTHS FOR THE SICK.

For those deathly Bilious Spells, depend on SULPHUR BITTERS, it will cure you.

Ladies in delicate health, who are all run down, should use SULPHUR BITTERS.

The Giant Dyspepsia is cured by using SULPHUR BITTERS.

$1,000 will be paid for a case where SULPHUR BITTERS will not assist or cure. It never fails.

Operatives who are closely confined in the mills and workshops; Clerks, who do not procure sufficient exercise, and all who are confined in doors, should use SULPHUR BITTERS. They will not then be weak and sickly.

Cleanse the vitiated blood when you see its impurities burst-ing through the skin in Pimples, Blotches, and Sores. Rely on SULPHUR BITTERS, and health will follow.

General Debility needs a gentle tonic. Use SULPHUR BITTERS, and you will not be troubled.

Don't be without a bottle. Try it; you will not regret it.

SULPHUR BITTERS will build you up and make you strong and healthy.

Important Order Affecting Passenger Steamboats.

In view of the many fires which have occurred on passenger steamers, James H. Dumont, supervising inspector general of steamboats, has issued an order instructing local inspectors and other officials to prosecute passenger steamers on which naphtha, benzine, benzole, coal oil, crude or refined petroleum, or other like explosive burning fluids or dangerous articles are used for illuminating or other purposes. Steamboat owners are indignant at this order, saying that no instance of a boat catching fire from illuminating oil can be found in recent history. Of course, it will now be necessary to change the entire system of lighting steamboats, and a heavy expense will be entailed on every passenger boat, as new styles of lamps and fixtures, and new oil, will have to be purchased.

Some years ago there lived in a town of York county less than twenty miles from Portsmouth, a quaint old fellow who was known far and wide. The liquor law was in force, and one of his neighbors was brought before a justice to answer to a charge of violating it. "Jerry" was called to the stand as a witness for the state, and the following colloquy ensued: "Are you acquainted with the locality of Mr. Blank's store?" asked the prosecuting counsel. "Oh yes—yes, of course I am," was the reply. "Have you ever been in his store?" "Oh yes—yes, of course I have." "Have you ever seen any bottles in his store?" "Oh yes—yes, of course I have." "Do you know what was in those bottles?" "Oh yes—yes, of course I do." "Well, please tell the court what was in them." "Cork stoppers," was the answer—and no more questions were asked that witness.

A remarkable wave, eleven feet high and two miles wide, swept over Lake Erie on the 23d inst., without any apparent cause. Vessels at the docks in Cleveland, and buildings close to the shore, suffered considerably, but no damage was done to boats on the lake.

Handsome versus Homely.

Who is that fine looking lady that we just passed, Clara? Why, that is Mrs. Snow. Well, there, what a change; when I saw her last, her skin was so sallow and muddy looking, its no wonder I didn't know her. What has produced that lovely complexion? I heard she took Sulphur Bitters, the great blood purifier, and now would not be without them.

Iowa had another tornado June 22d, when seventy buildings were unroofed in Independence, and two persons killed.

Not an alcoholic beverage, but a true and reliable family medicine is Brown's Iron Bitters.

The store of the Pacific mills at Lawrence, Mass., took fire on Friday evening in the basement, and before the flames were extinguished damage to the amount of $500,000 was done, (the underwriters' agent says $100,000,) and one fireman was seriously injured.

A Good Foundation.

In American households the prevailing complaint are weakness of the stomach and its consequences, indigestion, nervousness and rheumatism. Such sufferers can lay a good foundation for health by using Parker's Ginger Tonic, as it tones up the stomach and nerves, and keeps the kidneys active to carry off the foul matter.—N. O. Picayune.

Obey Owen, for fifteen years receiving teller of the Third National bank of St. Louis, Mo., is a defaulter to the amount of over $100,000. He is under arrest, and confesses that he has been stealing for ten years.

Capt. Malloy of the Kansas City (Mo.) police force says: "We use St. Jacobs Oil for bruises, cuts, injuries, etc. incident to police business. I have used it myself with the most beneficial results, and the men are enthusiastic in their praises of it. I consider the great German remedy a truly marvelous substance completely fulfilling its every claim."

"An Odd Street Scene."

He was seen in front of the office rubbing himself against the telegraph post like a flea-bitten dog. "What is wrong?" we ventured to ask. "Gotem, 'gent," he said laconically; have 'em every spring, small lumps form about the rectum; sore to the touch; they itch like blazes; "a telegraph pole's like an oasis in the desert to me." Here then, was poor humanity suffering from a complaint which a few applications of Swayne's Ointment for itching piles, would have thoroughly eradicated.

Cuticura

THE NEW BLOOD PURIFIER

Resolvent

Mr. Albert Kingsbury, Keene, N. H., troubled with bad humor on hands and neck, caused by lead poisoning. (He's a painter.) At times it would break out, crack open, and the skin separate from the flesh in large pieces, suffering great continual itching and stinging. Purchased your remedies, used Cuticura Resolvent internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally, and in less than three months effected a complete cure, and has not been troubled since. Corroborated by Bullard & Foster, Druggists, Keene, N. H.

Mother Died from it.

J. W. Adams, Newark, Ohio, says: "Cuticura Remedies are the greatest medicine on earth. Had the worst case salt rheum in this county. My mother had it twenty years, and in fact died from it. I believe Cuticura would have saved her life. My arms, breast and head were covered for three years, which nothing relived or cured until I used the Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally.

Psoriasis.

H. E. Carpenter, Esq., Henderson, N. Y., cured of Psoriasis or Leprosy, of twenty years' standing, by the Cuticura Resolvent internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally. The most wonderful case on record. Cure certified to before a justice of the peace and prominent citizens. All afflicted with itching and scaly diseases should send to us for this testimonial in full.

Salt Rheum.

Those who have experienced the torments of Salt Rheum can appreciate the agony I endured for years, until cured by the Cuticura Resolvent internally and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally."

PATENTS!

R. H. EDDY,

No. 76 State St., Opposite Kilby, Boston.

SECURES PATENTS in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington. No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents.

Testimonials.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"Inventors cannot employ a person more trustworthy or more capable of securing for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

R. H. EDDY, Esq.,—Dear Sir: You procured for me, in 1846, my first patent. Since then you have acted for and advised me in hundreds of cases, and procured many patents, reissues and extensions. I have, occasionally, employed the best agencies in New York, Philadelphia and Washington, but I still give you almost the whole of my business, in your line, and advise others to employ you. Yours truly, GEORGE DRAPER.

STARTLING DISCOVERY!

LOST MANHOOD RESTORED.

A victim of youthful imprudence causing Premature Decay, Nervous Debility, Lost Manhood, etc., having tried in vain every known remedy, has discovered a simple self cure, which he will send FREE to his fellow-sufferers, address J. H. REEVES, 43 Chatham St., N. Y.

Perhaps no medicine is so universally required as a good cathartic. Swayne's Pills are prepared expressly to meet this necessity, being composed of purely vegetable ingredients, of which Podophyllin or Mandrake, Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock and other concentrated juices enter largely into their composition; the whole strength of which is extracted on an entirely new principle. They are mild in their operation, and are truly a valuable aperient and anti-bilious medicine. They stimulate the liver to healthy action, cleanse the stomach and bowels of all impurities. Curing sick and nervous headache, dyspepsia or indigestion, biliousness, fevers, drowsiness, colds, aching pains, slight chills, with flashes of heat, and female irregularities. For a bilious and costive habit, no medicine is so prompt and effectual. Mailed on receipt of price [in postage stamps,] 25 cents, or five boxes for $1. Address Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, Pa. Ask your Druggist for them.

Guiteau's Last Hope Gone.

The appeals to President Arthur for a reprieve for Guiteau, made by Col. Reed and others last week, and by the president referred to the attorney generel, were denied, the law officer reporting that there was no reason whatever for granting the requests. The marshal of the district and the warden of the jail were on Saturday morning instructed to keep the assassin in close confinement, and allow him to see only his religious adviser, his physician and the officers of the jail.

The Naval Appropriation Bill.

The New York Times, in alluding to the naval appropriation bill as reported to the house from the committee, says:

The United States own five iron-clads of the "monitor" class which have already cost the people over five millions of dollars, and to complete which, according to the plans of the navy department and the estimates of the contractors in whose hands they now are, will need as many millions more. It is extremely doubtful whether, when completed, these ships could be ranked as lighting machines of the second class; it is certain that for purposes of defense against even such a power as Chili they would be absolutely worthless. Yet the naval appropriation bill, as reported, contains an item of one million of dollars to be used, after a not very clearly defined fashion, in advancing our five monitors a step or two toward completion. Whether this resolution be the product of ignorance or jobbery, it is equally deserving of defeat. The hulks about whose future Mr. Robeson and his friends appear to have become suddenly anxious are as much out of date as the methods of naval administration which made their history what it is. The government will find cause to rue any attempt to make these vessels effective ships of war, as certainly as the republicans in Congress will make a disastrous blunder if they agree to saddle on their party the responsibility of continuing the series of jobs which have made the monitors a by-word and a reproach.

The bill seems to have been evolved in the interest of Mr. John Roach. The principle that a great country should entrust the head of the navy with power to close any dock-yard and place the department under the control of a contractor, is in its result, making our whole navy "fit for treasons, stratagems and spoils." Nothing could be more unwise than for Congress to adopt the propositions contained in the bill, whether in regard to iron-clads, the neglect of our wooden ships, or the programme as to promotions and disposition of officers. Indeed, it seems the work, not of any practical friend of the interests of the navy, but rather a blunder which at its first look seems close upon a crime. But Mr. Robeson's usual luck as a parliamentarian will perhaps be seen in this bill, and it will, before passage, be emasculated of its unfair proportions.

A SEALER'S ADVENTURE.

Capt. Dennis Mahoney, of Greenland, who a few weeks ago arrived home from a sealing voyage to Cape Horn in the schooner Express, of Stonington, Conn., has since his return had removed from his head a fragment of a spear which was driven into it in January, 1881, on the shore of a small island near Terra del Fuego, by one of a party of Fuegan Indians by whom he was attacked. Capt. Mahoney's account of his adventure is something as follows, and no one who knows him will question its truthfulness:

The schooner had left a sealing gang ashore at a selected point, and with only four or five men on board was working up the coast on her way to Sandy Point, Straits of Magellan, when the wind falling light she made a harbor near nightfall behind one of the numerous small islands, and Capt. Mahoney took a couple of men in the boat and went ashore to try and pick up a few skins by trading with the natives, who had been making a big smoke, the recognized signal to the vessel that they desired to trade.

There had been some trouble at a point further down the coast, the previous winter, between a gang of sealers and a tribe of natives, in which one white man was fatally wounded, and possibly some of the Indians killed. Not long after, a whaleboat's crew of the sealers, armed with Winchester rifles, while some distance from shore espied a ship's launch filled with natives—among them being a number of squaws and children—and gave chase, without being able to overhaul them for a long time, until a shot killed the old squaw who was steering, when the wretched creatures ceased all effort to escape, and making no attempt at resistance were pitilessly butchered by the Christians, not even a pickaninny being allowed to survive. None of Capt. Mahoney's men had anything to do with the heartless affair, and no memory of it recurred to him as he stepped out of his boat, and clambered up a steep, rocky bank thirty feet or more in height, to where the natives awaited him in ambush.

When but a short distance from the edge of the bank he was assailed by a shower of spears, one of which struck him on the side of the head, just forward of the left ear, and another in the abdomen, and a blow on the head with a club (as he supposes) knocked him down, he fortunately falling down the bank, and reaching the beach at the foot, bruised, dazed and bleeding, but still alive, and with sense enough left to stagger to the boat, when he drew his revolver and fired several shots, which probably had no other effect than to frighten the natives from further attack.

Capt. Mahoney at once gave up all thought of buying a seal skin; and devoutly thankful to get off with his own, (for damaged though it was, he still considered it of special value,) he was pulled aboard the schooner, and proceeded to mend himself to the best of his ability. The weapon which wounded him in the abdomen had pierced heavy trowsers and drawers, and six thicknesses of woollen shirt and undershirt, and he at first feared that the weapon was an arrow, which the natives tip with glass heads, rudely made from bottles or other glass vessels thrown away by white men; these arrow heads are apt to come off, and in consequence they are much more to be dreaded than spears, but though the wound left an ugly scar, it healed without occasioning serious inconvenience. A big gash on top of his head (caused either by a club or by his fall down the bank) also healed kindly, though it left a well defined mark. The numerous bruises occasioned him nothing more than annoyance.

The wound near the left ear was the most painful, and the hearing on that side seemed (and proved) to be entirely destroyed. In dressing the hurt he found some foreign substance in the passage of the ear, and the steward with the captain's dividers succeeded in extracting a piece of spear three-quarters of an inch long and three-sixteenths of an inch in diameter, which Capt. Mahoney now carries in his vest pocket, to remember the adventure by. The Fuegan spears are slender affairs, from twelve to fifteen inches long, made of very strong, hard bone; when used they are affixed to a heavy handle about eight feet long, with a swell in the middle and tapering at both ends, the Indians darting the weapons with one hand a long distance and with considerable accuracy; when darted, and striking with a sharp blow, they are quite effective, and Capt. Mahoney's escape with his life was no doubt due to the fact that his assailants were so close that they could not dart the spears, and held them in their hands when striking, so that only one of the many holes made in his outside clothing penetrated through to the skin. The spear which hit the side of his head was probably darted, and struck the bone where it was thick and hard enough to shatter the spear, and turn it outward through the ear, destroying the drum on the way.

The outside wound on the face soon healed, but the ear continued troublesome, and Capt. Mahoney was satisfied that there was still something there which had no business in the head of a reputable citizen. Since his return home, in conversation one day with Mayor Sise, he expressed his intention of going to the Massachusetts General hospital for treatment, when Col. Sise suggested the advisability of first consulting a skillful surgeon in this city, and the twain at once called upon Dr. J. W. Parsons, who in less than ten minutes placed in Capt. Mahoney's hand a bit of spear about half an inch long; the captain now has good hope that the wound will give him no further serious trouble, though the hearing of that ear is of course hopelessly gone.

Our old friend and companion, Dennis, at the end of twenty-five or thirty years of hardship and isolation as a sealer in the desolate southern seas, seems to be still the same good tempered, jovial, charitable-minded person he was when we toiled together on a farm in Newington thirty years or so ago, and kept the boss in a chronic state of astonishment at the amount of work we could leave over to be done next day; the principal difference we see in him is that it now takes him more time to comb his beard, and much less time to comb his hair, than it did then; and as at the end of an hour's social chat he closed the narration from which we have written the foregoing, he remarked:

"I don't blame the poor devils a bit. I was kind o' mad about it at first, but when I got cooled off, and considered the provocation the poor creatures had had, I didn't want to hurt 'em, and never tried to hunt 'em down at all. But in this case, as it generally is in rows between white men and savages, it wasn't the one who deserved punishment that got it."

Freights last week were quoted as follows: Cement to this port from Rondout, N. Y., at twenty-seven cents per bbl.; coal from Elizabethport to this port, $1.30, and to Newburyport, $1.40, per ton. A schooner from Poughkeepsie to this port, with sand, was chartered at $1.65 per ton.

The Newmarket Manufacturing Co. pays a dividend of $15 per share, July 1st.

LIEBIG MALT EXTRACT.

RECOMMENDED BY PHYSICIANS of the highest eminence on both sides of the Atlantic, as an invaluable Tonic and Restorative in cases of General Debility, Nervous Depression, Enfeebled Constitution and Female Weakness.

NURSING MOTHERS, who suffer from poverty of milk, will find it a specific for their trouble. It stimulates the digestion, sharpens the appetite, invigorates and builds up the entire system, and excites a generous flow of milk.

WEAK AND SICKLY CHILDREN, who suffer from lassitude and wretchedness, the result of disease, over-study, or nervous strain, will derive substantial benefit from its use. It renews the system to its normal condition and brings back the bloom of youth.

INVALIDS AND CONVALESCENTS will find it admirably adapted for sustaining life, and restoring lost strength. When the stomach is weak and refuses other nourishment the Extract will prove an excellent substitute for food. It neither palls upon the appetite nor offends the taste.

DELICATE FEMALES, who suffer from the weakness of their sex, will derive lasting relief from its use. It improves the digestion, purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, and revives the spirits.

WEAK AND DELICATE PERSONS GENERALLY, who require some artificial restorative—and especially those who are confined to Cotton Mills—will find this preparation exactly suited to their needs. It is a specific for the Coughs and Nervous Affections usually incident to a low state of the system.

AS A FLESH RESTORER it possesses the highest value. The whole tendency of its action is to stimulate the digestion of fat-producing foods, and its effect is invariably to give fullness and roundness to the female form, and robustness to the masculine frame.

THE LIEBIG MALT EXTRACT is a pure concentrated Fluid Extract of Malt, agreeable to the taste, and free from alcohol. It is readily retained on the stomach and contains none but wholesome and nourishing ingredients. The genuine preparation bears on the label a flag captured at Bazeilles, vor Laxaire, and a facsimile of his Signature, as well as that of A. YOGELER & CO., BALTIMORE, Md., Sole Agents for America.

LIFE INSURANCE!

The Semi-Endowment Policy of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is believed to be the most desirable plan of insurance ever offered.

Among its advantages are: A definitely guaranteed cash value at a specified time. A paid-up policy for full value in case of discontinuance. Its period (20 years) covers the productive years of life, when insurance is mostly needed. It provides for old age. Above the age of 40 the rates are less than for life policies in other companies, while below 40 they are but little in excess of ordinary life premiums.

Parties insured in Co-operative Societies are requested to compare the net cost of these policies with that of assessment insurance.

THE PATENT VALVE FIGHT.

Mayor Sise on Friday met the mayors of Dover, Manchester, Nashua, Concord, Boston and other New England cities in the mayor's office at the Boston city hall, to make arrangements for "pooling the issues" of all the cities in the coming fight with Marcus P. Norton, who has sued the several cities for very large sums for an alleged infringement on an alleged patent valve for steam fire engines, known as the Knibbs patent valve. Mayor Green of Boston presided at the meeting, which was held with closed doors. Most of the Boston aldermen, the corporation counsel, and Fire Commissioner Fitzgerald, were present. The principal business transacted was the passage of the following resolution:

Resolved, That in the opinion of the representatives of the several New England municipalities present, the matter of suits brought by Norton against cities and town for an alleged infringement of a patent for steam engine valves should be contested to the fullest extent of the law.

The resolution passed unanimously, and all the city representatives present declared that they were authorized to fight the suit to the bitter end. It was also voted that the city solicitors of all cities sued should be authorized to make arrangements for trial, hire legal talent, etc.

There is a good deal that seems queer about this sudden raid on the treasuries of the cities. The alleged patent has expired, and so far as has been made public there is no pretence that any city using engines having the pretended patent valve was ever notified that such use was an infringement of a patent; the engines were bought in open market, at full market prices; and not only did the cities not know, but it was impossible that they could have found out had they tried, that there was any patent on the valve. The manufacturers of steam fire engines—men especially interested in not infringing on any patent—knew nothing of any patent on this valve, and were as much astonished as the cities were when the suits were commenced.

When the Norton raid was first announced we applied to a former engineer of the Portsmouth fire department, a skillful mechanic and a gentleman of more than ordinary intelligence, for information as to what particular valve it was which was disputed about, and he informed us that it had never been used by the Portsmouth fire department, having been tested a few years ago, but not approued; he supposed the suit was brought on account of another patent valve, not imagining that a valve which he had for many years seen freely used was the one in dispute. The following, which we clip from an exchange in the interior of the state, is the first description of the famous Knibbs patent valve that we have seen:

The Knibbs-Norton patent valve is on the pump which takes the water from the engine's reservoir, which is under the driver's seat, and forces it into the boiler. The pump on the engine is just inside, between the wheels, and when the machinery is in motion and water is necessary in the boiler, the engineer opens the valve by turning a gate, thus allowing the water to circulate about the pump. This allows the overflow to return to the reservoir, and removes the pressure from the air chamber of the engine which would otherwise burst by a half-dozen, more or less, strokes of the piston. The oldest and best posted mechanics in New Hampshire say the principle is nothing new; that it has been in use in Nashua in connection with stationary engines more than forty years.

It is proclaimed by the Norton-Knibbs crowd that the city of Troy, N. Y., has paid $63,000 on account of this patent valve; and that the city of New York has been cast in the courts, and will have to pay a sum away up in the millions. Possibly these statements may be true,—the city of Troy has long been notorious for the corruption of its city government; but that a suit involving nearly every city in the union, and scores of millions of dollars, could be carried through the courts to a final judgment without a word being heard of it by the public, we do not believe, unless it was done by some hocus-pocus means which will not bear the light nor the decision of a jury.

We would prefer to fight this iniquitous claim against the city to the full amount of the claim, even though it had to be paid in the end, rather than to submit to a demand which, though it may turn out to be legal, is outrageously unjust; and in saying this we believe we voice the opinion of all our citizens. The city government will be fully sustained in fighting Messrs. Knibbs, Norton and their pals to the end.

POLICE COURT.

SATURDAY, June 24; Batchelder J.

Baron Stowe Laskey was before the court for drunkenness, and the offence was proved; but it appeared that he had kept the pledge for nearly four years, so he was allowed to go on probation, on signing the pledge again.

To-morrow evening, at eight o'clock sharp, strawberries, cake, etc., will be served, free of charge, to all members of the different temperance organizations of this city, at Golden Cross hall on Daniel street.

On the 5th of July next Mr. William T. Frye, proprietor of the cooper's shop at No. 40 Bow street, will complete his fifty-second year of continuous service in that shop, as apprentice, journeyman and proprietor. He learned his trade with the late Deacon Day, then proprietor of the establishment, and says the shop looks just about the same now as it did when he first entered it. For long continuance in business in one location, we doubt if there is a parallel case to be found in the city.

The schooner John Lenthall, Mathews master, recently made the quickest passage on record between New York and Exeter, leaving New York on Tuesday and arriving at Exeter on Friday, in seventy-two hours from port to port, with two hundred tons of coal for the Exeter Coal Co.

Lately quite a number of valuable dogs have been poisoned in this city and vicinity, by some person or persons unknown. Throwing poisoned meats around the city is a mean and contemptible thing to commit, and the person who would do such an act is fully as low and sneaking as any door-mat thief.

Mr. John L. O. Coleman has purchased from the Rice estate, in Kittery, a lot of antique furniture—chairs, bureaus, etc.; also some old ceramic ware, and a large and curiously-carved paddle brought from the South Sea islands many years ago by Dr. Chase of the navy, and supposed to be over a century old. The paddle and some of the other articles can be seen at the store of C. Dwight Hanscom & Co., Franklin buildings.

Daniel Hurley, the man who was before the police court of this city on Wednesday of last week for drunkenness, and was "allowed to go on prohibition," on his earnest request and promise to leave the city, turned up in Haverhill, Mass., Saturday night, suffering from "horrors" of the worst kind. An offer from the city marshal of Haverhill to City Marshal Entwistle, to send Hurley back to this city if desired, was respectfully but emphatically declined.

The Hotel Bartlett at York beach opens on Saturday, July 1st. Probably some of the other seaside hotels in this vicinity may be ready to open by that time.

Saturday was the warmest day of the season, up to that date. Just how high the thermoneter went up we cannot say, but the workmen on the Concord railroad wharf had to cease labor for several hours at midday. Saturday night was more sultry and uncomfortable than any previous one this year, and early Sunday morning there was a brisk shower, with some very loud, rattling claps of thunder; it was reported on Sunday that one flash of lightning struck the premises of Mr. John P. Cooper at Newcastle.

Sir Knight Calvin Page, eminent commander of De Witt Clinton Commandry of Knights Templar of this city, and a number of the members, accompanied Pilgrim Commandry of Lowell, Mass., on their excursion to Hampton beach on Saturday, (St. John's day,) as guests of Newburyport Commandry.

The ceilings and walls of the banking rooms of the Rockingham national bank are being frescoed by Shumacher.

The schooner Mary J. Adams, at C. E. Walker & Co.'s wharf, Saturday, was receiving some slight repairs under the superintendence of Mr. Warren Keen.

At the annual meeting of the State Medical society, last week, Dr. A. H. Crosby of Concord was elected president, and Dr. John W. Parsons of this city vice president. Dr. Parsons was also chosen chairman of the executive committee. Dr. Daniel W. Jones of this city was chosen one of the delegates to Dartmouth college.

The graduating exercises of the high school will be held Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock, in the school building. The reception by the graduating class will be held in Franklin hall in the evening.

The Vandalia lies at the navy yard wharf just astern of the Plymouth; she is the successor in the navy of the sailing-ship Vandalia, once a receiving ship at this station. The original Vandalia was built at Philadelphia in 1828.

George Walsh, a brakeman on the Eastern railroad, while coupling cars at Somerville, Mass., last Friday morning, and his skull fractured. A hawser with heavy iron hooks attached, was being used to connect two heavily laden cars, had the tension on the hawser cased one of the hooks to slip and fly so as to strike the unfortunate brakeman on the head. Walsh was taken to the Massachusetts General hospital, where he died in the evening.

Oak Hall Agency in Portsmouth.

Messrs. G. W. Simmons & Son, of Oak Hall, Boston, have established an agency for this city and vicinity for the sale of their custom and ready made men's and boys' clothing, at No. 33 Market street, Portsmouth, where anything contained at Oak Hall, Boston, can be procured, at the same prices as in Boston. Several dollars can be saved by buying your own and your children's clothing at the Oak Hall Agency, as they sell at the lowest prices in New England.

By yellow teeth and falling gums,
And mouth and lips all hot and hard,
And breath deep-tainted as it comes;
And yet, with SOZODONT, we may
Keep all these dire defects at bay.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. "It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere Twenty-five cents a bottle. eod&wtjans2

A PLEASANT LETTER.

It Rings of a Grateful Heart and gives Honor where Honor is Due.

Mr. William W. Chadwick, of Hatchville, Conn., writes under date of June 14, 1880, to Dr. Kennedy, to say that the use of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" has cured him of Gall stone, from which he had experienced everything but comfort for a long time. Mr. Chadwick felt wholly cured when he wrote, and says: "I have had no pain for six months, and have also regained my flesh and can stand a fair day's work. I recommend Kennedy's Favorite Remedy to any one suffering from a deranged liver." Grateful patients are common. Dr. Kennedy is daily in receipt of letters from them, expressing similar sentiments. These letters are spontaneous and put in all varities of phraseology, but invariably setting forth one thing—the value of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for many forms of disease. It may be just the thing you have been looking for. Is your liver disordered? Have you derangement of the kidneys or bladder, associated with constipation of the bowels? If so, you want "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy." Dr. Kennedy practices medicine and surgery in all their branches. Write and state your case frankly. Letters promptly answered. Address Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.

WHEAT BITTERS

The Great LIQUID FOOD

FOR BLOOD, BRAIN AND NERVES.

IT'S A SUPERIOR NUTRITIVE MEDICINE, RICH IN PHOSPHATES AND NOT A CHEAPY, ALCOHOLIC DRINK—21 Highly recommended by Chemists and Physicians as

A POSITIVE TONIC, ALWAYS ACCEPTABLE AND RELIABLE, as it does not stimulate like brain or irritate the system and leave deleterious effects. On the contrary, it furnishes just that which is necessary to the brain, strengthens and quiets the nerves, purifies the human blood, and thereby makes only the best food, blood and nerves. It's a tonic, invigorator, curing NERVOUS and GENERAL DEBILITY, MALARIA, DYSPEPSIA, INSOMNIA. Produces a healthy action of the Liver and Kidneys, fortifying the system against the rheumatic influences, and will be found invaluable in all pulmonary and bronchial diseases. DELICATE FEMALES, NURSING MOTHERS and WEAKLY CHILDREN can find no remedy equal to this healthful blood and nerve food tonic. It's sold by all Druggists. $1.00 per bottle. Prepared only by WHEAT BITTERS CO., Office 19 Park Place, New York City.

Mr. Herriman's Family.

James Herriman, of Moretown, Vt., whose wife presented him with four children at one birth some days ago, received notice a few days later from attorneys at Montpelier that the government (by way of encouraging his efforts to replenish the army) had granted him a pension with arrears of $420. He says that the pension was granted on the day of the children's birth, and he congratulates himself on doing a good day's work, which he figures as follows:

Three boys, $1000 each,	$3000
One girl, $500,	500
Pension with back pay,	420
	$3920

Mr. Herriman is a poor man, dependent upon his labor, which is impaired on account of a wound which he received at the battle of the Wilderness, for which he has now received a pension. His house is thronged by hundreds, who go to see his six babies, of which four are the new ones, and two sixteen months old. He has already received over $100 in presents, and a cow, from the neighbors and visitors. Mrs. Herriman is about thirty years of age. Her mother and grandmother are living near her. The grandmother had seventeen children, and five of the boys served in the army. Mrs. Herriman's mother also had a large family. This private family affair of Mr. Herriman has created great excitement in that community, and persons travel many miles to view the "litter" of children. Enterprising showmen have already proposed to place the mother and children on exhibition, but the father has declined to entertain their offers.—Vermont paper.

At Biddeford, Friday afternoon, Nahum Morrison descended one of the oil vats of the Laconia company's gas works for the purpose of cleaning it out, and not answering the call of other workmen, a boy was sent down, who found him apparently dead. The Perpetuity of Fame.

As the name of the immortal Washington has been most sacredly perpetuated as that of a hero and statesman, so also has the fame of Swayne's Ointment for skin diseases, descended into perpetuity as the only reliable remedy in the market, for every character of skin disorders, and as the reward of well-deserving merit. Worth and merit go hand-in-hand. It is useless to contradict the worth of this article.

Sheared sheep skins 25 @ 40c each.
Lamb skins 50 @ 75c each.

Trade for common grades of cattle has been more active than it was one week ago, and small lots were sold quick at advance in prices over those realized on the previous market day. Extra cattle were not in so good demand, and prices obtained for them were 1½c ℔ lower than our last quotations. The supply of cattle in market from the west was light, and nearly all were sold out early in the day on Tuesday, mostly to butchers.

Working Oxen—The call for them at present is very light, a few pairs each week being all the market requires. We note sales of 1 pr, girth 6 ft 6 in, live weight 2000 ℔s, $110; 1 pr, girth 6 ft 10 in, 2850 ℔s, $135.

Milch Cows and Springers—Extra $50 @ 75; ordinary $35 @ $45; springers $30 @ 65; farrow cows $35 @ 50 ℔ head. Only a moderate demand for good cows. We note sales of 3 new milch cows at $42; 2 at $47; 1 at $55; 2 springers at $35 each; 2 farrows at 30 each.

Veal Calves—Prices range from 4 @ 7½c ℔ ℔ live weight.

Sheep and Lambs—Western sheep and lambs were all owned by butchers and taken direct from the cars to be slaughtered, sheep coming from 6 @ 6½c, lambs 7½ @ 8½c ℔ ℔ live weight, landed at Brighton.

Swine—Store Pigs—Spring pigs 22 @ 26 ℔ head. Shoats 6 @ 16c ℔ ℔ live weight. Fat hogs cost, landed at the slaughter house, 7½ @ 8½c ℔ ℔, live weight.

A RELIABLE REMEDY FOR ALL DISEASES OF THE SKIN, SUCH AS TETTER, BLOTCHES, RINGWORM, ERYSIPELAS, BARBERS' ITCH, SORES, ECZEMA, &c.

Summer Complaints

At this season, various diseases of the bowels are prevalent, and many lives are lost through lack of knowledge of a safe and sure remedy. PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is a sure cure for Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Summer Complaint, etc., and is perfectly safe.

Read the following:

BAINBRIDGE, N. Y., March 22, 1881.
PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER never fails to afford instant relief for cramp and pain in the stomach. JOSEPH HUMPHREY.

NICHOLVILLE, N. Y., Feb. 2, 1881.
The very best medicine I know of for dysentery, cholera morbus, and cramps in the stomach. Have used it for years, and it is sure every time. JULIUS W. DEE.

MONMOUTH, IOWA, March 15, 1881.
I have used your PAIN KILLER in severe cases of cramp, colic and cholera morbus, and it prove d almost instant relief. L. E. CALDWELL.

CANNESVILLE, GA., Feb. 28, 1881.
For twenty years I have used your PAIN KILLER in my family. Have used it many times for bowel complaints, and it always cures. Would not feel safe without a bottle in the house. J. B. TYE.

SACO, ME., Jan. 22, 1881.
Have used PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER for twelve years. It is safe, sure, and reliable. No mother should allow it to be out of the family. W. I. NAYES.

ONEIDA, N. Y., Feb. 19, 1881.
We began using it over thirty years ago, and it always gives immediate relief. Would hardly dare to go to bed without a bottle in the house. W. O. SPERRY.

CONWATBORO, S. C., Feb. 22, 1881.

U. S. CONSULATE,
CREFELD, RHENISH PRUSSIA, Feb. 8, 1881.
I have known PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER almost from the day it was introduced, and after years of observation and use I regard its presence in my household as an indispensable necessity. I. S. POTTER, U. S. Consul.

BURTON-ON-TRENT, ENG.
I had been several years suffering severely from diarrhœa, accompanied with intense pain, when I tried your PAIN KILLER, and found almost instant relief. H. J. NOONE.

21 MONTAGUE ST., LONDON, ENG.
During a residence of twenty-three years in India, I have given it in many cases of diarrhœa, dysentery, and cholera, and never knew it to fail to give relief. R. CLARIDGE.

No family can safely be without this invaluable remedy. Its price brings it within the reach of all.

For sale by all druggists at 25c., 50c. and $1.00 per bottle.

THE

New Hampshire Gazette!

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire News; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

— THE —

NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Contains more original matter

Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a weekly invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

Oh, My Back!

That's a common expression and has a world of meaning. How much suffering is summed up in it.

The singular thing about it is, that pain in the back is occasioned by so many things. May be caused by kidney disease, liver complaint, consumption, cold, rheumatism, dyspepsia, overwork, nervous debility, &c.

Whatever the cause, don't neglect it. Something is wrong and needs prompt attention. No medicine has yet been discovered that will so quickly and surely cure such diseases as BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, and it does this by commencing at the foundation, and making the blood pure and rich.

Logansport, Ind. Dec. 1, 1880.

For a long time I have been a sufferer from stomach and kidney disease. My appetite was very poor and the very small amount I did eat disagreed with me. I was annoyed very much from non-retention of urine. I tried many remedies with no success, until I used Brown's Iron Bitters. Since I used that my stomach does not bother me any. My appetite is simply immense. My kidney trouble is no more, and my general health is such, that I feel like a new man. After the use of Brown's Iron Bitters for one month, I have gained twenty pounds in weight. O. B. SARGENT.

Leading physicians and clergymen use and recommend BROWN'S IRON BITTERS. It has cured others suffering as you are, and it will cure you.

SULPHUR BITTERS

THE GREAT

German Remedy.

TRUTHS FOR THE SICK.

For those deathly Bilious Spells, depend on SULPHUR BITTERS, it will cure you.

Ladies in delicate health, who are all run down, should use SULPHUR BITTERS.

The Giant Dyspepsia is cured by using SULPHUR BITTERS.

$1,000 will be paid for a case where SULPHUR BITTERS will not assist or cure. It never fails.

Operatives who are closely confined in the mills and workshops; Clerks, who do not procure sufficient exercise, and all who are confined in doors, should use SULPHUR BITTERS. They will not then be weak and sickly.

Cleanse the vitiated blood when you see its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Blotches, and Sores. Rely on SULPHUR BITTERS, and health will follow.

General Debility needs a gentle tonic. Use SULPHUR BITTERS, and you will not be troubled.

Don't be without a bottle. Try it; you will not regret it.

SULPHUR BITTERS will build you up and make you strong and healthy.

A female mill operative in Salmon Falls was struck in the eye by a flying shuttle a few days since, the blow driving the eyeball from its socket and destroying the sight.

Deacon Jeremiah Chamberlain, a well known and highly respected citizen of Brookfield, about seventy-five years of age, was burned to death on Saturday while engaged in burning brush heaps in his pasture. He was absent from the house but a short time before he was discovered by his wife. He was lying among the partially consumed brush, burned beyond recognition.

While four boys, the oldest thirteen years old and the others about eight, were "fooling" in a boat on the Cocheco river at Dover, Saturday afternoon, the craft capsized, and one of them, named Harry Wallingford, son of Calvin Wallingford, an engineer in the Cocheco mills, was drowned.

The brick and kiln sheds of Natt & F. W. Head, at Hooksett, were burned June 23d, with fifty cords of woods, wagons, tools, etc.; loss $2500. Eli Poore, an employe, was badly burned about the head.

Ellery Albee, the defaulting cashier of the Ashuelot savings bank, was taken to the jail at Manchester on Saturday. The prisoner, who is sick, was given a special car and accompanied by guards and attendants. He bore the journey without serious fatigue.

Mr. Thomas Chase, Jr., of Seabrook, was awakened about midnight, Friday night, by the lifting of the latch on the door leading to the cellar; he at once surmised that some intruder was in the house, and on looking out saw that the cellar case was open. Getting his gun, which was loaded for geese, he took up a position outside the house where he could make things lively for the burglars when they should attempt to escape, and then signalled to Mrs. Chase to make a loud demonstration inside, which she did; but no thieves came out of the cellar case, and subsequent investigation shew that they had vanished through a window on the other side of the house.

The woman with whom Michael J. Noonan, the Dover "reformer," lived in that city after deserting his lawful wife in Lowell, Mass., has left Dover, and the Democrat of that city says it is reported that "her children have been adopted by a family in Portsmouth."

—Gus De Smith called at a fashionable house a few days ago, and acted so queerly that when the lady's husband came home she said: "What is the matter with De Smith? He acted so strangely. I think there must be a screw loose about him somewhere." "Reckon not. I saw him this morning, and he was tight all over."

"An Odd Street Scene."

He was seen in front of the office rubbing himself against the telegraph post like a flea-bitten dog. "What is wrong?" we ventured to ask. "Gotem, 'gent," he said laconically; have 'em every spring, small lumps form about the rectum; sore to the touch; they itch like blazes; "a telegraph pole's like an oasis in the desert to me." Here then, was poor humanity suffering from a complaint which a few applications of Swayne's Ointment for itching piles, would have thoroughly eradicated.

Cuticura

THE NEW BLOOD PURIFIER

Resolvent

Mr. Albert Kingsbury, Keene, N. H., troubled with bad humor on hands and neck, caused by lead poisoning. (He's a painter.) At times it would break out, crack open, and the skin separate from the flesh in large pieces, suffering great continual itching and stinging. Purchased your remedies, used Cuticura Resolvent internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally, and in less than three months effected a complete cure, and has not been troubled since. Corroborated by Bullard & Foster, Druggists, Keene, N. H.

Mother Died from it.

J. W. Adams, Newark, Ohio, says: "Cuticura Remedies are the greatest medicine on earth. Had the worst case salt rheum in this county. My mother had it twenty years, and in fact died from it. I believe Cuticura would have saved her life. My arms, breast and head were covered for three years, which nothing relived or cured until I used the Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally.

Psoriasis.

H. E. Carpenter, Esq., Henderson, N. Y., cured of Psoriasis or Leprosy, of twenty years' standing, by the Cuticura Resolvent internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally. The most wonderful case on record. Cure certified to before a justice of the peace and prominent citizens. All afflicted with itching and scaly diseases should send to us for this testimonial in full.

Salt Rheum.

Those who have experienced the torments of Salt Rheum can appreciate the agony I endured for years, until cured by the Cuticura Resolvent internally and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally.

MRS. WM. PELLINGTON, Sharon, Wis.

CATARRH

Sanford's Radical Cure.

A single dose instantly relieves the most violent sneezing or head colds, clears the head as by magic, stops watery discharges from the nose and eyes, prevents ringing noises in the head, cures nervous headache and subdues chills and fever. In chronic catarrh it cleanses the nasal passages of foul mucus, restores the senses of smell, taste and hearing when affected, frees the head, throat and bronchial tubes of offensive matter, sweetens and purifies the breath, stops the cough and arrests the progress of catarrh towards consumption.

One bottle Radical Cure, one box Catarrhal Solvent and one Dr. Sanford's Inhaler, in one pack age, of all druggists, for $1. Ask for Sanford's Radical Cure. WEEKS & POTTER, Boston.

PATENTS!

R. H. EDDY,

No. 76 State St., Opposite Kilby, Boston,

SECURES PATENTS in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington. No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents.

Testimonials.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"Inventors cannot employ a person more trustworthy or more capable of securing for them as early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, October 29, 1870.

R. H. EDDY, Esq.,—Dear Sir: You procured for me, in 1840, my first patent. Since then you have acted for and advised me in hundreds of cases, and procured many patents, reissues and extensions. I have, occasionally, employed the best agencies in New York, Philadelphia and Washington, but I still give you almost the whole of my business, in your line, and advise others to employ you. Yours truly, GEORGE CRAPPER.

STARTLING DISCOVERY!

LOST MANHOOD RESTORED.

A victim of youthful imprudence causing Premature Decay, Nervous Debility, Lost Manhood, etc., having tried in vain every known remedy, has discovered a simple self cure, which he will send FREE to his fellow-sufferers. Address J. H. REEVES, 43 Chatham St., N. Y.

Perhaps no medicine is so universally acquired as a good cathartic. Swayne's Pills are prepared expressly to meet this necessity, being composed of purely vegetable ingredients, of which Podophyllin or Mandrake, Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock and other concentrated juices enter largely into their composition; the whole strength of which is extracted on an entirely new principle. They are mild in their operation, and are truly a valuable aperient and anti-bilious medicine. They stimulate the liver to healthy action, cleanse the stomach and bowels of all impurities. Curing sick and nervous headache, dyspepsia or indigestion, biliousness, fevers, drowsiness, colds, aching pains, slight chills, with flashes of heat, and female irregularities. For a bilious and costive habit, no medicine is so prompt and effectual. Mailed on receipt of price [in postage stamps,] 25 cents, or five boxes for $1. Address Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, Pa. Ask your Druggist for them.

Official List of Patents

Granted to citizens of New Hampshire, for the week ending June 20th:

[Compiled weekly expressly for this paper.]

"Manchester's Opportunity."

Mr. Wm. E. Chandler, after the kind hospitalities extended to him by the treasurer of the Manchester & Lawrence railroad at the Revere house dinner, is moved to tell the citizens of Manchester what a nice opportunity they have to take his elephantine lawsuit off his hands, and multiply the cost of transportation to and from Manchester by increasing the cost of doing the business of freighting to that city.

Mr. Chandler has thus far been unable to persuade the solid men of Manchester, or the solid men of Boston who own largely in the corporate property at the Amoskeag, that the interests of the factory and industrial elements of Manchester, and of the railways leading into that city, were not identical.

It is true that the management of these railway lines is conservative; that but little is done, for example, to increase local travel between this city and Manchester and the north, which would be largely developed by midday trains either way, especially in the summer months; but it is also certain that a long law suit resulting in establishing apparently contesting and competing lines would be followed by a consolidation of receipts or by some process within the bounds of judicial decisions, but with no better results for the small freighters than is caused by the club held aloft in the air which hangs over the "consolidated" line to-day. Mr. Chandler's invitation to the fly is well couched. He has interspersed the sweet lullaby of the foaming waters of the Amoskeag, with the fish commission of the noble red man looking after salmon, but as a practical treatise on the possibilities of Manchester, or as a judicious piece of legal advice tendered without a fee, it hardly commends itself to the economic considerations of a city whose people have too often admired the disinterested suggestions of their Penacook neighbors without adopting them.

News and Notes.

Guiteau's death warrant was on Saturday signed by Judge Cartter, and it was sent to Warden Crocker on Monday. It directs the assassin to be hung on Friday, June 30th, between the hours of twelve o'clock, noon, and two o'clock P. M.

The revenue steamer Thomas Corwin arrived at San Francisco June 23d, with the crew of the burned Arctic steamer Rodgers.

A construction train was wrecked at Atwater, Minn., June 24th, going down an embankment into eight feet of water, smashing the engine and twenty-two cars, and killing the engineer and ten laborers, besides wounding many more.

Engineer Melville writes from Yakutsk, Russia, under the date of April 10th: "I have searched the coast from the river Alanck to the river Jena, but have found no traces of the second cutter or Lieut. Chipp's party. I am now en route to Irkutsk."

The body of P. J. Devins, of Lowell, Mass., who was drowned in the Merrimac river last November while endeavoring to avoid arrest for stealing a team, was found in the river on the 25th inst.

Willie Stone, nineteen years old, was drowned in Auburn, Me., Saturday evening, while bathing. A Russian peddler named Volster was drowned Sunday evening at Bangor, while bathing.

A four-years-old son of Geo. S. Jackson of Greenfield, Mass., fell into a tub of hot water Saturday afternoon, and was scalded to death.

Charles Eliot, aged twenty years, was drowned in a pond at Winchester, Mass., Saturday. Charles H. Newell, aged twenty-seven years, was drowned in the Connecticut river at Springfield, Mass., and Gustave Dietrich was drowned at Dracut, the same day.

The body of James Stafford of Lawrence, Mass., missing for two weeks, was found in the brush near the riding park on Sunday. It is believed he committed suicide by poison.

AROUND HOME.

The steamship City of Berlin, on which Miss A. C. Morgan and party took passage from New York for Europe, arrived at Queenstown, Ireland, June 25th.

Alderman A. K. W. Green commenced making hay on Saturday, on his Water street farm.

Mr. C. E. Boynton's workmen have bought of Mr. Leander White, of Newcastle, a sloop yacht twenty-two feet long, built in Gloucester, Mass.; she is of good capacity, is half-decked, and looks like a good boat. Capt. Tom Jones will act as sailing master. She will be known as the "Parnell Jr."

Palestine Commandry, No. 18, Knights Templar, of New York city, Thomas B. Rand eminent commander, arrived in Boston on Friday morning last, and remained through the day Saturday, as guests of De Molay Commandry of Boston. Sir Knight Rand is a native of this city.

The schooner Harry P. Percy, some time ago reported as having foundered near the Long island coast while on the way from a coal port to Dover with a cargo of black diamonds, was towed into New London, Conn., on the 18th inst., having been raised by Capt. Scott of the Coast Wrecking Co. Both the schooner's masts were gone, and she was leaking badly; but she may prove to be worth repairing, in which case she will possibly again engage in the Dover coal-carrying trade, in which she has been employed every summer for the past four years.

One day last week a well-dressed man, evidently a stranger in the city, and who it was equally evident had been wrestling with some of our Portsmouth beverages, was walking down Congress street on its southerly side, and on arriving in front of National block halted and addressed an enquiry to a "dummy" used for the display of ready made clothing, which was standing at one side of one of the entrances to the store in the lower story of the block. Of course he received no answer, and in his indignation forgot the good manners he had previously displayed, and announced his willingness to "flatten the nose" of the dummy or any other man who insulted him; and a moment later he proved his earnestness by giving the dummy a blow which knocked it into the middle of the store, and caused its nose to have a decided cant to one side. Discovering his mistake he was profuse in his apologies to the storekeepers, and the unlucky dummy was soon on its feet again.

At the Pepperell house, Kittery Point, all the rooms are engaged for the season, and a good number of them already occupied; the cottages as yet await engagement. The tablet to Sir William Pepperell, near the avenue leading from the highway to the hotel, is much disfigured by initials cut in the soft marble,—some of the marks being old, and others quite recent; it is said that most of the initials have been cut by persons from yachts anchored in Pepperell's cove at different times.

A statement was recently published to the effect that a seaman on board the schooner Ocean Eagle, of Wells, fell from the masthead while at sea, and was killed. Capt. D. F. Maxwell, of Ogunquit, who commands the Ocean Eagle, says the story is not true; he has been sailing the seas for forty-eight years, never had a man killed by a fall or lost overboard during that time, and with one exception never lost a man from any cause—the exception being that when in Charleston, S. C., in 1865, his second mate died from fever, while under the doctor's hands. His first voyage as captain was in the brig "Empire," of Wells, and during his long career as a seaman he has made fifty-four voyages to Barbadoes, and about 150 to different islands in the West Indies.

One of Grant & Stewart's stage horses broke adrift at Kittery Point last week, and after running as far as he liked squeezed through the half-open door of Wm. Brown's blacksmith shop. The occupants of the shop gave one look at the intruder, and then went out through the window in such style as to astonish themselves and the horse.

Hon. E. F. Noyes of Cincinnati, ex-minister to France, will arrive at Hampton beach, July 1st, for a few weeks' sojourn.

Since the topmast of the sheers at the navy yard has been sent down, the broad pennant of Commodore Wells flies from the flagstaff on the office building.

A regimental organization and re-union of survivors of the 27th regiment of Maine volunteers, (which was recruited in York county,) at Old Orchard in August next, is in contemplation, and it is requested by the committee having the matter in charge that all former comrades who propose to be present give notice to H. H. Burbank, Saco, before July 15th.

There was a meeting of the committee of the common council last Saturday evening, to consider the north mill-pond nuisance. About an hour and a half was occupied in discussion. Mr. A. C. Hoyt, civil engineer, was present and explained the report made by Mr. Rice in 1877, in regard to the pond, and he also explained the sewerage system of other cities.—Times.

Newport, R. I., is already assuming its wonted summer gaiety. The first of the season's weddings has just been announced, the contracting parties being Paymaster I. Goodwin Hobbs, U. S. N., a native of North Berwick, Maine, and Miss Helen Maud Hazard, a niece of Mr. Rowland Hazard of New York. The wedding is to take place at Trinity church, June 28th, and is to be a brilliant affair.—Boston Post.

LIFE INSURANCE!

The Semi-Endowment Policy of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is believed to be the most desirable plan of insurance ever offered.

Among its advantages are: A definitely guaranteed cash value at a specified time. A paid-up policy for full value in case of discontinuance. Its period (20 years) covers the productive years of life, when insurance is mostly needed. It provides for old age. Above the age of 40 the rates are less than for life policies in other companies, while below 40 they are but little in excess of ordinary life premiums.

Parties insured in Co-operative Societies are requested to compare the net cost of these policies with that of assessment insurance.

POLICE COURT.

MONDAY, June 26; Batchelder, J.

John Smith was examined on a charge of stealing a valise containing clothing, the property of a Boston drummer named Frank E. Wyman. For the honor of Pocahontas we hasten to say that this is not the John Smith she saved from being smashed up by the old man-of-war Powhatan; neither is he our respected bill-poster of that name, but a different sort of a person entirely, going under various aliases, among them being that H. J. Clayton. It was shown that the gripsack was placed in one of Hett's baggage wagons at the Eastern railroad station; that it was stolen by some person, and was found in Smith's possession. The accused defended himself a la Guiteau, denouncing the citizens of Portsmouth in general and the police in particular, and informing the court that that stalwart and good-tempered officer, Asst. Marshal Cole, looked as fierce as a pirate of the worst dime-novel variety. Mr. Smith was requested to furnish sureties in $200 for his appearance at the October term of the supreme court, failing which he will board with Sheriff Kent for the summer.

FIRE.

About half-past eleven o'clock Monday night fire was discovered in the basement of C. E. Walker & Co.'s stable on Water street, the manure having probably ignited by spontaneous combustion. The fire smouldered slowly, and did not work up into the building, though it made a great smoke, rendering it a difficult matter to get out the horses, which however was done. Col. Sise Engine Co., No. 2, ran their machine down by hand without waiting for horses, and soon had a stream on and the fire out; no other engine played. Damage trifling.

P. S. After the foregoing was in type we were informed that it had been reported at the police station that the fire was undoubtedly incendiary, as there was but a small quantity of manure in the cellar, and investigation showed that a bucket of tar which was in the stable the previous day had been carried into the cellar and poured over a pile of lumber there.

TORNADO IN KITTERY.

The thunder shower which passed over this city about five o'clock Sunday morning, in Kittery developed itself into a tornado, which if less destructive than those that have recently ravaged the west, was quite as severe as our neighbors across the river desire to experience.

It first made its appearance on the farm of Mr. Samuel Moulton, situated on the Kittery Point road, uprooting several large trees, leveling fences and making large gaps in the stone walls; it next struck the place of Mr. Wm. Parker, twisting off trees as large as a man's body, passing into the premises of Wm. H. Wilson, Wm. N. Wilson and Joel Norton, all of whom had fences and trees more or less injured. It next struck the barn of Mr. Newell Colby, and the doors being open it lifted the roof and demolished the building containg a horse, cow, pigs, carriages and farming tools, all which were burned in the ruins, the animals being rescued some time after, quite badly hurt; the carriages and tools were completely ruined, Mr. Colby estimating his total loss at about $500. On the premises of Mr. Mugridge, across the road from Mr. Colby's, a number a young apple trees were torn up.

During the shower lightning struck a large oak tree at the Lower Foreside, shattering it to pieces; it also struck the telephone line leading to York, the poles for a mile or more being splintered. A large elm opposite the smithy of Stephen L. Butterfield, at Spruce creek, was completely demolished by lightning, and trees were struck in several other localities. The house of a Mr. White at Kittery Point was struck and considerably shaken up, plastering torn off and dishes broken; and a dress hanging in a closet was turned inside out without being injured. Mr. White was thrown out of bed and his face scorched, and his daughter was also slightly burned, but none of the woodwork or clothing showed marks of fire.

THE EVIL-NAMED POINT.

Among other recommendations in the report of the board of survey on the obstructions in Portsmouth harbor, is one for the removal of from ten to twelve thousand cubic yards of rock from the point of Goat island ledge, (better known as "Pull-and-be-d——d point,") the estimated cost of the removal being $20 per yard. The knocking away of the end of that ledge would be a great aid to the navigation of the river.

CONCORD & PORTSMOUTH RAILROAD.

The change of time on the Boston & Maine railroad makes the arrival in this city of the morning train from Manchester a little later than formerly. A new time table went into effect on the Concord & Portsmouth railroad on Monday. The morning train from this city leaves at the usual hour of 7:55, and reaches Manchester at 9:42. The morning train for Portsmouth from Manchester leaves that city at 8:12, arriving at Newmarket junction at 9:44, and leaves the junction for this city at 10:03, arriving here at 10:28. Passengers from this city leaving at 7:55 reach Exeter at 8:45, and can remain there until 9:50, having an hour and five minutes time, and returning, reach Portsmouth at 10:28. The afternoon train leaves on the Boston & Maine at Exeter, as formerly, at 5:25; the Concord & Portsmouth train leaves Newmarket junction at 5:50, and arrives in Portsmouth at 6:15 P. M.

The way freight train on which many persons travel for want of a noon passenger train, leaves at 11:45 A. M., instead of at 12:00 o'clock, reaching Newmarket junction at 12:30, and Manchester at 3:30; when through freight trains run, the time for leaving Portsmouth is 11:20 A. M., arriving at Manchester at 2:35 P. M.

Such weather as we had Saturday and Sunday is what wilts the linen collar, makes the paper collar a delusion and a snare, and gets the gilded youth into discredit with his best girl. Such disastrous result can be avoided by purchasing a celluloid collar and set of cuffs of Wm. P. Walker, at No. 8 Market square.

On Sunday the steamer Allentown arrived with 1670 tons of coal, and the steamer Kanawha with 648 tons; and on Monday, up to two o'clock, schooners came in as follows: the Stella M. Kenyon with 638 tons, the Samuel Hart with 333 tons, the Warren Sawyer with 637 tons, and the Governor with 211 tons—all to J. Albert Walker, who at that time had afloat in the port 6510 tons of coal, in three steamers and nine schooners.

Mr. John P. Cooper's residence at Newcastle, which was damaged by lightning during the shower on Sunday morning, was struck on the chimney, of which a portion was knocked down; the electric fluid did some injury to furniture and woodwork, broke window glass, and left marks of its raid in six rooms of the house. Mr. Cooper, who was kindling a fire at the time, received a severe shock—a warning to all men never to be engaged in building a fire at half-past five o'clock in the morning. The number of men needing such a warning is not large—most of 'em let their wives do it.

The first tidings from Mr. George Lane, who left this city some weeks ago for a trip to England, came on Monday, when papers of June 11th were received from him bearing the postmark of Portsmouth, Eng.

The Boston & Maine railroad company have built a new abutment at the overhead bridge near South Newmarket village, widening the road bed sufficiently for a double track.

The north mill—the only grist mill within the city limits—has ceased work, A. L. Rand & Son having given it up. We would like to work in something poetical to the effect the "the mill will never grind with the water that is past," but cannot seem to manage it very well.

Potatoes planted on the 5th of April by Mr. Warren Caswell of Rye were in blossom June 24th, and he expects new potatoes on the 4th of July. Mr. Caswell on Saturday brought in to Randall & Caswell of this city two wagon loads of lobsters, caught off the beach at Rye; they run smaller than in years past.

The Liberty pole at Liberty bridge was painted last week by Mr. William Hudson; the shield is to be taken down and renovated, and subscriptions will be asked for procuring a new flag.

The bill boards about the city on Saturday displayed announcements of two Catholic picnics at Pinkham's grove, Dover point—one to be held on Wednesday, June 28th, under the auspices of the church authorities, and the other on the 4th of July, under the management of St. Mary's Benevolent society.

Some very handsome logs have been recently been brought in to the Portsmouth Aqueduct Co., by Charles Hayes & Son, and Henry Bean of Newington. One of the logs was fifty feet long, and averaged twelve inches in diameter.

The sails for the new schooner Annie F. Conlon are being made by Charles S. Drown and John R Holbrook.

George E. Hodgdon Esq., has let out his haying this year to Mr. Wm. H. Badger of Newington. Mr. Hodgdon estimates his hay crop this year at fully one-third more than last season.

At about half-past nine o'clock, Sunday evening, a hogshead of beer in Mr. Geo. Scott's place of business on Market street blew its head out with a report like a yacht's cannon. The hogshead was lying on its bilge in a recess of the brickwork, and the heavy head, four inches thick, was driven with great force to the other side of the room, no one being in the way, which was lucky for them. The plastering around the recess was torn off, and scattered about the place.

Oak Hall Agency in Portsmouth.

Messrs. G. W. Simmons & Son, of Oak Hall, Boston, have established an agency for this city and vicinity for the sale of their custom and ready made men's and boys' clothing, at No. 33 Market street, Portsmouth, where anything contained at Oak Hall, Boston, can be procured, at the same prices as in Boston. Several dollars can be saved by buying your own and your children's clothing at the Oak Hall Agency, as they sell at the lowest prices in New England.

A Cough, Cold or Sore Throat

Should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an incurable Lung Disease or Consumption. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" do not disorder the stomach like cough syrups and balsams, but act directly on the inflamed parts, allaying irritation, give relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Cough, Catarrh, and the Throat Troubles which Singers and Public Speakers are subject to. For thirty years "Brown's Bronchial Troches" have been recommended by physicians, and have always given perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. A PLEASANT LETTER.

It Rings of a Grateful Heart and gives Honor where Honor is Due.

Mr. William W. Chadwick, of Hatchville, Conn., writes under date of June 14, 1880, to Dr. Kennedy, to say that the use of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" has cured him of Gall stone, from which he had experienced everything but comfort for a long time. Mr. Chadwick felt wholly cured when he wrote, and says: "I have had no pain for six months, and have also regained my flesh and can stand a fair day's work. I recommend Kennedy's Favorite Remedy to any one suffering from a deranged liver." Grateful patients are common. Dr. Kennedy is daily in receipt of letters from them, expressing similar sentiments. These letters are spontaneous and put in all varities of phraseology, but invariably setting forth one thing—the value of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for many forms of disease. It may be just the thing you have been looking for. Is your liver disordered? Have you derangement of the kidneys or bladder, associated with constipation of the bowels? If so, you want "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy." Dr. Kennedy practices medicine and surgery in all their branches. Write and state your case frankly. Letters promptly answered. Address Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.

More Tornadoes.

The town of Emmettsburg, Iowa, was blown to pieces by a tornado June 24th, and many persons killed. The town of Pringham was wrecked and six persons killed.

On the night of the 23d a heavy wind and rain storm swept over portions of Minnesota and Dakota, doing immense damage to property, and causing the loss of many lives; crops and railroads suffered most in Minnesota.

Hoopersville, fifty miles north of Sioux City, Iowa, was struck by a tornado on the 24th, a church and twenty-five houses blown to pieces, and one man fatally hurt.

Disastrous storms are also reported from Clay county, Iowa, and various points in Illinois.

DIVIDENDS.

The New Hampshire national bank has declared a semi-annual dividend of three and one-half per cent, payable to stockholders July 1st.

The Rockingham national bank pays a dividend of three and a half per cent, July 1st.

OILING THE WAVES.

In an article in the July Eclectic upon the action of oil in smoothing the surface of troubled waters, it is related that Dr. Franklin once tried the experiment on a large scale at Portsmouth. "Selecting a tempestuous day, he sailed out half a mile from the shore, and poured a moderate quantity of oil in the tossing waters. The effect was instantaneous, for, altho' the swell continued, the surface was not wrinkled or broken, and though the sea around was white with crested waves, there were none in the smooth track left by his boat; and he noticed that a barge rounding the headland under sail, at once turned into that oily path as on to a turnpike."

The Atlantic house at Wells beach was opened to the public on Saturday, the 24th inst.

The rich phosphates, combined with the best vegetable bitters, make in Wheat Bitters the greatest blood, brain and nerve food in existence.

—Locomotives on some Russian railroads are heated by crude naptha, placed in the tender just as it comes from the well. The vessels on the Caspian sea are also heated by this liquid combustible, which costs about half as much as coal.

Enrich and revitalize the blood by using Brown's Iron Bitters.

—The passage of the compulsory retirement law for the army has reminded the war department officials that the exact ages of many officers, especially the older ones, are unknown to the department, and some of the brisk old gentlemen are as sensitive upon that point as ladies are sometimes said to be. A general order will be issued requiring all officers to forward exact data as to their births. It may be as difficult to fix the precise age of some officers as it was lately to determine that of a New York judge.

The Perpetuity of Fame.

As the name of the immortal Washington has been most sacredly perpetuated as that of a hero and statesman, so also has the fame of Swayne's Ointment for skin diseases, descended into perpetuity as the only reliable remedy in the market, for every character of skin disorders, and as the reward of well-deserving merit. Worth and merit go hand-in-hand. It is useless to contradict the worth of this article.

THE

New Hampshire Gazette!

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

Oh, My Back!

That's a common expression and has a world of meaning. How much suffering is summed up in it.

The singular thing about it is, that pain in the back is occasioned by so many things. May be caused by kidney disease, liver complaint, consumption, cold, rheumatism, dyspepsia, overwork, nervous debility, &c.

Whatever the cause, don't neglect it. Something is wrong and needs prompt attention. No medicine has yet been discovered that will so quickly and surely cure such diseases as BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, and it does this by commencing at the foundation, and making the blood pure and rich.

Logansport, Ind. Dec. 1, 1880.
For a long time I have been a sufferer from stomach and kidney disease. My appetite was very poor and the very small amount I did eat disagreed with me. I was annoyed very much from non-retention of urine. I tried many remedies with no success, until I used Brown's Iron Bitters. Since I used that my stomach does not bother me any. My appetite is simply immense. My kidney trouble is no more, and my general health is such, that I feel like a new man. After the use of Brown's Iron Bitters for one month, I have gained twenty pounds in weight. O. B. SARGENT.

Leading physicians and clergymen use and recommend BROWN'S IRON BITTERS. It has cured others suffering as you are, and it will cure you.

SULPHUR BITTERS

THE GREAT

German Remedy.

TRUTHS FOR THE SICK.

For those deathly Bilious Spells, depend on SULPHUR BITTERS, it will cure you.

Ladies in delicate health, who are all run down, should use SULPHUR BITTERS.

The Giant Dyspepsia is cured by using SULPHUR BITTERS.

$1,000 will be paid for a case where SULPHUR BITTERS will not assist or cure. It never fails.

Operatives who are closely confined in the mills and workshops; Clerks, who do not procure sufficient exercise, and all who are confined in doors, should use SULPHUR BITTERS. They will not then be weak and sickly.

Cleanse the vitiated blood when you see its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Blotches, and Sores. Rely on SULPHUR BITTERS, and health will follow.

General Debility needs a gentle tonic. Use SULPHUR BITTERS, and you will not be troubled.

Don't be without a bottle. Try it; you will not regret it.

SULPHUR BITTERS will build you up and make you strong and healthy.

Making Hay.

The time for making hay is at hand, and our farmers will very soon be busy cutting, curing and housing their hay crops. The earlier grasses — such as June grass and clover— are already fit for cutting, and a few suggestions relative to the management of the hay harvest may be acceptable to our readers.

In the first place, are you ready for haying? Are all the necessary tools and implements for the work at hand, and are they in good order? A hay rigging, or extra forks, if needed, should now be procured. A good scythe will be needed, with a stone for sharpening it, for cutting the grass along fences and ditches, and about trees and stumps, where machine work is not available. Mowing machines, horse rakes and tedders should be run out from their winter's resting places, and carefully examined and all needed repairs made. Let the knives of mowing machines be sharpened and the bearings cleaned and oiled. Indeed, everything that will be needed during the weeks of cutting, curing and stowing of the hay crop should be examined and made in readiness for the work, so that no delay will be necessary when haying is commenced.

It is a very common mistake to let grass get too ripe before cutting it. We want succulent, digestible food from our hay, and not tough, woody fibre or seed. Hay will "go further" if the grass is allowed to become fully ripe before it is cut, but it is not of good quality, and the stock which are obliged to eat it will show it. To make good hay it is necessary to cut the grass or clover while it is yet fresh and green. With timothy the best period has been found to exist when it is just going out of bloom, and before the seed is formed. Clover should be cut when in full bloom to make the best hay. Next to the time of cutting, the most important part of hay making is in the curing. Many farmers lose largely every year by careless curing of their hay.

Experiments have demonstrated that there is a vast difference in the feeding value of hay made from grass or clover, roasted and parched in the hot sun and carried dry and brittle to the barn, and that made from the same grass or clover, cured in cock without much exposure to the scorching sun. Just how much difference there is in the feeding value of hay made by these two methods we are unable to say, but good authorities have placed the loss by the former method to be fifty per cent of its value. Clover is more succulent than grass, and more time is required to cure it. At the same time it is more easily damaged, either from being rained upon or from being over-dried, in which case much of the better portion of the feed (the leaves) is lost in handling.

The true way of curing grass or clover is to place it in cock as soon as it is one-half to two-thirds cured, in which shape it should be left until it has passed thro' a sweat, when it may be slightly opened out to the sun until dry enough to go to the barn. If nearly dry when placed in the cock it will not be necessary to open it out if the weather is dry and it is left in the field several days. It is this sweating in the cock that gives hay its tender qualities and makes it of the best quality. —Country Gentleman.

How it was Done.

"How do you manage," said a lady to her friend, "to appear so happy and good natured all the time?" "I always have Parker's Ginger Tonic handy," was the reply, "and thus easily keep myself and family in good health. When I am well I always feel good natured."

—A member of the Texas legislature who voted against the purchase of Huddle's pictures of the ex-governors of Texas by the state gave the following unique reasons: "Two hundred and fifty dollars apiece is too much for them oil-paintings. Oil aint so dear as all that, for I bought some the other day at two bits a quart. Besides, chromos are a heap cheaper. I bought a chromo of Wellington crossing the Alps, and thar was a boss in the picture, and it only cost a dollar and a-half. None of the pictures of these governors of Texas has got a hoss in it."

He was seen in front of the office rubbing himself against the telegraph post like a flea-bitten dog. "What is wrong?" we ventured to ask. "Gotem, 'gent," he said laconically; have 'em every spring, small lumps form about the rectum; sore to the touch; they itch like blazes; "a telegraph pole's like an oasis in the desert to me." Here then, was poor humanity suffering from a complaint which a few applications of Swayne's Ointment for itching piles, would have thoroughly eradicated.

STARTLING DISCOVERY!

LOST MANHOOD RESTORED.

A victim of youthful imprudence causing Premature Decay, Nervous Debility, Lost Manhood, etc., having tried in vain every known remedy, has discovered a simple self cure, which he will send FREE to his fellow-sufferers, address J. H. REEVES, 43 Chatham St., N. Y.

Perhaps no medicine is so universally required as a good cathartic. Swayne's Pills are prepared expressly to meet this necessity, being composed of purely vegetable ingredients, of which Podophyllin or Mandrake, Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock and other concentrated juices enter largely into their composition; the whole strength of which is extracted on an entirely new principle. They are mild in their operation, and are truly a valuable aperient and anti-bilious medicine. They stimulate the liver to healthy action, cleanse the stomach and bowels of all impurities. Curing sick and nervous headache, dyspepsia or indigestion, biliousness, fevers, drowsiness, colds, aching pains, slight chills, with flashes of heat, and female irregularities. For a bilious and costive habit, no medicine is so prompt and effectual. Mailed on receipt of price [in postage stamps,] 25 cents, or five boxes for $1. Address Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, Pa. Ask your Druggist for them.

Books, Magazines, Etc.

A newly discovered Fourth of July oration delivered by Daniel Webster at Fryeburg, Me., in the year 1802, and now for the first time given to the public, has been published by A. Williams & Co. of Boston, and by A. F. & C. W. Lewis of Fryeburg. The original manuscript is now in charge of Mr. A. F. Lewis, rescued from a Federal street junk shop. Mr. Webster was at the time of its delivery teaching school at Fryeburg, at the academy, a view of which is given, as well as of the old meeting house in which Daniel held forth, with a likeness of Webster in his early manhood. We shall save this up for reading on the 4th of July next, and expect to find it old, but good.

In New York last week there was a sale of coins collected by the late C. I. Bushnell, a well known lawyer who died in 1880. The catalogue made a book of 136 pages, and contained 3000 lots of American and foreign coins, medals, etc. The first coin in America, a Massachusetts shilling of 1652, sold for $51, and a silver sixpence of same date for $71.25. The celebrated Good Samaritan shilling of 1652, considered unique for two centuries, was bought by a Boston numismatist for $650. The sale attracted many coin collectors, and was largely attended.

The Washington street school house in Dover was struck by lightning recently, and the ceiling and plastering in one of the rooms nearly all torn off, and the casings of the doors knocked around the room. The school was closed on the 16th inst., and the damage was not discovered until the 26th; it is supposed the affair happened on the 19th. Had the school been in session at the time the effect might have been terrible.

A married man residing on the north side of the river it is said enticed a young girl, unmarried and in her teens, out to ride in the country last evening. The man's wife got wind of the affair, and with her big brother went in pursuit. About eleven o'clock the infuriated wife and her brother met the team with the husband and his companion, about three miles out. There was quite a racket. The big brother pulled his sister's husband out of the team, and gave him an unmerciful beating. He then ordered the girl out, put his sister in and drove home, and soon after returned the team to the livery stable where it was hired. Neither the husband nor the girl have as yet turned up.—Dover Democrat.

The Strafford national bank, of Dover, on the 26th inst., declared a semi-annual dividend of five per cent, payable on and after the 1st proximo.

THE SEAMAN'S FRIEND SOCIETY.

At the semi-centennial (and annual) meeting of the Seaman's Friend Society, held at the Home on State street on the 14th inst., officers for the ensuing year were chosen as follows: Miss E. H. Pearson, president; Mrs. H. C. Knight, secretary and treasurer; Mrs. Silas Philbrick, Miss Hannah Cutter, Mrs. F. E. Potter, Mrs. J. H. Thacher, managers.

By special request we print the following extracts from the semi-centennial report:

The society was organized in October, 1832, by a few earnest women, to furnish religious and instructive reading on ship board, which led to a clearer discernment of some of the temptations which beset sailors in port, and a temperance boarding house was projected in spite of a score of impossibilities to carry out such a plan. A strong interest for sailors, however, then existing in many inland towns, Exeter, Hampstead, Dover, Concord, Hopkinton, and Lebanon, assisted the society in maturing its plans. A house was rented and put in charge of Mrs. Stevens, a woman of rare judgment and piety, who for eight years kept a model house, where many a young man was reclaimed from his evil ways. In 1836 a bethel flag was hoisted, and public worship on board some vessel was held by the clergymen of the town on successive Sundays.

In 1841, the then new and fashionable mode of stimulating and gathering in charitable contributions was introduced, and the first fair ever held in town was held by the Seamen's Society in behalf of its Home. A large number of ladies were actively interested, and for two days Franklin hall was crowded with visitors, astonishing our little community with its airy hangings, its dainty wares, its lunches and teas, its sales-women both grave and gay, and especially its post-office, whose witty, pertinent and impertinent missives delighted and bewildered the people. More than $1000 were realized. During these years of enlarging usefulness, the society owed much to the energy of Miss Mary Rogers, who for twelve years held the office of president, and ever continued its faithful ally and friend.

On Sunday morning, May 4th, 1845, the Home, with thirty other buildings, was consumed by fire. Nothing daunted by the great disaster, the brave little society gathered up the fragments, which with Christ's blessing, multiplied to means sufficient to set up housekeeping again. This it did in a fine new brick building erected on the old site, corner of Market and Bow streets, by one who years before had been befriended by the Home. Mrs. Eliza Haven, with fifty dollars given by a friend, fitted up a room for hospital service, with every requisite comfort for sickness.

And so the noble work went on until 1852, when, owing to several conspiring circumstances, the decline of our commercial interests and the difficulty of procuring a suitable superintendent being among the chief, the society slowly and reluctantly came to the conclusion to give up its Home, and appropriate its funds to the help of sailors thro' our city missionary, and branch societies in larger and more prosperous ports. A quiet ministry of beneficence in relieving destitution and sickness and putting the word of God into the hands of many well nigh stranded and wrecked, still went on year by year, a little golden thread of opportunity, well-used until 1875. Many a time were we surprised and cheered by bits of news from afar, of souls anchored on God by its humble instrumentality.

In 1875, the need of a temperance restaurant and lodging house near some of our wharves was pressed upon us with a strange urgency here and from elsewhere. The society, small in numbers and for many years almost unseen in its ministry, found itself suddenly summoned to active service. Could and would it respond? It was not found wanting. New and efficient officers were chosen, influential managers were selected, and this, our present Home, is the result. For seven years, its wholesome influence has been a moral tonic in the neighborhood. It has been a constant protest against vice in every form. It invites them to a clean and well-ordered house. It spreads a well-cooked and plentiful table. It offers a well-lighted and pleasant reading room. Its friendly hospitalities never deceive and ruin. Its shelter is peace, good will and the hope of better things.

The Home is now in the hands of Mrs. Wingate and son, whose excellent management commends it both to old customers and new, and invites a large patronage for the coming year. The annual subscription and donation for the year ending June 1st, 1882, amounted to $155.50.

Robin vs. Cat.

A family living on state street own a large pet cat of the Thomas gender, and one that is quite notorious as a bird catcher. Early this morning the family were surprised by an unusual commotion in the yard, and on going to the door beheld Tom "putting" for the house in extreme terror, while on his back, in front of his head, and, in fact, on almost every side at once was an old robin, punishing the cat, presumably, for past offences, with all the strength of his little body, and with the utmost disregard of his own safety. The upshot of it was that Tom was thoroughly whipped and could not be persuaded to leave the house for some time afterwards, the robin continuing his punishment until on the kitchen door step.—Newburyport Herald.

—The circus advertisement says that Jumbo "will be fed in the presence of the spectators." "Will be fed with the presents of the spectators" would have been more exact.

—The difference between snobs, according to the New York Post, is that in America the snob looks down on others, while in England he looks up to others and tries to climb up where they are.

—Curiosity hunters are slowly carrying off the old brick engine-house in Harper's Ferry, where John Brown made his brave defence. The people have become so aroused over this thieving that they won't even allow a stranger to leave town with a brick in his hat.

—General Fitzhugh Lee wrote from Richmond to the committee of invitations: "Greatly preferring the society of the 'Society of the Army of the Potomac' in 1882 to the society of the 'Army of the Potomac' from 1861 to 1865. I regret that it will not be in my power to be present at their reunion in Detroit on the 14th and 15th instants."

—Keeley has agreed to make known his secret. A mean Philadelphia man says Keeley's disclosure will probably be about as follows: "Take half a pint of water; pour it into some queer looking machine—any odd shape will do—and then tell the capitalists and prospective stockholders present that should you move the lever it would blow them all into the next county, as the material in the machine is not quite strong enough to stand the pressure. They will hurriedly subscribe and leave."

LIEBIG MALT EXTRACT.

RECOMMENDED BY PHYSICIANS of the highest eminence on both sides of the Atlantic, as an invaluable Tonic and Restorative in cases of General Debility, Nervous Depression, Enfeebled Constitution and Female Weakness.

NURSING MOTHERS, who suffer from poverty of milk, will find it a specific for their troubles. It stimulates the digestion, sharpens the appetite, invigorates and builds up the entire system, and ensures a generous flow of milk.

WEAK AND SICKLY CHILDREN, who suffer from lassitude and weariness, the result of disease, over-study, or nervous strain, will derive substantial benefit from its use. It restores the system to its normal condition and brings back the bloom of youth.

INVALIDS AND CONVALESCENTS will find it admirably adapted for sustaining life, and restoring lost strength. When the stomach is weak and refuses other nourishment the Extract will prove an excellent substitute for food. It neither pains nor the appetite nor offends the taste.

DELICATE FEMALES, who suffer from the weaknesses of their sex, will derive lasting relief from its use. It improves the digestion, purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, and revives the spirits.

WEAK AND DELICATE PERSONS GENERALLY, who require some artificial restorative—and especially those who are inclined to Consumption—will find this preparation exactly suited to their needs. It is a specific for the Cough and Nervous Affections usually incident to a low state of the system.

AS A FLESH RESTORER it possesses the highest value. The whole frame, even to its extremities, is nourished and invigorated by the use of this Extract. The effect is invariably to give fullness and roundness to the female form, and robustness to the masculine frame.

THE LIEBIG MALT EXTRACT is a pure concentrated Fluid Extract of Malt, agreeable to the taste, and free from alcohol. It is readily retained on the stomach and contains none but wholesome and nourishing ingredients. The genuine preparation bears on the label a fine engraved likeness of Baron von Liebig, and a facsimile of his signature, as well as that of A. VOGELER & CO., BALTIMORE, Md., Sole Agents for America.

LIFE INSURANCE!

The Semi-Endowment Policy of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is believed to be the most desirable plan of insurance ever offered.

Among its advantages are: A definitely guaranteed cash value at a specified time. A paid-up policy for full value in case of discontinuance. Its period (20 years) covers the productive years of life, when insurance is mostly needed. It provides for old age. Above the age of 40 the rates are less than for life policies in other companies, while below 40 they are but little in excess of ordinary life premiums.

Parties insured in Co-operative Societies are requested to compare the net cost of these policies with that of assessment insurance.

A JEREMIAD.

The Belknap Tocsin, of Laconia, recently published a letter from Portsmouth which the writer very appropriately signed "Jerry," and from which we take the following:

This city has lost within one year nearly one thousand of its population, thus showing its want of enterprise in all that goes to make up a wide-awke and successful business place. There is not a city in New Hampshire that is so sleepy as this, (we might write town as well.) * * * Portsmouth is blest with a goodly number of rich old fossils who do not care for anybody but themselves, and hence, no advantage is added by their living in it. The young men are obliged to leave if they desire to succeed in life. Capitalists skip by when wanting to invest their money in any manufacturing enterprise. The deep and beautiful harbor is deserted, and the only business of any consequence is—Rum—and that in abundance. Thus you have a picture of this summer resort, and it looks to be only a question of time when it shall give up its city charter and revert back to a town. The writer has many regrets to see the grand old city thus going into decline.

If "Jerry" shoots as wide of the mark in his predictions as he does in some of his statements of "facts," there is no immediate danger of a wilderness establishing itself on the site of this "grand old city." His assertion that "this city has lost within one year nearly one thousand of its population" is extravagantly absurd, but less so than the statement that "the deep and beautiful harbor is deserted." The number of vessels entering our harbor increases year by year, and their average tonnage is much greater than formerly; there have been thirty or forty arrivals from the British provinces this season, and on several occasions there have been in port at one time five or six schooners with each a carrying capacity of from 800 to 1000 tons, besides numerous smaller vessels; and while we write there are discharging at the wharves, or waiting for berths, three steamers and more than a dozen schooners from coastwise ports.

THE PROPOSED RAILROAD POOL.

The following is a report given by the Boston Journal of a meeting of the directors of the Eastern railroad, to consider a proposition from the Boston & Maine to lease the Eastern upon the basis of a preference of eight per cent upon Boston & Maine stock, and a division of net earnings thereafter upon Eastern and Boston & Maine shares:

The meeting was quite interesting, and at times exciting. The representatives of the bondholders of the Eastern demanded the immediate acceptance of the proposition, as it placed their interests ahead of the Boston & Maine stock.

The stockholders' directors protested, desiring six per cent upon Eastern railroad shares before the division of the surplus net earnings upon both stocks.

The representative of the London bondholders' interests proposed, probably not seriously, that as the stock was a troublesome element in the situation, the directors default the bond interest, foreclose the mortgage, and wipe out the stock, and then the bondholders could effect the desired lease.

The meeting, without reaching a definite or unanimous policy, adjourned to next Tuesday.

In this connection it would be interesting to know how it is proposed to meet the act of the Massachusetts legislature, which says that all the surplus earnings of the Eastern road, after paying six per cent upon the bonds, is to go toward a sinking fund, and also that after the debt is reduced to ten millions, $100,000 is still to be used for a sinking fund.

The first moonlight excursion of the season by steamer, will take place next Friday evening by the new boat "City of Bangor." See advertisement.

Marcus P. Norton, who has instituted suits against Portsmouth and many other cities for an alleged infringement on a patent in connection with steam fire engines, is said to be also the plaintiff in the cases, which have attracted considerable notoriety, against many postmasters for alleged use of a canceller of stamps, which is claimed to be an infringement of a patent which he controls.

Mr. Thomas J. Brooks, for many years an employe in this office, and for a number of years pressman, has shipped on board the U. S. S. Hartford, and will be the ship's printer. He is an industrious and worthy young man, and has ever rendered faithful service; we wish him all prosperity in his new position.

Two of Barnum's advertising cars, each having a steam calliope, passed through this city on Tuesday evening from the eastward, where they had been papering the bill-boards in the cities where the "only greatest show on earth" is to exhibit.

The Ladies of Storer Relief Corps, No. 6, Auxiliary to Storer Post, G. A. R., will give a strawberry festival on Friday evening, June 30th, at G. A. R. hall on Daniel street, the proceeds to go to the relief fund of the corps. As a part of the festival there will be an entertainment consisting of singing, readings, the broom drill, and general social enjoyment. All are invited.

"You can never wear those boots out," said Dr. Fay to a buyer who was examining a new fit. "Then I do not want them," said the customer; "do you suppose I want boots to wear only in the house?" The doctor took a duplicate pair from the same case, and the customer was satisfied.

Mr. Charles W. Hart, formerly engineer of the steamer Fearless and now conductor of the steamer James Sampson, is decidedly popular with the numerous patrons of the boat, and especially with the ladies. Without being in the least degree obtrusive he pays every desired attention to passengers, and is ever ready with a courteous answer to any enquiry.

A large quantity of pine wood is being brought into the city by Charles E. Gear and others, of Stratham.

The total cost of construction of the Portsmouth custom-house building was $145,116.91. The site cost $19,500. Total cost of building and land (exclusive of repairs) $164,616.91. This is the only building ever erected by or for the general government in our state.—Journal.

Russell & Odion have had put up on their wood and coal wharf at Liberty bridge a building twenty feet square, for an office and telephone station, Messrs. George Humphries and Walter T. Brooks doing the carpenter work. The schooner Leonessa, Henderson master, for many years a regular trader to this port in the summer season, has this week put out 300 tons of coal at that wharf.

A petition was in circulation in this city on Tuesday, and was signed by many influential citizens, asking the New Hampshire delegation in Congress to endeavor to secure amendments to the naval appropriation bill as reported from the house committee.

A survey of the U. S. S. Vandalia was commenced at the navy yard on Tuesday, to decide upon what repairs are needed to her hull, boilers and machinery.

The schooner Mary J. Adams, in getting under weigh from C. E. Walker & Co.'s wharf on Monday, ran her jibboom into the building on Broughton's wharf, doing slight injury the building and none to the vessel.

The Kittery Point bridge is undergoing some slight repairs, but travel is not impeded.

Mr. John Rogers, of Kittery, has a half-acre of early corn, of which some stalks on Tuesday measured twenty-nine inches in height, having grown thirteen inches in one week. Miss Dora Rogers, his daughter, who has been in engaged in teaching in Washington, D. C., during the past year, is spending her vacation at home.

Gunner Thomas Fortune, U. S. N., and family, of this city, have removed to their summer residence at Kittery Point.

The ancient family mansion of Sir William Pepperell, at Kittery Point, is now open to public inspection, for the first time within our recollection; a small fee is expected of visitors. The steamer James Sampson makes a landing in the cove where the vessels of the hero of Louisburg once cast their anchors, and which will forever bear his name; the warrior merchant's home is but a short distance from the wharf.

—A little southern boy, when asked if his father had a good mule, mournfully replied, "One end of him is good."

—"What is the devil?" asked an Austin Sunday school teacher of the new boy, who was quite small. "I don't know what it is, but it can't run as fast as my pa can." "How do you know that the devil can't run fast?" "Because I heard pa say he always catches the devil when he comes home late at night from the lodge. I reckon I'll be able to catch it too when I get to be as big as pa," "I've no doubt of it," remarked the teacher, with a sigh.

—One of the United States consuls in Italy began a magazine article twenty-five years ago, with this glowing statement: "Julius Cæsar was a consul; Napoleon Bonaparte was a consul; and so was I."

—"What's the crowd about?" queried a stranger, as he noticed a stream of visitors going into a fashionable residence. "It's a silver wed'din'," obligingly replied his informant. "What's a silver wed'din?" "Why, a chap's been married twenty-five times and he's a celebratin' of it."

—Doctors have a good deal to bear from anti-vaccinators, anti-vivisectionists, herbalists and others; but the latest and worst insult comes from one of the southern states, where a local legislator has introduced a proposal to make it obligatory to inscribe the name of the physician on the tombstones of deceased persons.

Oak Hall Agency in Portsmouth.

Messrs. G. W. Simmons & Son, of Oak Hall, Boston, have established an agency for this city and vicinity for the sale of their custom and ready made men's and boys' clothing, at No. 33 Market street, Portsmouth, where anything contained at Oak Hall, Boston, can be procured, at the same prices as in Boston. Several dollars can be saved by buying your own and your children's clothing at the Oak Hall Agency, as they sell at the lowest prices in New England.

A PLEASANT LETTER.

It Rings of a Grateful Heart and gives Honor where Honor is Due.

Mr. William W. Chadwick, of Hatchville, Conn., writes under date of June 14, 1880, to Dr. Kennedy, to say that the use of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" has cured him of Gall stone, from which he had experienced everything but comfort for a long time. Mr. Chadwick felt wholly cured when he wrote, and says: "I have had no pain for six months, and have also regained my flesh and can stand a fair day's work. I recommend Kennedy's Favorite Remedy to any one suffering from a deranged liver." Grateful patients are common. Dr. Kennedy is daily in receipt of letters from them, expressing similar sentiments. These letters are sympathetic and put in all varities of phraseology, but invariably setting forth one thing—the value of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for many forms of disease. It may be just the thing you have been looking for. Is your liver disordered? Have you derangement of the kidneys or bladder, associated with constipation of the bowels? If so, you want "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy." Dr. Kennedy practices medicine and surgery in all their branches. Write and state your case frankly. Letters promptly answered. Address Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.

WHEAT BITTERS

THE Great LIQUID FOOD
FOR BLOOD, BRAIN AND NERVES.

IS A SUPERIOR NUTRITIVE MEDICINE, HIGHER IN PHOSPHATES AND NOT A CHEAP, ALCOHOLIC DRINK. Highly recommended by Chemists and Physicians as A POSITIVE TONIC, ALWAYS ACCEPTABLE AND RELIABLE, as it does not stimulate the brain or irritate the system and leaves no injurious effects. On the contrary, it furnishes just that which is necessary to the brain, nerves and tissues of the nerves, purifies the heart's blood, and thereby makes only the best flesh, bone and muscle, which is wonderful, curing NERVOUS and GENERAL DEBILITY, MALARIA, DYSPEPSIA, INSOMNIA. Produces a healthy action of the Liver and Kidneys, fortifying the system against the miasmatic influences, and will be found invaluable in all pulmonary and bronchial diseases. DELICATE FEMALES, NURSING MOTHERS and WEAKLY CHILDREN can find no remedy equal to the nutritive blood and nerve food tonic. Sold by all Druggists. $1.00 per bottle. Prepared only by WHEAT BITTERS CO.
Office 19 Park Place, New York City.

At Manchester, shortly before midnight on Monday, fire broke out in a four-story building of which the upper stories were occupied as a boarding house. The fire caught at the foot of the stairs, cutting off escape, and in the panic which ensued many of the boarders needlessly jumped from the windows. Ellen Ford will probably die; Mary Sullivan was injured in the spine, Alice Welch had an ankle broken, and five other persons were seriously injured. The damage to the building was only about $1000.

Delicate Females.

In the practice of society, added to the cares of maternity and the household, have tested beyond endurance the frail constitutions which have been granted the majority of women. To combat this tendency to premature decline, no remedy in the world possesses the nourishing and strengthening properties of Malt Bitters. They enrich the blood, perfect digestion, stimulate the liver and kidneys, arrest ulcerative weaknesses, and purify and vitilize every function of the female system.

Leon Mercier, a Frenchman thirty-six years old, with a wife and three children, went on a family picnic at Haverhill, Mass., on Sunday afternoon, and was drowned.

A Good Foundation.

In American households the prevailing complaints are weakness of the stomach and its consequences, indigestion, nervousness and rheumatism. Such sufferers can lay a good foundation for health by using Parker's Ginger Tonic, as it tones up the stomach and nerves, and keeps the kidneys active to carry off the foul matter.—N. O. Picayune.

The 77th commencement exercises of Bowdoin college will begin on Sunday, July 9th, when the baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class will be given. On Wednesday evening there will be a Longfellow memorial service, with an address by Prof. Daniel Raynes Goodwin, D. D., LL. D., of Philadelphia.

Beware of Imitations.

Octave Lobart, of Worcester, Mass., twenty-nine years old, was drowned while bathing on Sunday in a pond.

Handsome versus Homely.

Who is that fine looking lady that we just passed, Clara? Why, that is Mrs. Snow. Well, there, what a change; when I saw her last, her skin was so sallow and muddy looking, its no wonder I didn't know her. What has produced that lovely complexion? I heard she took Sulphur Bitters, the great blood purifier, and now would not be without them.

Bernard J. Hanley, aged eight years, was drowned at Providence, R. I., Monday, while wading in a small pond after lilies.

Thirteen gold watches, which were dug up on Scituate beach, Mass., a few weeks ago, were taken to Boston and are being dissected by a jeweller. They are of French make, and all antedate 1820. There is little doubt that they were buried by a gang of pirates, several of whom were captured and hanged on Boston neck in 1820.

The Perpetuity of Fame.

As the name of the immortal Washington has been most sacredly perpetuated as that of a hero and statesman, so also has the fame of Swayne's Ointment for skin diseases, descended into perpetuity as the only reliable remedy in the market, for every character of skin disorders, and as the reward of well-deserving merit. Worth and merit go hand-in-hand. It is useless to contradict the worth of this article.

Summer Complaints

At this season, various diseases of the bowels are prevalent, and many lives are lost through lack of knowledge of a safe and sure remedy. PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is a sure cure for Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Summer Complaint, etc., and is perfectly safe.

Read the following:

BAYSHORE, N. Y., March 23, 1881.
PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER never fails to afford instant relief for cramp and pain in the stomach.
JOSEPH BURDITT.

NICHOLAYVILLE, N. Y., Feb. 2, 1881.
The very best medicine I know of for dysentery, cholera morbus, and cramps in the stomach. Have used it for years, and it is sure every time.
JULIUS W. DEY.

MOUNGONA, IOWA, March 12, 1881.
I have used your PAIN KILLER in severe cases of cramp, cholera morbus, and diarrhœa, and it gave almost instant relief.
L. E. CALDWELL.

CARNESVILLE, Ga., Feb. 28, 1881.
For twenty years I have used your PAIN KILLER in my family. Have used it many times for bowel complaints, and it always cures. Would not feel safe without a bottle in the house.
B. FYE.

SACO, Me., Jan. 22, 1881.
Have used PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER for twelve years. It is safe, sure, and reliable. No mother should allow it to be out of the family.
H. J. NAYES.

ONEIDA, N. Y., Feb. 19, 1881.
We began using it over thirty years ago, and it always gives immediate relief. Would hardly dare to go to bed without a bottle in the house.
W. O. SEVERY.

CONWAYBORO, S. C., Feb. 21, 1881.
Nearly every family in this section keeps a bottle in the house.
A. E. MORTON.

U. S. CONSULATE,
CRESCENT, RIENZOR PRUSSIA, Feb. 8, 1881.
I have known PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER almost from the day it was introduced, and after years of observation and use I regard its presence in my household as an indispensable necessity.
R. B. POTTER, U. S. Consul.

BURTON-ON-TRENT, ENG.
I had been several days suffering severely from diarrhœa, accompanied with intense pain, when I tried your PAIN KILLER, and found almost instant relief.
H. J. NOONE.

21 MONTAGUE ST., LONDON, ENG.
During a residence of twenty-three years in India, I have my family in Bengal, Madras, Bombay, and Scinde districts, constantly subject to attacks of diarrhœa, dysentery, and cholera, and never knew it to fail to give relief.
R. CLARIDGE.

No family can safely be without this invaluable remedy. Its price brings it within the reach of all.

CatarrH

DIRECTIONS.

For Catarrh, Hay Fever Cold in the Head, etc., insert with little finger a particle of the Balm into the nostrils; draw strong breaths through the nose. It will be absorbed, cleansing and healing the diseased membrane.

FOR DEAFNESS, Apply a particle into the ear, rubbing in thoroughly.

Hay-FeveR

—A fair trial will convince the most skeptical.—

ELYS' CREAM BALM

Effectually cleanses the nasal passages of Catarrhal virus, causing healthy secretions, allays inflammation and irritation, protects the membranal linings of the head from additional colds, completely heals the sores and restores the sense of taste and smell. Beneficial results are realized by a few applications. A thorough treatment as directed will cure Catarrh. As a household remedy for cold in the head and snuffles it is unequalled. The Balm is easy to use and agreeable. Sold by all druggists at 50 cts. On receipt of 50 cts. will mail a pack age. Send for circular with full information.

Oh, My Back!

That's a common expression and has a world of meaning. How much suffering is summed up in it.

The singular thing about it is, that pain in the back is occasioned by so many things. May be caused by kidney disease, liver complaint, consumption, cold, rheumatism, dyspepsia, overwork, nervous debility, &c.

Whatever the cause, don't neglect it. Something is wrong and needs prompt attention. No medicine has yet been discovered that will so quickly and surely cure such diseases as BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, and it does this by commencing at the foundation, and making the blood pure and rich.

Logansport, Ind. Dec. 1, 1880.
For a long time I have been a sufferer from stomach and kidney disease. My appetite was very poor and the very small amount I did eat disagreed with me. I was annoyed very much from non-retention of urine. I tried many remedies with no success, until I used Brown's Iron Bitters. Since I used that my stomach does not bother me any. My appetite is simply immense. My kidney trouble is no more, and my general health is such, that I feel like a new man. After the use of Brown's Iron Bitters for one month, I have gained twenty pounds in weight. O. B. SARGENT.

Leading physicians and clergymen use and recommend BROWN'S IRON BITTERS. It has cured others suffering as you are, and it will cure you.

THE GREAT

German Remedy.

TRUTHS FOR THE SICK.

For those deathly billous Spells, depend on SULPHUR BITTERS, it will cure you.

Ladies in debilitated health, who are all run down, should use SULPHUR BITTERS.

The Giant Dyspepsia is cured by using SULPHUR BITTERS.

$1,000 will be paid for a case where SULPHUR BITTERS will not assist or cure. It never fails.

Operatives who are closely confined in the mills and workshops; Clerks, who do not procure sufficient exercise, and all who are confined in doors, should use SULPHUR BITTERS. They will not then be weak and sickly.

Cleanse the vitiated blood when you see its impurities burting through the skin in Pimples, Blotches, and Sores. Rely on SULPHUR BITTERS, and health will follow.

General Debility needs a gentle tonic. Use SULPHUR BITTERS, and you will not be troubled.

Don't be without a bottle. Try it; you will not regret it.

SULPHUR BITTERS will build you up and make you strong and healthy.

A Terrible Record.

The log-book of Lieut. De Long shows that the party suffered terribly from the cold, and that its food was dog meat. A portion of the log book reads as follows:

Saturday, Oct. 15. Breakfast, willow tea and two old boots; conclude to move at sunrise; Alexy breaks down, also Lee; come to empty grain raft; halt and camp; signs of smoke at twilight to S'd.

Sunday, Oct. 16. Alexy broke down; divine service.

Monday. Alexy dying; doctor baptised him; read prayers for sick; Mr. Collins' birthday; forty years old; about sunset Alexy died; exhaustion from starvation; covered with ensign and laid him in crib.

Tuesday. Calm and mild; snow falling; buried Alexy in the afternoon; laid him in the ice, and covered him with slabs of ice.

Wednesday. Cutting up tent to make foot gear; doctor went ahead to find new camp; shifted by dark.

Thursday. Bright and sunny, but very cold; Lee and Kaack done up.

Friday. Kaack was found dead about midnight between the doctor and myself; Lee died about noon; said prayers for sick when he found he was going.

Saturday. Too weak to carry the bodies of Lee and Kaack out on the ice; the doctor, Collins and myself carried them around the corner out of sight, then my eyes closed up.

Sunday. Everybody pretty weak; slept and rested to-day, and then managed to get enough wood in before dark; read part of divine service; suffering in our feet; no foot gear.

Monday. A hard night.

Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, 27th—137th day. Iverson broken down.

Friday. Iverson died during early morning.

Saturday, 29th. Dressley died during the night.

Sunday, Oct. 30th—140th day. Boyd and Gartz died during the night; Mr. Collins dying.

[This is the end of Lieut. De Long's diary. De Long, Surgeon Ambler and Ah Sam, the cook, must have died soon after the last note was written.]

Naval Affairs.

The senate on June 27th confirmed Pay Inspector Joseph O. Smith to be chief of the bureau of provisions and clothing, and paymaster general of the navy.

Lieut. George C. Wilkins died Monday, June 26th, at Brooklyn, N. Y. He was fifty-one years old. He was sent out on the Tigress in search of the Arctic steamer Polaris. His eyesight was permanently injured during the voyage, and he was placed on the retired list three years ago.

John Darmstadt, a bridge contractor on the New Jersey Central railroad, was found dead in the river at Red Bank, N. J., June 27th, with four knife wounds in his stomach.

The police caught at North Tewsbury, Mass., June 27th, working on a farm, Nathaniel S. Warren, who last July committed a murderous assault on Abram Mace at Mace's crossing, breaking his skull with a club. Mace recovered, and his assailant alluded arrest till now.

Two Chinamen were naturalized in Philadelphia, June 26th.

The rich phosphates, combined with the best vegetable bitters, make in Wheat Bitters the greatest blood, brain and nerve food in existence.

Joe Rothwell and J. B. Day got into a fight at Frenchburg, Ky., June 27th, the result of an old feud, and Rothwell shot Day in the leg; Day then bowie-knifed Rothwell, and was in turn shot dead by two of Day's brothers.

If you have a cough resulting from a sudden cold, procure Adamson's Botanic Balsam, take one half to one teaspoonful three times a day, and your cough will cease. Trial bottle, 10 cts.

Joe Collins, alias "Tug Wilson," champion bruiser of England, has arrived in New York from Philadelphia to make a match with Sullivan of Boston. He has issued a challenge for a fight at $2500 a side.

Hay Fever.

Mr. A. L. AVERY, Pharmacist, Newark, N. J.—Having been severely afflicted for eleven years with hay fever, after trying almost everything without avail, I gave up all hopes of being cured, when I purchased of you a box of Ely's Cream Balm. To my surprise, after a few applications, I was entirely relieved. R. WATSON HARRIS, Letter Carrier No. 14, New P. O., Newark, N. J.

I have been a hay fever sufferer for three years, and have often heard Ely's Cream Balm spoken of in the highest terms, but did not take much stock in it because of the many quack medicines. A friend persuaded me to try the Balm, and with the most wonderful success. This recommendation you can use for the benefit of hay fever sufferers. T. S. GEER, Syracuse, N. Y. Price fifty cents.

Apply into nostrils with little finger.

The band contest at lake Maranacook, Me., June 27th, was a success, between 12,000 and 15,000 people being present. About sixty bands participated; the first prize was awarded to Glover's band of Auburn, the second to Miller's band of Lewiston, and the third to the North Berwick band. The Lindell band of Portland won a silver cornet, valued at $175.

Farine Lemonade.

To one dessert spoonful of Sea Moss Farine pour one quart of boiling water. Stir it well; boil five minutes, then set it away to cool and settle. Pour off the water through a fine strainer; add sugar, lemon juice and a few pieces of the peel, and some old rum. It can be used either hot or cold, and is a very soothing drink for affections of the throat.

Queen Victoria, like many other rich persons, is very fond of property, and hangs on to it like death to a dead African.

Care-worn persons, students, weak and overworked mothers will find in Brown's Iron Bitters a complete tonic, which gives strength and tone to the whole system.

Miss Sadie Martinot is reported to be in very straightened circumstances in London. So good an actress might be assured a fine engagement, if not in England, at least in America.

"An Odd Street Scene."

He was seen in front of the office rubbing himself against the telegraph post like a flea-bitten dog. "What is wrong?" we ventured to ask. "Gotem, 'gent,' he said laconically; have 'em every spring, small lumps form about the rectum; sore to the touch; they itch like blazes; "a telegraph pole's like an oasis in the desert to me." Here then, was poor humanity suffering from a complaint which a few applications of Swayne's Ointment for itching piles, would have thoroughly eradicated.

Cuticura

THE NEW BLOOD PURIFIER

Resolvent

Mr. Albert Kingsbury, Keene, N. H., troubled with bad humor on hands and neck, caused by lead poisoning. (He's a painter.) At times it would break out, crack open, and the skin separate from the flesh in large pieces, suffering great continual itching and stinging. Purchased your remedies, used Cuticura Resolvent internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally, and in less than three months effected a complete cure, and has not been troubled since. Corroborated by Bullard & Foster, Druggists, Keene, N. H.

Mother Died from it.

J. W. Adams, Newark, Ohio, says: "Cuticura Remedies are the greatest medicine on earth. Had the worst case salt rheum in this county. My mother had it twenty years, and in fact died from it. I believe Cuticura would have saved her life. My arms, breast and head were covered for three years, which nothing relived or cured until I used the Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally.

Psoriasis.

H. E. Carpenter, Esq., Henderson, N. Y., cured of Psoriasis or Leprosy, of twenty years' standing, by the Cuticura Resolvent internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally. The most wonderful case on record. Cure certified to before a justice of the peace and prominent citizens. All afflicted with itching and scaly diseases should send to us for this testimonial in full.

Salt Rheum.

Those who have experienced the torments of Salt Rheum can appreciate the agony I endured for years, until cured by the Cuticura Resolvent internally and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally. MRS. WM. PELLINGTON, Sharon, Wis.

PATENTS!

R. H. EDDY,

No. 76 State St., Opposite Kilby, Boston.

SECURES PATENTS in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington. No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents.

Testimonials.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"Inventors cannot employ a person more trustworthy or more capable of securing for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, October 10, 1876.

R. H. EDDY, Esq.,—Dear Sir: You procured for me, in 1845, my first patent. Since then you have acted for and advised me in hundreds of cases, and procured many patents, reissues and extensions. I have, occasionally, employed the best agencies in New York, Philadelphia and Washington, but I still give you almost the whole of my business, in your line, and advise others to employ you. Yours truly, GEORGE DRAPER.

STARTLING DISCOVERY!

LOST MANHOOD RESTORED.

A victim of youthful imprudence causing Premature Decay, Nervous Debility, Lost Manhood, etc., having tried in vain every known remedy, has discovered a simple self cure, which he will send FREE to his fellow-sufferers, address J. H. REEVES, 43 Chatham St., N. Y.

...e prepared expressly to meet this ...sity, being composed of purely vegetable ingredients, of which Podophyllin or Mandrake, Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock and other concentrated juices enter largely into their composition; the whole strength of which is extracted on an entirely new principle. They are mild in their operation, and are truly a valuable aperient and anti-bilious medicine. They stimulate the liver to healthy action, cleanse the stomach and bowels of all impurities. Curing sick and nervous headache, dyspepsia or indigestion, biliousness, fevers, drowsiness, colds, aching pains, slight chills, with flashes of heat, and female irregularities. For a bilious and costive habit, no medicine is so prompt and effectual. Mailed on receipt of price [in postage stamps,] 25 cents, or five boxes for $1. Address Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, Pa. Ask your Druggist for them.

Portsmouth Chronicle.

THURSDAY, JUNE 29, 1882.

News and Notes.

Samuel J. Anderson was nominated by the Maine democrats as their candidate for Congress in the first district, June 27th, though he had positively refused to allow the use of his name. In the second district D. H. Thing was nominated. George H. Ladd in the third district, and Thompson H. Murch in the 4th, both members of the present Congress, were renominated.

The leading temperance men of Maine, including Gen. Neal Dow, have agreed to support the republican candidate for governor.

The evidence in the Malley murder trial closed on Tuesday, and Mr. Bush made the opening argument for the prosecution.

A man named Forbes arrived in New Orleans by the steamer Marco Aurelio from Havana, June 26th, and died of the yellow fever on the 27th. The steamer was ordered back to quarantine, and every precaution taken to prevent the spread of the disease.

At Pittsfield, Mass., June 27th, Mrs. John Cummings, aged sixteen years, who was married only three weeks before, attempted to commit suicide by taking five grains of morphine. Her husband was drunk the night of the wedding, and has continued so ever since. This drove her to attempt suicide. It is thought she will recover.

AROUND HOME.

A telegram received in this city on June 28th announced the arrival at Hong Kong, China, of the barque Furness Abbey, Guest master, from Honolulu, Sandwich islands.

A dog belonging to Charles Holmes, of Kittery foreside, on the 28th inst. bit a fourteen-years-old daughter of James Brown through the instep. The animal was drowned, by request of his owner.

A pile-driver was engaged in re-driving the poles of the Mitchell weir, near Gerrish's island, on Wednesday of this week.

Ex-Mayor Marvin is negotiating for the Seward place on Gerrish's island, Kittery, for the season.

It is rumored that Jacob Wendell, Esq., of New York, will build an elegant seaside residence at Newcastle, the coming autumn.

Palatka, Fla., will have a grand 4th of July celebration, including a steam yacht race, fantastics, big procession of military and civic organizations, speeches by eminent men, foot and boat races, fireworks, etc.; Mr. John E. Rider, formerly of this city but now paymaster of the Florida Southern railway, is chief marshal.

The schooner Celia, Capt. Julius Ingerbredsen, of this port, came in on June 28th to get ice and a cable; a few days previous she took seventy-five barrels of mackerel, and sold them in Boston.

A rumor has been prevalent along the water front of the city for several days, to the effect that a Gloucester fishing schooner commanded by Capt. Edward Jameson of this city was recently run down by a steamer; the story was without foundation, a despatch to the owners of the vessel, June 28th, eliciting the reply that the last they heard of her she was on the banks fishing, and all right.

The Catholic picnic at Pinkham's grove, Dover point, on Wednesday, the 28th inst., was well attended; the evening train from the picnic grounds consisted of seven cars, which were all filled with decent appearing people, a large part of them being youthful.

George Herbert on Wednesday of this week received a telegram from Boston calling for fish, but there was none in this market to send; the telegram reported the Boston market as being bare of mackerel, and with but few cod and haddock.

Capt. Joseph Spinney, aged seventy-seven years, a pioneer steamship commander, died at his residence in Brooklyn, N. Y., June 27th. He was in the government service in the Florida, Mex-

...d secession wars. He was a na-
...ive of Portsmouth.

Major Urch and his marine bicycle are receiving a deal of favorable mention in the Canadian press. The major is to give an exhibition of his bicycle in the river at Montreal this week.

The first green peas for the season, grown hereabouts, brought into this market, came in from the Badger farm on Tuesday evening last.

Mr. John Lewis of Kittery, assistant keeper of Whalesback light, who was severely injured by a fall while painting the fog-horn tower not long ago, was on Wednesday of this week reported to be in a dying condition.

What was last year the Lord house at York beach, now greatly enlarged and improved, and renamed the Hotel Bartlett, opens to the public on Saturday, July 1st. The house is in close proximity to the ocean, and commands a fine prospect. The Lord house contained twenty-two sleeping rooms, and the additions have increased the number to forty-seven; and the Hotel Bartlett is now capable of accommodating 150 guests. The extensions are in the rear of the original building, one of them being 102 feet long by thirty feet wide, and two stories high; the other, which contains the kitchen and laundry, is twenty feet by thirty on the ground. A verandah extends around the house; the one in front double-storied, and will probably be a favorite place for the slinging of hammocks on hot nights. At the north-eastern end of the extension is a tower, from which a splendid view is obtainable; bay windows have been put in, and the gables are ornamented with pinnacles and scroll work. The roof and cupola of the main building have been raised ten feet, and the whole is painted a light straw color. The drainage of the house is perfect, and there are baths in which water is let in direct from the ocean, so that invalids and elderly people can have all the benefits of sea bathing without exposure. The work was done by Sanborn & Miller of Concord, N. H.; and besides the enlargement of the house, a new stable, barber shop, etc., have been built. It was intended to erect four cottages, but the failure of the town to lay out and build a new road asked for, interfered with this part of the plan. Mr. Evans, who last year conducted the Thompson house at Union Bluff, is the landlord of the new hotel.

ACCIDENTS.

Mr. William Linchey, who lives on Wall street, corner of Russell, on June 28th buried two children, and had two others dangerously ill at the same time. In jumping from a moving train (which he had boarded to bid some friends good bye) at the Eastern railroad station, at about half-past five o'clock that evening, he injured one of his legs so badly that he had to be taken home in a team; it was at first thought that the limb was broken, but surgical examination showed that the hurt was a dislocation and not a fracture.

Mr. Daniel Sullivan, more generally known as "Peter" Sullivan, a stout young man who works in the stevedores' gangs, had a narrow escape from serious injury, if not death, on Tuesday afternoon of this week. He was attempting to board the steamer Kanawha, lying at the Eastern railroad wharf, by means of a ladder, when the foot of the ladder slipped and he was precipitated to the water twenty-five feet below, striking one of the cross-timbers of the wharf in his descent, the ladder following him down and striking on top of him in the water. Mr. Sullivan was helped out by one of the steamer's crew, and though severely bruised on the arms, back and one thigh, was able to be out next day, though unable to work.

A horse belonging to Mr. Oliver H. Cook, the photographer, ran away with a two-seated carryall on the evening of the 28th inst., and quickly sent the top one way and the wheels another, badly demolishing the vehicle.

Mrs. Frank Carleton went to the foot of Pray street, Wednesday of this week, with two puppies which she intended to throw overboard. She did throw them overboard, and also tumbled over herself, but was rescued by persons living near.

A Cough, Cold or Sore Throat
Should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an Incurable Lung Disease or Consumption. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" do not disorder the stomach like cough syrups and balsams, but act directly on the inflamed parts, allaying irritation, give relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Cough, Catarrh, and the Throat Troubles which Singers and Public Speakers are subject to. For thirty years "Brown's Bronchial Troches" have been recommended by physicians, and have always given perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. Sold at 25 cts a box everywhere. eod&wtjan23

Oak Hall Agency in Portsmouth.
Messrs. G. W. Simmons & Son, of Oak Hall, Boston, have established an agency for this city and vicinity for the sale of their custom and ready made men's and boys' clothing, at No. 33 Market street, Portsmouth, where anything contained at Oak Hall, Boston, can be procured, at the same prices as in Boston. Several dollars can be saved by buying your own and your children's clothing at the Oak Hall Agency, as they sell at the lowest prices in New England.

There were ... schooners at Portsmouth bridge. Wednesday afternoon, 28th inst., three of them being bound for Boston with cargoes from the up-river brickyards, viz.: the D. K. Ham, Garland master, from Abbott's steam brickyard, the Ocean Eagle, Maxwell master, from Gage's yard, and the J. M. Eaton, Parsons master, from Clark's yard. The Sharon, Donnell master, was bound to the eastward, light, having discharged a cargo of wood from Cape Neddick at one of the Eliot brickyards. The vessels named all sailed the same date.

LIFE INSURANCE!
The Semi-Endowment Policy of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is believed to be the most desirable plan of insurance ever offered.
Among its advantages are: A definitely guaranteed cash value at a specified time. A paid-up policy for full value in case of discontinuance. Its period (20 years) covers the productive years of life, when insurance is mostly needed. It provides for old age. Above the age of 40 the rates are less than for life policies in other companies, while below 40 they are but little in excess of ordinary life premiums.
Parties insured in Co-operative Societies are requested to compare the net cost of these policies with that of assessment insurance.

8. "No Cede Malis,"—Valedictory. Ella F. Goss.
Music—Misses Vaughan and Norton.
Presentation of Diplomas. Award of Medals.

The graduating class was the largest of any for many years, numbering twenty, as follows:

Grace R. Brown, Angeline E. Fletcher, Ella F. Goss, Mary A. Kelley, Louise M. Norton, Alice J. Sheldon, Nettie C. Sides, Mary P. Thompson, Grace M. Townsend, Nellie A. Tripp, Susie B. Upham, Mary E. Vaughan, Robert F. Bradford, John P. Canty, Frederic F. Church, Benjamin Green, Samuel L. Kingsbury, John D. McCarthy, Charles A. Stevens.

The diplomas were presented to the graduates by His Honor Mayor Sise, who made a few brief and sensible remarks, and the Haven medals were distributed by Miss Wilson according to the award of the committee, as follows:

SECOND YEAR.

For "diligent application, good deportment, and general improvement in all the studies pursued:"

Young ladies—First medal, Hattie A. Seavey; second medal, Emily N. DeRochemont;

Young gentlemen—First medal, Robert D. Carter; second medal, Albert I. Drake.

THIRD YEAR.

For "having maintained the highest rank in general scholarship:"

Young ladies—First medal, Carrie A. Drake; second medal, Nettie E. Stillings.

For "excellence in English composition," (only young gentlemen contend,) John W. Kelley. [This young gentleman has also maintained the highest rank in general scholarship.] Second medal for general scholarship, Charles F. Richards.

FOURTH YEAR.

Young ladies—For "excellence in general scholarship," first medal, Ella F. Goss; second medal, Mary P. Thompson; fourth medal, Angeline E. Fletcher.

Young gentlemen—For "excellence in general scholarship," first medal, Benjamin Green; second medal, Fred F. Church; third medal, John D. McCarthy.

Grace R. Brown, of the graduating class, has not been absent or tardy for four years; and Charles A. Stevens has the same good record for seven years—four years in the high school, and three in the grammar school before entering the high school.

In the evening the graduating class gave a reception and dance in Franklin hall, Harlow's orchestra furnishing the music; the floor presented a brilliant and happy scene, being thronged with the youthful friends of the graduates, and the galleries were filled with pleased spectators, many more of whom would have been present but for the necessary limitation of the number of tickets.

THE "KNIBBS" VALVE.

Mr. Editor: It is a matter of some interest to residents in cities and towns where steam fire engines are used, to know just what the so-called "Knibbs patent valve" is, even as it is a matter of decided interest to the tax-payers of said cities and towns to know whether Marcus P. Norton, the wholesale claimant of wholesale damages for alleged infringement of the alleged patent, has any legal claim in the premises,—as to whether or no he has any just claim, there cannot be two opinions.

In a recent issue of your paper you published what purported to be a description of this suddenly-made-famous valve, taken from some other paper; but that description was a very muddled affair, and conveyed no clear idea of what the valve is or what it is designed to do, and this I will endeavor to make plain to the non-mechanical reader.

The valve is simply a relief-valve to a force pump; that is, when opened it allows the pump to be worked without discharging any water, and of course without draughting any. In a single-pump engine, when the valve is open, the motion of the piston simply causes the water in the cylinder to pass from one end to the other and back; in a double-pump engine, the water passes back and forth between the two pumps; and in either case there is neither delivery nor suction.

This control of the pumps is of great value to steam fire engines. For instance: in a cold night, when there is danger of the machine freezing up if stopped, the order to cease playing is given; instead of shutting off the steam the engineer opens this pass-over or circulating valve, and the engine keeps on working, preventing a freeze-up and enabling the engineer to supply the boiler with water from the feed-pump if desired, while delivering no water through the hose, and of course sucking none from the reservoir. Similarly, in case the boiler needs water at any time when the engine is not working, throwing open this valve enables the engineer to accomplish his object without starting the water through the hose.

So far as I know or can find out, this valve, or one the same in principle, has been used on all the steam fire engines ever made; and it has been used on all surface condensing engines, in the navy and elsewhere, for the past twenty years at least, and some old mechanics say for forty.

No practical machinist in this city—and among our machinists are men who have been employed in the management and on the repairs of steam fire engines ever since they came into use—can form any idea as to what ground the Knibbs-Norton claim for such extravagant compensation as is demanded, or any compensation at all, is founded on. The universal opinion is that it is one "grand bounce;" but then the ways of the law are past finding out. MONKEY WRENCH.

The new steamer "City of Bangor" will leave Gas-house wharf on Friday evening at 7:45 o'clock, for a moonlight excursion on the ocean. See advertisement.

Six fine spars for the new schooner Annie F. Conlon were in the north mill pond on the 28th inst., waiting a chance to be towed out through the tide-gates; they were brought in on a railroad train.

The Boston (and some of the other) directors of the Maine Central railroad went through this city at five o'clock P. M. on Wednesday, the 28th inst., in a special directors' car for Boston. The directors of the Maine Central held a meeting in Portland, on Wednesday, and declared the first dividend of the company, $2 per share. The directors of the Portland, Saco & Portsmouth railroad, chosen at the recent annual meeting at Kittery, organized at Portland on Wednesday, when E. B. Phillips, Esq., was re-elected president.

A PLEASANT LETTER.

It Rings of a Grateful Heart and gives Honor where Honor is Due.

Mr. William W. Chadwick, of Hatchville, Conn., writes under date of June 14, 1880, to Dr. Kennedy, to say that the use of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" has cured him of Gall stone, from which he had experienced everything but comfort for a long time. Mr. Chadwick felt wholly cured when he wrote, and says: "I have had no pain for six months, and have also gained my flesh and can stand a fair day's work. I recommend Kennedy's Favorite Remedy to any one suffering from a deranged liver." Grateful patients are common. Dr. Kennedy is daily in receipt of letters from them, expressing similar sentiments. These letters are spontaneous and put in all varities of phrasecology, but invariably setting forth one thing—the value of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for many forms of disease. It may be just the thing you have been looking for. Is your liver disordered? Have you derangement of the kidneys or bladder, associated with constipation of the bowels? If so, you want "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy." Dr. Kennedy practices medicine and surgery in all their branches. Write and state your case frankly. Letters promptly answered. Address Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.

The Fishery Products.

The importance and value of the fishery product of the United States cannot be over-estimated. Recent statistics show that their value in the census year 1880 was about $45,000,000, the estimated price paid to the producers, while the value of the same products at wholesale prices could not be less then $90,000,000. The export trade amounted to only $5,744,880, principally on account of a strong home demand. Among the fishery products are dried cod and pollock, smoked herring, halibut and mullet, pickled and spiced fish, salted mackerel, canned salmon, lobsters, clams, oysters, crabs, shrimps, and cod and sardines. The consumption of these is constantly on the increase in England, France and Germany, where very desirable markets can be found for them. Many of these products of ours are, however, rarely found abroad, particularly pickled fish, of which great quantities are consumed in all parts of Europe. Since the exhibition at Berlin in 1880 agencies for the sale of American fish have been established in nearly every country in Europe, and the American boneless codfish has been adopted as a standard article of food by nearly a score of the regiments in the German army. The exports of fishery goods from the United States to Europe in 1869 amounted in value to $134,783, and in 1881 to $1,902,100. The exports of oysters to England alone in 1881 amounted in value to $403,629.

The house of Mrs. Susan Kaine, on Maine street, Saco, was burned June 27th, with most of its contents. Loss $1700; insurance $1500.

A French boy named Sariver, nine years old, was drowned in the Saco river June 27th, by falling into it while playing in the "shipyard" at Biddeford.

"Suffering with rheumatic pains I was didymus as to remedies. I read of St. Jacobs Oil and said here goes for a half dollar trial. I bought a bottle and before it was half used the screw-wrench pains had gone—and they troubled me no longer," says Ernest King, Esq., editor of the Fall River (Mass.) Sun.

Jonas Roberts was killed at Farmington, June 27th, by being thrown from a wagon.

"Wheat Bitters" never disturb the stomach, but promote digestion and nourishment.

Sylvester Smith, while attempting to cross the track of the Boston, Concord & Montreal railroad with a horse and wagon, at Musquito bridge, Tilton, on June 27th, was struck by the engine of the day-express going south, and lived about an hour. He was forty years old; no family.

On June 27th, about three miles from Littleton station, a south-bound freight train on the Boston, Concord & Montreal railroad jumped the track, the engine and a dozen cars being thrown off. Express and mail trains south were detained by the wreck.

The Perpetuity of Fame.

As the name of the immortal Washington has been most sacredly perpetuated as that of a hero and statesman, so also has the fame of Swayne's Ointment for skin diseases, descended into perpetuity as the only reliable remedy in the market, for every character of skin disorders, and as the reward of well-deserving merit. Worth and merit go hand-in-hand. It is useless to contradict the worth of this article.

THE

New Hampshire Gazette!

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Contains more original matter

Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a weekly invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

Oh, My Back!

That's a common expression and has a world of meaning. How much suffering is summed up in it.

The singular thing about it is, that pain in the back is occasioned by so many things. May be caused by kidney disease, liver complaint, consumption, cold, rheumatism, dyspepsia, overwork, nervous debility, &c.

Whatever the cause, don't neglect it. Something is wrong and needs prompt attention. No medicine has yet been discovered that will so quickly and surely cure such diseases as BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, and it does this by commencing at the foundation, and making the blood pure and rich.

Logansport, Ind. Dec. 1, 1880.

For a long time I have been a sufferer from stomach and kidney disease. My appetite was very poor and the very small amount I did eat disagreed with me. I was annoyed very much from non-retention of urine. I tried many remedies with no success, until I used Brown's Iron Bitters. Since I used that my stomach does not bother me any. My appetite is simply immense. My kidney trouble is no more, and my general health is such, that I feel like a new man. After the use of Brown's Iron Bitters for one month, I have gained twenty pounds in weight. O. E. SARGENT.

Leading physicians and clergymen use and recommend BROWN'S IRON BITTERS. It has cured others suffering as you are, and it will cure you.

SULPHUR BITTERS

THE GREAT

German Remedy.

TRUTHS FOR THE SICK.

For those deathly Bilious Spells, depend on SULPHUR BITTERS, it will cure you.

Ladies in delicate health, who are all run down, should use SULPHUR BITTERS.

The Giant Dyspepsia is cured by using SULPHUR BITTERS.

$1,000 will be paid for a case where SULPHUR BITTERS will not assist or cure. It never fails.

Operatives who are closely confined in the mills and workshops, Clerks, who do not procure sufficient exercise, and all who are confined in doors, should use SULPHUR BITTERS. They will not then be weak and sickly.

Cleanse the vitiated blood when you see its impurities burst, ing through the skin in Pimples, Blotches, and Sores. Rely on SULPHUR BITTERS, and health will follow.

General Debility needs a gentle tonic. Use SULPHUR BITTERS, and you will not be troubled.

SULPHUR BITTERS will cure Liver Complaint. Don't be discouraged; it will cure you.

Don't be without a bottle. Try it; you will not regret it.

SULPHUR BITTERS will build you up and make you strong and healthy.

Boss Curtis Defied.

Some little time ago a circular was sent out by Chairman Hubbell of the Republican Congressional committee, asking "voluntary contributions" (of amounts specified) from office-holders.

This aroused the ire of the New York Civil Service Reform association, and a circular signed by George William Curtis, president of the association, was at once sent to the various government officials, threatening to prosecute any person who subscribed anything in answer to the Hubbell circular.

Without entering into any consideration of the moral effect or political expediency of raising money for party purposes by assessing the office-holders, we must say that as a "boss" and bulldozer, it is evident that Mr. Curtis can learn nothing from Mr. Hubbell; for it is certainly as unwarrantable an encroachment on an individual's rights to say he shall not be allowed to spend his own money in politics, as to say that he shall be compelled to contribute to such expenses. There is at least one office-holder who considers himself as much a free citizen of the republic as is Mr. Curtis, and who does not propose to ask the civil service reformers for permission to dispose of his property as seems to him best; we allude to Dr. A. P. Heichhold, special agent of the Treasury department, who has mailed to Mr. Curtis the following reply to the insolent circular of the reformers:

Sir,—Permit me to say to you that I look upon your circular letter, threatening me with prosecution if I contribute to the advancement of the republican party, as a piece of uncalled for and inexcusable insolence. I earn what the government pays me, and the government pays me what I earn, and I feel myself at liberty, as a free American citizen, to dispose of my money as best suits me, without consulting your self-constituted committee or any one else, and I disregard your threats and defy your prosecution.

Is an office-holder a dog that you should kick him in this way, or a slave that you should make him tremble at your word? If you think that I am either you are much mistaken, as I am no more a slave of the United States government, which is my employer, than you are a slave of the Harpers, who are your employers, and I have always felt and do now feel that I am my own master and fully competent to control my own purse-strings. Your impertinence will scare only the timid and half-hearted. It will alarm no true republican.

I believe in the republican party with all the zeal of my nature; and in the belief that the greatest calamity which could befall the nation would be the elevation to power of the democratic party, and in spite of what hot-butter philosophers may threaten me, I shall spend my money to keep that party out in the cold, and you are at liberty to make the most of it; but always remember that you and your committee will be better off at the end of life if you mind your own business and let that of your neighbors alone.

How it was Done.

"How do you manage," said a lady to her friend, "to appear so happy and good natured all the time?" "I always have Parker's Ginger Tonic handy," was the reply, "and thus easily keep myself and family in good health. When I am well I always feel good natured."

Isaac Kelton, aged thirty-two years, whose intellect was disordered some time ago by a fall from a horse, shot himself through the heart at Woonsocket, R. I., June 27th.

An Impossibility.

Deserving articles are always appreciated. The exceptional cleanliness of Parker's Hair Balsam makes it popular. Gray hairs are impossible with its occasional use.

At Long wharf, Newport, R. I., June 27th, some of Barnum's elephants got away from their keepers, and dashed through a crowd of about 5000 persons. The animals were soon recaptured. Several women fainted, but no one was hurt.

Flies and Bugs.

Decline of Man.

Is a cold-water bath a cure for small pox? At San Francisco, recently, a boat containing sixteen small pox patients on their way to the pest house was capsized; fifteen of the inmates were rescued after an exposure of one hour in a cold wind and wet garments. It was promptly announced by the doctors that the patients would all die; but on the contrary they not only all got well, but some of them recovered with a rapidity that was astonishing.

Handsome versus Homely.

Who is that fine looking lady that we just passed, Clara? Why, that is Mrs. Snow. Well, there, what a change; when I saw her last, her skin was so sallow and muddy looking, its no wonder I didn't know her. What has produced that lovely complexion? I heard she took Sulphur Bitters, the great blood purifier, and now would not be without them.

The British consul at Corunna, Spain, telegraphs to his government that the Duke of Edinburgh, while fishing near Bayonne, hooked a large fish and was dragged into water sixteen feet deep. He was carried under four times. After struggling for half an hour he succeeded in reaching land.

Care-worn persons, students, weak and overworked mothers will find in Brown's Iron Bitters a complete tonic, which gives strength and tone to the whole system.

"Mount Desert on the coast of Maine, by Mrs. Clara Barnes Martin." The fifth edition of Mrs. Martin's sketch of the topography and history of Mount Desert, published by Loring, Short & Harmon of Portland, and Houghton, Mifflin & Co. of Boston, includes nearly the whole of a monograph first privately printed in 1867. The present illustrated guide book contains a hundred pages, descriptive of this attractive summer resort, showing the routes by which it may be reached, with illustrations of prominent and noted spots. To the visitor of Mount Desert the little volume is of special importance, informing the tourists in advance of the enjoyments in store, and affording the means of pleasant retrospection after the return from visiting this far famed region of summer sojourners. The book can be had of all book sellers, and on the cars, for seventy-five cents.

"An Odd Street Scene."

He was seen in front of the office rubbing himself against the telegraph post like a flea-bitten dog. "What is wrong?" we ventured to ask. "Gotem, 'gent," he said laconically; have 'em every spring, small lumps form about the rectum; sore to the touch; they itch like blazes; "a telegraph pole's like an oasis in the desert to me." Here then, was poor humanity suffering from a complaint which a few applications of Swayne's Ointment for itching piles, would have thoroughly eradicated.

Cuticura

THE NEW BLOOD PURIFIER

Resolvent

Mr. Albert Kingsbury, Keene, N. H., troubled with bad humor on hands and neck, caused by lead poisoning. (He's a painter.) At times it would break out, crack open, and the skin separate from the flesh in large pieces, suffering great continual itching and stinging. Purchased your remedies, used Cuticura Resolvent internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally, and in less than three months effected a complete cure, and has not been troubled since. Corroborated by Bullard & Foster, Druggists, Keene, N. H.

Mother Died from it.

J. W. Adams, Newark, Ohio, says: "Cuticura Remedies are the greatest medicine on earth. Had the worst case salt rheum in this county. My mother had it twenty years, and in fact died from it. I believe Cuticura would have saved her life. My arms, breast and head were covered for three years, which nothing relived or cured until I used the Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally.

Psoriasis.

H. E. Carpenter, Esq., Henderson, N. Y., cured of Psoriasis or Leprosy, of twenty years' standing, by the Cuticura Resolvent internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally. The most wonderful case on record. Cure certified to before a justice of the peace and prominent citizens. All afflicted with itching and scaly diseases should send to us for this testimonial in full.

Salt Rheum.

Those who have experienced the torments of Salt Rheum can appreciate the agony I endured for years, until cured by the Cuticura Resolvent internally and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally.

MRS. WM. PELLINGTON, Sharon, Wis.

Cuticura

and Cuticura Soap externally and Cuticura Resolvent internally will positively cure every species of humor, from a common pimple to Scrofula. Price of Cuticura, small boxes, 50c.; large boxes, $1. Testimonials.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"Inventors cannot employ a person more trustworthy or more capable of securing for them early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, October 19, 1876.

R. H. EDDY, Esq.,—Dear Sir: You procured for me, in 1840, my first patent. Since then you have acted for and advised me in hundreds of cases, and procured many patents, reissues and extensions. I have, occasionally, employed the best agencies in New York, Philadelphia and Washington, but I still give you almost the whole of my business, in your line, and advise others to employ you. Yours truly, GEORGE DRAPER.

STARTLING DISCOVERY!

LOST MANHOOD RESTORED.

A victim of youthful imprudence causing Premature Decay, Nervous Debility, Lost Manhood, etc., having tried in vain every known remedy, has discovered a simple self cure, which he will send FREE to his fellow-sufferers, address J. H. REEVES, 43 Chatham St., N. Y.

Perhaps no medicine is so universally required as a good cathartic. Swayne's Pills are prepared expressly to meet this necessity, being composed of purely vegetable ingredients, of which Podophyllin or Mandrake, Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock and other concentrated juices enter largely into their composition; the whole strength of which is extracted on an entirely new principle. They are mild in their operation, and are truly a valuable aperient and anti-bilious medicine. They stimulate the liver to healthy action, cleanse the stomach and bowels of all impurities. Curing sick and nervous headache, dyspepsia or indigestion, biliousness, fevers, drowsiness, colds, aching pains, sligh chills, with flashes of heat, and female irregularities. For a bilious and costive habit, no medicine is so prompt and effectual. Mailed on receipt of price [in postage stamps,] 25 cents, or five boxes for $1. Address Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, Pa. Ask your Druggist for them.

Shocking Railroad Disaster.

The express train from Long Branch at 8:05 o'clock Thursday morning, June 29th, ran off the track while on a bridge over a branch of the Shrewsbury river near Little Silver station, and the smoking car and four passenger cars went over the bridge, landing on their sides in four feet of water. James L. Brady, a New York produce dealer, wes taken out dead, and G. W. Demarest, a New York merchant, soon died; Wm. R. Garrison, son of Commodore Garrison, and Annie Irwin of Brooklyn, were taken up unconscious, and remained so up to evening; Wm. A. McCall, a brakeman, had his throat cut and received terrible injuries; John T. Raymond, the actor, had his collar bone broken; J. Mitchell of Scranton, Charles M. Woodruff of Newark, and James E. Mallory of New York, were reported in the evening to be dying; and many others were terribly hurt, the entire number wounded being reported at over one hundred. Ex-President Grant was in the smoking car, but escaped through a window with but slight injuries.

Grove Meetings.

The annual grove meeting of the Unitarians of New Hampshire will be held at Weirs, lake Winnipesaukie, from July 23d to July 30th, inclusive. Excursion tickets over the several railroads will be sold, good from July 23d to the 30th going and until August 23d returning; price of tickets from this city, for round trip, $2.60 each. Special rates will be made at hotels and boarding houses in the vicinity.

The Universalist grove meeting will be held at Weirs, Aug. 4th, 5th and 6th, Rev. G. H. Shinn of Plymouth, manager. Rev. A. J. Patterson, D. D., of Boston, Rev. E. C. Bolles, D. D., of Salem, Rev. J. M. Pullman, D. D., of New York, Rev. A. A. Miner, D. D., of Boston, and others, will speak. There will be reduced hotel and railroad rates.

The Toy Pistol.

A girl thirteen years old, daughter of Rev. J. H. Nutting of Fall River, Mass., while playing in the yard of the Davis school in that city on Wednesday, June 28th, was accidentally shot in the face by a blank-cartridge pistol in the hands of a schoolmate; her face will be permanently disfigured, and the sight of her left eye destroyed.

Summer Institute.

Arrangements have been completed for a Summer Institute at Reed's Ferry, to commence July 10th, and continue three weeks. H. P. Warren, principal of the state normal school, will lecture on "History" and "Methods;" Miss E. M. Reed, primary teacher at the state normal school, will give practical instruction in "methods," with classes from primary and grammar schools; Elliot Whipple, principal of the McGaw Institute, will teach elementary science, analysis, and literature; and other classes will be formed if desired. This brings the advantages of the state normal school within reach of those teachers who have entered permanently upon their work. Summer institutes have become quite common, and proved very useful, in other states; and this attempt to introduce them in New Hampshire is heartily approved of by State Supt. of Education Patterson. Full particulars can be had on addressing E. Whipple, Reed's Ferry, N. H.

News and Notes.

Charles J. Guiteau will die to-day between the hours of twelve and two o'clock.

A punt containing several children upset at North Castine, Me., June 27th, and a ten-year-old child of Capt. John K. Perkins was drowned.

Mr. Blake, agent, and Mr. Keene, steward of Lord Clarincarde's estate in Ireland, were assassinated June 29th; they were shot by men concealed behind a stone wall. A farmer named McCausland was killed the same day at Ballyclare, by two men armed with scythes.

Henry Cole of Cincinnati, an attorney, fatally shot his wife, his daughter, aged eighteen years, and himself, June 28th. The cause of the act is unknown. The tragedy was discovered at noon by passers-by, who, hearing groans, broke open the house.

Seventeen deaths have occurred from the railroad accident at Atwater, Minn., and it is believed that two or three bodies are still under the wreck, buried in the mud and water.

Joe Fanbers, at Tonys Forks, Wis., broke William Jordan's neck with an old gun barrel for playfully pointing a pistol at him and demanding his money.

A colored man named Brickett died in McCracken county, Ky., a few days ago, leaving an estate consisting of 4000 acres of land and several thousand dollars to a white man who attended him in his last illness, and who had no idea the negro was worth a cent.

Mrs. Christancy has withdrawn her answer in the suit for divorce against her by her husband. This is understood to be a final surrender on her part. This will give Mr. Christiancy the divorce, and the decree will carry the costs against her. As she is unable to pay them, Mr. Christiancy will doubtless himself be glad to defray this expense to have this scandalous suit stricken from the docket.

Seven members of the family of James M. Stedman of New York were so badly poisoned recently from eating smoked beef tongue their lives were despaired of. It required twenty-four hours of medical attention to restore them. One of the physicians tested the tongue, and nearly lost his own life.

The coroner's jury on the victims of the late disaster on the St. Paul, Minneapolis & Maitoba railroad at Atwater, Minn., censures the company for not establishing a maximum rate of speed for gravel trains, and attributes the death of the victims to the reckless manner in which the train was run.

A brig with a case of yellow fever on board arrived at Philadelphia quarantine station on June 28th, from Havana.

At Raton, N. M., after the mob had hanged Gus Menzel, the Mexican gambler, for shooting four men, as previously reported, they took his pal, C. D. R. Bradley, and hanged him also.

The people of Iowa this week voted on the question of adopting a constitutional amendment prohibiting the manufacture and sale of liquors, and returns up to the evening of June 27th, show that 674 townships give the amendment a net majority of 24,268. This includes returns from all the large cities in the state, except Sioux City. The majority in the state for the amendment will probably be not less than 50,000.

Mrs. Ole Bull, having given up for the present her contemplated trip to Norway with Mrs. James T. Fields, will spend most of the summer with her parents, who are occupying the house of Hon. James Russell Lowell, at Cambridge, Mass.

Mrs. Kelley recently caused the remains of her pet dog to be buried in a cemetery at Washington, Pa., whither they were accompanied by a funeral procession of mourners, and an undertaker. The owners of lots have held a meeting since the funeral to protest against what they consider a desecration of the sacred place, and the authorities will be urged to compel the removal of the dog's body.

BRIGHTON CATTLE MARKET.

Death to the Parasites.

Which hide between the gums and teeth, and eat into them to their destruction. SOZODONT is master of the situation. Whoever uses it regularly after every meal, and cleanses his teeth and mouth, will soon be rid of the parasites.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. "It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere Twenty-five cents a bottle. eod&w1jan28

Oak Hall Agency in Portsmouth.

Messrs. G. W. Simmons & Son, of Oak Hall, Boston, have established an agency for this city and vicinity for the sale of their custom and ready made men's and boys' clothing, at No. 33 Market street, Portsmouth, where anything contained at Oak Hall, Boston, can be procured, at the same prices as in Boston. Several dollars can be saved by buying your own and your children's clothing at the Oak Hall Agency, as they sell at the lowest prices in New England.

Alvan Clark & Sons, of Cambridgeport, Mass., have in hand the largest telescope ever made, it having a 36-inch object glass and ordered for the Lick observatory, California, at a cost of $50,000 without the mounting.

Within a few days thirty Hungarians and Poles, suffering from scurvy in its worst form as well as pneumonia, have been admitted to the county hospital at Pottsville, Pa. The alarming increase of such cases has provoked much comment, and the matter will be laid before the doctors' association. The disease is ascribed to the almost exclusive use of salt meat by the imported laborers about the mines, and their filthy habits.

Mrs. Consider Fisher, one of the characters in the "Cape Cod Folks," died at Cedarville, Mass., a few days ago. She was consumptive, and her death is thought to have been hastened by the unpleasant notoriety and excitement of the libel suit.

LIEBIG MALT EXTRACT.

RECOMMENDED BY PHYSICIANS of the highest eminence on both sides of the Atlantic, as an invaluable Tonic and Restorative in cases of General Debility, Nervous Depression, Enfeebled Constitution and Female Weakness.

NURSING MOTHERS, who suffer from poverty of milk, will find it a specific for their troubles. It stimulates the digestion, sharpens the appetite, invigorates and builds up the entire system, and confers a generous flow of milk.

WEAK AND SICKLY CHILDREN, who suffer from lassitude and weariness, the result of disease, over-study, or nervous strain, will derive substantial benefit from its use. It restores the system to its normal condition and brings back the bloom of youth.

INVALIDS AND CONVALESCENTS will find it admirably adapted for nourishing the exhausted and convalescing invalid. When the stomach is weak and refuses other nourishment the Extract will prove an excellent substitute for food. It neither pals upon the appetite nor offends the taste.

DELICATE FEMALES, who suffer from the weaknesses of the sex, will derive lasting relief from its use. It improves the digestion, purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, and revives the spirits.

WEAK AND DELICATE PERSONS GENERALLY, who require some artificial restorative—and especially those who are confined to Consumptive Diets—will find this preparation exactly suited to their needs. It is a specific for the Coughs and Nervous Affections usually incident to a low state of the system.

AS A FLESH RESTORER it possesses the highest value. The whole tendency of its action is to stimulate the digestion of life-producing foods, and its effect is invariably to give fullness and roundness to the female form, and robustness to the masculine frame.

THE LIEBIG MALT EXTRACT is a pure concentrated Fluid Extract of Malt, agreeable to the taste, and free from alcohol. It is readily retained on the stomach and contains none but wholesome and nourishing ingredients. The genuine preparation bears on the label a fac-simile of Baron von Liebig's signature, and a Par-chemin of his Signature, as well as that of A. VOGELER & CO., BALTIMORE, Md., Sole Agents for America.

LIFE INSURANCE!

The Semi-Endowment Policy of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is believed to be the most desirable plan of insurance ever offered.

Among its advantages are: A definitely guaranteed cash value at a specified time. A paid-up policy for full value in case of discontinuance. Its period (20 years) covers the productive years of life, when insurance is mostly needed. It provides for old age. Above the age of 40 the rates are less than for life policies in other companies, while below 40 they are but little in excess of ordinary life premiums.

Parties insured in Co-operative Societies are requested to compare the net cost of these policies with that of assessment insurance.

MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

In Board of Mayor and Aldermen, regular meeting, Thursday evening, June 29th, Mayor Size in the chair:

Present, the full board.

The records of last meeting were read and approved.

Bond of the collector of taxes, to the amount of $30,000, was accepted.

Bill of Morris Tobin, $25.50, approved by the street commissioner, was ordered paid.

Payroll of fire department to July 1st, amounting to $1443.87, was ordered paid.

Committee on streets were notified to fix the grade of Madison street.

Committee on street lights reported on the difference in cost between iron and wooden posts, that the cost of iron posts made by Critchley & Whalley would be $10.50 each; wooden ones were offered at $4.50 each. It was stated that F. Jones would give $3 each toward paying for twenty-five iron posts, which would leave difference of $3 per post in favor of wooden over iron ones. There was discussion over the relative durability of the two kinds of posts, and Ald. Green moved that wooden posts be erected. Ald. Call was in favor of iron posts, and Ald. Martin moved an amendment to Mr. Green's motion, providing that iron posts be put up. Ald. Noyes moved that twenty-five iron posts be put up, on North street and New Vaughan street, and the yeas and nays were called, Stavers, Call, Noyes and Slater voting yea, and Hartshorn and Green nay, the other members not voting. Ald. Hartshorn moved that iron posts be put up on Sagamore road and Newcastle street, which motion prevailed; so all the posts are to be iron.

A communication was received from the Eastern Telegraph Co., consenting to the use of their poles by the telephone company on certain conditions.

Ald. Noyes, from the committee on city lands and buildings, reported on the application of John Caswell for lease of a part of the Spring market, that it is not expedient to comply with the request; and the report was accepted and adopted. So the Spring market will continue to be a source of income to the city, by being kept closed.

The mayor brought up the subject of the north millpond nuisance; and Ald. Martin suggested that if His Honor had any remarks to make, he had better take the floor. It was stated that Mr. Rand had given up operating the grist mill, and it was suggested that the tide gates might now be left open at suitable times; and Ald. Martin was appointed a committee to confer with Hon. Moses H. Goodrich, who holes a portion of the water privilege, in relation to the matter.

The question of the perennial Wilson-house-obstruction was brought up, and Ald. Stavers said the matter had left the hands of the special committee, the street commissioner having been ordered to remove the obstruction. No motion was made in the premises.

The Common Council gave notice that they had passed, under suspension of the rules, an ordinance appropriating $15,500 to abate the north millpond nuisance in accordance with the plan of Mr. Rice made in 1877, the work to be done by contract under the supervision of the joint committee of the councils. The board refused concurrence.

Adjourned.

Tickets for the moonlight excursion by steamer City of Bangor this evening can be had at Mr. Beaumont's office, No. 67 Daniel street, during the day, by those who wish to avoid the crowd at the ticket window in the evening. The tickets are positively limited, and we advise all who intend making the excursion to call on Mr. Beaumont during the day. The [illegible] is very nicely fitted and very [illegible] the trip will be an enjoyable

All the passenger engines on the Conway branch of the Eastern railroad have been altered so as to burn coal, instead of wood as formerly; the freight engines still burn wood.

The new steamer City of Bangor, belonging to the South Shore Steamship Co., arrived at this port on Thursday forenoon, the 29th inst., on a trial trip preparatory to taking her place in the line. Beginning on Saturday, July 8th, a new time-table will go into effect, the steamer Acushnet making two trips per week between this city and Boston, and the City of Bangor one, leaving Boston Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays at 10:30 o'clock A. M., and this city on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays at 8:30 A. M.

One of our Dover contemporaries, in recording the death of a well known citizen, says "An ancient land mark gone." We presume he must have been a tall citizen who stood on the river bank and served as a guide to navigators upon the Cocheco.

Mr. James R. Yeaton not only runs a large grocery store on Congress street, but is quite successful as a farmer, as well. On Monday evening he picked a quantity of green peas, very well filled out, from the vines on his place near Richards avenue, and sold them from his store on Tuesday morning.

A boy eight or nine years old, son of Mr. George Herbert, fell overboard from Russell & Odion's wharf on Wednesday evening, the 28th inst., but was fished out by Mr. Joseph H. Randall with no other harm than a thorough soaking.

On Thursday evening last, about 8:30 o'clock, two boys started in a sailboat from the navy yard landing on their way to Newcastle, but had proceeded only a few boat's lengths when one of them managed to capsize the craft, and both were tumbled into the water. One swam to Broughton's wharf, only a few yards distant, and both lifted up their voices for aid, attracting the attention of several young fellows who happened to be in the vicinity, and who by the aid of some of Mr. Broughton's boards got the wet pair out of water. The boat was hauled ashore and bailed out, and the youthful boatmen again started off, their confidence apparently being not in the least dampened.

Charles E. Gray, proprietor of Threetree island, will during the summer occupy the buildings there, which have been vacant many months.

Mr. John S. Sides of this city claims to have the tallest corn in this vicinity, some stalks measuring thirty-seven inches in height on June 28th.

The schooner yacht Brenda, of Boston, arrived in the lower harbor on Thursday.

It is said that one of the crew of the U. S. S. Vandalia a day or two since, visited six barber shops in this city in an endeavor to get his hair cut, and failed finally, every barber on whom he called being driven by a press of work just then, and directing him to some other shop where he could no doubt secure attention. He is a colored man, but of course his race had nothing to do with it.

The Portsmouth correspondent of the Traveller says that Frank Jones assures him that he will not be the democratic candidate for governor this year. We have usually noticed that when Mr. Jones' has any political plans on foot, the first business is to take care that the correspondents of the republican papers are carefully put on the wrong scent.

Mr. Samuel B. Glines, now past seventy-seven years of age, mowed and made hay in a field on South street all day on the 28th inst., and got through more work than many a much younger man would care to perform in the same time. When a young man Mr. Glines taught school for some years in Brookline, Mass.; and later, worked as ship carpenter in this city, for George Raynes, Fernald & Pettigrew, Daniel Marcy and other noted shipbuilders. He was regarded as an extra workmen, and was always put to work on sternposts, windlasses, sampson posts, bitts, and such like "fancy jobs," when there was anything of the kind to be done.

The sidewalk on Vaughan street, between Deer street and the railroad tracks, was blocked for some time on Thursday last by a load of hay, of which a large part took a notion to tumble off just there.

Work was commenced on Thursday of this week at fencing in the grounds of the new Christ church.

The schooner Loella, Capt. Amee, went on the marine railway at Kittery on Thursday.

Mr. Charles L. Bowden, postmaster at York beach, lost a very valuable horse on the 25th of June; another horse kicked the animal with such violence as to break one of his legs, and he had to be killed.

—"The meanest job I ever undertook," mused a Colorado man, "was the apologizing to a widow, on behalf of a vigilance committee which hanged her husband by mistake. It was hard to find just the excuse that would satisfy her."

The Earl of Dalrymple, who is at present on a visit to this country, has been spending several days at Brookline, Mass., as a guest of Hon. M. Parry Kennard, United States sub-treasurer at Boston.

A PLEASANT LETTER.

It Rings of a Grateful Heart and gives Honor where Honor is Due.

Mr. William W. Chadwick, of Hatchville, Conn., writes under date of June 14, 1880, to Dr. Kennedy, to say that the use of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" has cured him of Gall stone, from which he had experienced everything but comfort for a long time. Mr. Chadwick felt wholly cured when he wrote, and says: "I have had no pain for six months, and have also regained my flesh and can stand a fair day's work. I recommend Kennedy's Favorite Remedy to any one suffering from a deranged liver." Grateful patients are common. Dr. Kennedy is daily in receipt of letters from them, expressing similar sentiments. These letters are spontaneous and put in all varieties of phraseology, but invariably setting forth one thing—the value of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for many forms of disease. It may be just the thing you have been looking for. Is your liver disordered? Have you derangement of the kidneys or bladder, associated with constipation of the bowels? If so, you want "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy." Dr. Kennedy practices medicine and surgery in all their branches. Write and state your case frankly. Letters promptly answered. Address Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.

IS A SUPERIOR NUTRITIVE MEDICINE, RICH IN PHOSPHATES AND NOT A CHEAP, ALCOHOLIC DRINK. Highly recommended by Chemists and Physicians as
as it does not stimulate the brain or irritate the system and leave deleterious effects. On the contrary, it furnishes just that which is necessary to the brain, nerves and system and the nerves, purifies the heart's blood, and thereby enlarges and gives life, flesh, bone and muscle. It works wonders, curing NERVOUS and GENERAL DEBILITY, MALARIA, DYSPEPSIA, INSOMNIA. Produces a healthy action of the Liver and Kidneys, disturbing the system against the miasmatic influences, and will be found invaluable in all pulmonary and bronchial difficulties. DELICATE FEMALES, NURSING MOTHERS and WEAKLY CHILDREN can find no remedy equal to this healthful blood and nerve food tonic. For Sale by all Druggists. $1.00 per bottle, or half dozen for $5. New Hampshire Items.

Michael J. Noonan, the ex-reformer of Dover who was recently convicted in a Massachusetts court of forgery, has been sent to state prison for four years.

The livery stable of J. Frank Seavey, at Dover, was damaged by fire to the amount of $1500, June 28th; insured. All the live stock and carriages were taken out in safety.

Burglars entered Andrew Denny's store at Northfield, Friday night, June 23d, and also Downing's saloon, and stole some whips, a small amount of money, canned goods, cigars, watch, etc.

C. E. Haskell has sold his mill property at Acworth to J. B. Goddard & Co., of Waltham, Mass., for $3,500. They will manufacture fancy all-wool blankets, and expect soon to import machinery for the manufacture of an imitation of seal-skin.

During the thunder shower of June 19th Quincy B. Davis had a pair of horses killed in Millsville. He was working out the appropriation made by the state for the Millsville road, and the horses were hitched by the side of the road, when the lightning struck them, killing both.

I was Disgusted

with the learned doctors after swallowing their costly medicine in vain for over a year for the relief of catarrh in my head, when I cured myself by using six bottles of Sulphur Bitters. My wife is now taking them for nervous debility.—Mule Spinner, Lowell.

Josiah West, who jumped from a train in the Concord railroad yard in Manchester, Saturday afternoon, June 17th, and lost both legs below the knees, died at the hospital June 27th. He was a veteran of the late war. His remains were taken to Fremont for interment.

A good medicinal tonic, with real merit, is Brown's Iron Bitters, so all druggists say.

The premises of Hon. J. F. Jones of Contoocook, county treasurer, were entered Tuesday night, June 27th, and the best harness, robe and an overcoat were stolen. The premises of J. L. Taggart, town collector, were robbed of a harness, and the house of State Senator Curtice was disturbed.

A Good Foundation.

In American households the prevailing complaints are weakness of the stomach and its consequences, indigestion, nervousness and rheumatism. Such sufferers can lay a good foundation for health by using Parker's Ginger Tonic, as it tones up the stomach and nerves, and keeps the kidneys active to carry off the foul matter.—N. O. Picayune.

The three police commissioners of St. Louis, Mo., have resigned, because Gov. Crittenden is pardoning the gamblers as fast as the courts convict them.

Beware of Imitations.

The delicate odor of Floreston Cologne is entirely novel. Look for signature of Hiscox & Co., N. Y., on each bottle.

Recent reports indicate that the policy of the Russian government toward the Jews has undergone a change with the accession of the minister of the interior, and that hereafter outrages against this class of citizens will be suppressed.

The Perpetuity of Fame.

As the name of the immortal Washington has been most sacredly perpetuated as that of a hero and statesman, so also has the fame of Swayne's Ointment for skin diseases, descended into perpetuity as the only reliable remedy in the market, for every character of skin disorders, and as the reward of well-deserving merit. Worth and merit go hand-in-hand. It is useless to contradict the worth of this article.

Summer Complaints

At this season, various diseases of the bowels are prevalent, and many lives are lost through lack of knowledge of a safe and sure remedy. PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is a sure cure for Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Summer Complaint, etc., and is perfectly safe.

Read the following:

BATHBRIDGE, N. Y., March 22, 1881.
PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER never fails to afford instant relief for cramp and pain in the stomach.
JOSEPH BURDITT.

NICHOLVILLE, N. Y., Feb. 2, 1881.
The very best medicine I know of for dysentery, cholera morbus, and cramps in the stomach. Have used it for years, and it is sure every time.
JULIUS W. DEE.

MOINGONA, IOWA, March 15, 1881.
I have used your PAIN KILLER in severe cases of cramp, colic, and cholera morbus, and it gave almost instant relief.
T. E. CLEVELAND.

CARNESVILLE, GA., Feb. 28, 1881.
For twenty years I have used your PAIN KILLER in my family. Have used it many times for bowel complaints, and it always cures. Would not feel safe without a bottle in the house.
J. R. LYNE.

SACO, ME., Jan. 22, 1881.
Have used PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER for twelve years. It is safe, sure, and reliable. No mother should allow it to be out of the family.
H. J. NATES.

ONEIDA, N. Y., Feb. 19, 1881.
We began using it over thirty years ago, and it always gives immediate relief. Would hardly dare to go to bed without a bottle in the house.
W. O. SPERRY.

CONWAYBORO, S. C., Feb. 22, 1881.
Nearly every family in this section keeps a bottle in the house.
DR. E. MORTON.

U. S. CONSULATE,
CREFELD, RHENISH PRUSSIA, Feb. 8, 1881.
I have known PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER almost from the day it was introduced, and after years of observation and use I regard its presence in my household as an indispensable necessity.
I. S. POTTER, U. S. Consul.

BURTON-ON-TRENT, ENG.
I had been several days suffering severely from diarrhœa, accompanied with intense pain, when I tried your PAIN KILLER, and found almost instant relief.
H. H. NOONE.

31 MONTAGUE ST., LONDON, ENG.
During a residence of twenty-three years in India, I have given it in many cases of diarrhœa, dysentery, and cholera, and never knew it to fail to give relief.
R. CLARIDGE.

No family can safely be without this invaluable remedy. Its price brings it within the reach of all.

THE
New Hampshire Gazette!
Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire Items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

TO ADVERTISERS
THE N. H. GAZETTE
Presents an excellent opportunity for a weekly invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

Oh, My Back!

That's a common expression and has a world of meaning. How much suffering is summed up in it.

The singular thing about it is, that pain in the back is occasioned by so many things. May be caused by kidney disease, liver complaint, consumption, cold, rheumatism, dyspepsia, overwork, nervous debility, &c.

Whatever the cause, don't neglect it. Something is wrong and needs prompt attention. No medicine has yet been discovered that will so quickly and surely cure such diseases as BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, and it does this by commencing at the foundation, and making the blood pure and rich.

Logansport, Ind. Dec. 7, 1880.

For a long time I have been a sufferer from stomach and kidney disease. My appetite was very poor and the very small amount I did eat disagreed with me. I was annoyed very much from non-retention of urine. I tried many remedies with no success, until I used Brown's Iron Bitters. Since I used that my stomach does not bother me any. My appetite is simply immense. My kidney trouble is no more, and my general health is such, that I feel like a new man. After the use of Brown's Iron Bitters for one month, I have gained twenty pounds in weight. C. B. SARGENT.

Books, Magazines, Etc.

"Dick's Wandering:" by Julian Sturgis, author of "Little Comedies," etc. Boston; Houghton, Mifflin & Co.

Mr. Sturgis, as a writer of fiction, is favorably known on either side of the Atlantic. In the story just issued, he describes a young Englishman whose father died leaving him his sole heir to great landed estates. He is indulged by his mother, sent to Eton, but although a successful scholar and a winner at the boat race, determines to give up school, travels in the east, and meets Miss Halcroft, from Beacon street, Boston. He seems not to have possessed the art of making love. Miss Halcroft is clever, but independent. The Boston critics call her charming, but a lady who talks of "giving herself away" never charms the country taste, if she pleases the Modern Athens. The Boston girl really loves the noble lord, but the young representative of the nobility is unfortunate in some of his remarks, though unintentionally so; at least, the novelist hints, it all comes out right. The descriptive scenes of travel, life in England and in the land of the east, are well drawn. The book does not interest us very strongly at the outset, but the story waxes attractive, the characters to a great extend being peculiarly well delineated, and an air of culture and refinement predominates in the pages. The author has not been so fortunate as to select an attractive name—a hard matter to do, sometimes,—but his book is full of bright sayings, though some of the lady readers may take exception to the remark of Mr. Henri Langdon when he says, "Don't argue with a woman, except about trifles; with a woman argument is a luxury; she likes it, but never allows it to influence her actions," but Mr. Langdon in the story was not a man of very strong points, and looked at things perhaps from an English standpoint.

—"Yonder go the most disobliging couple in our neighborhood." "You surprise me; please explain." "Oh, they always close the windows when they have a row."

Hay Fever.

Mr. A. L. AVERY, Pharmacist, Newark, N. J.—Having been severely afflicted for eleven years with hay fever, after trying almost everything without avail, I gave up all hopes of being cured, when I purchased of you a box of Ely's Cream Balm. To my surprise, after a few applications, I was entirely relieved. R. WATSON HARRIS, Letter Carrier No. 14, New P. O., Newark, N. J.

I have been a hay fever sufferer for three years, and have often heard Ely's Cream Balm spoken of in the highest terms, but did not take much stock in it because of the many quack medicines. A friend persuaded me to try the Balm, and with the most wonderful success. This recommendation you can use for the benefit of hay fever sufferers. T. S. GEER, Syracuse, N. Y. Price fifty cents.

—Enterprising Chicago dealers have already bought and sold next year's wheat crop several times over. The only "future" they can speculate in is their own. It is hardly necessary for anybody to speculate about that future. It is a sure thing.

—Recently Oscar Wilde dined at a private residence in New York. When the cloth had been removed the oldest child of the host, a girl aged about eight, was introduced to the great æsthete, who was marvelously arrayed for the occasion. After timidly shaking hands with the stranger and scanning him with open-eyed wonder, the little one crept close to her mother's side and whispered: "Mamma, I don't think Marie had better bring baby in; it might be scared."

Farine Lemonade.

To one dessert spoonful of Sea Moss Farine pour one quart of boiling water. Stir it well; boil five minutes, then set it away to cool and settle. Pour off the water through a fine strainer; add sugar, lemon juice and a few pieces of the peel, and some old rum. It can be used either hot or cold, and is a very soothing drink for affections of the throat.

—"Where are you going, anyhow?" asked an irate conductor on the Central Pacific, the other day, of a "beat" whom he had kicked off five or six times, but who had always managed to get on again just as the train started. "Well," said the fellow quietly, "I'm going to Chicago if my pants hold out; but I'm afraid I'll never get there if you fellows kick me off every five minutes." He was not disturbed again on that conductor's division.

At the Arlington, No. 127 Kearney street, San Francisco, Cal., resides Mr. Hoover, the renowned counterfeit detector and teacher, who says: "For more than twelve years I suffered with sciatic rheumatism of the very worst type, and at times the pains were almost unendurable. I spent a fortune and exhausted medical skill in that time. I heard about St. Jacobs Oil, but was faithless as I thought my ailment was ineradicable. I made one very thorough application, and so pronounced was the relief that I continued its use. Before I had used up the first bottle I was well.

—A new contribution basket has just been invented, which rings a gong every time a button without an eye or a ten cent with one is dropped into it. The first Sunday it was tried in an Amsterdam church it went off like a Gatling gun the whole round trip.

The rich phosphates, combined with the best vegetable bitters, make in Wheat Bitters the greatest blood, brain and nerve food in existence.

—The police commissioners of New York have a very funny problem to solve. It is to decide whether a policeman is justified in flirting with a pretty girl while on his beat. The novel defence is that flirting on the part of a policeman is a "private indulgence," and that if it is prohibited "the efficiency of the force will be destroyed." What makes the case more interesting is that the officer in question has a wife, and the usual poor man's flock of children. One fact counts heavily against the defendant. The girl, who is said to be very attractive, has been in the habit of accompanying him on his beat. This being the case, he must be a pretty cold-blooded individual to be able to attend strictly to his official duties with so much female loveliness at his elbow.

If you have a cough resulting from a sudden cold, procure Adamson's Botanic Balsam, take one half to one teaspoonful three times a day, and your cough will cease. Trial bottle, 10 cts.

—A little five-years-old boy was being instructed in moral by his grandmother. The old lady told him that such terms as "by golly," "by thunder," etc., were only little oaths, and but little better than other profanities. In fact, she said, he could tell a profane oath by the prefix "by." All such were oaths. "Well, then, grandmother," said the little hopeful, "is 'by telegraph,' which I see in the papers, swearing?" "No," said the old lady, "that's only lying."

Care-worn persons, students, weak and overworked mothers will find in Brown's Iron Bitters a complete tonic, which gives strength and tone to the whole system.

—"Is this a safe investment?" asked Brown. "Safe investment?" exclaimed the broker, "I never knew anybody who put his money into it take it out again."

Impure water, unhealthy climate, unripe fruit, unwholesome food, malaria and a thousand little ills are nothing to those fortified by the use of Sanford's Ginger, "the delicious."

—The Hungarians have a national dance—"the csardas"—intended to represent "the unquiet course of true love." We have never seen the dance, but presume the greater part of it consists of an elderly gentleman kicking a young man off the front stoop.

When pangs the mortal flesh assail,
And give a bitterness to life,
Making the cheek with anguish pale,
Amid the fierce internal strife;
Then Sanford's Ginger soothes the pain.
And smiling health looks up again.

In the Whole History of Medicine

No preparation has ever performed such marvellous cures, or maintained so wide a reputation, as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which is recognized as the world's remedy for all diseases of the throat and lungs. Its long-continued series of wonderful cures in all climates has made it universally known as a safe and reliable agent to employ. Against ordinary colds, which are the forerunners of more serious disorders, it acts speedily and surely, always relieving suffering, and often saving life. The protection it affords, by its timely use in throat and chest disorders, makes it an invaluable remedy to be kept always on hand in every home. No person can afford to be without it, and those who have once used it never will. From their knowledge of its composition and operation, physicians use the CHERRY PECTORAL extensively in their practice, and clergymen recommend it. It is absolutely certain in its healing effects, and will always cure where cures are possible.

—"I should think that you would feel badly about leaving this place," said the housemaid to the departing cook. "I don't; I'm glad to go. I ain't sorry to leave any of you—except the dog. Poor old Tiger, he always washed the plates for me!"

How to mitigate the toll of wash day during these hot summer months is worth knowing; we are assured that James Pyle's Pearline does it effectually, without the slightest danger to the finest fabrics.

"An Odd Street Scene."

He was seen in front of the office rubbing himself against the telegraph post like a flea-bitten dog. "What is wrong?" we ventured to ask. "Gotem, 'gent," he said laconically; have 'em every spring, small lumps form about the rectum; sore to the touch; they itch like blazes; "a telegraph pole's like an oasis in the desert to me." Here then, was poor humanity suffering from a complaint which a few applications of Swayne's Ointment for itching piles, would have thoroughly eradicated.

STARTLING DISCOVERY!

LOST

Perhaps no medicine is so universally required as a good cathartic. Swayne's Pills are prepared expressly to meet this necessity, being composed of purely vegetable ingredients, of which Podophyllin or Mandrake, Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock and other concentrated juices enter largely into their composition; the whole strength of which is extracted on an entirely new principle. They are mild in their operation, and are truly a valuable aperient and anti-bilious medicine. They stimulate the liver to healthy action, cleanse the stomach and bowels of all impurities. Curing sick and nervous headache, dyspepsia or indigestion, biliousness, fevers, drowsiness, colds, aching pains, slight chills, with flashes of heat, and female irregularities. For a bilious and costive habit, no medicine is so prompt and effectual. Mailed on receipt of price [in postage stamps,] 25 cents, or five boxes for $1. Address Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, Pa. Ask your Druggist for them.

Portsmouth Chronicle.

SATURDAY, JULY 1, 1882.

[Entered at the Post-Office at Portsmouth, N. H. as second-class matter.]

Guiteau's End.

On Friday afternoon, June 30th, at 12:40 o'clock, Charles Julius Guiteau was hung in the jail at Washington, D. C., for the murder of James Abram Garfield, president of the United States.

The assassin was born in Freeport, Ill., Sept. 8th, 1841, and at the time of his death was aged forty years, nine months and twenty-one days. He was all his life a worthless creature, a liar, adulterer, religious quack, shyster lawyer, and dead beat generally, his death being the only creditable act recorded of him. He did possess one redeeming trait—he was not a drunkard; but that is the only one that has been made public, for while ranting about religion he was ever ready to tear the hand extended to aid him, to swindle his best friend, or to commit any crime where insolent "cheek" would supply the place of manly courage, of which latter he did not possess even a suspicion.

The history of his crime and the resulting trial are fresh in the memory of all. On the 2d day of July, 1881, at 9:25 o'clock A. M., he shot President Garfield in the station of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad in Washington, as his victim was about stepping on board a train. The arrest of the assassin, the wounded man's long and weary battle with death, and the trial of the murderer, seem almost as events of yesterday; and now the miserable wretch whose crime convulsed the nation has met his just fate, in a few hours less than one year after the commission of the crime.

It was plain from the first that only the plea of insanity could save Guiteau's life, and this plea was persistently advanced, on the trial and up to within a few days of the execution; but the jury at the trial were satisfied that he was fully responsible for his deeds, and the immense majority of the people are satisfied of it now. That he was fully sane no one maintains; but he was fully able to decide between right and wrong, and to weigh the consequences of his acts—which was conclusively proved by the care with which he planned to secure his personal safety by arranging for an immediate arrest after he should commit the crime which, according to his own statement, he had for weeks been contemplating; and his intense vanity, unbridled temper and lusts, overwhelming egotism and insatiable thirst for notoriety, did not in any sense make him irresponsible for his deeds. He planned a murder and carried it out, fully expecting to escape the punishment justly its due, and that he would be a "great man" in consequence; but he has gone, and future presidents will be the safer for his execution.

The assassin's sister, Mrs. Scoville, and her daughter, with John W. Guiteau and Miss Chevaillier of Boston, visited the condemned man on Thursday afternoon, when his evil passions were again exemplified in a violent scene, in which he abused and swore at the warden and guards because they would not allow him to leave his cell. By a letter dated Thursday, June 29th, Guiteau bequeathed his body to his spiritual adviser, Rev. William H. Hicks.

Robeson's Naval Appropriation Bill.

Mr. Robeson's naval appropriation bill, in the house on June 28th, was vigorously assailed, as might have been expected, and as was proper. Whitthorne of Tennessee, democrat, raked it fore and aft, and also poured hot shot into Robeson's record as secretary of the navy, charging (and giving figures in support of his charges) that Mr. Robeson as secretary of the navy "deliberately squandered from $15,000,000 to $20,000,000."

Mr. Dezendorf of Virginia, an "anti-administration republican," who also represents a navy yard district—Norfolk—vigorously opposed the idea of giving the secretary discretionary power to suspend work at any navy yard. To prove that his opposition was disinterested, Mr. Dezendorf asserted that he is "tabooed" by this administration, which is doing all in its power to crush him. Mr. Dezendorf wants a new navy yard, and he wants the ships built in the various navy yards, so that [illegible] will "benefit [illegible] evious that [illegible] Norfolk money spent the worse it will be for me politically." Mr. Dezendorf is a straight-out republican, and has from the first opposed the coalition movement in Virginia. His speech attracted much attention.

Mr. Bowman, of Massachusetts, republican, who represents a navy yard district, made a vigorous assault upon that feature of the bill which invests the secretary of the navy with authority to close the navy yards, and also upon the provisions which forbid the appointment of any except graduates of the naval academy as officers of the staff or line in the navy.

The house committee on naval affairs had been in session all the morning discussing the bill, and had agreed unitedly to oppose the reduction in the number of officers belonging to the medical, pay, and engineer corps of the navy; the provision that no more cadet engineers shall be appointed by the secretary of the navy; the abolition of the grade of commodore; the provisions regulating promotions to the grade of rear-admiral; the provision making the admiral and vice-admiral subject to retirement; and the provision authorizing the secretary to suspend work in such navy yards as he may deem best. The entire afternoon was devoted to general debate on the bill, and it was hard to tell which side, democratic or republican, was most severe in its criticism.

Not So One-Sided as Was Said.

An interesting letter from one of the Alexandria correspondents of the Temps, of Paris, throws rather a new light on the events of the 11th of June at Cairo, Egypt. The Europeans, according to this letter, made a most desperate resistance, and succeeded in inflicting infinitely heavier loss on their Arab assailants than they themselves suffered. According to the official Egyptian figures, the number of persons admitted to the hospitals reached 1350, of which 1140 were natives. But many more killed and wounded Arabs certainly disappeared. One Italian is said to have alone killed sixteen, and two Maltese, armed with carbines and defended by a barricade, together shot fifty. The carnage in the Place de Paille, where 200 armed Italians and Greeks were assembled, was terrible.

Another Naval Bill.

In the United States senate, June 28th, Mr. Rollins, from the committee on naval affairs, reported favorably a bill authorizing the construction of a number of vessels-of-war for the navy, and appropriating $10,000,000 for that purpose. The bill provides for the construction of six open-hearth-steel cruisers, two of them to be of not less than 5,000 nor more than 6,000 tons displacement, and to be armed with four breech-loading rifled cannon of not less than eight-inch calibre, and twenty-one breech-loading cannon of not less than six-inch calibre. The remaining four to be of not less than 4,800 nor more than 4,700 tons displacement, and to be armed with four breech-loading rifled cannon of not less than eight-inch calibre, and fifteen breech-loading rifled cannon of not less than six-inch calibre.

The bill also authorizes the construction of one steel ram of not more than 2,000 tons displacement, four steam cruising boats, and four steam harbor torpedo boats. It further provides that the steel used in the construction of these vessels shall be of domestic manufacture, and that one-half of the number of vessels authorized to be constructed, including their engines and boilers, shall be built in the navy-yards of the United States, and that the others shall be built in whole or part by contract.

The Alabama Claims Court.

The president on Thursday sent the following nominations to the senate, to be members of the court of Alabama claims, re-established: Hezekiah G. Wells of Michigan, to be presiding judge; James Harlan of Iowa and Asa French of Massachusetts, to be judges; Daniel W. Fessenden of Maine, to be clerk of the court.

The French Lottery.

It is announced that the French Government has authorized another Lottery, so pressing has been the demand for it on the part of the people. The previous one excited unbounded enthusiasm among all classes, and the wide distribution of the numerous prizes gave all ranks a taste of the satisfaction to be had in the easily acquired gains of the Lottery.

Yet neither the French nor any other European or American scheme compares in liberality with the new one of the long established Louisiana State Lottery Company set forth at length in another column of this paper, to be drawn on the 11th of July prox., and monthly thereafter, under the sole direction of Gens. Beauregard and Early. It will be seen that in this scheme $75,000 is given on a $5 ticket, constituting it the largest offer for that price ever presented.

That this Company will perform all it promises is now well established in the public mind. The whole scheme will be found interesting reading and bear careful analysis.

LIFE INSURANCE!
The Semi-Endowment Policy of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is believed to be the most desirable plan of insurance ever offered.
Among its advantages are: A definitely guaranteed cash value at a specified time. A paid-up policy for full value in case of discontinuance. Its period (20 years) covers the productive years of life, when insurance is mostly needed. It provides for old age. Above the age of 40 the rates are less than for life policies in other companies, while below 40 they are but little in excess of ordinary life premiums.
Parties insured in Co-operative Societies are requested to compare the net cost of these policies with that of assessment insurance.
Circulars, giving full particulars, may be obtained of

Probabilities for New England:—

Threatening weather, winds shifting to south and southwest, lower barometer, slight rise in temperature.

The Thermometer at the CHRONICLE Office, at 4:00 o'clock this morning, indicated 56 degrees above zero.

Sky cloudy.

INDEPENDENCE DAY.

The programme for the observance in this city of the 4th of July was issued on Thursday, and is as follows:

Ringing of bells, morning, noon and night.

National salute at twelve o'clock, noon.

Band concerts on Market square, afternoon and evening, by the Sawyer cornet band of Sawyer's mills, Dover.

AFTERNOON SPORTS ON MARKET SQUARE.

Jumping match, best two in three; 1st prize $3, 2d prize $2, 3d prize $1.

Balloon ascension.

Potato feat, best two in three; 1st prize $4, 2d prize $2.

Foot race, go-as-you-please, thirty times around, one trial; 1st prize $5, 2d prize $2, 3d prize $1.

Sports to begin at two o'clock P. M., the band playing suitable music for the occasion.

The parade will be roped in, and only those persons taking part in the sports will be allowed in the enclosure.

Competent judges will be selected, and the prizes awarded and paid at the end of each race.

There will be a rowing race on the south pond, (probably at the conclusion of the sports on the Parade,) with two or more prizes for the winners.

All entries free; intending contestants in any of the events are requested to leave their names with W. I. Trafton, chairman of the committee of arrangements, as early as convenient.

The annual meeting of the committee having in charge the return of Portsmouth's sons and daughters will be held in the Common Council room, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon.

A game of base ball will be played at the Plains in the afternoon, between a picked nine of this city and the Unknowns of Greenland; game will be called at two o'clock.

The Portsmouth cricket club will play a match game on their grounds near the Creek, with a Boston club.

FREIGHT HANDLERS' STRIKE.

On Wednesday afternoon of this week about ninety men employed in the freight depots of the Boston & Lowell railroad in Boston struck for an increase of pay, demanding $1.60 a day, instead of $1.45. About sixty of the strikers on Thursday went to the Boston & Maine freight depot in Boston, and tried to get the freight men there to strike, but no attention was paid to them. They then went to the Eastern freight depots in Charlestown, and marched through them, entering the freight cars, and in some instances taking the trucks out of the hands of the men. They talked with the men, and the result was that most of the ninety hands employed there joined in appointing a committee to wait upon the freight agent of the road and demand an advance of twenty-five cents per day, they having been receiving $1.35 per day for ten hours work, with fifteen cents an hour for extra work. The railroad officials informed the delegation that an answer would be given that night, and the men continued at their work for the rest of the day; and after consultation with the managers of the Boston & Maine, the Eastern officials decided to raise the wages to $1.50 a day, beginning July 1st, which was satisfactory to the men.

THE PUGNACIOUS MAYORS.

Mayor Sise was in Boston on Friday, in attendance at the adjourned meeting of mayors of cities that have been sued on the "Knibbs valve racket." After a conference and interchange of reports, a vote of thanks was passed to Mayor Green of Boston for courtesies extended, and the meeting adjourned to re-assemble in this city on Friday, July 7th. No hint was given of any intention on the part of any city involved in the suits, to compromise, or do anything else except fight the claims of Norton et als. to the end.

The steamer Mystic, Capt. Rashe Trefethen, commences her regular Sunday trips to the Shoals to-morrow, leaving this city at 10:30 o'clock (or on arrival of the train from Boston,) and returning in time to connect with the train from this city for Boston.

There were ninety-eight arrivals of vessels at this port recorded at the custom-house during the month of June, of which fourteen were steamers, and six foreign vessels from foreign ports; forty-seven vessels brought coal, aggregating 23,361 tons; six brought lime and cement, 3465 barrels; five brought railroad ties, three brought 300,000 feet of lumber, and one brought 190 tons of phosphate.

Orders were received on Thursday, June 29th, from the secretary of the navy, to continue work on this yard, notwithstanding the failure of action on the naval appropriation bill by Congress.

C. Sullivan & Co. have for some days had on sale green peas brought in by Mr. Samuel Shapleigh of Eliot, Me.

A telegram sent from Washington by Senator Rollins was received by Mayor Sise on Friday, in answer to the remonstrance forwarded from this city in opposition to the naval appropriation bill as introduced in the house. The telegram was as follows: "Yours with remonstrance received. Will do anything in our power to accomplish the desired results; the bill will be amended in the house, and we hope to be able to make it still more satisfactory in the senate."

The electric lights were burning for the first time this season at the Hotel Wentworth, Newcastle, last Thursday evening; they were much more brilliant, and burned more steadily, than last year.

The Journal of this week deplores the fact that drunken men were reeling about Congress street on the previous Sunday, using bad language, and no one interfered. Probably the reelers did not speak up loud enough to wake the police from their peaceful naps at head-quarters. The affair was disgraceful in the extreme, and we trust the police will be more vigilant in future.

The Marine Bicycle company will launch for trial to-day an elegant cedar boat which has been built by them on the special order of a wealthy New York yachtsmen, who will use it at his summer residence at Nyack-on-the-Hudson. We are pleased to state that the company have recently removed their manufactory from Salem, Mass., to this city, and the work done on this boat, under the supervision of their foreman, Mr. John A. Haraden, is a fine specimen of what Portsmouth mechanics can do. The machinery and brass mounting's of a new pattern, were made by Messrs. Critchley & Whalley. The boat will be photographed by Davis Bros. in front of the post-office in the afternoon, when the public will have an opportunity to inspect the craft.

The steamer City of Bangor took a party on a moonlight excursion, Friday evening, running out as far as the Isles of Shoals. She is an excellent boat for the purpose, being fast, commodious and very steady; the sea was smooth, nobody could have managed to get sea-sick had they tried, and the party had a very pleasant time.

Three members of the Rockingham Bicycle club left this city early on Thursday morning last for Boston, which city they reached, after a ride of sixty miles, at five o'clock in the afternoon. They were accompanied by several other members of the club as far as Newburyport. Two bicyclers of this city are soon to attempt the feat of one hundred miles of road riding in a day.

Mr. Elvin Newton came in from Lunging island, Isles of Shoals, on Friday, leaving a gang of six men on the island. They have done very fairly this season, but are now getting no cod-fish near the islands, the dog-fish having come along in force; they last week sent to Gloucester $300 worth of mackerel. Mr. Newton will go to Rye for ten weeks, to fish for the hotels there.

Messrs. Albert Magee of this city and William Kidder of Newburyport, formerly of Portsmouth, returned on June 28th from Brookfield, where they had been on a two days' raid against the black bass in lake Winnipesaukie and its tributaries, in which they were very successful, capturing nearly a hundred of the fish, some of the largest weighing nearly ten pounds each.

The steamer James Sampson took a party of forty gentlemen from this city to Dover point on Thursday evening last.

The schooner Loella, Amee master, which went on the ways at Kittery on Thursday last, will have new keelsons put in and receive all other needed repairs before she comes off again.

Mr. Alfred S. Trafton, at his farm on the North road, has tomatoes which are already beginning to ripen.

A PLEASANT LETTER.

It Rings of a Grateful Heart and gives Honor where Honor is Due.

Mr. William W. Chadwick, of Hatchville, Conn., writes under date of June 14, 1880, to Dr. Kennedy, to say that the use of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" has cured him of Gall stone, from which he had experienced everything but comfort for a long time. Mr. Chadwick felt wholly cured when he wrote, and says: "I have had no pain for six months, and have also regained my flesh and can stand a fair day's work. I recommend Kennedy's Favorite Remedy to any one suffering from a deranged liver." Grateful patients are common. Dr. Kennedy is daily in receipt of letters from them, expressing similar sentiments. These letters are spontaneous and full; in all varities of phraseology, but invariably setting forth one thing—the value of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for many forms of disease. It may be just the thing you have been looking for. Is your liver disordered? Have you derangement of the kidneys or bladder, associated with constipation of the bowels? If so, you want "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy." Dr. Kennedy practices medicine and surgery in all their branches. Write and state your case frankly. Letters promptly answered. Address Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.

WHEAT BITTERS

THE Great LIQUID FOOD
FOR BLOOD, BRAIN AND NERVES.

IS A SUPERIOR NUTRITIVE MEDICINE, RICH IN PHOSPHATES AND NOT A CHEAP, ALCOHOLIC DRINK...$1 Highly recommended by Chemists and Physicians as

A POSITIVE TONIC, ALWAYS ACCEPTABLE AND RELIABLE, as it does not stimulate the brain or irritate the system and leave debilitate effects. On the contrary, it furnishes just that which is necessary to the brain, strengthens and quiets the nerves, purifies the heart's blood, and thereby makes only the best flesh, bone and muscle. IT WORKS WONDERS, curing NERVOUS and GENERAL DEBILITY, MALARIA, DYSPEPSIA, INSOMNIA. Produces a healthy action of the Liver and Kidneys, fortifying the system against the miasmatic influences, and will be found invaluable in all pulmonary and bronchial diseases. ESPECIALLY FOR NURSING MOTHERS and WEAKLY CHILDREN can find no remedy equal to this healthful blood and nerve food tonic. IT Per sale by all Druggists. $1.00 per bottle. Prepared only by WHEAT BITTERS CO., Office 19 Park Place, New York City.

Mr. Charles S. Whitehouse, of Rochester, has been appointed a weigher in the Boston custom house, assuming that position July 1st.

A well-dressed man coolly entered the residence of Joshua Locke at Dover, June 28th, stole therefrom $35, and escaped before Mr. Locke and his wife, who saw him enter, could get from the adjoining garden to the house. Other less important but similar peculations are reported as having occurred the same day in various parts of the city.

The Harvard-Yale boat race at New London, Conn., Friday, was won by Harvard, by three-quarters of a length.

The Cincinnati Gazette, upon the authority of the brother of Henry Cole, the lawyer of that city who killed his wife, daughter and himself on June 28th, says that the revolver with which the tragedy was enacted was the same weapon with which Stokes killed Jim Fisk. It was presented to Mr. Cole during his residence in New York.

A gentleman from this city, spending a few days in Montreal, Canada, in a letter describing the Jean Baptiste societies' celebration of St. John's day in that city, says that nearly every American flag that was displayed was hung "Union down," whether from malice or through ignorance the writer was not informed.

Rev. Geo. M. Adams, of Holliston, Mass., formerly pastor of the North church in this city, who has been living at Vineland, N. J., with his family for the past two months, on account of ill health, found a pleasant surprise awaiting his return. Three valuable sets of Wedgewood ware, containing over 200 pieces, were given them as a reminder of the twentieth anniversary of their marriage.

The peculiar action on the kidneys and urinary organs of asparagus is frequently noticed during the season. Prof. Bunsen recently proved in the case of the Emperor William and others that in combination with malt and quinine it is an absolute specific for diseases of the liver, kidneys and urinary organs. His method has been adopted by the Malt Bitters company, and this great German food is now composed of malt, hops, quinine bark and asparagus.—Medical Times.

Annie Louise Cary, the eminent vocalist, was married at Portland, Me., June 28th, to C. M. Raymond of New York city, by Rev. W. H. Haskell, at the residence of her sister, Mrs. J. C. Merrill.

Charles Ames of Benton, Me., hung himself June 29th; poverty and sickness caused the act.

"Wheat Bitters" never disturb the stomach, but promote digestion and nourishment.

Dr. M. L. Scott has been held in $5000 at Northampton, Mass., on the charge of procuring an abortion on Kate White, a young woman, who is in a critical condition.

The Perpetuity of Fame.

As the name of the immortal Washington has been most sacredly perpetuated as that of a hero and statesman, so also has the fame of Swayne's Ointment for skin diseases, descended into perpetuity as the only reliable remedy in the market, for every character of skin disorders, and as the reward of well-deserving merit. Worth and merit go hand-in-hand. It is useless to contradict the worth of this article.

Summer Complaints

At this season, various diseases of the bowels are prevalent, and many lives are lost through lack of knowledge of a safe and sure remedy. PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is a sure cure for Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Summer Complaint, etc., and is perfectly safe.

Read the following:

BAINBRIDGE, N. Y., March 22, 1881.
PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER never fails to afford instant relief for cramp and pain in the stomach.
JOSEPH BURDET.

NICHOLVILLE, N. Y., Feb. 3, 1881.
The very best medicine I know of for dysentery, cholera morbus, and cramps in the stomach. Have used it for years, and it is sure cure every time.
JUDSON W. DEE.

MONSOON, IOWA, March 12, 1881.
I have used your PAIN KILLER in severe cases of cramp, colic and cholera morbus and it gave almost instant relief.
L. L. CALDWELL.

CARNESVILLE, GA., Feb. 28, 1881.
For twenty years I have used your PAIN KILLER in my family. Have used it many times for bowel complaints, and it always cures. Would not feel safe without a bottle in the house.
J. D. TYE.

SACO, ME., Jan. 3, 1881.
Have used PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER for twelve years. It is safe, sure, and reliable. No mother should allow it to be out of the family.
M. L. NASH.

ONEIDA, N. Y., Feb. 17, 1881.
We began using it over thirty years ago, and it always gives immediate relief. Would hardly dare to go to bed without a bottle in the house.
W. O. SPERRY.

CONWAYBORO, S. C., Feb. 22, 1881.
Nearly every family in this section keeps a bottle in the house.
DR. E. MORTON.

U. S. CONSULATE,
CREFELD, RHENISH PRUSSIA, Feb. 8, 1881.
I have known PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER almost from the day it was introduced, and after years of observation and use I regard its presence in my household as an indispensable necessity.
T. S. POTTER, U. S. Consul.

BURTON-TRENT, ENG.
I had been several days suffering severely from diarrhœa, accompanied with intense pain, when I tried your PAIN KILLER, and found almost instant relief.
F. J. NORTON.

21 MONTAGUE ST., LONDON, ENG.
During a residence of twenty-three years in India, I have given it in many cases of diarrhœa, dysentery, and cholera, and never knew it to fail to give relief.
R. CLARIDGE.

No family can safely be without this invaluable remedy. Its price brings it within the reach of all.

For sale by all druggists at 25c., 50c. and $1.00 per bottle.

THE

New Hampshire Gazette !

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire News; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Contains more original matter

Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a weekly invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and is is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

Boston, November 26, 1881.
BROWN CHEMICAL CO.
Gentlemen:—For years I have been a great sufferer from Dyspepsia, and could get no relief (having tried everything which was recommended) until, acting on the advice of a friend, who had been benefited by BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, I tried a bottle, with most surprising results. Previous to taking BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, everything I ate distressed me, and I suffered greatly from a burning sensation in the stomach, which was unbearable. Since taking BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, all my troubles are at an end. Can eat any time without any disagreeable results. I am practically another person. Mrs. W. J. FLYNN,

"NE CEDE MALIS."

Valedictory, by Miss Ella F. Goss of the graduating class of the Portsmouth High School, read June 28th, 1882:

Paris, son of Priam, king of Troy, a city on the western coast of Asia Minor, having eloped with Helen, wife of the king of Sparta, a war was brought on between the Greeks and Trojans and after a long siege Troy was taken by stratagem, and burned. After the destruction of the city, Æneas, who was the son of Venus, being ordered by his mother to seek Italy, collects a few followers and sets out on his journey.

Wandering about for seven years he is at last driven by a storm upon the island of Sicily, where he is kindly welcomed by the king.

Nine days after, while both Trojans and Sicilians are celebrating games, the Trojan women, weary of their wanderings, set fire to the fleet, thinking to destroy it and thus compel Æneas to settle in Sicily. As soon as the men discover the burning vessels they hasten to the shore; but all attempts to stay the conflagration are in vain. Æneas then implores the aid of Jupiter, who sends a storm which extinguishes the flames so that only four of the ships are destroyed.

But this is a great loss to Æneas, for now his fleet is not large enough to carry all his followers, and he is undecided whether to give up all hope of Italy and remain here, or to continue his voyage. He knows that if he renews his search he may be obliged to wander about many years longer before reaching Italy; while if he settles in Sicily he will at once put an end to all his troubles. On the one hand he sees hardships and dangers, on the other ease and prosperity. Which course will he pursue? Will he allow this misfortune to overcome him? Will he, having sought for Italy so long, now yield to discouragement and abandon his enterprise? No! he resolutely determines to set sail again, preferring to encounter unknown dangers and still greater hardships if he can but fulfil the purpose of his mission. He therefore leaves in Sicily all who do not wish to accompany him, and resumes his search.

Arriving at Cumæ he consults the Sibyl, who tells him that he shall surely reach Latium, though great dangers await him there. Her parting injunction to him is expressed in the words, "Ne cede malis," "yield not to adversity."

Once more he puts ease and pleasure behind him, and pursues his course. At length reaching the Latium kingdom he builds a city which he calls Lavinia, and his descendants afterwards found Rome.

Thus was Æneas rewarded for all his toil and perseverance, for had he yielded to adversity and remained in Sicily the honor of being the founder of Rome would not have belonged to him.

Sooner or later adversity must come to each one of us, and it is unreasonable to suppose that we shall always prosper in every undertaking, however laudable may be our aims, however praiseworthy our efforts. And as there must be clouds and storms before we can fully estimate the benefit of sunshine and fair weather, so misfortune may be necessary to give full value to the blessings that brighten our lives.

There are numberless ways in which adversities may come, and no one will be called upon to endure the same trials, the same temptations or the same misfortunes that befall others. We have already seen what difficulties Æneas had to struggle against, and how he was rewarded for his efforts to overcome them. His illustrious example may well stimulate us, who, though we be not directed by the gods to the founding of empires, or to the accomplishment of any world-renowned enterprise, have each our special mission to fulfil.

Four years have passed since the class which graduates to-day commenced its High School career; and the years have brought many changes among both teachers and scholars. When in Sept., 1878, we became members of this school, Mr. Clarke was its principal, and for two years and a half he proved himself a kind, faithful teacher and friend, and it was with sincere regret that the entire school learned that ill health obliged him to resign his position. Then it was that our committee showed their deep interest in the school by making every effort to secure for us the best teachers, and that they eminently succeeded in so doing every member of the High School to-day can testify. The number of the class at its entrance was larger than now, so that to-day there are many faces missing that then were beaming with satisfaction and with bright anticipations of the higher work in store for them.

During the four years of its course the class has seen marks of progress in the better facilities afforded to some departments of instruction, and in the diminution of the number of days required for school work. For our share as a class in these and in all other improvements, we are especially grateful to you, the chairman, and to the committee of the High School. We feel that you have always been ready to grant us every reasonable request, and to do whatever was in your power for our best good. It has always been very gratifying to us that the newly appointed member of the committee, whose zeal and effort for the public welfare have been so marked, has manifested her deep interest in our school by her frequent visits, which have ever been most welcome. For all that you have done for our welfare, as a committee, for all acts of kindness, and for your efforts to make our parting hours bright and pleasant, we thank you most earnestly as we bid you farewell.

Dear Teachers, the many happy hours we have passed here have been due mainly to your watchful care over our interests, your wholesome restraint, and your faithful labors for our advancement in the various studies we have been pursuing. Towards our faults you have been lenient, and to all our earnest endeavors in the right direction you have given encouragement and aid. We are glad to welcome you to-day, whose presence we have for some time missed here. We earnestly hope you will be able to resume your labors in the schoolroom, and to continue them in the years to come.

But it is with sadness that the entire school, to-day, bids farewell to you, who for two years have labored so earnestly and faithfully in our behalf. As a class we would thank you for all that you have done for us during these years, and especially within the last few months, and we sincerely hope that your work in your new field of labor may be crowned with success.

With gratitude in our hearts for all you have done for us we now bid you, Dear Teachers, a kind farewell.

As we are about to leave you, Our Schoolmates, we would urge you to do the best you can and to improve every opportunity, in order that when your work here is finished, and you look back over the years of your school life, you may have no cause for regret. We feel especially interested in the members of the third class, who are about to take our places, and we would in bidding you farewell express the hope that the coming year may be a very happy and successful one to you all.

Dear Classmates, to-day for the last time we meet together as a class. Our High School life is now over and the time has come for us to separate. From henceforth our paths through life will be in different directions. We shall probably never all meet together again, and however glad we may be that our school course is finished, still this parting can but be sad. Although our class has been greatly diminished in numbers, we have lost but one of its members by death; and while we miss him from among us to-day, we know that for him life's trials are all over, and that he has entered the higher school above. And while we who are left will doubtless meet with trials, temptations, and disappointments, let us when assailed by these remember our class motto, "Ne cede malis," and take for comfort this assurance, that if we have faith in that power which is mightier than Jupiter, whose counsels are surer than those of Oracle or Sibyl, we shall at last be guided to the haven of eternal joy and peace. With feelings too deep and sad for utterance we bid you, Dear Classmates, an affectionate farewell.

Improvement for Mind and Body.

There is more strength-restoring power in a bottle of Parker's Ginger Tonic than in a bushel of malt, or a gallon of milk. As an appetizer, blood purifier and kidney corrector, there is nothing like it, and invalids consequently find it a wonderful invigorant for mind and body.—Commercial.

The medical examination of Guiteau's brain did not disclose any marked difference between it and the brains of other men.

Handsome versus Homely.

Who is that fine looking lady that we just passed, Clara? Why, that is Mrs. Snow. Well, there, what a change; when I saw her last, her skin was so sallow and muddy looking, its no wonder I didn't know her. What has produced that lovely complexion? I heard she took Sulphur Bitters, the great blood purifier, and now would not be without them.

The board of aldermen of Newport, R. I., have unanimously refused to grant any liquor licenses this year.

Found at Last.

An agreeable dressing for the hair, that will stop its falling, has been long sought for. Parker's Hair Balsam, distinguished for its purity, fully supplies this want.

Joseph Cormier, fifty years old, and married, was killed by a train while walking on the Boston & Maine railroad track near Biddeford on Friday, June 30th.

Mr. Samuel Weakley, Supt. Adam's Express Co. stables, 22nd street, Philadelphia, Pa., says St. Jacobs Oil cured him as if by magic, of a most severe rheumatic attack.

Edward Folsom, a Choctaw Indian, was hanged at Fort Smith, Arkansas, Friday, for the murder of a saloon keeper named Stewart, and a teamster named Massingill, in August last.

How to mitigate the toil of wash day during these hot summer months is worth knowing; we are assured that James Pyle's Pearline does it effectually, without the slightest danger to the finest fabrics.

The captain of the British steamer Strathairlie, at San Francisco, was fined $11,150 by the United States district court, Thursday last, for bringing Chinese passengers in excess of the number allowed by law.

"An Odd Street Scene."

He was seen in front of the office rubbing himself against the telegraph post like a flea-bitten dog. "What is wrong?" we ventured to ask. "Gotem, 'gent," he said laconically; have 'em every spring, small lumps form about the rectum; sore to the touch; they itch like blazes; "a telegraph pole's like an oasis in the desert to me." Here then, was poor humanity suffering from a complaint which a few applications of Swayne's Ointment for itching piles, would have thoroughly eradicated.

Invalids, Epicures, and, in fact, everyone should understand the value of that delicious food source—SEA MOSS FARINE. It is produced by inventive skill from the nutritious Irish Sea Moss, and is, without exception, the best Invalids' Food and most useful basis for light wholesome food and desserts now in existence. For puddings, jellies, creams, blanc manges and other table delicacies, the Sea Moss Farine excels everything known, and in the sick room it is simply indispensable.

LOST MANHOOD RESTORED.

A victim of youthful imprudence causing Premature Decay, Nervous Debility, Lost Manhood, etc., having tried in vain every known remedy, has discovered a simple self cure, which he will send FREE to his fellow-sufferers. Address J. H. REEVES, 43 Chatham St., N. Y.

Perhaps no medicine is so universally required as a good cathartic. Swayne's Pills are prepared expressly to meet this necessity, being composed of purely vegetable ingredients, of which Podophyllin or Mandrake, Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock and other concentrated juices enter largely into their composition; the whole strength of which is extracted on an entirely new principle. They are mild in their operation, and are truly a valuable aperient and anti-bilious medicine. They stimulate the liver to healthy action, cleanse the stomach and bowels of all impurities. Curing sick and nervous headache, dyspepsia or indigestion, biliousness, fevers, drowsiness, colds, aching pains, slight chills, with flashes of heat, and female irregularities. For a bilious and costive habit, no medicine is so prompt and effectual. Mailed on receipt of price [in postage stamps,] 25 cents, or five boxes for $1. Address Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, Pa. Ask your Druggist for them.

Charles E. Brown of Salem, Mass., a painter, dropped dead in that city June 30th, while painting a sign. His father dropped dead in Peabody, Mass., twenty-five years ago, at a public dinner in honor of George Peabody.

Care-worn persons, students, weak and overworked mothers will find in Brown's Iron Bitters a complete tonic, which gives strength and tone to the whole system.

[Entered at the Post-Office at Portsmouth, N. H. as second-class matter.]

The Naval Appropriation Bill.

Mr. Robeson's naval appropriation bill, which by some kind of parliamentary twist seems to be a measure for demoralizing and re-organizing the navy, appears to meet with deserved opposition in the house. It is an open secret that a prominent contractor has in times past, when elections have been pending in close districts or when material aid would be of especial service, been ready with a generous subscription to the republican fund; and that just about this time he is quite willing that his former retained counsellors and obliged congressmen should aid him by allowing the naval fund to flow into his coffers. In other words, like the loyal Sellers, he favors the flag of the navy—"and an appropriation."

Now there are two objections to this proposition: one is, that it is not the way to create or maintain a navy; the other, that the republican party cannot be, in this mode, disposed of by Mr. Robeson, Mr. Cameron or any such men. We are incredulous as to the insinuations of the democrats, that the outline of the bill comes from a combined act of Messrs. Chandler and Cameron. We know Mr. Chandler is too much of a man to be used in this way. When he was nominated for solicitor general, the democrats, aided by republicans personally opposed to him, had much to say regarding his previous relations to the treasury, as counsel for parties having claims against the government, and now it is John Roach's intent to be served, because, forsooth, Mr. Chandler was at one time a retained counsellor-at-law for this extensive contractor. Probably Mr. Chandler served Mr. Roach well at that time, but he has been brought up in that good Christian faith which in his early years taught him that he could not serve both God and Mammon. He cannot be secretary of the navy, and fulfill the high expectations of the country as to his ability and integrity, and at the same time do anything but simple justice to Mr. Roach, and that not at the expense of the navy or the people of this country. With this plain proposition in ethics no one is more familiar than is the present secretary of the navy.

It is highly probable that most of the objectionable features in the bill will be stricken out in the senate, though the advices from Washington on the 1st inst. were to the effect that the bill was likely to pass the house on the 4th, substantially as it came from Mr. Robeson's committee. The result of this bold attempt to make such radical changes in our system of naval appropriations may be that a more careful study of the real needs of the navy will be had in the future.

A Washington despatch of July 1st says: "The naval bill, monitors and all, will probably pass the house on Tuesday, very much as it was reported. Robeson is already chuckling over his success."

"Not Guilty."

The trial of Walter Malley, James E. Malley and Blanche Douglass for the murder of Jennie E. Cramer ended in New Haven, Conn., June 30th, by the jury rendering a verdict of "not guilty," after being out less than an hour. This of course ends the case, so far as the law is concerned, and the "Malley boys" and their vile associate, the prostitute Blanche Douglass, cannot again be legally called upon to answer for their part in causing the death of the unhappy Cramer girl, no matter what further evidence may be discovered. Public opinion will remain the same as before the trial.

AROUND HOME.

Two men from Rye had their team smashed in Fenhallow street on Saturday, through excessive driving; the horse, which was unhurt, was taken to Beach-am's stable to be cared for until the nervousness of the drivers had subsided.

First Lieut. Arthur M. Watson, of the United States marine corps, formerly on duty at this station and subsequently a resident of this city, died in Charlestown, Mass., on Friday of last week. Lieut. Watson was a native of Massachusetts, entered the service March 9th, 1865, and was placed on the retired list March 29th, 1878, by reason of having heart disease. He was in the 43d year of his age.

Capt. Robert F. Bradford, U. S. N., has returned from duty at Newport, R. I., as a member of the board of inspectors of naval ships arriving from sea, etc. The sailing-ship Jamestown, which recently arrived at Newport from San Francisco, was inspected; she made the passage from San Francisco in 111 days, not sighting land after leaving California until Montauk point was raised. She will go to sea shortly, with naval apprentices on board.

A young lad, son of Mr. Abraham Kay, was accidentally wounded in the head by the discharge of a toy pistol in the hands of another boy while playing on Saturday evening.

Mr. John Lewis of Kittery, assistant keeper of Whalesback light, died on Saturday from the injuries sustained by a fall at the light-house a few weeks since.

At a meeting of Newichewannock Tribe of Red Men, held Thursday evening last, George A. Sillsbee was elected sachem, Thomas E. Call senior sagamore, E. E. McIntire junior sagamore, and J. F. Berry, Edw. S. Fay and Geo. F. Thompson trustees.

Mr. Aaron L. Rand was on Saturday reported to be dangerously ill, with but slight chance of recovery. Mr. Rand was formerly prominent in the politics of what was then ward three,—now ward four,—having long served on the school committee, as overseer of the poor, selectman, and in other positions. Of late he has taken no active part in public matter, the infirmities of age preventing.

Mr. Samuel Nason, of Sturgeon creek, Eliot, in going up the river on Saturday had his boat capsized when near Boiling rock, through the upper part of the sail getting foul over the mast-head. Climbing on the bottom of the boat he floated down with the tide until near Portsmouth bridge, when he was picked up by Mr. William Dixon. Mr. Nason was much chilled, and having had all the boating he wanted for one day, took the cars for his home.

Mr. Samuel G. Donnell, landlord of the Donnell house at Long sands, York beach, was in this city on Saturday, buying a big stock of provisions for the house. The establishment, which accommodates thirty boarders, opened on the 15th of June, and is already nearly filled. Since last season Mr. Donnell has added accommodations for six horses to his stable, and put up a bath house thirty-five feet long and fourteen feet wide, the work being done by Mr. Charles Stover of York. Boarders in much larger numbers than usual are reported as having already arrived at the various hotels and boarding houses along the York shore.

When the fire occurred in C. E. Walker & Co.'s stable last week, the horses in the building, valued at about $1000, were gotten out by John Lane and John Murphy, the latter going into the barn with a lantern as far as he could on account of the dense smoke, and Mr. Lane crawling along on the floor with a silk handkerchief over his face, to the stalls; the animals when rescued were taken to Amazen's stable on Fleet street, by George Herbert and James Buckley. One of these horses has established quite a reputation for desiring his own way about things, and for generally managing to have it, when his ideas and those of his driver conflict; but on this occasion he was as docile as a pet sheep, and minded every word that was said to him.

Mrs. W. E. Tripp of Eliot was seriously injured several weeks ago by the overturning of a carriage at Ogunquit, and has since been unable to walk. Mr. Tripp was with her at the time, but escaped with slight bruises.—Journal.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. "It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere Twenty-five cents a bottle. eod&wtjan22

Oak Hall Agency in Portsmouth.

Messrs. G. W. Simmons & Son, of Oak Hall, Boston, have established an agency for this city and vicinity for the sale of their custom and ready made men's and boys' clothing, at No. 33 Market street, Portsmouth, where anything contained at Oak Hall, Boston, can be procured, at the same prices as in Boston. Several dollars can be saved by buying your own and your children's clothing at the Oak Hall Agency, as they sell at the lowest prices in New England.

An educational association has been organized at Kittery with F. E. Rowell as president, and Mrs. M. J. West as secretary. It is in contemplation to hold a teachers' institute in that town in September, and one gentleman from each school district has been chosen to act as committee of arrangements.

THE WENTWORTH,

NEWCASTLE, N. H.

THIS HOTEL has accommodations for 450 guests, and offers more attractions for the pleasure and comfort of its patrons than any other seaside resort on the Atlantic coast. Its high situation affords beautiful views both inland and seaward; its healthful atmosphere, the easy manner by which it can be reached, its advantages for boating, fishing and bathing, excellent drives and attractive walks, all combine to make it one of the most charming places on the New England coast. The house contains every modern appliance. It has spacious and well-ventilated rooms, furnished in black walnut, with the best of beds, large parlors, halls and rooms for social enjoyment, passenger elevator operated by steam. Music Hall for dancing and theatricals.

An Orchestra of twenty members of acknowledged professional ability, under the direction of Mr. Henry L. Harlow, will furnish music for the season.

At the station in Portsmouth the coaches of the Hotel are always in waiting. Address, Portsmouth, N. H.

LIEBIG MALT EXTRACT.

RECOMMENDED BY PHYSICIANS of the highest eminence on both sides of the Atlantic, as an invaluable Tonic and Restorative in cases of General Debility, Nervous Depression, Enfeebled Constitution and Female Weakness.

NURSING MOTHERS, who suffer from poverty of milk, will find it a specific for their troubles. It stimulates the digestion, sharpens the appetite, invigorates and builds up the entire system, and secures a generous flow of milk.

WEAK AND SICKLY CHILDREN, who suffer from lassitude and weariness, the result of disease, over-study, or nervous strain, will derive substantial benefit from its use. It restores the system to its normal condition and brings back the bloom of youth.

INVALIDS AND CONVALESCENTS will find it admirably adapted for sustaining life, and restoring lost strength. When the stomach is weak and refuses other nourishment the Extract will prove an excellent substitute for food. It neither pails upon the appetite nor offends the taste.

DELICATE FEMALES, who suffer from the weaknesses of their sex, will derive lasting relief from its use. It improves the digestion, purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, and revives the spirits.

WEAK AND DELICATE PERSONS GENERALLY, who require some artificial restorative—and especially those who are inclined to Consumption—will find this preparation exactly suited to their needs. It is a specific for the Coughs and Nervous Affections usually incident to a low state of the system.

AS A FLESH RESTORER it possesses the highest value. The whole tendency of its action is to stimulate the digestion of fat-producing foods, and its effect is invariably to give fullness and roundness to the female form, and robustness to the muscular frame.

THE LIEBIG MALT EXTRACT is a pure concentrated Fluid Extract of Malt, agreeable to the taste, and free from alcohol. It is readily retained on the stomach and contains none but wholesome and nourishing ingredients. The genuine preparation bears on the label a fine engraved likeness of Baron von Liebig, and a red-ink signature of his signature, as well as that of A. VOGELER & CO., BALTIMORE, MD., Sole Agents for America.

LIFE INSURANCE!

The Semi-Endowment Policy of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is believed to be the most desirable plan of insurance ever offered.

Among its advantages are: A definitely guaranteed cash value at a specified time. A paid-up policy for full value in case of discontinuance. Its period (20 years) covers the productive years of life, when insurance is mostly needed. It provides for old age. Above the age of 40 the rates are less than for life policies in other companies, while below 40 they are but little in excess of ordinary life premiums.

Parties insured in Co-operative Societies are requested to compare the net cost of these policies with that of assessment insurance.

THE WENTWORTH.

The magnificent Hotel Wentworth, which in its pleasant surroundings, its high situation, splendid views, airy rooms and varied attractions is without question the best establishment of the kind on the New England coast, has already a very large number of guests. The proprietor, not satisfied with the generous efforts previously made to render this spot noted as well for its luxurious accessories as it is for its natural attractions, has since last season done much to beautify the grounds and adorn the terraces, so that wherever the eye rests, be it on the distant view or the immediate surroundings, it sees "a thing of beauty." We have a pride in this establishment, built, furnished and maintained with such a liberal regard for comfort, taste and enjoyment. The Wentworth has already achieved the reputation of being the leading place of resort of the kind on the Atlantic coast. Its elevated location, giving such facilities for drainage, its attractive views both inland and seaward, its broad piazzas, its well ventilated rooms, every one of which affords a good view, its carefully selected band, and what is prized by so many—indeed by all—its liberally supplied table, have more than justified in past seasons the high expectations of visitors; and we have much pleasure in assuring our readers that the desire to extend to every guest not only a hearty welcome, but an agreeable entertainment during their stay at the Wentworth, will be unabated during the present season. No pains or expense have been spared to maintain and increase the high repute of the Wentworth, and we are glad to know that the efforts to render the place so creditable to our neighborhood are appreciated by the large number of persons who are to visit it this summer. Our pride in this elegant place of resort is only equalled by our gratification at its assured success and constantly increasing patronage.

BURGLARS IN GREENLAND.

Burglars are reported as having been at work in Greenland last week, though with slight success. The barn of Mr. Iris Bodge was entered on Wednesday night, and the intruders burned a card or two of matches in their search for something valuable to steal, which however they did not find, as might have been expected; they also attempted to enter his house, but were scared away by the barking of a dog. On Thursday night a man of short stature and with his face masked broke into the house of Elias P. Wentworth, town collector of taxes, effecting an entrance through the cellar; Mrs. Wentworth was awakened, and the fellow fled without securing any plunder, so far as has been reported. On the same night an abortive attempt was made to enter the former homestead of Capt. McLaurin Pickering. Some of the people of the town believe these depredations to be the work of tramps, while others think the would-be thief or thieves belong close at hand.

EASTERN RAILROAD NOTES.

The Boston Journal one day last week said: "We know from good authority that the Boston & Maine has made no offer to lease the Eastern, and what is more, we have little faith that any offer will be hereafter made, acceptable to the stockholders of both roads." The stories about the proposed leasing of the Eastern to the Boston & Maine were probably stock-jobbing canards.

John Brown of East Salisbury, Mass., about twenty-five years of age and employed as freight brakeman on the Eastern railroad, was engaged in setting up his brakes on the night of the 29th ult., near Salem, when the brake broke, throwing him off the car, which passed over a portion of his foot, injuring it so badly that the great toe had to be amputated. He was also badly bruised about the neck.

The passenger trains on the Eastern railroad, Saturday, were very fully laden; the 8:30 A. M. train from Boston had eleven cars.

A serious accident occurred at the Eastern railroad station in Newburyport on Friday forenoon of last week, the particulars of which are as follows: Train No. 44, from Portland for Boston, was stopping in the station, and the fireman, Frank B. Knight of Portland, prepared to fill the water tank of the locomotive, as usual. He swung around the gooseneck of the standpipe and opened the gate, but no water flowed, it having been cut off by the workmen engaged in piping. Just at that moment the water was let on and rushed up through the open pipe with great force, breaking a portion of the end, and sending it violently into the face of Mr. Knight. A small rod penetrated and badly tore the roof of his mouth, and his upper jaw was seriously fractured by the iron. He was picked up bleeding very freely, and carried into a room in the station; and a doctor was called and made the man as comfortable as possible, and accompanied him on the train to Portland. Mr. Knight's condition is regarded as very critical. He has a wife and three children dependent on him for support, at Portland, and is about thirty-five years old.

THE VANDALIA.

The survey on the U. S. S. Vandalia ordered by the navy department, by a board consisting of Capt. A. E. K. Benham, Naval Constructors Thomas E. Webb, Philip Hichborn and Robert W. Steele, and Master Carpenter Wm. F. Noyes of this navy yard, will be completed and the report forwarded this day. Should their report be adopted and the needed work be ordered done, the Vandalia will remain here probably till Sept. 15th. Naval Constructors Webb and Hichborn leave here July 5th, to serve upon a board of survey upon the sailing ship Jamestown, she having arrived at Newport, R. I., from Sitka, Alaska, via California.

THE ISLES OF SHOALS.

The season at the Isles of Shoals promises to excel even the constant and uninterrupted success of former years. The steamer Appledore will make trips in close connection with the express trains from Boston leaving that city at 8:30 A. M. and 3:15 P. M., and on their arrival in Portsmouth leave the wharf near the foot of Deer street at 11:00 A. M. and six P. M. On Sundays, Capt. Trefethen will run the staunch steamer Mystic after the arrival of the morning train from Boston, carrying the mail and newspapers. The hotels and cottages on the islands have received at the hands of Messrs. Laighton Bros. & Co. careful preparation for the guests who expect to enjoy these quarters.

Sojourners at Rye and other neighboring resorts, as well as persons from the interior, will find the steamer Appledore, under the charge of Capt. Albert Rand, an experienced seaman and skillful pilot, ready on the arrival of trains over the Eastern and Concord railroads for the trip to the islands, and no better place for inhaling the pure ocean air can be found then a trip to those inviting resorts. The re-engagement of Mr. Geo. C. Meade, a celebrated caterer, at the Appledore, is a guaranty that the eager appetite caused by the ocean air will be fully satisfied at the table; while at the Oceanic, Mr. Rymes will be found in his attractions, in-door and out, fully up to the requirements of the situation.

Nature has done much to make this popular place of summer sojourn peculiarly enjoyable, especially for those who seek rest and comfort, with freedom from care and temptation to more than exist in a quiet, happy mode during July and August. The best evidence of this is the fact that the annual visitors, as they depart at the season's close, almost invariably make arrangements for their early return in the following season.

The sale of real estate of delinquent tax payers will take place at the city clerk's office on Thursday, the 13th inst., at eleven o'clock A. M.

Among the charters reported last week were schooners from coal depots to Portsmouth at $1.15, to Rockland and this port $1.30, to Exeter $1.35, to Vinalhaven and Dover $1.20.

Forty-two lodgers, twenty-one drunks, and thirty-nine other offenders—102 in all—is the police station record for the month of June.

The new internal revenue bill will take about $15,000 per year from the total receipts in this state, as circumstances now are; but the steady increase in the production of beer and rum will probably prevent any actual falling off in the income of the department.

Messrs. James M. Garland and C. Sulden Hodgdon on one day last week, in less than five hours working time, loaded thirteen cars with 364 bales of hay taken from Hon. F. Jones' farm on Freeman's point, and destined for the stables connected with the extensive brewery in South Boston conducted by Mr. Jones and others. This hay was a portion of the last year's crop of Mr. Jones' farm at the point, which under his management has been brought to an extraordinary condition of productiveness.

Mr. William J. Breed of North Hampton, who served in the 8th and 59th regiments of Massachusetts volunteers during the late war, has been granted an invalid pension.

Mr. Wm. P. Bennett last week cut the grass on his place on South street. This grass was very heavy, averaging four feet and ten inches in height, and was still growing; it was cut on account of its having become badly "lodged."

The Rochester Courier thus comments on the suits brought against Portsmouth and other cities by the claimants under the alleged Knibbs patent on fire engine valves: "While we are ready to admit that the inventor should have the exclusive right to his invention, yet we do claim that to make innocent parties suffer who have used the invention unwittingly, is a crime no better than stealing. If our Congress of the United States cannot, in some way, obviate this whole matter of patent swindling, then the people had better send men there who can. It is easy enough to draft a law that shall protect all parties. As it is now, shaky lawyers are about all who are benefitted."

Stones In the Kidneys

And Bladder Expelled—Long Suffering of one of Troy's Best People—A Lucky Man.

It is by no means a strange thing that Dr. Kennedy should have received the following letter. By reading it you will see in one minute why James Andrews was thankful:

TROY, N. Y., April 8th, 1880.

Dr. D. Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y.:

DEAR SIR:—Until within a recent date I had for several years suffered greatly from gravel, called by the doctors the Brick-dust Sediment. For about a year past this sediment has not passed off in the usual quantity, but has accumulated, causing me untold pain. Having heard of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" I tried it in my case, and after using about one one-half bottles, I could extract a stone from the Bladder, of an oval shape, 7-16 of an inch long, and rough on its surface. I send you the largest piece that you may see of what it is composed. Since then I have felt no pain. I now consider myself cured, and cannot express my thankfulness and gratitude for so signal a deliverance from a terrible disease. You have my consent to use this letter, should you wish to do so, for the benefit of other sufferers.

Yours truly, JAMES ANDREWS.

No. 10 Marshal St., 1da Hill.

When we consider that the medicine which did this service for Mr. Andrews costs only one dollar a bottle, it would seem that persons afflicted in like fashion can afford the expense of testing its virtues. Get it of your druggist, or address Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.

WHEAT BITTERS

THE BEST AND The Richest BLOOD, BRAIN and NERVE

-F-O-O-D-

CAREFULLY PREPARED, THOROUGHLY TESTED, ACCEPTABLE AND RELIABLE.

The Phosphates of the Wheat are its most valuable food property, and when properly prepared, the most acceptable nutriment with which to build up the system.

The Blood, Brain and Nerves are the forces which bear the strain of every day work and life, and in order to save them it is wise to BUILD FOR HEALTH.

Wheat Bitters are prepared, not by fermentation but by solution and are richest in the Phosphates, while the starch and impure matter are eliminated. These take in themselves a basis, to which is added the best and choicest medicinal qualities, necessary to make it a tonic and bitter. It is at once healthful, pleasant to the taste and must not be confounded with the thousand and one cheap alcoholic bitters which are sold as cure-alls. Mankind is doubly effective when dosed with food, so as to nourish while it corrects.

Sold by druggists, $1.00 per bottle.

Adirondack Murray's Present Life.

V. A. Fenner, writes from San Antonio, Texas, to the Lockport, N. Y., Journal, that "among the noted residents of the vicinity, Rev. W. H. H. Murray, 'Adirondack Murray,' as he is usually called, is here, a fallen giant indeed, with none so poor as to do him reverence. When he fled from Boston, his fair-haired private secretary, a young lady, followed his fortunes, and has since lived with him. Last year, her broken-hearted father came for her, and after a despairing effort to get her to return with him, which proved ineffectual, the poor old man, disgraced, broken in spirit, alone in the world, and almost penniless after his long search for her, blew out his brains at the very threshold of Murray's door. Only last Sunday—Sunday, mark you—I saw him at San Pedro Springs unloading with his own hands a wagon-load of cedar ties that he had hauled from his little place, for the street railroad company. He was without hat, vest or collar, dirty and unshorn, and it would take a keen eye, as a Boston man remarked to me, to detect in him the idolized preacher of one of the proudest pulpits in the Hub."

Mr. Albert Chase, living near the lower cemetery in Manchester, affirms that he has a new ally in ridding his potato field of the potato bug pest. His new friend is a black snake at least six feet in length, which has been repeatedly observed to go along between the rows and pluck the bugs clean from the hills. This the snake continues until his appetite is satisfied, and he does his work so thoroughly that Mr. Chase has not had to pick the bugs at all. The snake can be seen at his work every day. So says the Mirror.

A Beneficent Action.

The miserable looks and feelings of those confined at desks or work-tables, are caused by weak stomach, kidneys or bowels. Parker's Ginger Tonic without intoxicating has such a beneficent action on these organs and so cleanses the poisonous matters from the system, that rosy cheeks and good health are soon brought back again.—Express.

The Perpetuity of Fame.

As the name of the immortal Washington has been most sacredly perpetuated as that of a hero and statesman, so also has the fame of Swayne's Ointment for skin diseases, descended into perpetuity as the only reliable remedy in the market, for every character of skin disorders, and as the reward of well-deserving merit. Worth and merit go hand-in-hand. It is useless to contradict the worth of this article.

Summer Complaints

At this season, various diseases of the bowels are prevalent, and many lives are lost through lack of knowledge of a safe and sure remedy. PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is a sure cure for Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Summer Complaint, etc., and is perfectly safe.

Read the following:

BAINBRIDGE, N. Y., March 22, 1881.
PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER never fails to afford instant relief for cramp and pain in the stomach. JOSEPH BURDETT.

NICHOLVILLE, N. Y., Feb. 3, 1881.
The very best medicine I know of for dysentery, cholera morbus, and cramps in the stomach. Have used it for years, and it is sure cure every time. JULIUS W. DEE.

MORNGONA, IOWA, March 12, 1881.
I have used your PAIN KILLER in severe cases of cramp, colic and cholera morbus, and it gave almost instant relief. L. E. CALDWELL.

CARNESVILLE, GA., Feb. 28, 1881.
For twenty years I have used your PAIN KILLER in my family. I have used it many times for bowel complaints, and it always cures. Would not feel safe without a bottle in the house. J. B. IVEY.

SACO, ME., Jan. 22, 1881.
HAVE USED PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER for twelve years. It is safe, sure, and reliable. No mother should allow it to be out of the family. H. I. NAYES.

ONEIDA, N. Y., Feb. 19, 1881.
We began using it over thirty years ago, and it always gives immediate relief. Would hardly dare to go to bed without a bottle in the house. W. O. SPRING.

CONWAYBORO, S. C., Feb. 22, 1881.
Nearly every family in this section keeps a bottle in the house. DR. E. MORTON.

U. S. CONSULATE,
CREFELD, RHENISH PRUSSIA, Feb. 8, 1881.
I have known PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER almost from the day it was introduced, and after years of observation and use I regard its presence in my household as an indispensable necessity.
T. S. POTTER, U. S. Consul.

BURTON-ON-TRENT, Eng.
I had been several days suffering severely from diarrhœa, accompanied with intense pain, when I tried your PAIN KILLER, and found almost instant relief. H. J. HOOPER.

21 MONTAGUE ST., LONDON, ENG.
During a residence of twenty-three years in India, I have given it in many cases of diarrhœa, dysentery, and cholera, and never knew it to fail to give relief. R. CLARIDGE.

No family can safely be without this invaluable remedy. Its price brings it within the reach of all.

For Catarrh, Hay Fever Cold in the Head, etc., insert with little finger a particle of the Balm into the nostrils; draw strong breaths through the nose. It will be absorbed, cleansing and healing the diseased membrane.

FOR DEAFNESS, Apply a particle into the ear, rubbing in thoroughly.

Hay-FeveR

—A fair trial will convince the most skeptical—

ELYS' CREAM BALM

Effectually cleanses the nasal passages of Catarrhal virus, causing healthy secretions, allays inflammation and irritation, protects the membranal linings of the head from additional colds, completely heals the sores and restores the sense of taste and smell. Beneficial results are realized by a few applications. A thorough treatment as directed will cure Catarrh. As a household remedy for cold in the head and snuffles it is unequalled. The Balm is easy to use and agreeable. Sold by all druggists at 50 cts. On receipt of 50 cts. will mail a pack age. Send for circular with full information.

THE

New Hampshire Gazette!

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a weekly invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. The GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS never fails to cure all these diseases.

Boston, November 26, 1881.

BROWN CHEMICAL CO.

Gentlemen.—For years I have been a great sufferer from Dyspepsia, and could get no relief (having tried everything which was recommended) until, acting on the advice of a friend, who had been benefited by BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, I tried a bottle, with most surprising results. Previous to taking BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, everything I ate distressed me, and I suffered greatly from a burning sensation in the stomach, which was unbearable. Since taking BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, all my troubles are at an end. Can eat any time without any disagreeable results. I am practically another person. Mrs. W. J. FLYNN, 30 Maverick St., E. Boston.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS acts like a charm on the digestive organs, removing all dyspeptic symptoms, such as tasting the food, Belching, Heat in the Stomach, Heartburn, etc. The only Iron Preparation that will not blacken the teeth or give headache.

Sold by all Druggists.

Books, Magazines, Etc.

"American Statesmen.—John C. Calhoun: by Dr. H. Von Holst." Boston; Houghton, Mifflin & Co.

This series of lives of American Statesmen, the respective numbers of which are written by men of acknowledged ability, seems to be meeting with much favor. Mr. Calhoun, once a power in the politics of the country, has for many years been less prominently brought to the recollection of the older inhabitants or introduced to the knowledge of the younger readers of the history of the United States, than have others of the acknowledged men of ability in his time. Mr. Calhoun was so identified with the theories of government that his biography becomes to no small extent a statement of the history of the times in which he exerted a marked influence in the political growth of the country. The editor assigned the work of writing the life of Calhoun to Dr. Von Holst, because he could give a dispassionate sketch with such fairness that no bias would be found in his book. Mr. Calhoun's doctrines have of course been freely condemned, and the task of the historian seems to have been in this instance performed with an appreciative delicacy. The book is an important addition to our historical literature, and especially with others of this series, should be read by the younger portions of the community which seeks to be informed as to the men of earlier days who were prominent in shaping the destinies of this great country. Mr. Myers has it for sale.

Macmillan & Co. will publish immediately a little book entitled "Rules of Simple Hygiene, and Hints and Remedies for the Treatment of Common Accidents and Diseases," by Dr. Dawson Turner, revised and corrected by twelve eminent medical men connected with hospitals in London. It is reprinted from the eighth London edition, with additions.

The "Art Amateur" for July contains a numerous array of floral and figure designs, especially valuable to the decorative artist, besides a page of Salon pictures, and two pages of sketches by the famous French battle painter, Detaille. Articles on illuminations, Wedgwood ware and curious shoes are finely illustrated. William Astor's art gallery is described, directions for "Pastel Painting" are given, the "Perishability of Artists' Materials" is considered, and some "Vexed Questions of Furnishing" are discussed. "Conventional Treatment in Design," "Darned Work" and "Painting Sunshades" are among the other topics practically treated. "Montezuma's Note Book" overflows with spicy paragraphs on the reigning art sensations in London, and nothing is lacking to maintain the well-earned reputation of this magazine as an indispensable aid to all amateurs interested in practical art. The public are specially warned against pretended travelling agents of the Art Amateur, who have been swindling people in various parts of the country, especially the west. Subscriptions should be paid to established agents known to be personally responsible, or else sent direct to the publisher, Montague Marks, No. 723 Union square, New York.

"Brought To Bay:" by E. R. Rae. Boston; Estes & Lauriat; for sale in Portsmouth by W. G. Myers, Congress street.

This is a story portraying events on the Mississippi river before the war of 1812, in which the author introduces the account of the great earthquake on the river on in the year 1811, and other incidents of early boating life on the Father of Waters, not omitting a steamboat race and boiler bursting. The story is full of strange, startling events, strung together with less symmetry than is seen in the works of the practiced writer, but still it causes a lively interest. We have read many better stories, but at the same time there is an absence of the intensely sensational in its make-up. Its descriptive scenes are well drawn, and many of its chapters are skillfully written. It will be read during the heated term by those who read stories for no other purpose than pour passer le temps.

Mr. Robert Grant, author of "Confessions of a Frivolous Girl," and that bright brochure, "The Little Tin Gods on Wheels," has written a burlesque tragedy, "The Lambs," satirizing the Wall street speculating mania, and introducing choruses of "bulls," "bears," and "shorn lambs." It will be one of the attractions of the midsummer holiday (August) number of the "Century Magazine."

Improvement for Mind and Body.

There is more strength-restoring power in a bottle of Parker's Ginger Tonic than in a bushel of malt, or a gallon of milk. As an appetizer, blood purifier and kidney corrector, there is nothing like it, and invalids consequently find it a wonderful invigorant for mind and body.—Commercial.

Mrs. Annie M. Faulkner, of Augusta, Me., a dissolute woman twenty-eight years old, suicided by poison on Sunday.

Handsome versus Homely.

Who is that fine looking lady that we just passed, Clara? Why, that is Mrs. Snow. Well, there, what a change; when I saw her last, her skin was so sallow and muddy looking, its no wonder I didn't know her. What has produced that lovely complexion? I heard she took Sulphur Bitters, the great blood purifier, and now would not be without them.

Mrs. John Marsh, a respected lady of Rockland, Me., committed suicide Sunday morning by hanging; ill health was the cause.

Found at Last.

An agreeable dressing for the hair, that will stop its falling, has been long sought for. Parker's Hair Balsam, distinguished for its purity, fully supplies this want.

Harry G. Mead, a rope walker, who had been performing at Omaha, Neb., was precipitated to the ground Saturday night by the breaking of a rope stretched over the street, and instantly killed.

How to mitigate the toil of wash day during these hot summer months is worth knowing; we are assured that James Pyle's Pearline does it effectually, without the slightest danger to the finest fabrics.

The jury in the case of Mary Booth, (colored,) aged fourteen years, for the murder of Mrs. R. C. Gray and Travis Jones at Petersburg, Va., rendered a verdict of murder in the first degree. The accused was sentenced to be hanged on the 17th of November.

"An Odd Street Scene."

He was seen in front of the office rubbing himself against the telegraph post like a flea-bitten dog. "What is wrong?" we ventured to ask. "Gotem, 'gent," he said laconically; have 'em every spring, small lumps form about the rectum; sore to the touch; they itch like blazes; "a telegraph pole's like an oasis in the desert to me." Here then, was poor humanity suffering from a complaint which a few applications of Swayne's Ointment for itching piles, would have thoroughly eradicated.

PATENTS!

R. H. EDDY,

No. 76 State St., Opposite Kilby, Boston,

SECURES PATENTS in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington. No agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents.

Testimonials.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"Inventors cannot employ a person more trustworthy or more capable of securing for them as early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, October 19, 1876.

R. H. EDDY, Esq.,—Dear Sir: You procured for me, in 1840, my first patent. Since then you have acted for and advised me in hundreds of cases, and procured many patents, reissues and extensions. I have, occasionally, employed the best agencies in New York, Philadelphia and Washington, but I still give you almost the whole of my business, in your line, and advise others to employ you. Yours truly, GEORGE DRAPER.

STARTLING DISCOVERY!

LOST MANHOOD RESTORED.

A victim of youthful imprudence causing Premature Decay, Nervous Debility, Lost Manhood, etc., having tried in vain every known remedy, has discovered a simple self cure, which he will send FREE to his fellow-sufferers, address J. H. REEVES, 43 Chatham St., N. Y.

Perhaps no medicine is so universally required as a good cathartic. Swayne's Pills are prepared expressly to meet this necessity, being composed of purely vegetable ingredients, of which Podophyllin or Mandrake, Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock and other concentrated juices enter largely into their composition; the whole strength of which is extracted on an entirely new principle. They are mild in their operation, and are truly a valuable aperient and anti-bilious medicine. They stimulate the liver to healthy action, cleanse the stomach and bowels of all impurities. Curing sick and nervous headache, dyspepsia or indigestion, biliousness, fevers, drowsiness, colds, aching pains, slight chills, with flashes of heat, and female irregularities. For a bilious and costive habit, no medicine is so prompt and effectual. Mailed on receipt of price [in postage stamps,] 25 cents, or five boxes for $1. Address Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, Pa. Ask your Druggist for them.

Col. Charles G. Greene, formerly of the Boston Post, celebrated his 78th birthday anniversary on the 1st inst.

Care-worn persons, students, weak and overworked mothers will find in Brown's Iron Bitters a complete tonic, which gives strength and tone to the whole system.

Portsmouth Chronicle.

TUESDAY, JULY 4, 1882.

[Entered at the Post-Office at Portsmouth, N. H. as second-class matter.]

"The Day We Celebrate."

Mr. Webster, in his oration at Fryeburg eighty years ago to-day, in referring to the festivals established by the world says: "Such a festival as the fourth of July in America is not found in history,—a festival designed for solemn reflection on the great events that have happened to us; a festival in which freedom receives a nation's homage, and Heaven is greeted with incense from ten thousand hearts."

Such was the somewhat solemn suggestion of the orators for the first half of the century after the declaration of independence was promulgated. Of late years, however, we have been content to believe that we lived in a great country, could whip the rest of mankind, if it became necessary, and all we had to do was to expand. Still the blessings of independence are none the less to be appreciated to-day, than on the anniversaries when in our processions the revolutionary soldiers who helped achieve our victories, rode through our streets in cocked hats and drank lemonade at our celebrations. Amid all the preliminary racket of the small boys, who delight in telling by their reports that "here we are again," 'mid all the clanging of bells, firing of cannon, discord of brass bands and reports of infant fire works, we ought to take time to reflect upon why we evince our national joy, and the significance of the anniversary we delight to welcome.

With Mr. Webster the importance of our constitutional rights and the boon of a self-created government were always cherished to the fullest extent, and he was constantly warning his fellow citizens to carefully guard and protect these privileges. We have less of these reminders on this anniversary than was the custom years ago, as Memorial day has come to be the occasion when these words of caution are uttered from the lips of orators. But amid all our rejoicings and festivities let us not lose sight of the fact that "we live under the only government that ever existed which was framed by the unrestrained and deliberate consultation of the people," and that such a government can be preserved only by a constant preservation of its purity and integrity,—a duty in regard to which every person in the land, great or small, rich or poor, prominent or humble, has a share to perform.

Official List of Patents

Granted to citizens of New Hampshire, for the week ending June 27th:

[Compiled weekly expressly for this paper.]

George A. Parker, Marlborough; hammock and tent frame. No. 260,230; application filed April 11th, 1882.

Nathen P. Stevens, assignor to himself and L. D. Brown of Concord; machinery for manufacturing barrel-hoops (no model.) No. 260,234; application filed April 17th, 1882.

Cheap Honors.

The New York Tribune makes the following very sensible remarks upon the wholesale conferring of honorary degrees by our colleges:

We think it will occur to any intelligent man who has read the list of persons upon whom honorary degrees have been conferred at the recent commencements that the tendency is to deprive such honors of all the significance they are supposed to possess by conferring them with too lavish and indiscriminate a hand. It is scarcely too much to say that the majority of those who received LL.D. or D.D. this year were only men of ordinary ability and achievement, men with scarcely more than a local reputation. Unless there is a radical reformation in this matter, unless college degrees are reserved for the recognition and reward of commanding talents exhibited in grand results, it will soon come to pass that scholarly distinction will be predicated upon the absence rather than the presence of two or more letters after a man's name.

Naval Affairs.

The Tallapoosa and Powhatan, each towing a section of the dry dock for the Pensacola navy yard, passed Charleston, S. C., June 27th.

Cadet Engineers C. G. Talcott, George R. Salisbury, and George E. Bard have been promoted to be assistant engineers in the navy.

Medical Inspector John C. Spear has been granted leave of absence until the medical board reassembles, with permission to leave the United States.

Visitors at Washington insist that the Hon. "Richelieu" Robinson looks enough like Oscar Wilde to be his grandfather. He does not, it is true, wear knee-breeches or a sunflower, but he has a big mop of grayish-yellow hair that reaches almost to his shoulders, and, when he is speaking, "tosses like the tawny lion's mane"—not the British lion's.

General Ignatieff, who has recently resigned the ministry of the interior in Russia, carried the spy system, during his administration, to a pitch previously unheard of, and opened private letters in the most shameless way. To a visitor he said, one day: "Why have you not called on me before? Your relatives have been urging you to do so, in every letter they have written you."

"The Gypsies:" by Charles G. Leland, author of "The English Gypsies and their Language," etc. Boston; Houghton, Mifflin & Co.

This book contains sketches of experiences among Gypsies of different nations, by one who can speak their language and knows their ways. An account of that peculiar race of beings, nomadic in their habits, now pitching their family tent on one spot, to roam on the morrow to a new camping site, is given with accurate clearness. Gypsies abound in this country, coming largely from England, and are said to be better off for the emigration,—that is, they do not beg, like their English brothers, but get their living by some other means. There is a list of the names of the principal Gypsy families in England, with such as have representatives in America.

The author is an enthusiast in his study of the traits, origin and characteristics of this race. He asserts that there is really no more mystery attached to the beginning of these nomads than is peculiar to many other peoples.

A statement as to their origin is made in a chapter which gives in an abridged form the substance of papers upon the origin and language of the Gypsies, read before the London Philogical society, and another read before the Oriental Congress in Florence, Italy, in 1878. The author claims that he has definitely determined the existence in India of a peculiar tribe of Gypsies, and he may be regarded as an authority upon everything known as to this interesting people, who come and go in so many quarters, meeting all races but affiliating with none.

Mr. Myers has the book for sale.

A Historic Spot.

The spot on which stands the crockery establishment of Jones, McDuffee & Stratton, corner of Federal and Franklin streets, Boston, was thirty years ago covered by the Boston—or Federal street—theatre. This great business house originated with Otis Norcross in 1810. Ex-Mayor Otis Norcross, now retired from active business, succeeded his father, and the firm represents seventy-two years of active trade. The original sign of Mr. Norcross is still in position over the door,—a faded-out relic of the past, but interesting as representing a house which in over three-score and ten years has always met its obligations one hundred cents on a dollar. The old Boston theatre is scarcely remembered, except by elderly citizens. It was built in 1794 by Thomas Bulfinch, the architect who built the State house. For many years it was the theatre of Boston, and on its stage appeared such illustrious actors as Powell, Dickson, Barrett, Cooper, John Howard Payne, Geo. Frederick Cook, J. W. Wallack, Edmund Keen, J. B. Booth, H. J. Finn, Charles Matthews, Forrest and Macready. After the opening of the Tremont theatre the old Boston gradually declined, and it was subsequently remodelled and called the "Odeon." It was used on Sundays by Rev. Mr. Rogers' society, now the Central church, and by the Boston Academy of Music. The Boston Lyceum lectures were delivered in this building. Here Rev. J. N. Maffitt, the sensational Methodist clergyman, and Edgar A. Poe, the remarkable poet, appeared on the platform. In May, 1852, the old building was destroyed, after a somewhat diversified existence of fifty-eight years.—Boston correspondence of the Bingham Journal.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. "It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There not a mother on earth who has ever used it, will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere Twenty-five cents a bottle. eod&w1jan82

—Skitville is a place somewhere on the line of the Texas & Pacific railroad. Evidently it is not a very populous town, but it has a newspaper with an editor who dares to assert the rights of his fellow-citizens. He writes: "This is the last time we shall allude to the persistent omission to stop at this town of the trains on the Texas & Pacific. The old excuse of the conductors that they wouldn't know Skitville if they were to see it, appears singularly thin, in the face of the fact that this morning we personally planted a large painted, stake beside the track, which could be readily seen by the engineer for a distance of half a mile. This evening a nail will be driven into said stake, and McClue's stable lantern hung thereon. If the night express also ignores this signal, it will be time for the American people to fully understand the malice of this infamous blow levelled at the prosperity of this growing metropolis by a bloated and cowardly monopoly."

LIFE INSURANCE!

The Semi-Endowment Policy of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is believed to be the most desirable plan of insurance ever offered.

Among its advantages are: A definitely guaranteed cash value at a specified time. A paid-up policy for full value in case of discontinuance. Its period (20 years) covers the productive years of life, when insurance is mostly needed. It provides for old age. Above the age of 40 the rates are less than for life policies in other companies, while below 40 they are but little in excess of ordinary life premiums.

Parties insured in Co-operative Societies are requested to compare the net cost of these policies with that of assessment insurance.

THE WEATHER.

U. S. SIGNAL OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, D. C.
July 2, 12:00 A. M.

Probabilities for New England:—

Partly cloudy weather, local rains, variable winds shifting to easterly, lower temperature.

The Thermometer at the CHRONICLE Office, at 4:00 o'clock this morning, indicated 60 degrees above zero.

Sky clear.

"THE GLORIOUS FOURTH."

To-day being a holiday, we shall issue no CHRONICLE to-morrow.

The programme for the day's celebration, as already published by us, will be carried out—ringing of bells, morning, noon and night; band concerts, afternoon and evening; sports on Market square in the afternoon; boat race on the south pond, at close of sports on Market square.

The annual meeting of the committee having in charge the return of Portsmouth's sons and daughters will be held in the Common Council room, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon.

A game of base ball will be played at the Plains in the afternoon, between a picked nine of this city and the Unknowns of Greenland; game will be called at two o'clock.

The Portsmouth cricket club will play a match game on their grounds near the Creek, with a Boston club.

POLICE COURT.

MONDAY, July 3; Batchelder J.

The police were kept moving about the city at a lively rate, Sunday night up to eleven o'clock, by reports of rows and rumpusses in one place and another: many of the reports turned out be little more than false alarms, and nothing very terrible was developed in any quarter, but before midnight every cell in the station house was occupied. There were some seventy or eighty seamen from the Vandalia ashore on liberty, but not one was locked up—a very creditable record for the blue-jackets. The grist as put through the mill on Monday morning was as follows:

John Bradley, a tramp, was ordered to the county house of correction at Brentwood for sixty days, and enough longer to work out $6.90 costs.

Atwood Gammon, charged with assaulting Mary Twombly, was fined $1, costs $6.90, and paid it.

Mary Twombly and Emma Hubbard, for brawl and tumult, were assessed $8.90 each, fine and costs. A complaint against Flora Gammon for brawl and tumult was nol. pros'd.

John Condon, for one drunk, was fined $20, costs being taxed at $6.90. Mr. Conlon's address for the next few months will be "Portsmouth jail." He must have had a drunk of the largest size and most elaborate description, or else the court has raised on the price tremendously.

NEWCASTLE GRAMMAR SCHOOL.

Report of the Newcastle Grammar school for the term ending June 23d, 1882:

Whole number of pupils, thirty-nine; average attendance, twenty-three.

Names of pupils not absent one-half day during the term: Alice L. Amazeen, Flora Brown, Frank A. Brown, Alvah H. Curtis, Lizzie M. Garvin, Justin F. Hanscom, Horace P. Rand, Lilian M. Urch, L. White.

Names of pupils attaining to a rank above 90: Lilian M. Urch, 99; Mabel White, 97; Nettie M. White, 96.5; Helen L. White, 93.8; Lizzie M. Garvin, 93.7; Theresa M. Rand, 90.4.

M. J. LAUGHTON, Teacher.

WESTERN WEATHER.

The many friends of Mr. Edward H. Hall, who recently left this city for the west on account of ill health, will be pleased to learn that he has entirely recovered, and is now employed in the bank of Loveland, Colorado. In writing of a hail storm which recently visited that place he says: "Sunday night there was a hail storm here in Loveland. Hail stones fell here that were two inches in diameter (not circumference) by actual and accurate measurement; some of them were about the size of common porcelain doorknobs, and similar in shape. No one was hurt. Some grain was destroyed, but not very much; people say the stones did not fall with very great velocity."

Another young man, a native of Portsmouth but now a resident of Iowa, gives his first experience of a tornado as follows: "You have probably read of the terrible storm at Grinnell, near Des Moines, where nearly a hundred people lost their lives. We had a mild edition of that sort of thing here this morning; and, as you may imagine, with the details of that affair fresh in his mind, there was at least one young man in this little colony who did not feel in a particularly joyful frame of mind during the passage of these balmy zephyrs. The equanimity with which the natives take these things is quite noticeable. One of our neighbors does a little blacksmithing; I rode over after the storm, and found the man sitting on an anvil, which was about all there was left of his stock. In reply to my inquiry as to the whereabouts of his shop, he replied: 'Started for Marcus about half past five; I'm waiting for the next storm to bring it back!'"

FUNERAL NOTICE--I. O. O. F.

Members of Osgood Lodge are requested to meet at Odd Fellows hall, Tuesday, July 4th, at 12:30 o'clock, to attend the funeral of our late Brother John K. Lewis of Kittery Point. Steamer James Sampson will leave Portsmouth at 1:15; returning, leave Kittery Point at four o'clock.

Members of sister Lodges invited to attend.

A Water street dealer in moist groceries one day last week started for Rye in a wagon, having securely lashed under the seat, as he thought, a keg of porter; When he arrived at his destination the keg was missing, and no tidings of it have since been received.

Four hundred pounds of mackerel and six hundred pounds of cod-fish, taken in the weir at little harbor, were purchased on Monday by C. Sullivan & Co. The weirs on the other side of the harbor have not done much this year.

Capt. C. C. Carpenter, U. S. N., commanding the Hartford, is at home on a brief leave of absence. Commander Wadleigh, commanding the Alliance, is on a short visit to his family on Islington street. A number of officers of the navy and marine corps attended the funeral of Lieut. Arthur S. Watson, U. S. M. C., in Charlestown, Mass., on Sunday.

Rev. B. F. McDaniel has withdrawn his resignation as pastor of the Unitarian church in Exeter.

Hon. Robert Morrison of Northwood, formerly mayor of this city and now eighty-six years of age, has gone to Chicago to visit one of his children living in that city.

Special Examiner Knight, of the internal revenue bureau, is in town looking over the figures in Collector Putney's office.

Andrew J. Bachelder, clerk of one of the hotels in Hampton, attempted to commit suicide on the 22d ult., by hanging; the proprietor of the tenement where he lived happened to find him before life was extinct, and cut him down. Remedies were applied, and after a time he become conscious. He is about forty years old, and had been recently married.

The first campers-out of the season at Rye Beach pitched their tents, two in number, on Saturday, the 1st inst., on Capt. Dow's farm near Wallis' sands. The party is composed of employes of the Portsmouth Shoe Factory.

The number of teams in from York, Kittery, Eliot, Rye, Newington and other neighboring towns on Monday was very large, and heavy purchases of supplies for the 4th were made.

Mr. Samuel Leveen of this city, son of Mr. Henry Leveen, is now manager of the Philadelphia office of Benheimer, Son & Co., of New York, dealers in silks and fine goods—a position of much responsibility and trust for so young a man to fill.

Washington Junkins, Esq., of York, a prominent citizen of the place and for many years the town treasurer, is reported as being very ill, a fatal issue being greatly feared. He is sixty-six years of age.

Two schooners from Boston last week discharged 800 cords of manure at the Burnam farm on Gerrish's island, Kittery, Capt. Philpott's gondola transferring it from the vessels to the shore. The energetic manager of the farm, Mr. Porter R. Emery, had got into the barns about fifteen tons of hay up to Saturday night of last week; the grass crop on the place this year is heavier than ever before, much of it being lodged, and the barns will be taxed to their full capacity to receive it, though a very large one has been erected since last season. The potato crop is looking finely, and the annoyance from bugs has been very small this year; the garden crop is promising well. Mr. Burnham's family arrived from Boston on Monday, and the big flag was raised on the staff on Lookout hill for the first time since last autumn.

The Black Hills Times, of Deadwood, Dakota, under date of June 18th, has the following: "Col. George F. Towle, in company with Capt. Ilsley, came up from Fort Meade yesterday, and paid his first visit to Deadwood. After seeing the sights afforded here the two gentlemen visited Lead City, and took in the big mills and mines. They made a complete inspection of the wonderful mines and mills, and were highly pleased with what they saw; the five bricks, the result of the Homestake's semi-monthly clean-up, were also shown them. Col. Towle is aide-de-camp to Maj. Gen. Terry, commander of the department of Dakota, and has just completed an inspection of Fort Meade. The colonel is an old soldier and well qualified to look into the doings of our military neighbors. The inspection was gratifying to the colonel and a credit to the commander and officers of the post, as everything was found in first-class condition, in which shape the post is always kept by the gentlemanly commandant, Maj. E. Ball."

The schooner Golden Gate, Amee master, was last week lying in the cove near Sea point, Gerrish's island, taking on board a load of hay cut last year on the Goodwin farm by E. C. Spinney, Esq., of Kittery.

Mr. Joshua L. H. Frye, of Eliot, has a cow four years old from whose milk during the last week in June eleven and one-half pounds of butter was made.

The old "garrison house" in South Berwick, occupied by Wm. Parsons, the oldest building in the town, is undergoing thorough repairs, and reminders of the Indian wars have been found in considerable numbers, consisting mostly of bullets bedded in the timbers.

Stones In the Kidneys

And Bladder Expelled--Long Suffering of one of Troy's Best People--A Lucky Man.

It is by no means a strange thing that Dr. Kennedy should have received the following letter. By reading it you will see in one minute why James Andrews was thankful:

TROY, N. Y., April 8th, 1880.

Dr. D. Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y.:

DEAR SIR:—Until within a recent date I had for several years suffered greatly from gravel, called by the doctors the Brick-dust Sediment. For about a year past this sediment has not passed off in the usual quantity, but has accumulated, causing me untold pain. Having heard of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" I tried it in my case, and after using about one one-half bottles, I voided a stone from the Bladder, of an oval shape, 7-16 of an inch long, and rough on its surface. I send you the largest piece that you may see of what it is composed. Since then I have felt no pain. I now consider myself cured, and cannot express my thankfulness and gratitude for so signal a deliverance from a terrible disease. You have my consent to use this letter, should you wish to do so, for the benefit of other sufferers.

Yours truly, JAMES ANDREWS.

No. 10 Marshal St., Ida Hill.

When we consider that the medicine which did this service for Mr. Andrews costs only one dollar a bottle, it would seem that persons afflicted in like fashion can afford the expense of testing its virtues. Get it of your druggist, or address Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.

WHEAT BITTERS

THE BEST AND The Richest BLOOD, BRAIN and NERVE

-F-O-O-D-

CAREFULLY PREPARED, THOROUGHLY TESTED, ACCEPTABLE AND RELIABLE.

The Phosphates of the Wheat are its most valuable food properties, and when properly prepared, the most acceptable nutriment with which to build up the system.

The Blood, Brain and Nerves are the tissues which bear the strain of every day work and life, and in order to save sickness it is wise to BUILD FOR HEALTH.

Wheat Bitters are prepared, not by fermentation but by solution and are richest in the Phosphates, while the starch and impure matter are eliminated. These cake in themselves a basis, to which is added the best and choicest medicinal qualities, necessary to make it a tonic and bitter. It is at once healthful, pleasant to the taste and must not be confounded with the thousand and one cheap alcoholic bitters which are sold as cure-alls. Medicine is doubly effective when used with food, so as to nourish while it corrects.

Sold by druggists, $1.00 per bottle.

Ex-Gov. Harriman sailed from Liverpool for home in the steamer Gallia on Saturday.

Eleven hundred and seventy-seven cases of shoes were shipped from Farmington during the week ending Thursday, June 29th.

The number of marriage licenses issued by the city clerk of Dover for the month of June was twelve. Of the contracting parties twelve were born in New Hampshire, four in Maine, three in Ireland, one each in Massachusetts, New York, Vermont, England and Scotland. The oldest male was aged thirty-four years, and the youngest twenty-one. The oldest female was aged thirty-eight, and the youngest twenty. The greatest difference in the age of any couple was eleven years. One couple were of even ages. Of the contracting parties two were widowers, and four were widows. Six brides—just one-half the total—were older than the bridegrooms.

Dr. D. W. Edgerly, of Farmington, has received a position in the interior department at Washington, and left last week to tale charge of his new duties.

The Portland Advertiser says that Dr. Small of that city "recently received a handsome silver ice pitcher, salver and goblets, from Hon. Charles B. Gafney, of Rochester, N. H., who was a lieutenant in the regiment in which Dr. Small was surgeon. Mr. Gafney was hit with a bullet in the battle at Petersburg. It did not trouble him much until a few years ago, and Nov. 13th last he came to this city, and Dr. Small removed the bullet, since which time he has been in excellent health. In grateful remembrance of Dr. Small, for his skillful operation, he sent him the beautiful gift."

The Perpetuity of Fame.

As the name of the immortal Washington has been most sacredly perpetuated as that of a hero and statesman, so also has the fame of Swayne's Ointment for skin diseases, descended into perpetuity as the only reliable remedy in the market, for every character of skin disorders, and as the reward of well-deserving merit. Worth and merit go hand-in-hand. It is useless to contradict the worth of this article.

—Mahone says the reason the boy stood on the burning deck was because it was too all-fired hot to sit down on.

Summer Complaints

At this season, various diseases of the bowels are prevalent, and many lives are lost through lack of knowledge of a safe and sure remedy. PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is a sure cure for Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Summer Complaint, etc., and is perfectly safe.

Read the following:

BAINBRIDGE, N. Y., March 22, 1881.
PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER never fails to afford instant relief for cramp and pain in the stomach.
JOSEPH HURDIT.

NICHOLVILLE, N. Y., Feb. 2, 1881.
The very best medicine I know of for dysentery, cholera morbus, and cramps in the stomach. This used it for years, and it is sure cure every time.
JUDSON W. DEE.

MONMOUTH, IOWA, March 12, 1881.
I have used your PAIN KILLER in severe cases of cramp, colic, and cholera morbus, and it gave almost instant relief.
L. E. CALDWELL.

CARNESVILLE, GA., Feb. 28, 1881.
For twenty years I have used your PAIN KILLER in my family. Have used it many times for bowel complaints, and it always cures. Would not feel safe without a bottle in the house.
J. B. IVIE.

SACO, ME., Jan. 2, 1881.
Have used PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER for twelve years. It is safe, sure, and reliable. No mother should allow it to be out of the family.
H. I. NAYES.

ONEIDA, N. Y., Feb. 12, 1881.
We began using it over thirty years ago, and it always gives immediate relief. Would hardly dare to go to bed without a bottle in the house.
W. O. SPERRY.

CONWAYBORO, S. C., Feb. 22, 1881.
Nearly every family in this section keeps a bottle in the house.
DR. E. MORTON.

U. S. CONSULATE.
CREFELD, RHENISH PRUSSIA, Feb. 8, 1881.
I have known PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER almost from the day it was introduced, and after years of observation and use I regard its presence in my household as an indispensable necessity.
I. S. POTTER, U. S. Consul.

BURTON-ON-TRENT, ENG.
I had been several days suffering severely from diarrhœa, accompanied with intense pain, when I tried your PAIN KILLER, and found almost instant relief.
H. J. MOORE.

21 MONTAGUE ST., LONDON, ENG.
During a residence of twenty-three years in India, I have given it in many cases of diarrhœa, dysentery, and cholera, and never knew it to fail to give relief.
R. CLARIDGE.

No family can safely be without this invaluable remedy. Its price brings it within the reach of all.

THE

New Hampshire Gazette!

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a weekly invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

no longer from Dyspepsia, Indigestion, want of Appetite, loss of Strength lack of Energy, Malaria, Intermittent Fevers, &c. BROWN'S IRON BITTERS never fails to cure all these diseases.

Boston, November 26, 1881.
BROWN CHEMICAL CO.
Gentlemen:—For years I have been a great sufferer from Dyspepsia, and could get no relief (having tried everything which was recommended) until, acting on the advice of a friend, who had been benefitted by BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, I tried a bottle, with most surprising results. Previous to taking BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, everything I ate distressed me, and I suffered greatly from a burning sensation in the stomach, which was unbearable. Since taking BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, all my troubles are at an end. Can cat any time without any disagreeable results. I am practically another person. MRS. W. J. FLYNN, 30 Maverick St., E. Boston.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS acts like a charm on the digestive organs, removing all dyspeptic symptoms, such as tasting the food, Belching, Heat in the Stomach, Heartburn, etc. The only Iron Preparation that will not blacken the teeth or give headache.

Soap and Holiness.

The announcement that Elder Scraggs would speak in the twentieth ward meeting house on "Home Industries and Divine Inspiration" drew a large audience. Scraggs having recently purchased an interest in a soap factory, it was predicted by his acquaintances that his discourse would lean a trifle toward his business. He spoke as follows, from the text, "Cleanliness is next to Godliness:" "My brethren, nothing which God has put into the mouth of the inspired writer was ever said amiss. The idea comes with almost miraculous adaptability to the present stirring epoch; when there are so many that doubt the inspiration of the word and don't use soap; now, we should all take the truths of Scripture home to our hearts and use none but soap made here in Salt Lake. There are other soap factories here in Salt Lake, but none that do as mine can. I succeed in the soap business because I believe the revelation of the divine word. My receipt was a revelation direct from heaven. We read in the good book of the angels clad in raiment of shining white, and I have no doubt in my mind that the same sort of soap is used in heaven as I am now retailing at ten cents a bar, although I have a cheaper grade for the country trade. Every man's soul is like an old dirty towel which has been used for two weeks. It needs the cleansing process to make it white. We must be cleansed in the work of repentance and faith, and put right through the wringer of affliction, which, by the way, reminds me that Brother Boggs is now selling the Excelsior Market, better a good deal than Smith's old rickety machines, who is now an apostate from the true faith, and the spirit of the Lord abideth not in him. Unless you patronize the men who are in the faith the doors of salvation open not unto you, and your souls will roast in the everlasting damnation of hell. My soap is now being made plain and scented, and put up in convenient packages. We will now sing the 484th hymn, 'The Lord will Wash Thy Guilt Away,' with the choir standing."—Salt Lake Tribune.

—Says the New Haven Register: "A Cleveland young lady carried a fish pole on her shoulder through the streets on Sunday. Here the item stops without telling us how many fish she caught." That's not the question. The question is; How many eyes did she poke out when she turned to look after the woman she had just passed.

Lamb Broth.

Take six shanks, well broken, and put them in three pints or more (according to their size) of cold water. Add a few cloves and a little of the green of an onion top or a young onion, and a little rice. When sufficiently cooked, boil in it one dessert spoonful of Sea Moss Farine and a piece of butter.

—"I don't care so much about the loss of my thumb, as a thumb," said the grocer, whose horse had amputated the member, "but as a source of profit I shall miss it. I've measured that thumb in the shape of beans, meal and molasses nigh on a thousand times. Well, my wife can't afford a new parlor carpet this spring."

Your vital energy is deficient; restore it by free use of Wheat Bitters.

—A Denver Chinaman who has gone into the ice-cream business recently has the following sign near the door: "You catch 'em fleezy belly two bittee all same Slam Francisco." It is more and more evident that we are ruined by Chinese cheap labor.

Containing all the essentials of a true tonic, and sure to give satisfaction, is Brown's Iron Bitters.

—"Oh! by the way dear, have you congratulated Lilly on her engagement?" asked Miss Florence of her friend. "Oh, yes, of course; I went round yesterday afternoon. I told her she couldn't have done better—and I don't think she could, the horrid, homely thing!"

Why throw away so much money trying worthless medicines, when for 35 cents a remedy can be procured that will cure Coughs, Colds, sore Lungs and Croup? Give it a trial. Adamson Balsam will do it. Trial bottle, 10 cts.

—Professor (looking at his watch): "As we have a few minutes left I should like to have some one ask a question, if so disposed." Student: "What time is it, please?"

The best preventive of fever and ague and all miasmatic diseases is Wheat Bitters. One trial will prove this. Sold by all druggists.

—It turns out that the singer engaged to take Conly's place in the Emma Abbott company has a voice like a bell, not "like a bull," as nearly all the papers have printed it. The fact that he is a basso probably accounts for the blunder.

The celebrated carsman of Kingston, Canada, Mr. Ed. Tricket, says: "I have found St. Jacobs Oil a sure and certain cure for rheumatism, etc."—New York Clipper.

—A wise remark by Josh Billings: "A reputashun once broken may possibly be repaired, but the world will alus keep their eyes on the spot where the krack was."

Hay Fever.

Mr. A. L. AVERY, Pharmacist, Newark, N. J.—Having been severely afflicted for eleven years with hay fever, after trying almost everything without avail, I gave up all hopes of being cured, when I purchased of you a box of Ely's Cream Balm. To my surprise, after a few applications, I was entirely relieved. R.

WATSON HARRIS, Letter Carrier No. 14, New P. O., Newark, N. J.

I have been a hay fever sufferer for three years, and have often heard Ely's Cream Balm spoken of in the highest terms, but did not take much stock in it because of the many quack medicines. A friend persuaded me to try the Balm, and with the most wonderful success. This recommendation you can use for the benefit of hay fever sufferers. T. S. GEER, Syracuse, N. Y. Price fifty cents.

Apply into nostrils with little finger.

—Little Caddie, four years old, was accused by her mother of having lost her memory, and the child looked bewildered for a moment, and then light seemed to dawn upon her, for she exclaimed: "I dess I known what memory is. It's the ting I fordet wiv."

How to mitigate the toil of wash day during these hot summer months is worth knowing; we are assured that James Pyle's Pearline does it effectually, without the slightest danger to the finest fabrics.

—Mrs. Mary A. Livermore said in a recent lecture, that "a prominent cause of the degeneracy of women is the compressing of their chests by the use of corsets. They are not necessary to a good figure. What artist would choose a corseted woman for a model?"

"An Odd Street Scene."

He was seen in front of the office rubbing himself against the telegraph post like a flea-bitten dog. "What is wrong?" we ventured to ask. "Gotem, 'gent," he said laconically; have 'em every spring, small lumps form about the rectum; sore to the touch; they itch like blazes; "a telegraph pole's like an oasis in the desert to me." Here then, was poor humanity suffering from a complaint which a few applications of Swayne's Ointment for itching piles, would have thoroughly eradicated.

Testimonials.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"Inventors cannot employ a person more trustworthy or more capable of securing for them at early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, October 16, 1870.

R. H. EDDY, Esq.,—Dear Sir: You procured for me, in 1840, my first patent. Since then you have acted for and advised me in hundreds of cases, and procured many patents, reissues and extensions. I have, occasionally, employed the best agencies in New York, Philadelphia and Washington, but I still give you almost the whole of my business, in your line, and advise others to employ you. Yours truly, GEORGE DRAPER.

STARTLING DISCOVERY!

LOST MANHOOD RESTORED.

A victim of youthful imprudence causing Premature Decay, Nervous Debility, Lost Manhood, etc., having tried in vain every known remedy, has discovered a simple self cure, which he will send FREE to his fellow-sufferers. Address J. H. REEVES, 43 Chatham St., N. Y.

Perhaps no medicine is so universally required as a good cathartic. Swayne's Pills are prepared expressly to meet this necessity, being composed of purely vegetable ingredients, of which Podophyllin or Mandrake, Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock and other concentrated juices enter largely into their composition; the whole strength of which is extracted on an entirely new principle. They are mild in their operation, and are truly a valuable aperient and anti-bilious medicine. They stimulate the liver to healthy action, cleanse the stomach and bowels of all impurities. Curing sick and nervous headache, dyspepsia or indigestion, biliousness, fevers, drowsiness, colds, aching pains, slight chills, with flashes of heat, and female irregularities. For a bilious and costive habit, no medicine is so prompt and effectual. Mailed on receipt of price [in postage stamps,] 25 cents, or five boxes for $1. Address Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, Pa. Ask your Druggist for them.

S. M. B. A. PICNIC.

The picnic of the St. Mary's Benevolent association of this city at Pinkham's grove, Dover point, on the 4th inst., was attended by over 2000 persons, mostly from Portsmouth and Dover, though there were present parties of excursionists from Newington, Durham, Madbury and Great Falls, Eliot and South Berwick, Me., and other towns. There were various athletic contests, with prizes for the winners, good music, dancing throughout the day, and other amusements; good order was observed, nothing occurred to mar the pleasure of the occasion, and all the participants appeared to enjoy themselves. Among the sports were a five-mile go-as-you-please race, with prizes of $13, $7 and $5, and a hurdle race with prizes of $5, $3 and $2; the winners of the five-mile race were John Lynch of this city, and James Dobbin and Robert Mackey of Dover, in the order named; of the hurdle race, G. Warren of Dover, and T. Hennessey and J. Lynch of this city.

BOARD OF INSTRUCTION.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Instruction was held Wednesday evening, July 5th; present Mayor Sise, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Knight, Messrs. Vaughan, Goodrich, May, Knight, George, Newton and Pender.

Voted that the sum of fifteen dollars per annum be established by this committee as a tuition fee to be paid by non-residents (with the exception of the schools known as suburban schools, where the tuition for non-residents shall be ten dollars per annum per scholar,) said tuition fee to be paid in advance, and that all previous votes on this subject the rescinded.

The grammar grade committee were granted further time in which to make their report of teachers recommended for re-election.

The intermediate grade committee recommended for re-election the following named teachers: Sophila J. Foye, Emma E. Young, Josie F. Prescott, Nellie C. Moore, Sarah A. Whittem, Mary F. Garrett, Mary E. Prescott, Ida L. Marston and Annie E. Smart, and all were re-elected.

The primary grade committee recommended teachers for re-election as follows: Annie S. Hanscom, Nellie E. Rand, Flora A. Ham, Lucy H. Rand, Jeannette E. Hoyt, Dolly O. Rowe, Lizzie M. Flagg, Nellie G. Ham, Matilda F. Rothwell and Ida E. Shackley, and they were re-elected.

The suburban grade committee recommended the re-election of Emil C. Pfeiffer and Alice J. Newton; also the election of Miss Ellen A. Newton, for some time past substitute teacher of the Lafayette school, as regular teacher. Both recommendations were adopted.

On the recommendation of the primary grade committee, Miss Nellie Taylor, who has taught the Cabot street school for five months as substitute, was elected teacher of the school. [This leaves one vacancy in the list of primary grade teachers, now filled by a substitute.]

It was voted that the services of the writing master be dispensed with.

Adjourned.

INTERNAL REVENUE RECEIPTS.

The total receipts of the United States internal revenue bureau, district of New Hampshire, for the year ending June 30th, 1882, were $349,942, an increase of $40,241.04 over the total for the previous year. The receipts during the month of June, 1882, were $29,846.84, against $27,578.71 for the corresponding month in the previous year.

AROUND HOME.

The steamer Mystic on the 3d inst. transferred across the river between this city and Kittery 593 paying passengers, exclusive of the "regulars" who pay by the week; she was also largely patronized on the 4th, though the number of passengers was considerably less than on the previous day.

The funeral of Mr. John K. Lewis, late assistant keeper of Whaleback light, took place at Kittery Point on the afternoon of July 4th, and was attended by Osgood Lodge of Odd Fellows, of this city, of which deceased was a member.

The steamer Appledore did not come in from the Shoals on Wednesday evening of this week. There was a large fleet of coasters in the lower harbor, and they reported a heavy gale and very rough sea outside.

The schooner Ella Bell, the Marblehead, Mass., pleasure boat which hit Cedar island at the Shoals on a foggy night some weeks ago, came into port on the 5th inst. with her mainmast carried away, having parted the spring stay during the blow and heavy sea of that day.

J. Albert Walker had arrive on the 4th and 5th over 3400 tons of coal, the steamer Williamsport bringing 1663 tons, the schooner Blanche Hopkins 880 tons, the schooner E. R. Emerson 534 tons, and the schooner Charlotte Buck 364 tons.

Joseph L. Beckett, a printer for fifty years, is dead, at the age of sixty-eight. He was formerly connected with the Boston Post, and published several directories; of late years he has been connected with the Exeter Gazette as travelling agent. At the time of his death he lived in South Newmarket. He was well known among the printing fraternity.

The Board of Medical Examiners in pension cases, whereof Dr. J. F. Hall is president, Dr. S. C. Whittier treasurer, and Dr. D. W. Jones secretary, met on Wednesday, the 5th inst., and examined sixteen applicants for pensions.

The displays of fireworks at the local seaside resorts on the evening of the "glorious fourth" were quite extensive, those at the hotel Wentworth, the Shoals hotels, and Pocahoatas point and the Burnham farm on Gerrish's island, being particularly fine.

Mr. James H. Twombly of Christian Shore, employed on one of the night-shifters at the Eastern railroad station, was quite badly hurt about the head on the morning of the 4th inst., through the falling of a lantern from the switch at the long turnout in the yard.

Toy-pistols were not so numerous in the hands of children in this city, on the fourth inst., as they have been for a year or two past; the prohibition of their sale, and of the sale of ammunition to be used in them, by many large cities, must have seriously affected the manufacture of the murderous things, and it is to be hoped they will soon wholly disappear. A boy has died in Portland, and a little daughter of S. M. Raymond in Nantucket, from wounds inflicted by these toys; and a girl in a Massachusetts city has lost her sight from the same cause.

Captains of coasting vessels arriving at this port on the early days of this week report the storm of Saturday, the 1st inst., as having been very severe off shore.

Small excursion parties were very numerous down river on the 4th.

The vessels in the harbor, including the U. S. S. Vandalia, lying at the navy yard, were gaily dressed with bunting on the 4th.

The recent storms have done much damage to the weirs at the entrance to this harbor.

A French girl about fourteen years old was struck by the locomotive of an express train on the Eastern railroad at Salmon Falls on the 5th inst., and instantly killed, her body being thrown high in the air, and falling into the river, whence it was soon recovered.

Fresh fish are very scarce in this market at present; nearly all that arrive are brought in by the small boats, and many of them sell a large part of their fares to the hotels, where they obtain good prices for nice fish.

Terrible Accident.

The steamer Scioto, with 500 excursionists on board, was sunk in the middle of the river near Mingo Junction, Ohio, on the night of the 4th inst., in fifteen feet of water, by collision with the tow-boat John Loomis. The Scioto went down in three minutes after being struck; the tow-boat was but little harmed, and at once set about saving the unfortunate excursionists, the bright moonlight aiding greatly in the work. The loss of life was large, but how large could not be told at first, being estimated at from twenty to seventy-five.

A Cough, Cold or Sore Throat Should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an Incurable Lung Disease or Consumption. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" do not disorder the stomach like cough syrups and balsams, but act directly on the inflamed parts, allaying irritation, give relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Cough, Catarrh, and the Throat Troubles which Singers and Public Speakers are subject to. For thirty years "Brown's Bronchial Troches" have been recommended by physicians, and have always given perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. Sold at 25 cts a box everywhere. eod&wtjan28

LAIGHTON BROTHERS & CO.

THE WENTWORTH,

NEWCASTLE, N. H.

THIS HOTEL has accommodations for 450 guests, and offers more attractions for the pleasure and comfort of its patrons than any other seaside resort on the Atlantic coast. Its high situation affords beautiful views both inland and seaward; its healthful atmosphere, the easy manner by which it can be reached, its advantages for boating, fishing and bathing, excellent drives and attractive walks, all combine to make it one of the most charming places on the New England coast. The house contains every modern appliance. It has spacious and well-ventilated rooms, furnished in black walnut, with the best of beds. Returning, leaves the islands in season to connect with the morning and evening trains on the Eastern railroad for Boston and the west. Baggage checked through from Boston and intermediate stations, and returned free.

An Orchestra of twenty members of acknowledged professional ability, under the direction of Mr. Henry C. Barlow, will furnish music for the season.

At the station in Portsmouth the coaches of the Hotel are always in waiting. Address, Portsmouth, N. H.

LIEBIG MALT EXTRACT.

RECOMMENDED BY PHYSICIANS of the highest eminence on both sides of the Atlantic, as an invaluable Food and Restorative in cases of General Debility, Nervous Depression, Enfeebled Constitution and Feeble Appetite.

NURSING MOTHERS, who suffer from poverty of milk, will find it a specific for their troubles, it stimulates the digestion, sharpens the appetite, invigorates and builds up the entire system, and carries a generous flow of milk.

WEAK AND SICKLY CHILDREN, who suffer from lassitude and weariness, the result of disease, over study, or nervous strain, will derive substantial benefit from its use. It restores the system to its normal condition and brings back the bloom of health.

INVALIDS AND CONVALESCENTS will find it admirably adapted for sustaining life, and restoring lost strength. When the stomach is weak and refuses other nourishment, the Extract will prove an excellent substitute for food. It neither pails upon the appetite nor clouds the taste.

DELICATE FEMALES, who suffer from the weaknesses of their sex, will derive lasting relief from its use. It improves the digestion, purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, and revives the spirits.

WEAK AND DELICATE PERSONS GENERALLY, who require some artificial restorative—and especially those who are predisposed to Consumption—will find this preparation exactly suited to their needs. It is a specific for the Coughs and Nervous Affections usually incident to a low state of the system.

AS A FLESH RESTORER it possesses the highest value. The whole testimony of its action is to stimulate the digestion of fat-producing foods, and its effect is invariably to give fullness of roundness to the female form, and robustness to the masculine frame.

THE LIEBIG MALT EXTRACT is a pure concentrated Fluid Extract of Malt, agreeable to the taste, and free from alcohol. It is readily retained on the stomach and contains none but wholesome and nourishing ingredients. The genuine preparation bears on the label a fac-simile signature of Baron von Liebig, and a fac-simile of his Signature, as well as that of A. VOGELER & CO., Harrisons, Me., Sole Agents for America.

LIFE INSURANCE!

The Semi-Endowment Policy of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is believed to be the most desirable plan of insurance ever offered.

Among its advantages are: A definitely guaranteed cash value at a specified time. A paid-up policy for full value in case of discontinuance. Its period (20 years) covers the productive years of life, when insurance is mostly needed. It provides for old age. Above the age of 40 the rates are less than for life policies in other companies, while below 40 they are but little in excess of ordinary life premiums.

Parties insured in Co-operative Societies are requested to compare the net cost of these policies with that of assessment insurance.

Circulars, giving full particulars, may be obtained of

DEATH OF EX-GOV. GOODWIN.

It has been known to our citizens for some time that Hon. Ichabod Goodwin, ex-governor of New Hampshire, was failing in health, and that owing to the weight of years which he had borne so well until within a brief time it was improbable that he would recover, yet this knowledge did not prevent a feeling of sorrowing surprise when it was announced on the morning of the 5th inst. that the honored and beloved old patriot had passed away on the previous night.

Ichabod Goodwin was the eldest son of Samuel Goodwin, and was born at Berwick, Maine. His great-grandfather was a distinguished officer in the old French war, and his father was a leading citizen of York county.

Mr. Goodwin's education was achieved at South Berwick academy, and after leaving that school, at the time a leading place of instruction of that vicinity, he came to Portsmouth and entered the counting room of the late Samuel Lord, who was then extensively engaged in commerce. Serving for a while as clerk he was soon after sent to sea by Mr. Lord, as supercargo of the ship Elizabeth Wilson. In those days the supercargoes were the factors for the vessel, they decided upon freights, etc., and represented the owners in all but the home port. Mr. Goodwin at sea was not idle; he studied navigation, made himself familiar with duties of a navigator, and soon took command of the ship; and although he often said of himself that he was a "cabin window sailor," he was regarded not only as a successful manager but as a superior navigator.

In 1832 he left the sea and took a counting room in Market street, and as a shipowner, commission merchant and importer for half a century was known as the soul of honor in business, and as a successful merchant and manager of ships. Of late years the decline in shipping has led him into other investments, but he still kept his counting room, and daily attended to his business there until his last sickness began.

Gov. Goodwin had a personal magnetism, a kind of popularity which while it gave him a strong hold upon the people of the state, was a quality frequently in demand by his political friends. From a very early period of our town-contests he was the most popular man to run for moderator in our old fashioned town meetings. He could be elected a selectman, when no other candidate of his party could poll sufficient votes; and as he had a firm manner and was naturally gifted with a knowledge of parliamentary tactics, he was the long-standing candidate of the whig party in Portsmouth for moderator. He often represented his town in the legislature, and served in the constitutional conventions of 1850 and 1876. His important political service was rendered to the state and country when he was governor of New Hampshire, to which office he was chosen in 1859 and re-elected the following year. It was to his patriotic zeal, and to the confidence in him of the capitalists of the state as well as her people, that New Hampshire was indebted for the prompt and successful equipment of her first soldiers for the late war. The banks of the state promptly tendered him a loan without legislative authority being had, of over half a million of dollars for this purpose, and with an unorganized militia at the outset, New Hampshire was abreast of her sister states with her quota of men for putting down the rebellion.

The various offices, positions of honor and trust, which have been ably filled by Governor Goodwin are indeed numerous. He has been for many years president of the Eastern (N. H.) and Portland, Saco & Portsmouth railroads, director of the Eastern, Grand Junction, and Portsmouth, Great Falls, & Conway railroads; president of the Portsmouth Bridge Co.; for many years a director, and for three years past the president of the First National bank; for a long series of years president of the Howard Benevolent Society, a labor of love and Christian duty he always fully performed; president of the Portsmouth Aqueduct company, Portsmouth Gas company, Piscataqua Savings bank; and for many years was president of the Portsmouth Steam Factory. Indeed, in very many of the prominent corporations in this locality for the past half century, Governor Goodwin has filled the office of president. He was a member of the Unitarian church, and a constant attendant at the stated seasons of worship. He brought from England the iron from which was made the fence which surrounds the church edifice on State street.

Notwithstanding the many public positions and posts of honor which the deceased Governor has so satisfactory filled, it is in the recollections of his private life that his memory will be dearly cherished by the citizens of our state and our neighbors of Maine. He was always honorable in his dealings as he was unselfish and patriotic in his public duties. His urbanity of manner, kindly disposition, generous traits, charitable acts, and the encouragement he so readily extended to the young, the inexperienced or the unfortunate, was the trait in his character which called forth the admiration of every one. With opinions upon political, religious and business concerns, by no means other than certain, firm and decided, he respected the views of others. While never obtruding, his sentiments, he was not backward in avowing them on suitable occasions in an appropriate manner. His life for the past half century, identified as it has been with the best interests of Portsmouth, is the best index of his character, and his departure is a loss not only personal to very many dear friends outside the immediate circle of his family, but to our whole community.

Gov. Goodwin married Sarah Parker, daughter of the late Capt. William Rice. His widow, two daughters, and his son Frank Goodwin, a well-known lawyer of Boston, survive him. He was in his 88th year.

INDEPENDENCE DAY.

There was less noise on the night before the fourth this year, than we remember ever to have known; the firing of pistols and crackers was much less than usual, and though bonfires were kindled on Market square, Christian shore and in other parts of the city, the crowds were smaller and much less demonstrative than is ordinarily the case. There was no ringing of bells by volunteers during the night, a special watchman having been stationed as a guard over each bell whose rope the enterprising small boy could by any possibility reach.

At sunrise all the bells were rung, with the exception of the ear-piercing alarm bell on the Cabot street schoolhouse, residents within ear-shot of which had previously remonstrated against its being sounded. During the forenoon the racket of guns, pistols and fireworks seemed strangely solemn and subdued, and it was actually a relief when the bells again struck up their music at twelve o'clock, and the guns at the navy yard joined in, so as to partially dispel the almost Fast-day-like stillness.

In the afternoon there were rather more signs of life on Market square, where were held the sports provided for by public subscriptions, the programme as published being as follows:

Jumping match, best two in three; 1st prize $3, 2d prize $2, 3d prize $1.

Fat men's race, (in costume, masked,) three times around; 1st prize $5, second prize $2.

Balloon ascension.

Wheelbarrow race, contestants blindfolded, best two in three; 1st prize $5, second prize $2.

Backward race, three times around, one trial; 1st prize $2, second prize $1.

Three-legged race, best two in three; 1st prize $5, 2d prize $2, 3d prize $1.

Potato feat, best two in three; 1st prize $4, 2d prize $2.

Foot race, go-as-you-please, thirty times around, one trial; 1st prize $5, 2d prize $2, 3d prize $1.

Sports to begin at two o'clock P. M., the band playing suitable music for the occasion.

The parade will be roped in, and only those persons taking part in the sports will be allowed in the enclosure.

Competent judges will be selected, and the prizes awarded and paid at the end of each race.

There will be a rowing race on the south pond, (probably at the conclusion of the sports on the Parade,) with two or more prizes for the winners.

There was a large number of spectators on the square when the sports commenced, and the number constantly increased to the close; the winners of the several events were as follows:

Walking match, 1st prize Charles E. Locke, 2d prize Ernest Swift.

Sack race, Charles Otis 1st, John Dudley 2d, Andrew Callahan 3d.

Blind men's race, Andrew Callahan 1st, George Brown 2d.

Three-legged race, Jerry Hennessey and Michael Hurley 1st, Dow and Norton 2d, William Quinn and George Brown 3d.

Potato feat, Benjamin Abbott 1st, John Dudley 2d.

Foot-race, go-as-you-please, Andrew Callanan 1st, Frank Merrill 2d, Jerry Hennessey 3d.

During the sports a hot-air balloon was sent up, and after ascending to a good height took fire and was consumed, as was arranged for. This was a very pleasing and successful feature of the diversions.

At the conclusion of the sports on Market square the spectators moved to the vicinity of the south pond, where a pair-oared boat race took place, Stover and Caswell taking first money, $5, Green and Newton taking second prize, $3, and Humphreys and Crittenden winning the third prize of $2.

For these sports the public were mainly indebted to Mr. W. I. Trafton and Asst. Marshal Gray, the former of whom started the ball and did a good deal of work to keep it rolling, while the latter attended personally to the collection of the necessary funds.

A cricket match was during the day played at the grounds of the Portsmouth club near the Creek, between the local club and the Zingari club of Boston, the home eleven winning by a score of seventy-two to fifty-six.

The Sawyer cornet band, of Sawyer's mills, Dover, furnished music for the sports in the afternoon, and in the evening gave a concert on Market square from eight o'clock until half-past nine. An hour after the close of the concert the streets were almost wholly deserted, the fire cracker and horse pistol were silent, and the fourth of July celebration was over.

The number of teams in the city from the surrounding towns was much smaller than on the previous day, when probably many of the visitors supplied themselves with all the material necessary to keep the 4th in a proper manner. There was considerable drunkenness, but no serious disturbances, and few accidents have been reported, the most serious being to a young child, who fell in such a way that a carriage wheel ran over her hand, hurting it badly.

Stones In the Kidneys

It is by no means a strange thing that Dr. Kennedy should have received the following letter. By reading it you will see in one minute why James Andrews was thankful:

TROY, N. Y., April 8th, 1880.

Dr. D. Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y.:

DEAR SIR:—Until within a recent date I had for several years suffered greatly from gravel, called by the doctors the Brick-dust Sediment. For about a year past this sediment has not passed off in the usual quantity, but has accumulated, causing me untold pain. Having heard of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" I tried it in my case and after using about one and one-half bottles, I voided a stone from the bladder, of an oval shape, 7-16 of an inch long, and rough on its surface. I send you the largest piece that you may see of what it is composed. Since then I have felt no pain. I now consider myself cured, and cannot express my thankfulness and gratitude for so signal a deliverance from a terrible disease. You have my consent to use this letter, should you wish to do so, for the benefit of other sufferers.

Yours truly, JAMES ANDREWS.

No. 10 Marshal St., Ida Hill.

When we consider that the medicine which did this relief for Mr. Andrews costs only one dollar a bottle, it would seem that persons afflicted in like fashion can afford the expense of testing its virtues. Get it of your druggist, or address Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N.Y. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.

WHEAT BITTERS.
THE BEST AND The Richest BLOOD, BRAIN and NERVE
-F-O-O-D-
CAREFULLY PREPARED, THOROUGHLY TESTED, ACCEPTABLE AND RELIABLE.
The Phosphates of the Wheat are its most valuable food property, and are, when properly prepared, the most acceptable nutriment with which to build up the system.
The Blood, Brain and Nerves are the throne which the strain of mind and body work and life, and in order to save sickness it is wise to BUILD FOR HEALTH.
Wheat Bitters are prepared, not by fermentation but by solution and are richest in the Phosphates, while the starch and impure matter are eliminated. These make in themselves a basis, to which is added the best and choicest medicinal qualities, necessary to make it tonic and bitter. It is at once healthful, pleasant to the taste and must not be confounded with the thousand and one cheap alcoholic bitters which are sold as curealls. Medicine is doubly effective when used with food, so as to nourish while it restores.
Sold by druggists, $1.00 per bottle.

News and Notes.

At Gloucester, Mass., on the 4th, two men named Cosgrove and Allen had their arms badly burned by the premature discharge of a cannon while firing a salute.

Michael Whalen, thirty-four years old and having a wife and two children, fell from a floating landing-stage at Salisbury beach, Mass., on the night of the 4th, and was drowned.

In Camden, S. C., July 4th, S. W. R. Blair, greenback candidate for governor of South Carolina in 1880, met Capt. J. L. Haile, and called him a liar. After shooting Blair three times, and killing him, Haile was let out on $5000 bail.

In Cincinnati, July 4th, Jacob Wagner shot his wife dead, and then shot himself. He was a horse trader, and an intimate friend of Henry Cole, who shot his wife and daughter, and then himself, a week previous.

Hon. Stephen Coburn, younger brother of Ex-Governor Coburn of Maine, and a prominent member of the Somerset county bar, while temporarily insane from sickness and overwork, drowned himself on the evening of the 4th. His only son, Charles, followed him, and in attempting to save his father, was also drowned. Both bodies were recovered.

The candle factory of R. G. Mitchell & Co., New York, was burned July 4th. Loss $400,000; insured about $200,000.

In Lewiston, Me., on the 4th, two boys named Knowles exploded some fireworks and powder in their mother's house, shattering the building, fatally injuring Mrs. Knowles, Joseph Knowles and another boy, and seriously burning George Knowles and Richard Laighton.

An unknown man, while walking on the Boston & Maine railroad bridge across the river at Lowell, Mass., on the 3d inst., was struck by a train and killed. His body was thrown into the air over the telegraph wires, and fell in the water, whence it was recovered. His back was broken, and other injuries inflicted.

The sardine business of Maine has come to a very sudden and unexpected stand. The fish that have in previous years been very abundant have unaccountably disappeared from the coast.

New Hampshire Items.

Catherine Hanson of Farmington is dead at the great age of 101 years, ten months and four days. She was born in Dover, but when a child moved into Farmington, which place was afterward her home until her death. The deceased retained her mental faculties in a remarkable degree until a few weeks ago. She was never married.

At Nashua, on the 4th, a boy named Henry Spear had his eyes put out by the explosion of a bottle containing fire-crackers and powder.

Dovers' horse railroad opened for business on Monday, July 3d.

Nervousness, debility, and exhausted vitality cured by using Brown's Iron Bitters.

In Gilsum, on the 4th, Henry Griffing was badly and probably fatally injured by the premature discharge of a cannon used in firing a salute, both eyes being destroyed.

Don't Die in the House.

"Rough on Rats." Clears out rats, mice, roaches, bed-bugs, flies, ants, moles, chipmunks, gophers. 15c.

That Husband of Mine

Is three times the man he was before he began using "Well's Health Renewer." $1. Druggists Depot.

The Belknap Tocsin, of Laconia, on the 1st inst. came out with a daily paper of the same name; the weekly will be continued.

Calvin Templeton, of Hanover, is in jail at Haverhill on a charge of assaulting a police officer with intent to kill him, while drunk. Templeton confesses the crime. The attack was a cowardly one, the officer being shot in the back.

The Perpetuity of Fame.

As the name of the immortal Washington has been most sacredly perpetuated as that of a hero and statesman, so also has the fame of Swayne's Ointment for skin diseases, descended into perpetuity as the only reliable remedy in the market, for every character of skin disorders, and as the reward of well-deserving merit. Worth and merit go hand-in-hand. It is useless to contradict the worth of this article.

Summer Complaints

At this season, various diseases of the bowels are prevalent, and many lives are lost through lack of knowledge of a safe and sure remedy. PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is a sure cure for Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Summer Complaint, etc., and is perfectly safe.

Read the following:

BAINBRIDGE, N. Y., March 22, 1881.
PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER never fails to afford instant relief for cramp and pain in the stomach.
JOSEPH BURDITT.

NICHOLVILLE, N. Y., Feb. 3, 1881.
The very best medicine I know of for dysentery, cholera morbus, and cramps in the stomach. Have used it for years, and it is sure cure every time.
JULIUS W. DEE.

MORINGONA, IOWA, March 15, 1881.
I have used your PAIN KILLER in severe cases of cramp, colic, and cholera morbus, and it gave almost instant relief.
L. E. CALDWELL.

CARNESVILLE, GA., Feb. 26, 1881.
For twenty years I have used your PAIN KILLER in my family. Have used it many times for bowel complaints, and it always cures. Would not feel safe without a bottle in the house.
J. B. TYE.

SACO, ME., Jan. 22, 1881.
Have used PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER for twelve years. It is safe, sure, and reliable. No mother should allow it to be out of the family.
H. I. NAYES.

ONEIDA, N. Y., Feb. 19, 1881.
We began using it over thirty years ago, and it always gives immediate relief. Would hardly dare to go to bed without a bottle in the house.
W. O. SPERRY.

CONWAYBORO, S. C., Feb. 23, 1881.
Nearly every family in this section keeps a bottle in the house.
DR. E. MORTON.

U. S. CONSULATE,
CREFELD, RHENISH PRUSSIA, Feb. 8, 1881.
I have known PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER almost from the day it was introduced, and after years of observation and use I regard its presence in my household as an indispensable necessity.
J. S. POTTER, U. S. Consul.

BURTON-ON-TRENT, ENG.
I had been several days suffering severely from diarrhœa, accompanied with intense pain, when I tried your PAIN KILLER, and found almost instant relief.
H. J. NOONE.

21 MONTAGUE ST., LONDON, ENG.
During a residence of twenty-three years in India, I have given it in many cases of diarrhœa, dysentery, and cholera, and never knew it to fail to give relief.
R. CLARKSON.

No family can safely be without this invaluable remedy. Its price brings it within the reach of all.

THE
New Hampshire Gazette!
Established 1756.
The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.
It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.
— THE —
NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE
Contains more orignal matter

TO ADVERTISERS
THE N. H. GAZETTE
Presents an excellent opportunity for a weekly invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.
